

The Orange and Blue.

BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY.

VOL. I.

LEWISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, MARCH 9, 1897.

No. 1.

THE JUNIOR BALL.

The Class of '98 of Bucknell Hold a Successful Dance.

When the class of '98, leaving behind them those mellow Sophomore days, was launched into the Junior year, by diligence in study, probably the first question that agitated the minds of the various members was the one relative to a Junior Ball. Although much opposition to the maintenance of this precedent, established by '97, was manifest, yet the dancing portion of the class undertook to meet it in every honorable way and, if possible, arrest that fallacious idea that a Junior Ball is an infringement upon the moral atmosphere which so auspiciously surrounds our own Bucknell.

It is unpleasant as well as unfitting that we recount the many remarks thrown in the way of the movement to impede its progress and arrest its culmination. For in social circles at Bucknell, the Junior Ball has proven itself to be the leading event and mark the most important epoch in the social life of every class of the institution. This fact, however, was clearly evidenced on Feb. 25, when the Armory, filled with merriment and delight, was the scene of the long-looked-for Junior Ball, arranged under the direction of Chas. W. Clement, David Hayes Elliott, Levi T. Fetzer, Simon W. Gilpin, Walter L. Hill, Andrew A. Leiser, Jr., Bruce H. Trimmer and Geo. T. Ritter.

The patronesses who were present are: Mrs. N. C. Marsh, Mrs. R. F. Halfpenny, Mrs. J. Halfpenny, Mrs. Wm. Leiser, Mrs. A. A. Leiser and Mrs. T. S. Thornton.

The side walls of the Armory were elaborately decorated with orange bunting set to a blue background, which, supporting a hundred flags, presented a most inviting appearance as the dancers, entering, gained the first view of the hall beneath the artistically constructed arch suspended over the hall-way. Numerous Japanese lanterns graced the ceiling while the orchestra was hemmed in by a hedge of spruce and evergreens. In short the decoration was a subject upon which universal comment was made by all present, soliciting many compliments as well as expressions of surprise at the ability of the committee in the art of decoration.

The ladies were attired in beautiful evening dress, indicative of no mean expenditure and taste in selection. Dancing began promptly at 8.30 p. m., and continued until the first half of the program was completed at 12.30, when refreshments, suitable for the occasion, were served under the skillful guidance and direction of Mrs. Slear. After a half hour's intermission, dancing was resumed and continued until 2 a. m., when the orchestra rendered, in waltz time, "Home Sweet Home" and all returned to their respective abodes, realizing that an enjoyable time had been experienced on the occasion of the Junior Ball. The Lettan and Chappell orchestra of Williamsport, which has grown into such favor among the society people of Lewisburg and the University, furnished the music and it is needless to comment upon the perfection of their various renderings as their merits can be attested by anyone who has ever danced to their music.

There were, in all, over 60 couples present. The following from out of town were in attendance: From Philadelphia, Messrs. Smith, Wilkinson and Robb; from Reading, Mr. Ementrom; from State College, Messrs. Hiesler, Teas and Albert; from Halle, Mr. Slifer; from Pittsburg, Miss Eggert; from Danville, Mr. Deen and Mr. Kelly; from Williamsport, Miss Houston, Messrs. Koser and Furst; from Shamokin, Miss John; from Bloomsburg, Miss Reber; from Sunbury, Messrs. Wolverton, Reed, Thatcher and Bloom, Messrs. Fegley and Wolverton; from Milton, Misses Datesman; (2) Misses McCleery; (2), John Smith, Mr. Datesman; from Watonsontown, Misses Montgomery Dunkle, Messinger, Leiser (2), Morgan, and Godchild; from Bradford, Mr. Wagner.

BUCKNELL TALENT IN DEMAND.

The One a Famous Athlete. The Other a Noted Linguist.

It is a matter of gratification to know that E. W. Cober, captain of the Bucknell foot ball team, and an all-round athlete of note, has been appointed director of athletics at Conneaut Lake Christian Culture Assembly, to be held near Meadville, this state, during the summer months. President Harris will be one of the lecturers at this gathering, and in all probability, many of the Varsity base ball players, residing in that section, will play on the Assembly's team.

Prof. Aviragnet, director of the Bucknell school of music is extending his already wide reputation, and never fails to delight his audience; as the following clipping from a circular, issued by the Pennsylvania Chautauqua, which met recently at Lebanon, says: "Dr. Ettinger, so well known to Chautauquans as the able Dean of the Faculty and popular lecturer, with Prof. Aviragnet, of Bucknell University, French, Spanish and Italian teacher, will again be present."

Preserve every issue of THE ORANGE AND BLUE.

STATE COLLEGE DEFEATED.

Our Team Adds Another Jewel to Its Crown of Achievements.

The first of a series of championship games between State College and Bucknell University resulted in the defeat of the former last Friday evening, in the Tustin gymnasium, the score being 24 to 4. The gymnasium was tastily decorated with orange and blue bunting and also with the colors of State College—blue and white. The audience was large, considering the inclement weather and also the slushy condition of the pavements and campus. The game was called at 7.55 with the following line up:

| STATE      | BUCKNELL |
|------------|----------|
| Lockwood   | Defense  |
| Pearse     | Center   |
| Clinton    | Weymouth |
| Stephenson | Attack   |
| Fulton     | Smith    |

Halves—20 minutes.

OFFICIALS.

Referee—A. R. Garner, Bucknell.
Umpire—Dr. Newton, U. P.

The game opened with lively playing and four minutes after the game had been called, Bevan made a goal, followed in rapid succession with two more goals made by Smith and Bevan. During the first half Bevan made two goals, Smith three and Weymouth two. Fulton, of State team, made one goal in the first half, thus closing with the score of 14 to 2.

In the second half the home team relaxed their efforts and consequently they made less goals, but the result was just as fatal to the State College team. When the ball was put in play at the beginning of the second half, several maneuvers were resorted to by both teams, and Fulton made one goal for his team. This was the only goal made by State College in the second half. Lockwood, of State, made a splendid defensive play and Fulton, of the same team, made a fine showing on offensive play. State's centre also did some splendid playing. One of the most pleasing features of the game took place during the second half. It was the passing of the ball given by the attacks of the Bucknell team, which lasted for five minutes. The ball was passed between Smith, Mulkie, and Weymouth. This was State's first regular game and plainly showed that they lacked team work. Our boys did splendid playing and sustained their already wide reputation. The next game between the two forces will take place on the 20th of this month.

PI BETA PHI RECEPTION.

A Pan Hellenic Reception at the Home of Dr. William Leiser.

Pennsylvania Beta chapter of the Pi Beta Phi fraternity entertained the members of different secret organizations of Bucknell, at the cosy home of Dr. William Leiser, on last Friday evening.

Mrs. Leiser received, assisted by Mrs. Lincoln Hully and Miss Allen. The drawing rooms were tastefully decorated with the emblems of the fraternities, while the colors of Pi Beta Phi, blue and wine, were conspicuous everywhere.

The fraternities having representation during the evening were, Phi Kappa Psi, Sigma Chi, Phi Gamma Delta, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, and Kappa Sigma. The men who represented State College in the basket ball game, early in the evening, were also entertained. The refreshments were exceptionally elaborate and well prepared. During the evening selections were rendered by the musical organizations of the different fraternities interspersed with the fraternity yells, which added greatly to the enjoyment of the evening.

Too much credit cannot be given to the ladies of Pi Beta Phi for the manner in which they entertained the Greek letter boys. At twelve o'clock the guests took their departure, having many kindly remembrances of an enjoyable evening passed at a Pan Hellenic reception.

Judge McClure's Lecture.

Last Friday afternoon Judge McClure delivered a lecture, in Buckell hall, before the students, his theme being "Contracts." There was no display of forensic oratory, but a clear, logical presentation of facts, of which style he is master. In enumerating and defining the various kinds of contracts, he quoted Blackstone, Chief Justice Marshall and other authorities on jurisprudence. All the students attended the lecture and were unanimous in claiming that they were profited by it.

A New Study at Bucknell.

Dr. Groff has concluded to offer a new course in Materia Medica next term. The course will be open to Seniors and graduates only. Several students have already manifested a desire to pursue this study, which will undoubtedly prove a valuable addition to the curriculum.

In all probability a larger number of students will remain here during the coming vacation than in previous years.

THE ORANGE AND BLUE

LEWISBURG, PENNA.

PUBLISHED ONCE A WEEK DURING THE COLLEGE YEAR BY STUDENTS OF BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY.

Entered at Post Office at Lewisburg as second-class mail matter.

Printed by the Journal, Lewisburg, Pa.

TUESDAY, MARCH 9, 1897.

Hardly anything could give us more pleasure than the opportunity to print in the first issue of THE ORANGE AND BLUE an account of the first attempt at amicableness between the underclasses. The Sophomores and Freshmen have for two or three years exercised a certain amount of restraint, but the class of '99 has at last made a positive step toward the abolishing of the barbarous custom of "scrapping." The reception tendered by the Sophomores to the Freshmen is an innovation that succeeding classes will do well to adopt as a custom. The only mistake is that the reception was not given at the beginning of last term before any friction manifested itself. To do the right thing at the right time is an ideal, and the Sophomores should be commended for doing the right thing even at a late date. May the Freshmen of this year profit by the example, and improve upon it by extending the courtesy to next year's incoming class at the first opportunity.

Making attendance at the Gymnasium count as an honor is dishonoring the honor. Honor-work is given and acquires its name because some students are capable of taking more than the prescribed course. Neither superior ability nor industry is required by mere bodily presence in the Gymnasium. This fact being understood, attendance at drill for one term is to count as one-half of an honor. Half an honor! What a cheap inducement to take care of our bodies! If the Faculty wants to better our physical condition let a certain amount of muscular or gymnastic improvement count as an honor, and a full honor, too. It takes time, industry and perseverance to develop muscle or to acquire gymnastic proficiency. The man who exercises his body that his brains may have a better setting deserves to have his efforts recognized; but the fellow who goes to the Gymnasium and slothfully goes through the required motions merely that at the end of the term he may be credited with an honor, is defeating the purpose of the Faculty's action and robbing the honor of its name and significance.

It may not be too early to express a wish concerning the next Commencement News. One of our fond hopes is that the Spectator will depart from his old habit of buffoonery and abuse, and for once give us serious, manly criticism on our college life. When a professor gives a large part of his leisure time to the encouragement and improvement of an athletic team an attempt to ridicule his zeal is not only ungrateful, but contemptible. We believe that the name and person of a professor should be held in high respect, free from insult or indignity, so long as the man deports himself in a manner fitting his position. If the Spectator has any fault to find with a professor, let him make his charge and substantiate it. Enough of this petty attempt at smartness! Away with horse-play and insolence! Let the Spectator be too honorable to fling darts of spite from his ambush of incognito; let him be too benevolent to fall into unkind jests. Let him be a genial, good-natured personage whose yearly visit shall add to our June sunshine. Let him be a man, a gentleman, worthy of Bucknell.

One of the many objects of THE ORANGE AND BLUE is to bring the immediate alumni into a closer connection with the present students of the University. While this object will never be entirely accomplished, yet in a few particular cases, we believe that it can. One of the methods we intend to employ, is to have a letter from each of the many schools in which Bucknell graduates are playing an active part. We are favored this week with a letter from the Bucknell boys in Crozer

Dr. Hulley's Lecture.

Dr. Hulley gave his lecture, "A Recitation and Interpretation of James Whitcomb Riley," Saturday, Feb. 27, in Phillipsburg, Pa. The lecture was interspersed by the rendering of 26 of Mr. Riley's best poems. The Daily Journal says: "It was one of the most enjoyable literary feasts that our people have been permitted to enjoy for many a day." The Baltimore American speaks in very laudable terms concerning our professor in this same connection.

CLASS SCRAPS ON THE WANE.

Beating Swords into Plowshares and Spears into Pruning Hooks.

Last Monday evening the Sophomore and Freshman classes grounded their guns and sheathed their swords which resulted in the declaration of eternal peace between forces whom the traditions of the past have contrived to render implacable foes. This anomalous, although commendable novelty in the curriculum of inter-class deportment was brought about by the former class giving a reception to the Freshmen in the gymnasium on the above evening. Several hours were pleasantly spent by playing various games, after which refreshments were served. A program was rendered the fore part of the evening, consisting of addresses by Messrs. Harvey and Morris, presidents of the Sophomore and Freshman classes, respectively, in which class scraps were deprecated and a class spirit of a nobler kind urged, and, judging by the applause elicited by the speakers, they voiced the sentiments of every person present. The addresses were followed by a vocal solo by Mr. Keen, cornet solo by Mr. Weymouth and a grand march, led by Mr. Wassel, 1900, and Miss Watkins, '99, in which all participated. In the march, a Sophomore was obliged to have a Freshman lady and vice versa, but as there were not enough ladies, the deficiency was supplied by the method usually resorted to under such circumstances—a handkerchief and a stretch of the imagination. In the gathering, a Freshman lady and vice versa, but as there were not enough ladies, the deficiency was supplied by the method usually resorted to under such circumstances—a handkerchief and a stretch of the imagination. In the gathering, a Freshman lady and vice versa, but as there were not enough ladies, the deficiency was supplied by the method usually resorted to under such circumstances—a handkerchief and a stretch of the imagination.

Beautiful Photographs.

In order to introduce my work I make the following offer for one month to the pupils of the Institute and Seminary:
My $2 Cabinets Artist Finish at $1.50 per dozen.
My $3 Carbonets at $2.00 per dozen.
Having had 24 years of experience in large cities I am enabled to guarantee satisfaction in every particular. I earnestly solicit a share of your patronage.
Very Respectfully,
HUNTER, Photographer,
320 Market St., Lewisburg, Pa.

HEADACHE CURED By My Special Glasses.

Eyes Examined Free. Spectacles and Eye Glasses a Specialty.

Adjusting Eye Glasses and Spectacles a Specialty. Repairing with Neatness and Dispatch.

H. J. NOGEL & BRO., JEWELERS AND ENGRAVERS.

Private Optical Parlors.

Buy your groceries of FOLLMER, The largest line and freshest stock in the town. Students' Trade Solicited.

ATTORNEYS.

D. H. GETZ, Attorney-at-Law, Lewisburg, Pa.

ANDREW A. LEISER, Attorney-at-Law, Lewisburg, Pa.

J. C. BUCHER, Attorney-at-Law, Lewisburg, Pa.

J. THOMPSON BAKER, Attorney-at-Law, Lewisburg, Pa.

J. F. DUNCAN, Attorney-at-Law, Lewisburg, Pa.

J. W. VANVALZAH, Attorney-at-Law, Lewisburg, Pa.

WILLIAM R. FOLLMER, Attorney-at-Law, NOTARY PUBLIC, Lewisburg, Pa.

W. J. WILKINSON, Attorney-at-Law, Office in Music Hall, Lewisburg, Pa.

James F. Linn, J. Merrill Linn, Philip B. Linn, 1897. J. M. & P. B. LINN, ATTORNEYS AT LAW, Successors to J. F. & J. M. Linn. One Continuous Office. LEWISBURG, PA.

ALFRED HAYES, Attorney-at-Law, Office opposite Presbyterian Church, Lewisburg, Pa.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Short Stops and Kick Offs for Hasty Reading.

Frank J. Bevan spent Sunday with relatives in Sunbury.

The Junior debate will take place the 19th of this month.

Floyd George Ballentine has been initiated into Phi Gamma Delta.

H. B. Smith, of Middleburg, spent Wednesday evening in town with friends.

Miss Caroline Kelly spent Sunday at the home of her friend Miss Serrill, Phila.

Ralph Koons has sufficiently mastered La Grippe so as to be about with us again.

On March the 22nd the Freshmen will hold their preliminary declamation contest.

Sunday evening of last week Prof. Phillips occupied the pulpit of the Baptist church.

George Howell, Cam. Packer and Robt. McCay recently attended a dance at Sunbury.

Yesterday afternoon the basketball team had its "picture taken" at Ginter & Cook's gallery.

Calvin Hayes Elliot and Richard M. Bell, of the Academy, were recently pledged to Phi Kappa Psi.

Phi Kappa Psi has been saddened by the death of one of her most esteemed alumni, J. Merrill Linn, of this city.

Dr. Hulley has been secured by the Public Literary Committee of Williamsport, to deliver the last lecture of their course.

Robert Powell was called home suddenly by the death of his father on the 24th ult. We extend our heartfelt sympathies.

The contest in declamations of the young women of the Sophomore and Freshman classes will take place on March 13.

Miss List entertained several of the college students Saturday March 6. The boys report a very enjoyable time.

Judge Wm. M. Ashmead, of Philadelphia, will deliver the Commencement address to the College graduating class.

G. Livingston Bayard is at his home in Philadelphia contending with the "grip." We hope to have him with us again soon.

Founders Day of S. A. E. was observed by the Pa. Z. Chapter in connection with guests from St. College representing Pa. A. Z.

The College Y. M. C. A. recently elected the following officers, for the ensuing year: pres. C. W. Harvey; vice pres. J. F. Anderson; treas. E. C. Conover; rec. sec. C. E. Hankey; cor. sec., R. T. Wiltbank.

At the Senior class meeting, held on Saturday morning, the contract for the photographic work of the class was awarded to Ginter & Cook. Two members of the class, Messrs. Sianett and Gundy, were elected class directors for THE ORANGE AND BLUE.

Messrs. Allen, White and Rex, of St. College, came to Lewisburg with the Basket Ball team and spent Sunday with the S. A. E. boys.

On Wednesday evening the Freshmen class, of State College, passed through town, en route for Sunbury, where they enjoyed their class banquet.

Trail riding parties are already being discussed among the students, and ere long students will make trips to Turtle Creek in quest of the fragrant epigeae repens.

Dr. Hulley has been invited to become the guest of honor at the Alumni Association of the Lycoming County Normal School banquet, to be held March 26, in Williamsport.

Phi Kappa Psi gave a smoker on Feb. 23, in honor of Guy H. Hubbard, of New York City who is Archon of District One. Stories, toasts, and a general good time were in line.

The engagement of Mr. W. A. Wilkinson, of Philadelphia, and Miss Genevieve Morgan, of Nanticoke, both former students, has been announced and congratulations are now in order.

The fire-bell brought a score or more of the students out of the college building, Saturday evening. As usual, the fire was a small one, and they got no farther than the Post Office.

A pretty home wedding occurred at Hartleton, Thursday, Feb. 28th, at high noon, when Miss Maze A. Pellman, a graduate of Bucknell Institute, was married to Dr. Samuel P. Glover, of Altoona.

The Beta Delta Pi Sorority, which organization had its origin in Bucknell Institute in 1887, recently founded its Pa. Beta chapter at Miss Gordon's private school, No. 4112 Spruce St., Philadelphia.

Edward Shortell, formerly of South Jersey Institute, has entered Bucknell. He will be a valuable addition to the base ball team, as he was one of the best pitchers in the South Jersey base ball league.

Herbert F. Harris, B. U. '96, the energetic editor of Commencement News, dropped down from Williamsport, on Saturday, to see his old school friends. "Herb" looks bright and happy as ever. He returned to Williamsport last evening.

The Eupnea literary society on Friday, will devote the entire evening to the discussion and adoption of the new constitution. As this is a matter in which all the members should be interested, the presence of every one is desired.

F. W. Wagner, ex-'97, made a short visit to his friends in town this week on his way home from Boston. He gave a lunch and smoke to his fraternity brothers and a number of friends at the fraternity rooms on Wednesday evening which all thoroughly enjoyed.

The Freshman class challenged the Sophomores last Friday afternoon to a game of basket ball. The class of '99 accepted the challenge and the game will take place to-day at 4:50 in the Gymnasium. Admission 10 cts.

Mrs. Reese, who was recently called to Lewisburg under very sad circumstances, has performed her duty so faithfully that she was able to take her son Arthur home last week. She desires to thank the boys for their kindness and thoughtful consideration in her behalf.

On account of the basket ball game together with the "Pan-Hellenic" reception the two Literary Societies at the "Hill" dispensed with their regular programs, and heartily united their efforts for the success of the other events of the evening.

The Mirror, formerly printed by J. W. C. Shamp, has been transferred to W. L. Kurtz, editor and publisher of the Lewisburg Journal. The ORANGE AND BLUE considers this a commendable change, as the latter office has facilities and equipments of which a metropolitan daily could well feel proud.

Messrs. Barner, Flint, Thomas and Meserve were conducting revival services at the Chillisquaque mission the fore part of last week, but were obliged to postpone the series owing to the illness of several members of the quartette. The services will be resumed after the recovery of the afflicted ones in question.

The third form Academy held their preliminary oratorical contest Saturday, Feb. 27, in Bucknell Hall. The boys show ability in this line and promise to give an exciting contest at the final.

Those chosen to compete in the final were Messrs. Bell, Cunningham, Davis, Elliot, McCracken, Pitts, Sater, Steininger and Stewart. The judges were Messrs. Bell and Hanna and Mr. Collins.

Messrs. Nelson, Davis, Hill and Diggs spent last week at Washington, D. C., in order to see that McKinley would be properly inaugurated and the ceremonies correctly executed. The gentlemen speak in eloquent praise of the enjoyable time they spent at the National Capitol.

Professors in the Colls of La Grippe

Last week Prof. Perrine was confined to his home, owing to an attack of la grippe. The fore part of the week he was confined to his bed. During the illness his classes were deprived of recitations. Prof. Martin was also afflicted with the same malady, which also confined him to his home and consequently was unable to attend to his classes.

A Prominent Guest of the Alumnae.

Mrs. Horace Brock, of Lebanon, President of the Federation of Clubs of Pennsylvania, will be the guest of the Institute Alumnae Club, Tuesday evening March 9. A meeting will be held prior to the reception at which Mrs. W. C. Gretzinger will preside and Mrs. Brock will give an address.

Dr. Barber's Dentoline Cleanses the Teeth, Purifies the Breath. Sample Free. Baker's Drug Store.

DENTISTS.

DR. R. H. SPEARE, P. O. Building, Lewisburg, Pa. Office Hours: 9 a. m. to 12 m. 1:30 p. m. to 6 p. m.

W. R. ROLAND, D. D. S., Cor. Market and 3d St., Lewisburg, Pa. GAS ADMINISTERED.

J. E. K. SCHWENK, Dealer in Groceries and General Merchandise, Lewisburg, Pa. Special attention given to Student's Clubs.

GEO. STEIN & BRO., Fresh Meats, Orders Cordially Solicited. 326 Market Street - - - Lewisburg, Pa.

You can always depend upon JOHN REED to deliver trunk at the proper place at the proper time. Special attention to students.

G. D. Bertolette, REMOVED To Three Doors Below.

J. G. STROHECKER, Guarantees his milk To be pure Student's Trade Solicited.

HOWER & SON, Furniture Dealers.

W. A. LEIBY, Dealer in Fresh Meats, Groceries, LEWISBURG, PENNA. Special attention given to clubs.

H. R. MILLER, TAILOR. Fine Styles, Work Guaranteed. Prices the Lowest.

Harry Stahl Dealer in Foreign and Domestic GROCERIES

All the News all the time at the Newest News Stand In the town; also a full line of Every Day Stationery at FEGLEY'S.

THE ORANGE AND BLUE.

LEWISBURG, PENN'A.

PUBLISHED ONCE A WEEK DURING THE COLLEGE YEAR BY STUDENTS OF BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY.

Entered at Post Office at Lewisburg as second-class mail matter.

SUBSCRIPTION $1.00 PER YEAR.

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF:
Walter L. Hill.

ASSOCIATES:
M. R. Collins, W. F. Eichholtz.

BUSINESS MANAGER:
S. W. Gilpin.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS:
John V. Leisher, Pres. John M. Gundy, Vice Pres.
L. B. Shumette, Sec. L. T. Butler, Treas.

A. Kate Goldard, Geo. T. Ritter,
S. W. Gilpin, W. L. Hill,
R. B. Mulkin, O. E. Le Van,
R. H. Kress, W. S. Holland.

Printed by the Journal, Lewisburg, Pa.

TUESDAY, MARCH 16, 1897.

There has been considerable curiosity as to the management of the ORANGE AND BLUE. For this reason the names of editors and directors are printed above. The constitution governing the Board of Directors will appear in the next issue.

We should like to call attention to an item in the local column. It is a little thing on paper, but it will be a big thing on a cold night. That we are to have steam pipes in the "dormitories" is the most vital announcement of this week's ORANGE AND BLUE.

When the Mirror came out with its editorial against the publication of another paper, the ORANGE AND BLUE was already a reality. Then it was too late to turn back; now we hope to prove that Bucknell has spirit enough to support two papers. A bi-weekly is too infrequent to record all that takes place at Bucknell, too frequent to maintain a high standard of literary excellence. A pamphlet is too slow in construction to give news, too expensive to waste space on trivial or aged locals. The Mirror, cleared of the incubus of current happenings, can become a purely literary journal appearing once a month. The ORANGE AND BLUE will take up the burden which the Mirror casts off. If advisable both can be run under the same management. Our purpose is not to divide forces, it is to divide the work. Our project not an abscission, it is an extension.

Just One Day More.

Just one day more, and we shall know which bruiser strikes the harder blow. Just one day more, and we shall see the fighter's zig. O which is he?

For weeks and weeks we've read the news. And pondered o'er conflicting views; But after all can any say 'Tis Bob or Jim will win the day.

We've watched them work at Carson town. We've marked the "ifs" and "ands" all down. We've watched them eat and seen them train. Weighed stomach, liver, heart and brain.

Just one day more suspense will end. Then shout "Hurrah!" O victor's friend. And thou whose wad drops with the fray. Will happily win another day.

Just one day more, O speed the hour. When Bob and Jim display their power. O champion great, so brave and bold. Swelt up with praise and bags of gold.

Just one day more, we thank the Lord. Let papers then some space accord. To other news than this and fight. And drop these sluggers out of sight.

RELAY TEAM.

Prospects Bright if the Men Will Work.

The prospects of a good team are excellent. At a meeting for general advice and instruction on training and running there were fourteen of the best runners in this institution present. Director Coker gave those present some sound advice on training which will prove profitable only so far as it is rigidly practiced. Captain Meeker also made a few remarks, the substance of which might be expressed in the word work. Every man who makes the team must work and the work planned is no child's play. The way the men have taken hold is encouraging, most of the candidates for the team have already hardened themselves to the work, still there are some whom we would like to see in practice. Now is the time to come out, it will be too late after vacation. The captain requests every runner to meet in the Gym. at 4:15 sharp, the remainder of the term.

SCHEDULE OF COMING WEEK.

WEDNESDAY.—Championship basketball game at 4 p. m.

THURSDAY.—Joint Literary Society Social, in the Gymnasium, at 7:30 p. m.

FRIDAY.—Junior Debate, Bucknell Hall at 8 p. m.

SATURDAY.—Bucknell-State Basketball Game at State College. Gymnasium Exhibition, Tustin Gymnasium, 2:45 p. m.

EXAMINATIONS.

MONDAY.—2 P. M., classes which recite at 2 P. M., except mathematics.

TUESDAY.—8 A. M., classes which recite at 3 P. M. and 2 P. M. mathematics. 2 P. M. classes which recite at 9:15.

The merchants will do well to remember that an "ad." in THE ORANGE AND BLUE will yield a handsome compensation for the money invested. The editors are leaving no stone unturned in making this paper the pride of the University and are extending its subscription list amazingly.

Kickers Korum.

It often happens that some rash youth about the school is prompted by the rankling of fancied grievances into an insane desire to kick. For such emotions there has been no outlet heretofore; but now we intend to supply this long-felt want.

This Korum is open to all who want to kick; it will be run by a mild mannered young man who lost both nether extremities in a railroad accident and who has the seat of his trousers lined with armor plate. As he himself can do no damage and is invulnerable, do not seek him out in anger, but content your soul in solitary meditation.

The mild mannered young man has not the inspired wisdom of Ruth Ashmore, but in addition to his other work, he will undertake to answer the queries of all young men who seek information as to the eternal or social fitness of things. Communications should be addressed: ORANGE AND BLUE, Kickers Korum.

A New Course in Oratory.

During the spring term, Prof. Phillips will offer a course in Oratorical Delivery. The class work will consist of daily exercises in reading, speaking and debating. Curry's "Vocal Expressions" will be the text book used and the following reference books: "Province of Expression," and "Briefs for Debate."

New Store Just Opened.

A new and Complete Line of Up-to-date Goods. Call and see me, Market Street, between 2nd and 3d Street.

Geo. H. Fisher,
Lewisburg, Pa.

Beautiful Photographs.

In order to introduce my work I make the following offer for one month to the pupils of the Institute and Seminary.

My $2 Cabinets Artists Finish at $1.50 per dozen.

My $3 Carbonets at $2.00 per dozen.

Having had 24 years of experience in large cities I am enabled to guarantee satisfaction in every particular. I earnestly solicit a share of your patronage.

Very Respectfully,
HUNTER, Photographer,
326 Market St., Lewisburg, Pa.

R. J. Weidensaul,
Livery and Boarding Stables,
Near Baker House.

Prices to suit the times....

Central Livery and Boarding Stables,
Lewisburg, Pa. J. Horan Prop'r.

Telephone Connection.

HEADACHE CURED By My Special Glasses.

Eyes Examined Free. Spectacles and Eye Glasses a Specialty.

Adjusting Eye Glasses and Spectacles a Specialty. Repairing with Neatness and Dispatch.

H. J. NOGEL & BRO.,
JEWELERS AND ENGRAVERS.

Private Optical Parlors.

Buy your groceries of

FOLLMER,
The largest line and freshest stock in the town.

Students' Trade Solicited.

ATTORNEYS.

D. H. GETZ,
Attorney-at-Law,
Lewisburg, Pa.

Law Offices of
ANDREW ALBRIGHT LEISER,
Lewisburg, Union Co., Pa.

J. C. BUCHER,
Attorney-at-Law,
Lewisburg, Pa.

J. THOMPSON BAKER,
Attorney-at-Law,
Lewisburg, Pa.

J. F. DUNCAN,
Attorney-at-Law,
Lewisburg, Pa.

J. W. VANVALZAH,
Attorney-at-Law,
Lewisburg, Pa.

WILLIAM R. FOLLMER,
Attorney-at-Law,
NOTARY PUBLIC, Lewisburg, Pa.

W. J. WILKINSON,
Attorney-at-Law,
Office in Music Hall,
Lewisburg, Pa.

ALFRED HAYES,
Attorney-at-Law,
Office opposite Presbyterian Church,
Lewisburg, Pa.

James P. Linn, J. Merrill Linn, Philip B. Linn.

J. M. & P. B. LINN,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW.

Successors to J. P. & J. M. Linn.
One Continuous Office. LEWISBURG, PA.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Short Stops and Kick Offs for Hasty Reading.

A group picture of '98, was taken last Wednesday for L'Agenda. S. G. Williams, of Dickinson, has returned to college after an illness of a fortnight.

No one should fail to read Dr. Groff's article in the Mirror on Bucknell's Microscopist.

The father of Dr. Perry of Peddie Institute, died last week in Philadelphia.

C. S. Conrey and J. D. Evans, of the class of 1900, were recently initiated into the S. A. E. fraternity.

A number of the college boys will go down to Sunbury this evening to attend an informal dance in that city.

Prof. H. N. Conser and brother, Dr. T. C. Conser, of Sunbury, were the guests of Instructor Davis last Saturday afternoon.

Last Saturday the University plumber took the dimensions of the dormitories, for the purpose of fitting them out with steam apparatus.

Miss Aikin and J. Brown Martin of the School of Music have been chosen to be instructors during the coming season at the Pa. Chautauqua at Mt. Gretna.

Vice Pres. C. J. Clark, of Province Beta of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, acting for Pres. H. G. McAdams recently paid an official visit to the Pa. Zeta Chapter.

Ezra Allen, '96, who has been an instructor at the Perkiomen Seminary, since his graduation will be the guest of his sister, Miss Laura Allen, '99, during the coming vacation.

A little flute-fiddle-and-harp dance was held in Armory Hall last Friday night. Enthusiasm and enjoyment were at ebullient tide. At least four dances were played with no one on the floor.

Registrar Gretzinger made a several days' trip through the Western part of the State in the interest of the University. A large Freshman class next fall will, no doubt, testify to the success of his trip.

The illustrated lecture "Slums of New York and Rescue Work," given Saturday evening at the Lutheran church was found instructive by the interested students who attended.

In the last issue of the Mirror an editorial sadly lamented the lack of singing by the students of Bucknell. In the evening several score of students went to the Editor's door and tried to make up for their remissness by howling "Annie Rooney" for an hour and a half.

The annual stag dance has been postponed until the next term. The manager requests that all who expect to participate will please look up appropriate costumes during their Easter vacation and come out and help make this stag dance the best one ever held at Bucknell.

Ralph Koser, ex-1900, spent Sunday in Lewisburg.

Livingston McQuiston, '99, spent Sunday in Shamokin.

B. F. Thomas, '98, has been ill in bed since last Wednesday.

Chas. R. Kurtz, B. U. '86, visited his brother and friends over Sunday.

Miss Julia Weidensaul has returned after a sojourn of a week in Shamokin.

G. S. Tilley, '99, has been confined to his bed for the last two weeks by La Grippe.

A. K. Deibler, '99, came back to college on Tuesday, after spending several days at home in loosening the hold of La Grippe.

On Saturday evening Rush H. Kress was suddenly called to Memphis, Tenn., on account of the serious illness of his mother.

Capt. C. P. Meeker, of the relay-team has about recovered from his sprained ankle. He was out on the track yesterday afternoon.

In the March issue of the Journal of Political Economy, Mr. E. M. Hoim, B. U., '93, has a signed review of Keasbey's "Nicaragua Canal and the Monroe Doctrine."

Dr. Perrine delivered a lecture on Pope, before the literary class last Wednesday morning. The Sophomores enjoyed the lecture and punctuated the speaker's last sentence with hearty applause.

On Saturday the basket ball team will play a return game with State College. A number of students will accompany the team to familiarize State with our yah, yah, yoo of victory.

The letter from H. H. Harris, '96, posted on the bulletin board, stating that William Dean Howells will lecture in Williamsport, April 2, on "Novels and Novel Making" has given several of the students a prospective treat.

A handsome addition has just been made to the equipment of the Biological Department of the University. It consists of a high-power Bausch and Lomb microscope for use in bacteriological investigation next term, when a class of six students will take up microscopic work in this line. Bacteriology is a new course for Bucknell and was introduced through the efforts of Instructor Davis.

Basket Ball on Wednesday.

The last game of the season will be Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, in Tustin Gymnasium, between the great rivals, Juniors and Sophs. The Juniors have won every game, and the Sophs want to make their last struggle to gain a footing. Fully 300 people are expected to see this the last game of the most successful season. Come and yell for your class and friends, and wave the colors. Admission 10 cents.

Will Return to Chicago.

On the 27th of this month Miss Mary Bello Harris will return to the University of Chicago. Before reaching there she will visit friends at the University of Michigan.

DAGLISH, The Tailor.

Come and see our line of Foreign and Domestic Woolen Suits made to order from $13.00 to $40.00.

Our Men's Furnishings need no words of commendation from us. That department is replete with the latest Novelties.

We have added Ready-made Clothing to our other departments and can assure you that you will find there the most stylish and best garments in Central Pennsylvania.

Anything not proving satisfactory money refunded.

DAGLISH, The Tailor.

Dr. Barber's Dentoline
Cleanses the Teeth,
Purifies the Breath. Sample Free.
Baker's Drug Store.

DENTISTS.
DR. R. H. SPEARE,
P. O. Building, Lewisburg, Pa.
Office Hours: 8 a. m. to 12 m., 12:30 p. m. to 6 p. m.
W. R. ROLAND, D. D. S.,
Cor. Market and 3d St.,
Lewisburg, Pa.
GAS ADMINISTERED.

J. E. K. SCHWENK,
Dealer in
Groceries and
General Merchandise
Lewisburg, Pa.
Special attention given to Student's Clubs.

GEO. STEIN & BRO.,
Fresh Meats,
Orders Cordially Solicited.
226 Market Street - - - Lewisburg, Pa.

You can always depend upon
JOHN REED
to deliver your trunk at the proper place at the proper time. Special attention to students.

G. D. Bertolette,
REMOVED To Three Doors Below.

J. G. STROHECKER,
Guarantees his milk
To be pure
Student's Trade Solicited.

HOWER & SON,
Furniture
Dealers.

W. A. LEIBY,
Dealer in
Fresh Meats, Groceries.
LEWISBURG, PENNA.
Special attention given to clubs.

H. R. MILLER,
TAILOR.
Fine Styles, Work Guaranteed.
Prices the Lowest.

Harry Stahl
—Dealer In—
Foreign Domestic GROCERIES

All the News all the time
at the
Newest News Stand
In the town; also a full line of Every Day Stationery at FEGLEY'S.

HYATT'S SHOE STORE,
Wolfe Block,
For Spring Shoes.

Institute Items.

The members of the Adelphi Literary Society were among the guests at the concert on Friday evening.

A very interesting "Beethoven Evening," was given on March 12, by the members of the class in Musical History.

The annual meeting of the Alumnae of the Institute, on the evening of March 9, was greatly enjoyed by all those who were privileged to attend.

A number of the Institute girls enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Whitman on Friday evening, March 12. The favored ones look upon the event as one of the most enjoyable evenings of the term.

Mrs. DeWitt was called to Lewisburg a short time ago by the illness of her daughter. We are glad to report that Miss DeWitt is much better and yesterday afternoon was able to visit the studio. She expects to leave soon for a few weeks' rest.

Meeting of the Volunteer Band.

An exceedingly interesting Missionary Meeting was held in Bucknell Hall on Sunday, the 14th inst., under the auspices of the "Volunteer Movement." V. B. Fisk presided over the meeting, which was opened by a song service. The program was as follows: Sketch of Diaz, by Miss Chambers; Sketch of Alexander Duff, by C. W. Harvey; Sketch of Mackenzie, by Miss Rohrer; Sketch of Mackay, by V. B. Fisk. All the speakers, although not allowed time enough to dwell very long on lives so full of interest, handled their subjects in a very creditable manner. Appropriate missionary selections were sung by Emmet, Keen, Fisk and W. C. Purdy.

Lunch, Billiards,
Opera House Restaurant.

Go to WARD,
The Barber.

Finest Tonsorial Parlors in Town.

School of Music Notes.

The music at the Alumnae Club meeting, Tuesday evening, March 9, was an especial feature of the program.

The School of Music orchestra rendered a very pleasing overture. Miss Crawford sang a solo with violin obligato by Mr. Martin. This was highly appreciated by the audience.

Miss Aikin in her inimitable manner played a very beautiful piano selection.

The mandolin duet by Messrs. Bower and Martin was novel and taking in its character.

The Bucknell School of Music furnished the music for the election contest Saturday evening.

Mr. J. H. Hague sang "Adelaide," by Beethoven, with much feeling.

The other departments of the University are greatly indebted to the School of Music for their assistance on all occasions.

At the "Beethoven Evening" given by Miss Aikin's class the following took part: Misses Steiner, Pennyacker, Merriman, Potter, Burke, Bloom; Messrs. Hague, Martin and Wendel.

The annoyance of having reports and criticisms of concerts appear before the performance has been begun, has led Dr. Aviragnet to give orders that no program shall be given out except at the door.

Mirror Board Resaved.
At a business meeting of the Mirror board on Wednesday afternoon, it was decided to have one local editor, two literary and two personal editors, instead of three local editors, one literary and one personal editor as heretofore. The board contemplates paying more attention to the literary and personal departments.

A. W. STEPHENS,
Clothing to Order
or Ready-made.

Sales Agent for Wanamaker & Brown

FRESH
Whitman's Candies.

Wolfe's Drug Store, 222 and 224 Market Street.

Academy Locals.

Dr. Harris addressed the Y. M. C. A. last Thursday evening in a manner appreciated by all.

The following have been elected officers of the Y. M. C. A. for the ensuing year: President, James McCrackan; Vice President, David Pitts; Rec. Sec'y, T. A. Sherbondy; Cor. Sec'y, L. R. Rank; Treas., J. N. Evans.

M. L. Anthony has announced his intention to return to Bucknell next term.

Many of the members of Adelphi Literary Society took advantage of Miss Aikin's kind invitation to attend "An Evening with Beethoven." All express themselves highly pleased and delighted with the entertainment.

The presence of mind of Barnes and Sherbondy averted what might have terminated in a serious conflagration, for while walking out Market street, on the evening of the sixth inst., they saw a parlor hanging lamp explode; whereupon they rushed into the house and extinguished the flames.

Thomas was called home Thursday last by a telegram stating that his father had been injured while working in the coal mines, and we have learned that before Thomas reached his home his father had expired. Our profound sympathies are extended to our brother thus overwhelmed with sorrow.

We cannot help but reply to an article in a recent publication of the Mirror in the Academy Locals in reference to not knowing when to respect the rights of others. Now if the writer referred to himself, all well and good, but if not we fail to see why he dared to rebuke others for doing exactly what he had done. We herein refer to Jack.

The '97 Shoes
are in
at Marsh's.

J. W. BICKLE,
THE BARBER,
Third St., Lewisburg, Pa.

Students' Work a Specialty.

Ginter & Cook,
The Face Takers

Have been selected

Official Photographers

For Class of '97

418 Market Street. CALL OFTEN.

For an EASY SHAVE go to
MILLER, The Barber.
North 2d St., Lewisburg, Pa.

P. W. Himmelreich,
Dealer in
DRY GOODS,
GROCERIES, ETC.
Trunks, Satchels and Traveling Bags.

CAMERON HOUSE,
F. F. Meyer, Propr.

Lately Renovated and Remodeled.
Commercial Sample Room.
Located in Business Centre.

Free 'Bus and Telephone.
Electric Lights—Steam Heat.

Lewisburg, Pa.

CHARLES A. HESS,
THE

Gentleman's Tailor;

Market Street.

Lewisburg, Penna.

WE MAKE SUITS THAT FIT.

Go to T. G. EVANS'
UNIVERSITY BOOK STORE,

For your Text Books
and Stationery.

For a good

Livery Turnout
Go to
W. W. BROWN,

North 3d Street. Lewisburg, Pa.

The Orange and Blue.

BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY.

VOL. I.

LEWISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, MARCH 23, 1897.

No. 3.

| BASKET BALL WITH STATE.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | CHAMPIONSHIP BASKET BALL.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | LITERARY SOCIETIES' RECEPTION.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | CONTEST LAST NIGHT.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Our Team Meets With an Unexpected Defeat.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | Sophomores Gain an Easy Victory Over the Juniors.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | The Gymnasium is Transformed into a Reception Room.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Ten Men Chosen for the Freshman Declamation Contest.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| The game with State was a disappointment to Bucknell whose basket ball team has made such a brilliant record this season. There were several excuses for the defeat. State was on her own ground and had an advantage in working from "out-of-bounds," a thing which our small floor does not permit. Weymouth was missing. Mulkie was in a strange position and Bucknell's invincible triangle was not in evidence. Bucknell showed superiority in passing and in goal throwing, but good, steady team-play was lacking. | Last Wednesday afternoon the Sophomore basket ball team reached the top notch of their ambition. They defeated the hitherto invincible Juniors, and they did it fairly and with ease. At first, play was a little slow; but soon the only cheer by '98 during the game, put more snap into the men, and for a few minutes there was a furious scramble for the ball that darted and twirled in erratic zig-zags from goal to goal. After several close calls for both sides, Catterall succeeded in landing the ball in the basket. The fast play had winded the untrained '98 men, and Garner and Bevan followed quickly with a goal each. After a little more scrimmaging the Juniors stood around like wooden men and watched Catterall toss another goal. By this time the superiority of the '98 men was apparent. They were all in good practice, while only two Juniors were really in condition to play. Mulkie and Smith played a brilliant game, but could do nothing against the heavy odds. A goal by Conover ended the scoring of the first half, which closed 10-0 in favor of '98. | The first annual reception of the College Literary Societies, held last Thursday evening in the Tutin gymnasium, was more of a success than the committee had anticipated and more enjoyable than any guest had expected. The consensus of opinion of those in attendance is that it was one of the most delectable social functions ever held at Bucknell. The gallery rail was handsomely festooned with orange and blue bunting and the supporting posts were tastily wound with white. Fancy rugs were distributed on different parts of the floor and six small tables of fashionable construction, upon which were placed banquet lamps with large and artistic shades, were advantageously located around the room. A few feet in front of the rear wall, several screens were arranged which not only hid the gymnastic paraphernalia but also enhanced the scene and gave it a more homelike appearance. The light diffused through the medium of colored shades by the lamps was in perfect consonance with the brilliant illumination of the two are lights and produced a scene in the gymnasium that would do honor to the most elite French drawing room. The guests assembled at 7:30 o'clock, and after the rendition of the program, refreshments were served, followed by the indulgence in various popular games. A grand march was enjoyed and, as a climax to the evening's festivities, a cake-walk was arranged, and after a promenade several times around the room, the prize—a large chocolate cake, was awarded to F. J. Rawlinson and Miss Sprague. The jollity lasted until almost midnight. | Last night the preliminary Freshman contest in declamation was held in Bucknell Hall. The speaking was spirited and marked by naturalness. The following ten men were chosen for the final contest: Edward Bell, Charles Ernest Rannell, Irvin Amon Dewitt, Thomas Johnson Morris, Charles Judd, Forster, Isaac Witman Huntzburger, Harvey Elmer Stabler, George Edward Strayer, Stephen Flock Reed and John Sherman.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| The success of the occasion can justly be attributed to the untiring energy and strenuous efforts of the committees on refreshments and decorations. The program represented the '98 L' Agenda.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | The second half opened with brisk, snappy play. In less than a minute Garner scored for '99 and immediately after Mulkie broke the evil charm that hung over '98 by throwing a goal on a foul. After another foul, yielding a goal by Conover, the play reached its most exciting point. The dodging, chasing, and scrimmaging became desperate, but '99 was steady in it all and gained two goals by Garner and Conover. Capt. Mulkie who did not relish his defeat, then became roused and after taking the ball from goal to goal, scored the prettiest point of the game. Then in the course of play two goals were thrown by Elliott. Conover gained a point on a foul, and time was called—Sophomores 18: Juniors 7. The features of the game were the large attendance of ladies and the lack of cheering on the part of '98.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | Dr. Perrine Honored.The last number of the "Peddie Chronicle" contains, together with "Dr. Perrine's" picture, the speech which he delivered at that place on "Founders Day." The address is characteristically one of sound sense and polished literary style.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Junior Debate.The second preliminary debate was held in Bucknell Hall, Friday evening, Mar. 19. Promptly at eight o'clock the debaters, eight in number, marched to the platform. E. C. Kunkle was the presiding officer. The program was opened with music by the Bucknell Orchestra. Prayer was offered by Rev. Judd. Another selection by the orchestra followed, after which the question was announced: Resolved, That the amount of wealth is transmissible by inheritance should be limited by statute. The affirmative side was upheld by Messrs. Wiltbank, Fithian, Cook and Dutton; the negative by Messrs. Stober, Forrester, Diggs and Anderson. It was maintained by the affirmative (1) that a plutocracy is injurious to the welfare of a country, (2) that by limiting wealth this danger would be removed, (3) that a statue is the only effective way of removing it. The negative asserted (1) that wealthy men are necessary for the welfare of a country, (2) that even if this were untrue, the means of limitation set forth by the affirmative would be impracticable, (3) that it involved a dangerous species of socialism, (4) that it would, if practicable, cause wealth to flow out of the country, (5) that it would be unjust to the accumulator and his heirs. |
| The next score was by Bucknell on a foul. Then in the hot skirmishing of the last few minutes State threw a final goal and won—State 10: Bucknell 7.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | It is definitely settled that ex-Congressman Schellenberger is to be Second Assistant Postmaster General.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | We are glad to note that Mr. E. M. Heim, B. U., '93, is visiting his old friends of Bucknell. He gave an interesting talk before Dr. Hiley's History class yesterday morning which was much appreciated by all present.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Mr. W. C. Gretzinger, wife and daughter Margaret spent Sunday at Sunbury.Read the aim of THE ORANGE AND BLUE in the Constitution, Art. III, Sec. 1. It is a worthy one and you are interested in Bucknell University to the extent of fifty cents, become a subscriber.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |

Bucknell University,

John Howard Harris, President.

THE COLLEGE.

Four courses leading to degrees in Arts, Philosophy and Science; over one hundred subjects of study; separate Laboratory, Gymnasium and Observatory buildings; large library; ample endowment; modern facilities.

THE ACADEMY.

A preparatory school for young men and boys. Fits for college and the best technical schools.

THE INSTITUTE.

A boarding school for young women; three courses of study leading to diplomas. Art studio.

THE SCHOOL OF MUSIC.

For both sexes. Offers graduating courses in music; courses in piano, pipe-organ, violin, harmony, etc., leading to diploma. The school is under the direction of a French artist, assisted by a corps of excellent teachers.

For catalogue and further information concerning any department of the University, address,

William C. Gretzinger, Registrar,
Lewisburg, Pennsylvania.

THE ORANGE AND BLUE.

LEWISBURG, PENN'A.

PUBLISHED ONCE A WEEK DURING THE COLLEGE YEAR BY STUDENTS OF BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY.

Entered at Post Office at Lewisburg as second-class mail matter.

SUBSCRIPTION $1.00 PER YEAR.

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF: Walter L. Hill.

ASSOCIATES: M. B. Collins, W. F. Richards.

BUSINESS MANAGER: S. W. Giffin.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS: John V. Leake, Pres. John M. Gandy, Vice Pres. L. B. Shreve, Sec.

A. K. Ostland, S. W. Giffin, R. B. McKee, A. H. Kline, Geo. J. Ritter, W. L. Hill, O. R. LaVie, W. G. Holland.

Printed by the Journal, Lewisburg, Pa.

TUESDAY, MARCH 23, 1897.

The defeat of our basketball team at State was a great blow. Such a calamity is to a certain extent beyond our control, yet to a considerable degree we were beaten through our own carelessness. That Weymouth was ill, and that Mulick had to take an unenviable position may be looked upon as fatalities. It seems that Bucknell always has to go limping into a contest with State; although, in our opinion, the fates have less to do with it than our own oblivious way of going at things.

In the first place men should train. Bucknell has never put a trained team on any field. If our men were trained they would not be laid up at critical times.

Then when men are once in training, and have their positions on a team, they should under no consideration play with any other team. A man on a team bears a certain relation to every other man on the team, and he acts mechanically as a unit in a larger organization. Destroy that whole and the man loses his sense of reliance on those around him, place him in a different relation to the other men and he no longer acts mechanically and with confidence, but with self-consciousness and hesitancy. Allowing team men to play in class games before the season's end has more than once brought Bucknell to the dust.

Besides unity we need concentration. Our forces should all converge to the point of conflict, and all our energy should be focused at that point. Instead of that we let the important games come upon us with our men unfit to play and our spirits weak. And then we wonder why we are beaten. If the gods can get any spare time from taking care of that drunken man and the United States they might do well to take a hand in Bucknell athletics. There would be no opposition.

The great trouble and the certain indication of continued mediocrity, is our indifference and our lack of appreciation when a team does do good work. The record of our basketball team this year is marvelous. There are not more than four teams in the country that could beat our team. Yet where is our appreciation, our support? The men have to play in class games to get out of debt, and then we are too indifferent or too despicably stingy to pay the ten cents admission. Not till Bucknell wakes from her lethargy, rouses from her indolence and rises above her selfishness will she accomplish anything worthy of her on the athletic field.

It is good to see Bucknell meet take a stand for morality and refinement. We print with pride the two appended clippings.

"A Matter of Congratulation."

EDITOR PUBLIC LEDGER:—Your editorial on the subject of the prize fight is a timely and vigorous utterance, refreshing to read in these days of perverted journalism, and it is a matter of congratulation that we have in our city one circulation that can be read in every family without risk of moral contamination.

Pastor Oak Lane Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

"Good Moral Tone."

EDITOR PUBLIC LEDGER:—I have on several occasions commended the high character of your paper. Your position in regard to the prize fight bears out my high estimate of the Ledger. Let us have at least one paper of good moral tone.

ALBERT B. STEWART, Instructor, Bucknell University, Lewisburg, Pa.

Gymnasium Exhibition. Quite a large crowd lined the gallery of Tustin Gymnasium last Saturday afternoon to witness the annual exhibition. The exercises began with marching, then came a pretty wand drill, and this was followed by a prolonged run, the men holding dumbbells in different positions.

After the class work an exhibition wrestling bout was given by Pithian and Conover, and Earle gave an exhibition in pole vaulting.

Then the floor was cleared for class-work on the parallel bars. This part of the program was at times quite amusing, for a very all or an especially short man would occasionally find difficulty in executing his part.

The special work that followed was like a page from a "Brownie" book. Somebody was doing something on every piece of apparatus in the gymnasium. Aside from the work of the directors, the most difficult feats performed were by Davis, on the horizontal bar, Grimm on the parallel bars, Bower on the rings, and Conover on the horse and in tumbling. Pierce and Earle gave an exhibition high-jump.

The grand finale was a double pyramid of human forms, that gave the Bucknell yell, and collapsed.

Kicker's Kormor.

Well! Well!! Well!!! What does it mean? No one has kicked about anything. Have we entered upon the millennium? Or, now that we have a chance to kick, are we suffering from a visitation of that destroyer of first opportunities, known among hunters as "back-ague"? It was expected that even the numerous and expeditionary post office force would not be able to open the window with the usual promptness when communications would begin to rain in upon this department. But the catapasm did not come. The mild mannered young man became alarmed and wheeled himself all over the building vainly entreating some one to kick something or somebody. His appetite is failing fast, can no one help him in his extremity? By another week he will have passed away, leaving every one at Bucknell self-convinced of contentment.

R. J. Weidensaul, Livery and Boarding Stables, Near Baker House. Prices to suit the times....

Central Livery and Boarding Stables, Lewisburg, Pa. J. Horan Prop'r. TELEPHONE CONNECTION.

New Store Just Opened.

A new and complete line of up-to-date goods. Call and see me, Market Street, between 2nd and 3d Street.

Geo. H. Fisher, Lewisburg, Pa.

Beautiful Photographs.

In order to introduce my work I make the following offer for one month to the people of the Institute and Seminary: My $2 Cabinets Artists Finish at $1.50 per dozen. My $3 Carbonets at $2.00 per dozen.

Having had 24 years of experience in large cities I am enabled to guarantee satisfaction in every particular. I earnestly solicit a share of your patronage. Very Respectfully,

HUNTER, Photographer, 326 Market St. Lewisburg, Pa.

HEADACHE CURED By My Special Glasses.

H. J. NOGEL, Eye Specialist. Eyes Examined Free. Spectacles & Eye Glasses a Specialty. Adjusting Eye Glasses and Spectacles a Specialty. Repairing with Neatness and Dispatch.

H. J. NOGEL & BRO., JEWELERS AND ENGRAVERS. Private Optical Parlors.

Buy your groceries of FOLLMER, The largest line and freshest stock in the town. Students' Trade Solicited.

ATTORNEYS.

D. H. GETZ, Attorney-at-Law, Lewisburg, Pa.

Law Offices of ANDREW ALBRIGHT LEISER, Lewisburg, Union Co., Pa.

J. C. BUCHER, Attorney-at-Law, Lewisburg, Pa.

J. THOMPSON BAKER, Attorney-at-Law, Lewisburg, Pa.

J. F. DUNCAN, Attorney-at-Law, Lewisburg, Pa.

J. W. VANVALZAH, Attorney-at-Law, Lewisburg, Pa.

WILLIAM R. FOLLMER, Attorney-at-Law, NOTARY PUBLIC, Lewisburg, Pa.

W. J. WILKINSON, Attorney-at-Law, Office in Music Hall, Lewisburg, Pa.

ALFRED HAYES, Attorney-at-Law, Office opposite Presbyterian Church, Lewisburg, Pa.

James F. Linn, J. Merrill Linn, Philip R. Linn, 1894.

J. M. & P. B. LINN, ATTORNEYS AT LAW, Successors to J. F. & J. M. Linn. One Consultation Office. LEWISBURG, PA.

HEADACHE CURED By My Special Glasses.

H. J. NOGEL, Eye Specialist. Eyes Examined Free. Spectacles & Eye Glasses a Specialty. Adjusting Eye Glasses and Spectacles a Specialty. Repairing with Neatness and Dispatch.

H. J. NOGEL & BRO., JEWELERS AND ENGRAVERS. Private Optical Parlors.

Buy your groceries of FOLLMER, The largest line and freshest stock in the town. Students' Trade Solicited.

ATTORNEYS.

D. H. GETZ, Attorney-at-Law, Lewisburg, Pa.

Law Offices of ANDREW ALBRIGHT LEISER, Lewisburg, Union Co., Pa.

J. C. BUCHER, Attorney-at-Law, Lewisburg, Pa.

J. THOMPSON BAKER, Attorney-at-Law, Lewisburg, Pa.

J. F. DUNCAN, Attorney-at-Law, Lewisburg, Pa.

J. W. VANVALZAH, Attorney-at-Law, Lewisburg, Pa.

WILLIAM R. FOLLMER, Attorney-at-Law, NOTARY PUBLIC, Lewisburg, Pa.

W. J. WILKINSON, Attorney-at-Law, Office in Music Hall, Lewisburg, Pa.

ALFRED HAYES, Attorney-at-Law, Office opposite Presbyterian Church, Lewisburg, Pa.

James F. Linn, J. Merrill Linn, Philip R. Linn, 1894.

J. M. & P. B. LINN, ATTORNEYS AT LAW, Successors to J. F. & J. M. Linn. One Consultation Office. LEWISBURG, PA.

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I. NAME. This organization shall be known as the "Board of Directors of THE ORANGE AND BLUE."

ARTICLE II. OBJECT. Sec. I. The object of this "Board" shall be to publish weekly at Lewisburg, Pa., a paper devoted to the interests of Bucknell University.

Sec. II. The Aim of this paper shall be: (1) To furnish its readers with fresh, trustworthy news of Collegiate events.

(2) To keep the student body alive to the diversifying activities of our institution.

(3) To keep the Alumni constantly in touch with their Alma Mater.

(4) To keep the people of Lewisburg informed of what is transpiring in the University of their town.

(5) To promote all recognized or laudable organizations in the University, City & Athletic Association, Literary Societies, Y. M. C. A., etc.

(6) To provide a fair field for the discussion of any topics of interest or importance to the student body.

(7) To awaken and develop journalistic talent and ability among the students of Bucknell.

(8) To express without fear or favoritism opinions on any subject concerning the University.

ARTICLE III. DIRECTORS. Sec. I. This paper shall be managed by a "Board of Directors," twelve in number.

Sec. II. Every student of the College shall have a voice in choosing the "Directors."

Sec. III. Representation in the "Board of Directors" shall be as follows: One "Director" shall be chosen from and by each General Greek Letter Fraternity having an active, chartered chapter at Bucknell; two "Directors" shall be chosen from and by the Senior Class of the College; two "Directors" shall be chosen from and by the Sophomore Class of the College; one "Director" shall be chosen from and by the Freshman Class of the College. No member of a General Greek Letter Fraternity having an active, chartered chapter at Bucknell shall represent his class in the "Board of Directors."

Sec. IV. The "Board of Directors" shall control all gains and shall be responsible for all losses resulting from the management of the paper.

ARTICLE IV. TERM OF OFFICE. The term of office of a "Director" shall be one year.

ARTICLE V. TIME OF CHOOSING. Regular. Sec. I. "Directors" shall be chosen by the classes in the second week of the first term.

Sec. II. "Directors" shall be chosen by the fraternities in the second week of the second term.

Special. Sec. III. Any vacancy in the "Board of Directors" shall be filled by the body losing representation within one week after formal notification of the vacancy, from the "Board of Directors."

Sec. IV. If any organization fails to select a representative within one week after notification of the vacancy, the "Board of Directors" shall choose a member from that organization to represent it for the unexpired term.

ARTICLE VI. ORGANIZATION OF THE BOARD. Time. Sec. I. The "Board" shall organize on the second Saturday of the first term, and the second Saturday of the second term.

Officers. Sec. II. The officers of the Board shall be: president, vice president, secretary and treasurer.

Term. Sec. III. All officers shall hold office until their successors have been elected.

Duties.

Sec. IV. The duties of the officers shall be the same as prescribed in "Robert's Rules of Order," or as the Board shall direct from time to time.

ARTICLE VII. POWERS OF THE BOARD. Sec. I. The Board of Directors shall choose a manager who shall be governed by rules prescribed by the Board.

Sec. II. The Editor-in-Chief and his assistants shall be chosen by the "Board of Directors" as they shall deem it from time to time.

ARTICLE VIII. AMENDMENTS. This Constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote of an entire "Board of Directors," as specified in Article III, Section I.

Short Squibs. J. R. Wood, B. C. '94, spent a few days with us.

The midnight fire caused a great commotion at the hill.

It is a pleasure to have Herbert Harris, B. C. '96, with us for the week.

B. F. Thomas is out again looking not much the worse for his siege.

C. W. Clement is spending examination week in Sunbury, Meades.

C. A. Weymouth has turned up smiling after his sojournage with La Grippe.

Registrar Gretzinger has returned from a ten day trip in the western part of the state.

On Friday morning Prof. and Mrs. Martin were summoned to Phila., owing to the death of the latter's niece.

W. L. Kurtz, of the Journal, entertained his fraternity brothers very pleasantly at his home on First street, Friday evening.

Rush H. Kress, who was called home by the serious illness of his mother returned to college yesterday, his mother's condition being much improved.

Dr. Perrine delivered a lecture on Wordsworth before the Sophomore class on Friday morning. The class enjoyed the lecture and gave the Professor a rousing applause.

ENGLISH. Spring Term, 1897.

Elective: English Oratory—Bradley's Orations and Lyman's (Allen and Bacon)—for those who have pursued rhetoric and English Literature. Shakespeare—Mid-Summer Night's Dream, Hamlet and Tempest—editors, Sprague, Silver, Dinkelle and Co., Allen Wright (Macmillan), or Rolfe (Harper) and Boas (Shakespeare and his Predecessors) (Scriveners)—for Seniors and Juniors. Honor: Chaucer—Canterbury Tales, (Macmillan).

RHETORICALS. Seniors: Orations—June 1. Juniors: Two Orations—May 4, June 1. Sophomores: Three Essays—April 19, May 17, June 14. Freshmen: Three Essays—April 12, May 10, June 7. N. B. In this term Freshmen may make their own selection of subjects for essays. Sophomores.—First Lecture—Monday morning, April 12—JOHN DRYDEN. E. P.

Daglish, The Tailor.

Come and see our line of Foreign and Domestic Woollen Suits made to order from $13 up to $40. Our Men's Furnishings need no words of commendation from us. That department is replete with the latest novelties. We have added Ready-made Clothing to our other departments and can assure you will find there the most stylish and best garments in Central Pennsylvania. Anything not proving satisfactory money refunded.

Daglish, The Tailor.

J. G. STROHECKER, Guarantees his milk To be pure Student's Trade Solicited.

HOWER & SON, Furniture Dealers.

W. A. LEIBY, Dealer in Fresh Meats, Groceries. LEWISBURG, PENNA. Special attention given to clubs.

H. R. MILLER, TAILOR. Fine Styles, Work Guaranteed. Prices the Lowest.

Harry Stahl Foreign and Domestic GROCERIES. Dealer in. All the News all the time at the Newest News Stand. In the town also a full line of Every Day Stationery at FEGLEY'S.

HYATT'S SOE, Wolfe Block, For Spring Shoes.

J. E. K. SCHWENK, Dealer in Groceries and General Merchandise. Lewisburg, Pa. Special attention given to Student's Clubs.

GEO. STEIN & BRO., Fresh Meats. Orders Cordially Solicited. 226 Market Street - - - Lewisburg, Pa.

JOHN REED, Dealer in. You can always depend upon to deliver your trunk at the proper place at the proper time. Special attention to students.

G. D. Bertolette, REMOVED. To Three Doors Below. Dr. Barber's Dentoline. Cleanses the Teeth, Purifies the Breath. Sample Free. Baker's Drug Store.

DENTISTS. DR. R. H. SPEARE. P. O. Building, Lewisburg, Pa. Office Hours: 12:30 p. m. to 6 p. m.

W. R. ROLAND, D. D. S., Cor. Market and 3d St., Lewisburg, Pa. GAS ADMINISTERED.

Institute Items.
 "To those that are experts in the art of looking. Since Jack has come back he is at his old sitting. He looks pale and worn. And seemed quite forlorn. But is quite happy now. And to all makes his bow."
 —Farewell—

Three of the teachers and also several of the music students were able to go to their homes the latter part of last week. A happy vacation to them.

On Thursday, the twenty-fifth, Mrs. Larison and a party of Bucknell girls expect to start for Washington to spend the vacation week in sight seeing at the great Capitol. We wonder if they will also see President McKinley.

On last Saturday evening the college girls who room in the Institute building together with a few of their friends, under the guise of Queen Elizabeth and some of the members of her court gave a surprise party to Miss Myra Sprague. After playing games for some time, cake and cream were served.

On Tuesday evening, March 16, Dr. Hulley read a number of Robert Burns' poems before Mrs. Larison's Literary Class and their friends. He gave first a number of Burns' love poems, prominent among which are those "To Mary Morrison." Following these came some in which Burns showed his love and appreciation of nature. Dr. Hulley also gave the "Address to the Deil," and "Tam O' Shanter," in a very realistic manner. The poems which he gave represented the different stages of Burns' literary career, and the evening was greatly enjoyed by all who were privileged to attend.

Lunch, Billiards,
 Opera House Restaurant.

Go to WARD,
The Barber.
 Finest Tonsorial Parlors in Town.

Academy Acts.
 Pierson and Thomas have returned to school.

At the last meeting of Adelphi Literary Society, officers were elected for the coming term as follows:

Pres.—Alexander.
 Vice Pres.—Pitts.
 Sec.—Stephens.
 Chaplain—Skinner.
 First Critic—Davis.
 Second Critic—Thomas.
 Treas.—J. S. Hoffa.
 Ser'g't at Arms—Wolfe.

Rambo spent Saturday and Sunday visiting relatives at Watertown.

Because wonders never cease we were treated to a beautiful sight in East Hall several evenings ago, in the shape of a snow storm, which the boys set manfully to work cleaning up after it had ceased falling.

Hermenin Literary Society elected the following officers for the ensuing term:

Pres.—Dewitt; Vice Pres.—Ayars; Sec.—Reimer; Treas.—Cunningham; First Critic—Jaegerman; Second Critic—Barbee; Ser'g't at Arms—Sherbondy; Censor—Senn; Librarian—Slifer.

Calvin Elliott spent Sunday at his home in Hartleton.

Pitts has cleaned up his mount and is waiting for good roads so as to begin training for the "track team."

School of Music Notes.
 Dr. Aviragnet and Miss Aikin will conduct a series of Musicales next term. These Musicales will be given every two weeks for the purpose of enabling pupils to gain more assurance when playing in public. This is one of the best known methods of producing good concert performers.

A. W. STEPHENS,
Clothing to Order
or Ready-made.
 Sales Agent for Wanamaker & Brown

FRESH
Whitman's Candies.
 —AT—
Wolfe's Drug Store, 2nd and Market Streets

"An evening with Handel" will be given next term by Miss Crawford and the pupils of the vocal and instrumental departments. These evenings with the great masters have been a source of enjoyment as well as instruction to all who have been privileged to attend.

The String Sextette rendered two very delightful selections—"Overture Des Marionettes" by Gurlitt, and "Bacchante" by Herman—at the Junior Debate, Friday evening. Bucknell can feel proud of the high grade of music played by this Sextette.

A Thousand Volumes for the Library.

Dr. Lincoln Hulley during his weekly trips to Baltimore, has been making use of the Johns Hopkins University Library. He is at present specializing in Bibliographic History. Along with his other work Dr. Hulley has busied himself in making a list of a thousand volumes that are very much needed in the History department of Bucknell. The facilities of our library for study along the line of History are at present very meagre. The popularity of the History courses is simply astounding, as is shown by the overcrowded condition of the History classes. Another proof of their immense popularity is the constant demand for new courses. During the last three years the department has been increased from two courses to sixteen; but there has been no comparative development of library facilities. Toward increasing these facilities, Dr. Hulley has lately been using his influence in many directions.

President Harris has also heartily endorsed the movement now on foot to increase the number of volumes in the History department.

The '97 Shoes
 are in
at Marsh's.

J. W. BICKLE,
THE BARBER,
 Third St., Lewisburg, Pa.
 Students' Work a Specialty.

Ginter & Cook,
The Face Takers
 Have been selected
Official Photographers
 For Class of '97

418 Market Street. CALL OFTEN.

For an EASY SHAVE go to
MILLER, The Barber,
 North 2d St., Lewisburg, Pa.

P. W. Himmelreich,
 Dealer in
DRY GOODS,
GROCERIES, ETC.
 Trunks, Satchels and Traveling Bags

CAMERON HOUSE.
 T. F. Meyer, Prop.

Lately Renovated and Remodeled.
 Commercial Sample Room.
 Located in Business Centre.

Free 'Bus and Telephone.
 Electric Lights—Steam Heat.

Lewisburg, Pa.

CHARLES A. HESS,
 THE
Gentleman's Tailor;
 Market Street.
Lewisburg; Penna.

WE MAKE SUITS THAT FIT.

Go to T. G. EVANS'
UNIVERSITY BOOK STORE,
 For your Text Books
 and Stationary.

For a good
Livery Turnout
 Go to
W. W. BROWN,
 North 3d Street. Lewisburg, Pa.

Bucknell University,

John Howard Harris, President.

THE COLLEGE.

Four courses leading to degrees in Arts, Philosophy and Science; over one hundred subjects of study; separate Laboratory, Gymnasium and Observatory buildings, large library; ample endowment; modern facilities.

THE ACADEMY.

A preparatory school for young men and boys. Fits for college and the best technical schools.

THE INSTITUTE.

A boarding school for young women; three courses of study leading to diplomas. Art studio.

THE SCHOOL OF MUSIC.

For both sexes. Offers graduating courses in music; courses in piano, pipe-organ, violin, harmony, etc., leading to diploma. The school is under the direction of a French artist, assisted by a corps of excellent teachers.

For catalogue and further information concerning any department of the University, address,

William C. Gretzinger, Registrar,
Lewisburg, Pennsylvania.

The Orange and Blue.

BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY.

VOL. I.

LEWISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, APRIL 6, 1897.

No. 4.

MORAL PATHFINDERS.

Opening Lecture by President Harris Yesterday Morning.

After the regular Chapel exercises at which the Sermon on the Mount was the Bible lesson, Dr. Harris delivered the first lecture of the term. The subject was "Moral Pathfinders," and in part was as follows.

A moral pathfinder is a hero of morality; but he is more, he is one who opens the way and shows the possibilities of morality.

Moral law is positive. For children it is put in negative form. The ten commandments were given to a nation in its infancy. Negatives are for children. Adults, either individuals or nations require positive law. The law given in Leviticus, Deuteronomy and the Sermon on the Mount is positive. It is there that we are to look for our guide, for we are the adults of our race. We speak of the old world when referring to time past, we are really the old world. We have the experience of ages behind us.

Negative law implies the positive, but is put in negative form on account of immaturity. Positive law, directly stated is highest, for it appeals to the will. The highest type of morality is an energetic man, a man of force and power, governed by a rightly directed will, a moral hero, a moral pathfinder.

Neither art, nor science, nor literature is of universal interest. All men are interested in morality. The moral hero is the universal hero. Every moral man is a positive force, but the moral hero is more; he opens up the way, he launches upon the unknown sea and explores new continents of morality to be possessed by man. Of course the great moral hero of moral heroes, the great pathfinder of pathfinders is the Christ, but it is not he who is specially considered here. There have been many moral heroes, of these a few stand out prominently as representatives of different lands and ages. Socrates, the great teacher was not a hero; moral heroes are the doers of morality not the teachers. But Socrates the man, who sat unmoved by the violent mob and refused to act contrary to the law, the man whom tyrants' threats could not shake from his moral purpose, Socrates who sat for the portrait of a just man given in the third ode of the third book of Horace, he was a moral hero. Socrates was a moral hero because above teaching he did. He was a pathfinder because he insisted upon the supremacy of conscience and revered the moral law interpreted by it.

Paul was a pathfinder because

Continued on second page.

A CALL TO THE COLLEGES.

Mr. Charles Studd, Cambridge, '84, at Bucknell.

Mr. Charles Studd, the English missionary to China, has been among us and has gone. We had been looking forward with great expectancy to his visit, and the result of his visit was fully up to our expectation. The delegates who went to Northfield last summer told us about him and we knew we were to have something good. Mr. Studd is an earnest man, full of that Spirit of Christ which said, "Go and preach the Gospel to all Nations." China is his particular theme, and the subject which he is presenting to the colleges throughout the United States. China, he says, with its four hundred million souls has less than five hundred ordained ministers of the Gospel.

Saturday evening Mr. Studd addressed a well attended meeting in Bucknell Hall. His subject was "The Religion of Jesus Christ is a Warfare." His idea was taken from the tenth chapter of Daniel. He showed the difference in the way in which wars are generally carried on and the way in which the fight against Satan is conducted. He compared Christian warfare to foot ball, and brought forth a smile when he said we were touching the ball (the Gospel) down behind our own goal posts. Every Christian has a different set of rules by which he is governed. We do not follow strictly the one true guide. Not every one who wears the college colors can play on the team.

He traced the careers of a few men of war, Daniel, David, Christ, Paul and others. We saw how God used them and how he protected them. Some of these men sinned, it is true, but that was at a time when they were not watching, but were off their guard. "Not every one that saith unto me, 'Lord, Lord,' shall enter into the kingdom of Heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in Heaven." He emphasized the fact that we must fight the fight. Every country in the world is to-day open to the Gospel except Thibet, and that is a small country. The Israelites were compelled to wander forty years in the wilderness because they had not the faith nor the courage to possess the land immediately. He said, God would leave it to our children to possess these lands if we do not take up the work soon, with courage and determination.

For financial reasons and lack of a track the Advisory Board last night decided not to hold the proposed series of athletic meets with State.

Literary Societies.

We congratulate the Literary Societies upon the wonderful success of their first annual reception. On such occasions the societies never fail to have the support of the whole school and they become representatives of Bucknell talent. But why are not the literary societies thus representative in their daily work, is a question that is being constantly asked. We must confess that the charge is true, (that they are not) yet the twelve or fifteen that belong to each of the societies at the hill receive the greatest benefit and have given proof of their work in intercollegiate debate and our own oratorical and debating contests. The societies are not dead nor useless to these few, but to the mass of our students they are unknown. What is the remedy? While nothing can take the place of personality and earnest work, it seems proper to mention a few changes in the condition of our literary societies that are imperative to success. First, remove the arbitrary restrictions to membership and let every student join that society he may choose. Let there be competition between the societies for the students; and there must be if this restriction is removed. Second, let the faculty give the same support to the literary societies they do to athletics. A moderate plan would be to require one junior oration a term to be delivered before the societies while the other could be delivered before the instructor. This would stimulate the societies, would cause the students to write better orations and to take a pride in their delivery which before a single person. We acknowledge the power of personality and we do not mean to substitute organization for it. But it is a fact that a wretched organization can neutralize a strong personality, especially if it is beyond that person's power to change the organization.

Milton vs. Bucknell.

The first game of ball will be played on B. U. Campus, between Milton and Bucknell, at 2.30 p. m., Saturday, April 10. Everybody is requested to attend the game and show the boys that we are interested in our team. Besides we need financial support. With a debt of one hundred and forty dollars against the association, it is hard for the manager to make any progress, and we hope that the players will be considerate in their requests for a few days.

Relay Team.

The team that is to contest in the Relay Carnival with Dickinson, Franklin and Marshall and Gettysburg on April 24, at Franklin Field will be selected at Brook Park on Saturday April 10 at 3 p. m. It is necessary that every man be at Brook Park every day from now on. Special individual coaching will be given. At least five men will be chosen to go to Philadelphia.

E. W. COBBE, Trainer.

C. P. MEEKER, Captain.

CHORAL SOCIETY FOR BUCKNELL.

Dr. Aviragnet will start the Movement by a Lecture in Bucknell Hall.

For some time Dr. Aviragnet has had in mind the organization of a Choral Society. The object is to improve the general singing at Bucknell, and to give instruction to all who are interested in vocal music. There will be a meeting for this purpose next Saturday morning at 10.30 in Bucknell Hall at which Dr. Aviragnet will deliver a lecture on "What One Must Know to be a Good Musician," and will explain the scheme to create a large choral society. All are invited. No admission will be charged, and all who are interested in music should attend as the opportunity for instruction is unusual.

The College Song Book.

The song book, issued by the Senior class, is expected to make its appearance about the 1st of April. Nearly all the material is already in the hands of the printer. The book will contain in the neighborhood of 30 original songs, besides others that always strike a responsive cord in the hearts of students and alumni. The song book board, consisting of Wm. Bunnell, editor-in-chief, assistants, Misses Taylor, Hartley, Goodard and Mr. Fisk; business manager, Mr. Kunkle; realizing the value of such a book to every person interested in Bucknell, has made the price sufficiently low as to permit of no excuse by any person to be without one. As the price is only 50 cents, it is hoped every student and alumnus will secure a copy. It may not be impertinent to state, that just as the green calyx of a flower encloses all that is fragrant and beautiful, so does a student's duty to his college involve the encouragement, by substantial means, of everything intended to promote the welfare of the institution and increase the credit of the student body.

Manager Trimmer is taking subscriptions for the relay team. Every one in college should contribute something.

THE ORANGE AND BLUE.

LEWISBURG, PENN.

PUBLISHED ONCE A WEEK DURING THE COLLEGE YEAR BY STUDENTS OF BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY.

Entered at Post Office at Lewisburg as second-class matter.

SUBSCRIPTION $1.00 PER YEAR.

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF:

WALTER L. HILL.

ASSOCIATES:

M. R. Collins, W. F. Eichholtz, O. R. Le Van.

BUSINESS MANAGER:

S. W. Gripe.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS:

John V. Leiber, Pres. John M. Dunsay, Vice Pres.

L. B. Simette, Sec. L. T. Butler, Treas.

A. Kato, Goddard, Geo. T. Ritter,

S. W. Gripe, W. L. Hill,

R. B. McKis, O. R. Le Van,

R. H. Kress, W. S. Holland.

Printed by the Journal, Lewisburg, Pa.

TUESDAY, APRIL 6, 1907.

Basket Ball Finances.

The Treasurer of the Athletic Association of the Varsity makes the following report, in full, for the Basket Ball season of '07. This report is made in order that all interested may know how we closed the season financially.

RECEIPTS.

Danville Y. M. C. A., $10.00
University of Pa., $10.00
Chapman, $10.00
(1) $10.00
(2) $10.00
(3) $10.00
(4) $10.00
(5) $10.00
(6) $10.00
(7) $10.00
(8) $10.00
(9) $10.00
(10) $10.00
(11) $10.00
(12) $10.00
(13) $10.00
(14) $10.00
(15) $10.00
(16) $10.00
(17) $10.00
(18) $10.00
(19) $10.00
(20) $10.00
(21) $10.00
(22) $10.00
(23) $10.00
(24) $10.00
(25) $10.00
(26) $10.00
(27) $10.00
(28) $10.00
(29) $10.00
(30) $10.00
(31) $10.00
(32) $10.00
(33) $10.00
(34) $10.00
(35) $10.00
(36) $10.00
(37) $10.00
(38) $10.00
(39) $10.00
(40) $10.00
(41) $10.00
(42) $10.00
(43) $10.00
(44) $10.00
(45) $10.00
(46) $10.00
(47) $10.00
(48) $10.00
(49) $10.00
(50) $10.00
(51) $10.00
(52) $10.00
(53) $10.00
(54) $10.00
(55) $10.00
(56) $10.00
(57) $10.00
(58) $10.00
(59) $10.00
(60) $10.00
(61) $10.00
(62) $10.00
(63) $10.00
(64) $10.00
(65) $10.00
(66) $10.00
(67) $10.00
(68) $10.00
(69) $10.00
(70) $10.00
(71) $10.00
(72) $10.00
(73) $10.00
(74) $10.00
(75) $10.00
(76) $10.00
(77) $10.00
(78) $10.00
(79) $10.00
(80) $10.00
(81) $10.00
(82) $10.00
(83) $10.00
(84) $10.00
(85) $10.00
(86) $10.00
(87) $10.00
(88) $10.00
(89) $10.00
(90) $10.00
(91) $10.00
(92) $10.00
(93) $10.00
(94) $10.00
(95) $10.00
(96) $10.00
(97) $10.00
(98) $10.00
(99) $10.00
(100) $10.00

EXPENDITURES.

Danville Y. M. C. A., $10.00
University of Pa., $10.00
Chapman, $10.00
(1) $10.00
(2) $10.00
(3) $10.00
(4) $10.00
(5) $10.00
(6) $10.00
(7) $10.00
(8) $10.00
(9) $10.00
(10) $10.00
(11) $10.00
(12) $10.00
(13) $10.00
(14) $10.00
(15) $10.00
(16) $10.00
(17) $10.00
(18) $10.00
(19) $10.00
(20) $10.00
(21) $10.00
(22) $10.00
(23) $10.00
(24) $10.00
(25) $10.00
(26) $10.00
(27) $10.00
(28) $10.00
(29) $10.00
(30) $10.00
(31) $10.00
(32) $10.00
(33) $10.00
(34) $10.00
(35) $10.00
(36) $10.00
(37) $10.00
(38) $10.00
(39) $10.00
(40) $10.00
(41) $10.00
(42) $10.00
(43) $10.00
(44) $10.00
(45) $10.00
(46) $10.00
(47) $10.00
(48) $10.00
(49) $10.00
(50) $10.00
(51) $10.00
(52) $10.00
(53) $10.00
(54) $10.00
(55) $10.00
(56) $10.00
(57) $10.00
(58) $10.00
(59) $10.00
(60) $10.00
(61) $10.00
(62) $10.00
(63) $10.00
(64) $10.00
(65) $10.00
(66) $10.00
(67) $10.00
(68) $10.00
(69) $10.00
(70) $10.00
(71) $10.00
(72) $10.00
(73) $10.00
(74) $10.00
(75) $10.00
(76) $10.00
(77) $10.00
(78) $10.00
(79) $10.00
(80) $10.00
(81) $10.00
(82) $10.00
(83) $10.00
(84) $10.00
(85) $10.00
(86) $10.00
(87) $10.00
(88) $10.00
(89) $10.00
(90) $10.00
(91) $10.00
(92) $10.00
(93) $10.00
(94) $10.00
(95) $10.00
(96) $10.00
(97) $10.00
(98) $10.00
(99) $10.00
(100) $10.00

BILLS UNPAID.

Bal. due E. K. Tryon, $5.00
Bal. due Journal Print, $5.00
Team Out for L. Agenda, $5.00
Total, $15.00

Receipts.

Expenses, $12.00
Bills Unpaid, $15.00
Bal. in Treasury, $15.00
Total, $42.00

DEFICIT.

$10.00

J. C. Hazen, Treas. H. U. A.

The name of every man who appreciates the work of a good team will appear on the subscription paper which Manager Garner is circulating.

The Finance Committee of the Athletic Association has taken vigorous and decisive steps to reduce the indebtedness caused by last year's base ball team. Mr. Abbott will give two Shaksperian recitals in Bucknell Hall, on April 9th and 10th, for the benefit of the association, and a lecture course has also been arranged for the same cause, particulars concerning which will be announced later. The course will include Dr. Hulley, Col. McCain and Dr. Perrine. No tickets sold at the door for the recitals.

MORAL PATHFINDERS.

Continued from first page.

he carried the teaching of Christ to the Gentiles who were looked upon as dogs. The chosen people were cut off from the rest of the world by the sea and desert to develop the idea of one God. When Christ came that idea had grown to be a governing idea, the time of seed-corn was past and Paul was the moral hero who gave his life to spread the fruit of the harvest. It is hard now to understand the condition when Paul started out. Otto advised working slaves to the utmost and leaving them to die. It was cheap to buy more than to feed the old ones or raise more. Such was the spirit of the time. The mission of Paul was the greatest moral revolution except the advent of the Christ, and the present movement to send missionaries to all people is next to it in importance.

Regulus, not the hombastis fur- row of the school boy declamation, but the real Regulus who in quiet modesty kept his word, was a hero. Cicero said the Roman Empire owed its stability and power to its respect of a contract. When Hannibal rushed upon Rome he was unable to take it because the allied towns had been kept faith with by the Romans. England now holds sway over her colonies because, after her bitter lesson of a century ago, she is fair and keeps faith with her subjects. English colonists are English men. To see how oppression and broken faith result, look at the Spaniard and the Turk. An extract from Janet, the great French writer on morals, was read to show that Napoleon was not a hero. He thought he was above the moral law, and to a great extent was brought low by the teaching of an interpreter of that law, Kant. Kant said that nothing in the world can be called absolutely good except a good will, and while Goethe stood aside admiring himself in a glass the world was developing along the lines indicated by Kant. Knox and young Pitt show how the moral hero is trusted and adheared to. Pitt from a youth of insignificance came to rule all England. The last moral hero and pathfinder noted was Washington. In refusing to assume imperial power he was a hero, in setting a new standard of integrity and public fidelity he was a moral pathfinder.

A movement is on foot toward the organization of a Tennis Association at Bucknell. A meeting will be held in the Theta Alpha Hall, Saturday morning at ten o'clock, for the purpose of considering such an organization. All men interested in tennis are urged to be present. Com.

Mr. G.: "Professor will you please tell me whether or not you have any 'absences' against me?" Prof.: (looking over class book) "Yes sir, you were absent on the 29th day of February." Mr. G.: "All right, sir. Thank you, sir. I remember it; I was sick that day, sir."

School of Music Notes.

Miss Julia Weidensaul has gone to Perkiomen Seminary where she will teach both instrumental and vocal music.

The University recently donated the School of Music a set of eight music stands. These will add greatly to the equipment of the school.

The L'Allegro Mandolin and Guitar Club will give a recital in Bucknell Hall, Thursday evening. This promises to be something worth hearing. Admission 15 cts.

The school has grown so large it has been necessary to rent a new piano in order to give satisfaction to the great number of pupils. This will make eleven pianos in the school.

A room will be fitted up with two pianos in order to begin the practicing of duets for eight hands. This room will be large enough to give musicles twice or three times a month, in order to accustom the pupils to play in public. Special care will be given to the exhibition of the school at the close of this term, in order to have something new.

J. W. BICKLE,

THE BARBER,

Third St., Lewisburg, Pa.

Students' Work a Specialty.

R. J. Weidensaul,

Livery and Boarding Stables,

Near Baker House.

Prices to suit the times....

Central Livery and

Boarding Stables,

Lewisburg, Pa. J. Horan Pro'r.

TELEPHONE CONNECTION.

New Store

Just Opened.

A new and Complete Line of Up-to-date Goods. Call and see me, Market Street, between 2nd and 3d Street.

Geo. H. Fisher,

Lewisburg, Pa.

Beautiful

Photographs.

In order to introduce my work I make the following offer for one month to the pupils of the Institute and Seminary:

My $2 Cabinets Artistic Finish at $1.50 per dozen.

My $3 Cabinets Artistic Finish at $2.00 per dozen.

Having had 24 years of experience in large cities I am enabled to guarantee satisfaction in every particular. I earnestly solicit a share of your patronage.

Very Respectfully,

HUNTER, Photographer,

320 Market St., Lewisburg, Pa.

HEADACHE CURED

By My Special Glasses.

H. J. NOGEL, Eye Specialist.

Eyes Examined Free.

Spectacles & Eye Glasses a Specialty.

Adjusting Eye Glasses and Spectacles a Specialty. Repairing with Neatness and Dispatch.

H. J. NOGEL & BRO.,

JEWELERS AND ENGRAVERS.

Private Optical Parlors.

Buy your groceries of

FOLLMER,

The largest line and freshest stock in the town.

Students' Trade Solicited.

ATTORNEYS.

D. H. GETZ,

Attorney-at-Law,

Lewisburg, Pa.

Law Offices of

ANDREW ALBRIGHT LEISER,

Lewisburg, Union Co., Pa.

J. C. BUCHER,

Attorney-at-Law,

Lewisburg, Pa.

J. THOMPSON BAKER,

Attorney-at-Law,

Lewisburg, Pa.

J. F. DUNCAN,

Attorney-at-Law,

Lewisburg, Pa.

J. W. VANVALZAH,

Attorney-at-Law,

Lewisburg, Pa.

WILLIAM R. FOLLMER,

Attorney-at-Law,

NOTARY PUBLIC, Lewisburg, Pa.

W. J. WILKINSON,

Attorney-at-Law,

Office in Music Hall, Lewisburg, Pa.

ALFRED HAYES,

Attorney-at-Law,

Office opposite Presbyterian Church, Lewisburg, Pa.

James P. Linn, J. Merrill Linn, Philip M. Linn.

1884 1885 1886

J. M. & P. B. LINN,

ATTORNEYS AT LAW,

Successors to J. F. & J. M. Linn.

One Continuous Office. LEWISBURG, PA.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Short Stops and Kick Offs for

Hasty Reading.

E. W. Cober visited R. S. Koser, at Williamsport, during vacation.

Owing to sickness Dr. Loomis was unable to meet his classes yesterday.

Henderson, representing Auld, the Fraternity Jeweler, was a visitor among the Chapters here.

A. W. Johnson, '96, and family have taken up their residence on 7th St. Mr. Johnson is reading law with A. A. Leiser, Esq., '09.

Rev. A. W. Hand, '84, was last week installed pastor of the church at Patham, Conn. Rev. S. B. Meeser, '82, preached the sermon.

Let every man who does not play base ball and who can do anything on the athletic field come out and practice. That is the only way to accomplish anything.

Alfred H. Catterall, M. D., Ex-'96, a graduate of the Medical-Chirurgical College of Philadelphia, who served an appointment in the Chicago Hospital last year, has opened an office at 3100 Cottage Ave., Chicago.

Officers for the term have been elected by Theta Alpha as follows. President, H. C. Fithian; Vice President, H. C. Meserve; Treasurer, I. A. DeWitt; Secretary, E. C. Conover; Critic, M. R. Collins; Censor, I. W. Hantzberger; Curator, J. R. L. Diggs.

J. Ackerman Coles, M. D., and sister, of Scotch Plains, N. J., have presented a very handsome cast of Julius Caesar, life size, mounted on an Italian marble base. It is a precise copy of the one in the Louvre, Paris, and is the only one in America. The cast is presented in memory of Abraham Coles, M. D., Ph. D. LL. D., an honorary alumnus of the University. It has been placed for the present in the College Library.

At the recent meeting of the Muncy Normal Alumni Association the toast "The University in the Scheme of Popular Education," was responded to by Dr. Lincoln Hulley, '88, and Prof. W. W. Kelchner, '86, of the Williamsport High School, spoke on "The High School in the Scheme of Popular Education." Muncy Normal has at Bucknell eight graduates: C. D. Koch, G. T. Ritter, A. A. Smith, D. H. Robbins, R. L. Rantz, G. M. Robbins, H. F. Stabler and F. Reed.

Dr. Aviragnet has nearly finished a lecture on the influence of the tonic accent on the formation of words in the languages derived from the three classical languages: Sanskrit, Greek and Latin. The lecture will be delivered some time this term, and will be of unusual interest and value as Dr. Aviragnet is supplementing his own wide range of knowledge by the use of rare works of which there are few copies in this country.

Ninety-Eight L'Agenda.

This season is approaching when the little lambs will gambol on the tree tops, and the birds will sing on the hillsides, and the Sem. girl will thrust her swan-like neck out the second story window and sigh, "Oh, ain't the moon lovely." But that is not the point. We are all aware that this same season brings with it the question, "What is the L'Agenda going to be? Will '98 again distinguish herself?" We can only say that we hope it may be so—that is, that L'Agenda will reflect some credit upon '98 as a return for the strenuous effort that is being put forth to at least keep the book up to standard.

We are all glad that such a happy chain of events has furnished us with material which will be out of the ordinary. For instance, it is some years since a L'Agenda board had the opportunity of recording such a series of athletic victories as the past year has brought us.

The book is to be about the size of '97's and will cost between $700 and $800. It is dedicated to the memory of the late Prof. F. W. Tustin. One feature of the book which cannot fail to enlist interest is an article by Dr. Harris, entitled, "My Ideal Student." It seems to me every student will be pleased with an opportunity to compare his own somewhat irregular course of action with the course of the ideal student.

F. C. Katherman has made some 35 designs and etchings. All the artistic work is to be wholly original, and is done by members of '98, excepting, of course, the part devoted to the Institute Art Department. There are to be about twenty half-tones of the teams, fraternities, colonial reception, etc. The board has thought it just as well to leave out the time-worn eating club guides and saws. Also some marked changes in proportion and arrangement have been made. Withal, we ourselves are encouraged and fully believe that the readers will not be disappointed.

The 50th anniversary of B. U. is an event which has fallen to the lot of '98 to duly record. The editor-in-chief has not failed to recognize these advantages of circumstances and is working very hard to prove his gratitude to the Fates.

L. H. Burge has been appointed assistant in the Chemical Laboratory.

M. L. Anthony has returned to Bucknell after an absence of a year and expects to complete his course.

Mrs. Hully has taken a short trip to Philadelphia to visit the oculist, after which she will spend a few days in Baltimore.

The annual sermon before the University Christian Association will be delivered in the Baptist church, next Sunday morning by the Rev. L. C. Barner, D. D., of Pittsburg. He will lecture in Bucknell Hall, Monday evening, April 12th.

Daglish, The Tailor.

Our Merchant Tailoring Department has the latest Foreign and Domestic Suitings and Trouserings.

Ready-made Clothing nearly equal to the made to order articles at prices that will astonish you.

The Mens' Furnishing Department has just what you want.

Daglish, The Tailor.

Daglish, The Tailor.

Daglish, The Tailor.

Daglish, The Tailor.

Daglish, The Tailor.

Daglish, The Tailor.

Daglish, The Tailor.

Daglish, The Tailor.

Daglish, The Tailor.

Daglish, The Tailor.

Daglish, The Tailor.

Daglish, The Tailor.

Daglish, The Tailor.

Daglish, The Tailor.

Daglish, The Tailor.

Daglish, The Tailor.

Daglish, The Tailor.

Daglish, The Tailor.

Daglish, The Tailor.

Daglish, The Tailor.

Daglish, The Tailor.

Daglish, The Tailor.

Daglish, The Tailor.

Daglish, The Tailor.

Daglish, The Tailor.

Daglish, The Tailor.

Daglish, The Tailor.

Daglish, The Tailor.

Daglish, The Tail

Ginter & Cook
The Face Takers
Have been selected
Official Photographers
For Class of '97

418 Market Street, CALL OFTEN.

For an EASY SHAVE go to
MILLER, The Barber,
North 2d St., Lewisburg, Pa.

P. W. Himmelreich,
Dealer in
DRY GOODS,
GROCERIES, ETC.
Trunks, Satchels and Traveling Bags

CAMERON HOUSE,
T. F. Moyer, Prop.

Lately Renovated and Remodeled.
Commercial Sample Room.
Located in Business Centre.

Free 'Bus and Telephone.
Electric Lights: Steam Heat.

Lewisburg, Pa.

CHARLES A. HESS,
THE
Gentleman's Tailor;
Market Street.

Lewisburg, Penna.

WE MAKE SUITS THAT FIT

Go to T. G. EVANS'
UNIVERSITY BOOK STORE,
For your Text Books
and Stationery.

For a good
Livery Turnout
Go to
W. W. BROWN,
North 3d Street, Lewisburg, Pa.

Base Ball Outlook.

The candidates for the Base Ball team started to work last Thursday with light practice. The season has been unusually backward, and no practice has been indulged in except in the cage during the winter months. During the recent spring recess, Manager Leshar had the Athletic field improved and the "diamond" scraped and rolled. The old tree that has stood for many years in right field, and has a record for knocking many fielders senseless, has at last been cut down.

The present season promises to be a prosperous one for the base ball nine. About twenty of Bucknell's base ball talent have presented their names to Captain Mulkie as candidates for the team. Among the number are Geary, captain of last year's nine, Catterall, Jenkinson, Grim of last year's team and his younger brother, McQuistan, Weymouth, Gilchrist, Griffith, Purdy, Whittenmyer, and Conover. Edward Shortell, of South Jersey fame comes to us as coach and will also do the pitching for the team this season. Captain Mulkie is a steady player himself, and while not as strong at the bat as he should be, he is by far the best infielder in the College. Under the coaching of Shortell and Mulkie the men who are candidates for the nine should develop well, and fully over other seasons and be able to put up a good article of ball.

On Monday afternoon the condition of the players from the point of the writer's view was this: Shortell is showing up in good form, his arm is strong and his playing warm, it is impossible to say at present just how strong he is at the bat. Geary and Griffith are candidates for third base, both play a fair game and it may be possible that one will be used in the outfield, as to their relative merits, Geary has a good arm and throws from third base without difficulty, while Griffith's arm is weak and it is about all he can do to throw across the diamond. Griffith in his playing is much more easy and graceful than Geary who is heavy on his feet. Geary is a sure hitter and a good twirler—a man who uses his head in all his playing. Griffith is also a good batter and a fast base runner. Catterall is our best back stop and an elegant all around player. He is somewhat careless in his playing, however, and can be improved in his batting. Grim, who is after his old place at second base, is a fine infielder and a steady player, at the bat he is weak and needs much development in this direction. The younger Grim does not show the form of his brother in infield work, he is a candidate for the position to cover first base. Weymouth, another new man in base ball circles at the college is also a candidate for first base. It is too early in the season to judge of his ability to cover the bag. Gilchrist has taken to the outfield, he is a sure catch, but does not cover much ground. Jenkinson, who is also after a field handles himself well, but lacks in ability to cover territory; if he can get back to his old form of batting he will be a valuable man for the team. McQuistan is one of the heaviest batters on the field and is a fair catcher, his arm, however, is short and his fielding weak.

There are many other men out occasionally, but they have not gotten into form so that we can judge as to their ability. If all the candidates come out regularly and a good second team is available, there will be a game every other night throughout the season; on all other nights team work will be a feature of the season's training. There is no reason why Bucknell should not turn out the finest base ball nine in her history, this year; the talent is here, we have good trainers; the only remaining thing is individual effort toward perfection.

Manager Leshar has requested that an assistant base ball manager be appointed.

The Executive Committee has appointed Geo. T. Ritter. We congratulate the Executive committee for their excellent choice. We wish to notify the players that the assistant has access to all base ball material and it can be secured from him as well as from the manager.

Capt. Geary has many sympathizers in his accident. To break a finger on the first day of practice is hard luck.

Institute Items.

The Institute was quite deserted during vacation.

Several of the Institute girls did not return until yesterday afternoon.

We are glad to welcome back Miss Grace DeWitt who has been ill for several weeks.

Misses Harriet and Adelaide Gurthrie were guests at the Institute last Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Larison and a number of the young ladies attended the lecture by Dr. Harris yesterday morning.

The party that spent the week in Washington with Mrs. Larison as chaperon, report a delightful time.

The evening spent at the home of Mr. Hanna last Thursday was greatly enjoyed by those who were present. Pillow-Dex and other games were played, after which refreshments were served.

The '97 Shoes
are in
at Marsh's.

Lunch,
Billiards,
Opera House Restaurant.

Go to WARD,

The Barber.
Finest Tonsorial Parlors in Town

A. W. STEPHENS,
Clothing to Order
or Ready-made.
Sales Agent for Wanamaker & Brown

FRESH
Whitman's Candies..
—AT—
Wolfe's Drug Store, 2nd and Market Streets

The Orange and Blue.

BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY.

VOL. I. LEWISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, APRIL 13, 1897. No. 5.

MILTON VS BUCKNELL.

Opening of the Base Ball Season at Bucknell.

The Bucknell Base Ball nine played its first game of the season with a nine from Milton on Saturday. The weather was raw and unfit for good playing, being a day for foot ball rather than base ball. Only six innings were played and little interest was taken in the game.

Shortell, Bucknell's new ball tosser, and Catterall, filled the points for the college boys, while Ahorn and Seidell composed the battery for Milton. Shortell showed up in good form, holding the visitors down to five hits and giving them only one run.

Geary went in the box in the sixth inning and retired the side in one, two, three order. Here the game ended as Milton did not wish to play the three remaining innings. Following is the score:

|               | BUCKNELL  | MILTON  |
|---------------|-----------|---------|
| D. Grinnon 2b | 2 1 1 0   | 0 0 1 0 |
| Conover cf    | 2 2 0 0   | 0 0 1 0 |
| Geary 1b      | 1 4 2 0   | 0 0 1 0 |
| Shortell p    | 1 2 0 0   | 0 0 1 0 |
| Mulkie ss     | 1 1 0 0   | 0 0 1 0 |
| Catterall c   | 0 1 8 0   | 0 0 1 0 |
| Grimm if      | 1 2 0 0   | 0 0 1 0 |
| Jenkinson cf  | 0 2 0 0   | 0 0 1 0 |
| Garnier 3b    | 0 0 1 0   | 0 0 1 0 |
| Gilchrist of  | 0 0 0 0   | 0 0 1 0 |
| McQuistan rf  | 0 0 0 0   | 0 0 1 0 |
| Weymouth lf   | 0 0 1 0   | 0 0 1 0 |
|               | 8 7 15 10 | 0 0 1 0 |

|             | MILTON   | BUCKNELL |
|-------------|----------|----------|
| Seidell ss  | 0 0 1 0  | 0 0 1 0  |
| Burnham 2b  | 0 0 1 0  | 0 0 1 0  |
| Tenial c    | 0 1 1 1  | 0 0 1 0  |
| Ahorn p     | 1 1 0 2  | 0 0 1 0  |
| Geiger 3b   | 0 0 1 2  | 0 0 1 0  |
| Schreyer 1b | 0 1 0 0  | 0 0 1 0  |
| Kaufman rf  | 0 0 2 0  | 0 0 1 0  |
| Louth lf    | 0 0 1 0  | 0 0 1 0  |
| Kase cf     | 0 0 0 0  | 0 0 1 0  |
|             | 1 5 15 9 | 0 0 1 0  |

Bucknell..... 2 1 0 5 0 8
Milton..... 0 0 1 0 0 1
Struck out by Shortell 5, by Geary 1.
by Ahorn 1. Base stolen, Bucknell 4.
Bases on balls, off Ahorn 3. Sacrifice hits Geary 2, Jenkinson 1. Two-base hit Conover. Umpire W. J. Wilkinson. Scorer Griffith.

Relay Team Selected.

The Relay Team was selected Saturday, April 10. The day was cold and the track not the most desirable. Each man was run alone. The timekeepers were Profs. Bartol and Riemer and G. T. Ritter. The team selected is: Pierce, Conover, Riemer and Meeker. Capt. Young and Pierson were the next best men. Besides those already named, Gold, Strayer, Bell, Green and Slifer contested.

Manager Leshar desires to thank those who turned out to see the game Saturday, and he earnestly requests all who have any interest in the team to attend the game next Saturday and encourage the players.

LECTURE BY DR. BARNES.

The Temptations and Joys of a Bishop.

In his lecture last night Dr. Barnes made the following points: If the temptations of a Bishop are sevenfold, his joys are sevenfold greater.

The common temptations of humanity are his with special stress in some directions. He is tempted to be lazy, to be a baby, to be a petty pope, to be a place-hunter, to be a dilettante, to be a sermon-monger, to play the role of a heretic.

But his joys are of the keenest kind and of the widest sweep. (1) A joy of leading men into the large love and life of God. (2) A joy of large liberty in his own life and thought. (3) A joy of great variety in his occupation. (4) A joy of width in the range of his material. (5) A joy of world-wide scope in his field of activity. (6) A joy of having unequalled opportunities for human friendships. (7) A joy of indispensable fellowship with God.

During his short stay Dr. Barnes has won the friendship and admiration of all who have had the pleasure of meeting him. His hearty, unassuming manner and genial smile show that his mind is occupied with the joys rather than the temptations of a Bishop.

Literary Societies.

THETA ALPHA.

On Friday evening Theta Alpha was given the rare treat of hearing Prof. Martin read from Browning on Olive. All were held fixed throughout the reading by the realistic rendering of the powerful poem.

The literary societies appreciate the growing interest of the professors and are grateful for their kind assistance. Nothing can stimulate the societies more than the co-operation of the Faculty. Dr. Perriue and Prof. Phillips have promised to give talks some time this term.

EUPHIA'S JOURNALISTIC EVENING.

The program at the regular meeting of Euphia on Friday evening was given to a review of college journalism at Bucknell. The MNROR was represented by E. C. Kunkle, L'Agenda by E. H. Dutton, the College Song-book by V. B. Fisk and THE ORANGE AND BLUE by J. V. Leshar.

Practice yesterday on the ball field was promising. Ho for a winning team. The men are here, all they need is practice.

A tribe of gypsies are camping this side of Milton; any person who wishes to know his future can ascertain it by calling on their Queen, Madame L'Vette Romeo.

Mandolin and Guitar Recital.

Last Thursday evening the first mandolin and guitar recital of the "L'Allegro Mandolin and Guitar Club" was given, under the auspices of the School of Music, in Bucknell Hall. Despite the pouring rain an audience of about a hundred listened to the following program:

March—"El Capitan"..... Sousa
CLUB.
Guitar Solo—Selections from "Martha".....
MR. H. B. MOYER.
Joel Ettinger's Great Success, McKinley Inaugural March..... Art J. B. Martin CLUB.

Mandolin Duett—"Mazurka"..... Bohn
MESSRS. HOWER AND MARTIN.
Evening Serenade..... Tocaben
CLUB.

Trio—"La Libellule"..... Tocaben
MESSRS. CHISHOLM, MARTIN, MCKINLEY
Mandolin Solo—"Mexican Butterfly Dance"..... Clark
MR. J. B. MARTIN.
Waltzes—"Garden of Love"..... Art Knight
CLUB.
Mandolin and Guitar Duett. Waltzes from "Isle of Champagne"..... C. Messrs. MARTIN AND MOYER.
March—"Colored Four Hundred"..... Art Knight
CLUB.

The program as a whole was delightful. The club played in perfect unison, with the precision, assurance and finish of a professional organization. The full, free swing with which they came down the home-stretch of the McKinley Inaugural March showed them all to be thoroughbred musicians, and the stirring air was as near to martial music as can be struck from the merry mandolin or gay guitar.

H. B. Moyer was unable to comply with a request from the audience to render another guitar solo, because he had no other score. The club deserves the high commendation and hearty congratulation of all. When five young men succeed in holding an audience during a whole evening with performances on but two instruments, they fall little short of genius. Thanks for the delightful entertainment are due to the leader, J. B. Martin, upon whose energy and talent rest the existence and success of the club.

Last Friday night Dr. Harris delivered his lecture "The Fall of Richmond" at Milton.

Until the track at Brook Park gets into shape for running the Relay Team will practice on the cinders along the railway across the river. Last evening the men took their first practice as a team.

At a meeting of '99 yesterday Cober, Hall, Hazen, Rentz, Nesbit and Deibler were appointed ushers for the Freshman contest in Declamation. The class adjourned to meet in the Laboratory next Tuesday at 4 P. M. when editors will be elected for next year's L'Agenda.

RESIGNATION OF MRS. LARISON.

The News is a Great Surprise to her Many Friends.

Last Friday Mrs. Larison sent to the Board of Trustees her resignation as Principal of the Institute. When the rumor became current in the town every one expressed surprise and sorrow. During the many years of her stay in Lewisburg, Mrs. Larison has won the warm friendship of all who knew her, and her name and personality are so closely associated with the Institute that her departure will be felt not only in the University but throughout the town.

Beside the warm affection in the hearts of all, Mrs. Larison leaves behind her a record of high scholarship and great executive ability. In 1867 Mrs. Larison, then Katherine E. Brown, was graduated at the Institute. After being instructor and acting principal, in 1882 she was elected principal. Mrs. Larison has the honor of being the first woman to receive an honorary degree from the University. In 1889 the University conferred upon her the degree, Master of Arts.

Popular Lecture Course.

The lecture course arranged by the Finance Committee of the Athletic Association is going to be one of the most attractive events of the term. As the lecturers give their services free, tickets for the course will be but 25 cts. At that price every student can afford to take one, and as the entire receipts, except cost of printing, will be applied to the debt of the Athletic Association, each person taking a ticket will help to reduce the heavy obligation now hanging over the Association.

The course will open on April 22, Dr. Lincoln Hulley giving "James Whitcomb Riley."

On April 29, Col. George Nox McCain, of the Philadelphia Press, will give an illustrated lecture on Venezuela. During the boundary line discussion between the United States and England, when war seemed imminent, Col. McCain was at once sent to Venezuela to make a thorough investigation for the Press. The illustrations for his lecture are from photographs of the places he visited.

The course will conclude with a lecture by Dr. Enoch Perriue on "Some Proverbs—not Solomon's."

To hear all three of these cultured speakers for 25 cts. is an opportunity no one should miss.

The base ball buzzards have begun again to roost on the rail road track. The game next Saturday will be with Selinsgrove, on the College campus.

Bucknell University,

John Howard Harris, President.

THE COLLEGE.

Four courses leading to degrees in Arts, Philosophy and Science; over one hundred subjects of study; separate Laboratory, Gymnasium and Observatory buildings; large library; ample endowment; modern facilities.

THE ACADEMY.

A preparatory school for young men and boys. Fits for college and the best technical schools.

THE INSTITUTE.

A boarding school for young women; three courses of study leading to diplomas. Art studio.

THE SCHOOL OF MUSIC.

For both sexes. Offers graduating courses in music; courses in piano, pipe-organ, violin, harmony, etc., leading to diploma. The school is under the direction of a French artist, assisted by a corps of excellent teachers.

For catalogue and further information concerning any department of the University, address,
William C. Gretzinger, Registrar,
Lewisburg, Pennsylvania.

THE ORANGE AND BLUE.

LEWISBURG, PENN'A.

PUBLISHED ONCE A WEEK DURING THE COLLEGE YEAR BY STUDENTS OF BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY.

Entered at Post Office at Lewisburg as second-class mail matter.

SUBSCRIPTION $1.00 PER YEAR.

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF: Walter L. Hill.

ASSOCIATES: M. R. Collins, W. F. Richards, O. R. LeVan.

BUSINESS MANAGER: S. W. Gilpin.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS: John V. Leisher, Pres. John M. Gandy, Vice Pres. L. B. Simmette, Sec. L. T. Butler, Treas.

A. Kato Goddard, Geo. T. Ritter, S. W. Gilpin, W. L. Hill, R. E. Mulke, O. R. LeVan, R. H. Kress, W. S. Holland.

Printed by the Journal, Lewisburg, Pa.

TUESDAY, APRIL 13, 1897.

While the game Saturday was with a picked-up nine, the men showed that there is some good ball playing in them. Bucknell has long wanted a good base ball team and now is the chance to have one. Conscientious work on the part of every man and an eye single to the winning of games instead of a desire to play to the grand-stand will bring their sure reward. There is no reason why Bucknell should not have the most successful base ball season of her history. So let's have it.

It has been suggested that the ORANGE AND BLUE give a critical review of the literary productions in each issue of the Mirror. Such an attempt is beyond the sphere of this paper; but we are free to suggest that the Mirror itself institute a department of criticism in which the literary work of the previous issue be reviewed. If some competent and fair-minded person could be secured for the purpose, contributors would be put on their mettle and the literary qualities of their work greatly improved.

At the annual business meeting of the Emmanuel Baptist Church of Camden, N. J., Rev. J. N. Folwell, Ex. '93, announced that he intends to retire from active ministry on his seventieth birthday, which occurs soon. During his pastorate Rev. Folwell has brought the various church branches to an efficient state and has reduced greatly the church debt.

Denominational Unity.

After the lecture by Dr. Harris on Moral Pathfinders the following thoughts from a sermon delivered recently by Dr. Lincoln Hulley at Immanuel Church, Baltimore, cannot fail to be of interest.

"Denominational strife began early. Church history shows long chapters of disputes, quarrels and bitterness. After all Christendom had been agitated by Luther, the German reformers again divided into factions. The English reformation soon began to develop opposite camps. Quakers, Puritans, Presbyterians, Baptists, Methodists started in this way. These again split up. Baptists are known as Six Principles Baptists, Seventh Day Baptists, Free Will Baptists, etc. Most of these grew out of church fuses. Little men, usually ministers, men of one idea, ignorant and belligerent, more given to a controversial spirit than to pure Christianity, became partisans and take up the cudgels. Hatred, bitterness, hard names result.

"If our churches asked for a few essentials, and enforced the adoption of the Bible as a creed, and then permitted honest differences of opinion, it would tend toward a more generous Christian feeling. It might foster some errors, but it would foster more faith too. Truth is like the ocean. Our eyes see only to the horizon limit. There is more ocean beyond. Our denominational distinctions, while important, are not on the great essentials, although by repeated emphasis they may seem to be. "Denominational unity was prayed for by Christ. It was contended for by Paul with reference to the factions at Corinth. It is believed in by Christians now. But when it comes it will be unity in diversity. Some of the small denominations, in so far as they are not factions, are doing a good work in seeking to give greater prominence to neglected teachings of the Bible. They need never be asked to surrender their position, or to cease from pressing it. But just as some people cannot argue without getting mad, so some churches cannot insist on their beliefs without insult to all who disagree.

"In every single church there is unity in diversity. In every church nearly there are individuals who differ more than denominations do. Unity is not uniformity, nor sameness. The unity of the church to be may be likened to the unity of an organism. Paul compares it to the body.

The signs of this unity are evident and many. The denominations are drawing closer together. The Christian Endeavor movement, the week of prayer, the Sunday-school lessons, union meetings of the clergy, reform conventions, exchanges of pulpits all point toward a day when we can meet on the basis of a broader charity. In essentials let there be unity, in non-essentials liberty and in all things charity."—The Sun, Baltimore.

Tennis Association.

About twenty tennis players met in Theta Alpha Hall last Saturday morning to organize a permanent Tennis Association. With Prof. Phillips as chairman a committee—W. M. Bunnell, D. H. Elliott, and J. L. Cattell—was appointed to draft a constitution, and H. L. Purdy was elected president of the permanent organization.

Different plans were discussed and several suggestions offered. The only definite objects at present are to enter inter-collegiate tournaments, to hold two tournaments at Bucknell each year, a handicap tournament, and a free for all. Only members can contest in the college tournaments and all are invited to join the association. The meeting adjourned to meet next Saturday morning at 10 o'clock in Theta Alpha Hall.

File your copies of THE ORANGE AND BLUE. Each issue is valuable.

School of Music Notes.

The instrumental Quintet Club will hold its meeting every Monday evening this term, instead of Thursday afternoon as of last term.

The Recital given by the L'Allegro Mandolin and Guitar Club was highly appreciated and it is hoped it will be repeated.

Dr. Aviragnet would be pleased to have the members of the University Band and the choirs of the churches attend the free lectures on Music in Bucknell Hall every Saturday morning at 10.30.

Dr. Aviragnet will give a prize in May to that member of the graduating class in music who shall present the best composition on assigned words for a mixed quartette with piano accompaniment. Three years ago this prize was awarded to Miss Foust of Watertown, and her composition was sung in Bucknell Hall and in the Baptist Church.

Mr. Abbott was strong in his impersonation of Casca. The gruff old Roman was presented in a light new to many of us. No one should miss the recital of Hamlet next Friday evening.

J. W. BICKLE, THE BARBER,
Third St., Lewisburg, Pa.
Students' Work a Specialty.

R. J. Weidensaul,
Livery and Boarding Stables,
Near Baker House.

Prices to suit the times....

Central Livery and Boarding Stables,
J. Horan Prop'r., Lewisburg, Pa.
TELEPHONE CONNECTION.

New Store Just Opened.

A new and complete line of Up-to-date Goods. Call and see me, Market Street, between 2nd and 3d Street.

Geo. H. Fisher,
Lewisburg, Pa.

Beautiful Photographs.

In order to introduce my work I make the following offer for one month to the pupils of the Institute and Seminary:
My $2 Cabinets Artist's Finish at $1.50 per dozen.
My $3 Carbonets at $2.00 per dozen.

Having had 24 years of experience in large cities I am enabled to guarantee satisfaction in every particular. I earnestly solicit a share of your patronage.
Very Respectfully,
HUNTER, Photographer,
328 Market St., Lewisburg, Pa.

HEADACHE CURED By My Special Glasses.

H. J. NOGEL, Eye Specialist.

Eyes Examined Free.

Spectacles & Eye Glasses a Specialty.

Adjusting Eye Glasses and Spectacles a Specialty. Repairing with Neatness and Dispatch.

H. J. NOGEL & BRO.,
JEWELERS AND ENGRAVERS.

Private Optical Parlors.

Buy your groceries of

FOLLMER,
The largest line and freshest stock in the town.
Students' Trade Solicited.

ATTORNEYS.

D. H. GETZ,

Attorney-at-Law,

Lewisburg, Pa.

Law Offices of

ANDREW ALBRIGHT LEISER,

Lewisburg, Union Co., Pa.

J. C. BUCHER,

Attorney-at-Law,

Lewisburg, Pa.

J. THOMPSON BAKER,

Attorney-at-Law,

Lewisburg, Pa.

J. F. DUNCAN,

Attorney-at-Law,

Lewisburg, Pa.

J. W. VANVALZAH,

Attorney-at-Law,

Lewisburg, Pa.

WILLIAM R. FOLLMER,

Attorney-at-Law,

NOTARY PUBLIC. Lewisburg, Pa.

W. J. WILKINSON,

Attorney-at-Law,

Office in Music Hall, Lewisburg, Pa.

ALFRED HAYES,

Attorney-at-Law,

Office opposite Presbyterian Church, Lewisburg, Pa.

James F. Linn, J. Merrill Linn, Philip H. Linn.

J. M. & P. B. LINN,

ATTORNEYS AT LAW.

Successors to J. F. & J. M. Linn.

One Continuous Office. LEWISBURG, PA.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Short Stops and Kick Offs for

Hasty Reading.

Nothing But—

Nothing to do but work;
Nothing to eat but food;
Nothing to wear but clothes;
To keep one from being nude.

Nothing to breathe but air—
Quick as a flash 'tis gone—
Nowhere to fall but off.

Nothing to sleep but bed,
Nothing to weep but tears;
No one to bury but dead.

Nothing to sing but songs;
Ah, well, alas! and slack!—
Nowhere to go but out.

Nothing to see but sights;
Nothing to quench but thirst;
Nowhere to come but back.

Nothing to strike but a gait—
Everything moves that goes.
Nothing to all but common sense.
Can ever withstand these woes.

The snow was a great surprise.
Now the question is, who will succeed Mrs. Larison?

There are seven in the new class in Bacteriology.

Get your tickets for the popular lecture course before they run out.

H. F. Harris, '96, and C. D. Koeh '98, are teaching at Muncy Normal.

Miss Margaret Raikolast week visited her friend Miss Stoner, of Sunbury.

Instructor Davis has preserved the skeleton of the dog run over on the Reading.

On Sunday night C. H. Senn and C. L. Douglas were initiated into Kappa Sigma.

H. L. Guss Ex. '97 is still in town. He is expected to return soon to Princeton.

On Sunday Dr. Harris preached in the Fourth Avenue Baptist Church of Pittsburg.

Mr. Abbott will preach again in the Christ Church next Sunday morning and evening.

Messrs. Tees and Heaster, of State College, visited their friends in the University and town last week.

There is some talk of a social to be given in Tustin Gymnasium for the benefit of the Athletic Association.

Ducks are now flying north and a number of the sporting students have been shooting at them in the past week.

Rev. A. W. Hodder, a former student at Bucknell, is president of the New York Conference of Baptist ministers.

I. H. Buckminster, '99, is recovering from an attack of tonsillitis. He has been confined to his bed for a week.

Bruce Trimmer, Rush H. Kress and Sam Wittemeyer were entertained at dinner Thursday by Mrs. Nellie C. Marsh.

Miss Henrietta Allen, Ex. '99, left yesterday afternoon after visiting friends in town. She is teaching school in Tioga county.

LECTURE BY DR. AVIRAGNET.

The Science of Music.

Hardly a score availed themselves of the opportunity to hear Dr. Aviragnet lecture in Bucknell Hall, last Saturday morning. It was quite surprising that all who sing in the chapel or church choirs, and all who play in the band, were not present. For the chance to learn the scientific and historical foundations of music is indeed a rare one. There are few men in the country so conversant with music in all its details as Dr. Aviragnet, and any one, whether a musician or not, who does not attend the free course of lectures to be given at 10.30 each Saturday morning in Bucknell Hall, is neglecting a valuable opportunity for self-culture. Ignorance of music is ignorance of emotion, and ignorance of emotion is ignorance of life.

Dr. Aviragnet began with an explanation of the various positions of the clef, some of which are unknown to many who call themselves musicians. In tracing the history of music an interesting fact was brought out about the names of notes. Early Italian music was written on four lines, and Guido D'Arezzo (995-1050), instead of calling the notes A, B, C, etc., named them after the first syllables in the lines of a hymn to John the Baptist:

Ut queant laxis
Resonare fibris
Mira gestorum
Famuli tuorum
Solve polluti
Labi reatum
Sancte Joannes.

Ut was changed because of its closed tone to Do, the first syllable of Domini.

An interesting anecdote was told of Gounod, a famous French musician. A man who was writing a history of music went to him and asked when music originated. "My friend," answered Gounod, "music is old as the world. The first cradle-song was sung by our grandmother Eve. We have not the manuscript, but we know that she sang." When asked to explain, Gounod, after asking if poetry did not always come before prose, pointed out the tonic accent in several languages, and gave the sing-song language of the Chinese as the best proof, for the Chinese are the oldest people known, and they retain the habits of their forefathers with religious scrupulousness.

In conclusion Dr. Aviragnet explained that a study of the old form of music is necessary to an appreciation of the new form which omits the clef, and that therefore the next few lectures will be given to such a study. Then he extended a cordial invitation to all to be present next Saturday morning, and his hearers showed their gratitude for the treat by a hearty round of applause.

Dr. Aviragnet is giving a class in French pronunciation daily from 3 to 3.30. Anyone who is not busy at that hour is welcome. No charge made, no credit given.

Daglish, The Tailor.

Our Merchant Tailoring Department has the latest Foreign and Domestic Suitings and Trouserings.

Ready-made Clothing nearly equal to the made to order articles at prices that will astonish you.

The Mens' Furnishing Department has just what you want.

Daglish, The Tailor.

J. E. K. SCHWENK,
Dealer in
Groceries and
General Merchandise
Lewisburg, Pa.
Special attention given to Students' Clubs.

GEO. STEIN & BRO.,
Fresh Meats,
Orders Cordially Solicited.

296 Market Street - - - Lewisburg, Pa.

You can always depend upon

JOHN REED

to deliver your trunk at the proper place at the proper time. Special attention to students.

Flour, Grain Feed & Straw.

Hay and Straw.

G. D. Bertolette,

No. 21 North Third Street.

Dr. Barber's Dentoline

Cleanses the Teeth,

Purifies the Breath. Sample Free.

Baker's Drug Store.

Fresh Crushed Strawberries at BAKER'S Soda Fountain.

DENTISTS.

DR. R. H. SPEARE,

P. O. Building, Lewisburg, Pa.

Office Hours: 9 a. m. to 12 m. 12.30 p. m. to 6 p. m.

W. R. ROLAND, D. D. S.,

Cor. Market and 3d St., Lewisburg, Pa.

GAS ADMINISTERED.

J. G. STROHECKER,
Guarantees his milk
To be pure
Student's Trade Solicited.

HOWER & SON,
Furniture
Dealers.

W. A. LEIBY,

Dealer in

Fresh Meats, Groceries,

LEWISBURG, PENN'A.

Special attention given to clubs.

H. R. MILLER,

TAILOR.

Fine Styles, Work Guaranteed.

Prices the Lowest.

Harry Stahl

Dealer in

Foreign AND Domestic GROCERIES

All the News all the time

at the

Newest News Stand

In the town; also a full line of Every Day Stationery at

FEIGLEY'S.

HYATT'S SHOE STORE,

Wolfe Block,

For Spring Shoes.

Ginter & Cook The Face Takers Have been selected Official Photographers For Class of '97

418 Market Street. CALL OFTEN.

For an EASY SHAVE go to
MILLER, The Barber.
North 2d St., Lewisburg, Pa.

P. W. Himmelreich,
Dealer in
DRY GOODS,
GROCERIES, ETC.
Trunks, Satchels and Traveling Bags.

CAMERON HOUSE,
T. F. Moyer, Propr.

Lately Renovated and Remodeled.
Commercial Sample Room.
Located in Business Centre.

Free Bus and Telephone.
Electric Lights. Steam Heat.

Lewisburg, Pa.

CHARLES A. HESS,
THE
Gentleman's Tailor;
Market Street.
Lewisburg, Penna.

WE MAKE SUITS THAT FIT.
Go to T. G. EVANS'
UNIVERSITY BOOK STORE,
For your Text Books
and Stationery.

For a good
Livery Turnout
Go to
W. W. BROWN,
North 3d Street, Lewisburg, Pa.

Sermon Before the Y. M. C. A.

Rev. L. C. Barnes, D. D., of
Pittsburg, preached the Annual Sermon before the Young Men's Christian Association, in the Baptist Church on Sunday, using as a text Mark 9: 35; Matthew 20: 26, 27, 28; Matt. 23: 10, 11;
and Luke 22: 26. The speaker said it was customary to read a text twice, but that he would read it four times. This he did by reading the four passages above, all emphasizing the idea of service.

Every teacher has his favorite ideas, Christ's ideas were devotion
(1) to God, (2) to man. The idea of service is a supreme idea.
There is a wide-spread notion to be simply good, good in keeping from evil, from actually committing crime. This is negative goodness. It is to be good, but good for nothing.

The spirit of asceticism is to be discarded. Men must mingle with their fellows. Real Christianity is that which Christ taught. He went about doing good. His life was a life of service.
It is not enough to be good in a negative sense; one must do good if he would follow Christ. The great word of Christianity is service, service to others, for others. The unchristian idea is to be served. Just as one is dominated by the one or the other of these ideas, he is, or is not a Christian.

When Christ washed the disciples' feet, he did a needed service.
Conditions in the East made it necessary to bath one's feet when a house was entered.
The basin of water offered to the stranger or friend visiting a Pittsburg home is a case of somewhat similar nature. Christ did the necessary thing. Those who are Christians copy His life in this supreme matter of service.

The speaker closed with a strong appeal to the intelligence and judgement of his hearers, urging all to enlist for service, to become serving Christians, holding this up as the supreme idea of a noble Christian life.

Ducks were thick on the river yesterday, and Clarence Rogers and George Hyde broke the record by bringing in twenty. Now, who are the sports?

First Shakespearean Recital.

If any came to Bucknell Hall
Friday evening with the expectation of having a dull time they were sadly disappointed. Shakespeare's Julius Caesar was rendered in a way that held the close attention of the audience from start to finish. With a great deal of skill, Mr. Abbott impersonated the various characters of the play so that we again heard the polished oratory of Brutus and the real oratory of Mark Anthony.
It is seldom one can spend an evening with so much profit and at the same time enjoy oneself so much as the audience did under Mr. Abbott's recital.
By attending the next recital of
Mr. Abbott, the student can do good in two ways, first, help himself;
second, help the Athletic Association. Both need it.

Bucknellians Take Part.

At the celebration of "Appomattox Day" by Tucker Post No.
52 G. A. R. last Friday night,
Bucknellians played an important part. Dr. Perrine, the orator of the evening, took for his theme the simpleness of mind while negotiating the terms of surrender with Lee at Appomattox.
Bunnell and Cattell were the male members of a mixed quartette which rendered appropriate selections in a pleasing manner.
Messrs. A. S. Sheller, Bunnell,
Keen and Cattell gave the popular banjo-humming accompaniment while Mr. M. Mulford sang a solo. Miss Mary Thornton was organist. Miss Kuyven of the Seminary gave a humorous declamation illustrative of slave life.

Prof. Hamblin is giving an honorary class in the Greek Testament.
Work in Mark's Gospel was begun Saturday morning.

A cable message announces the death of Margaret Hyatt, the infant daughter of Hon. John T.
Hyatt, '91, Vice Consul at Santiago de Cuba.

Rev. A. Lincoln Moore, '91, of Philadelphia, day before yesterday began the second year of his ministry at the Spruce Street Church. During the year '24 have joined the church, 19 being baptized.

Institute Items.

Miss Margaret Campbell was unable to return to school on account of illness.

Miss Margaret Montgomery was called home suddenly on Saturday by the illness of her brother.

The "Bachelor Maids" and their favorite cats had their pictures taken last Saturday morning.

Mrs. Larison and the members of the Senior and Literature classes, visited Turtle Creek last Thursday afternoon in search of arbutus.

The passengers on the one-twenty-three train on the Reading
R. R. last Thursday must have been amused at the way in which the train was delayed five minutes waiting for a party who were only going to Winfield after arbutus.

The '97 Shoes
are in
at Marsh's.

Lunch,
Billiards,
Opera House Restaurant.

Go to WARD,
The Barber.
Finest Tonsorial Parlors in Town.

A. W. STEPHENS,
Clothing to Order
or Ready-made.
Sales Agent for Wanamaker & Brown

FRESH
Whitman's Candies.
—AT—
Wolfe's Drug Store, 2nd and
Market Street.

The Orange and Blue.

BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY.

VOL. I.

LEWISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, APRIL 20, 1897.

No. 6.

WATSONTOWN vs. BUCKNELL.

Another Victory for Bucknell Last Saturday.

Bucknell's second game of baseball was played on the campus
Saturday afternoon. The game was called promptly at 2:30 by umpire Wilkinson. The Bucknell team had practiced faithfully during the week while several of the Watons town players had not touched a ball since last season.
While Shortell and Catterall were practicing before the game Bucknell narrowly escaped a serious accident. Catterall signaled an "out," Shortell making a mistake in the signal threw an "in," hitting Catterall on the chin. As Mitchell took his place by the backstop, the Bucknell men took their positions in the field.
Seydell the first player up did not notice the ball until "strike!"
was called, at the next delivery he broke the bat and took first base, and then came home. The next three were called up in order then Bucknell went to the bat.
The play was very loose from beginning to end. The players seemed to think that the chief thing was to throw the ball,
the other men did the rest.
Bucknell's hitting was very good showing a decided improvement over previous years. The railroad attracted the usual number of buzzards, while the finance committee did not make expenses.
J. Batdorf, the first base man, was forced to retire at the sixth inning, on account of a broken finger. Ely took his place. McQuistian went into right field in the beginning of the fourth inning, he made the only three-base hit that was made during the game. Several men were merely tried by Bucknell each showing to a good advantage. The Bucknell battery deserve special credit.

On Sunday evening, April 4th,
the only child of Vice Consul
John T. Hyatt, '91, died at the consul's country home, in Cuba.
She was the only child born to native-born Americans since
the outbreak of the insurrection.
The wife and mother, Margaret McLaughlin Hyatt, died, complicated intestinal troubles, superinduced
by climatic conditions, caused the death in both cases. By kindness of a Pennsylvanian the remains of each were taken by special trains to Firmaza, where they were interred in a private cemetery. The Vice Consul's
many friends mourn with him in this his double bereavement.

| BUCKNELL         | R | H | O  | A  | E |
|------------------|---|---|----|----|---|
| B. Grimm, 2b     | 3 | 1 | 2  | 0  | 2 |
| Geary, 1b        | 3 | 0 | 1  | 1  | 0 |
| Shortell, p      | 3 | 2 | 2  | 14 | 0 |
| Mulkie, s.s.     | 1 | 1 | 0  | 0  | 0 |
| G. Grimm, 1f     | 4 | 2 | 0  | 0  | 0 |
| Catterall, c     | 4 | 3 | 14 | 0  | 0 |
| Jenkinson, c.f.  | 3 | 2 | 2  | 0  | 0 |
| Garner, 3b       | 2 | 0 | 0  | 1  | 1 |
| Gilchrist, r.f.  | 1 | 0 | 0  | 0  | 0 |
| McQuistian, r.f. | 0 | 2 | 0  | 0  | 0 |
| Davis            | 0 | 0 | 0  | 0  | 2 |
| WATSONTOWN.      |   |   |    |    |   |
| Seydell, c       | 2 | 0 | 5  | 3  | 0 |
| Roup, 3b         | 2 | 0 | 3  | 4  | 0 |
| Sanders, s.s.    | 2 | 3 | 1  | 1  | 2 |
| J. Batdorf, 1b   | 1 | 0 | 5  | 0  | 3 |
| Diehl, 2b        | 0 | 1 | 0  | 1  | 2 |
| Ahorn, p         | 1 | 1 | 0  | 7  | 1 |
| W. Batdorf, 1f   | 0 | 0 | 0  | 0  | 0 |
| Walton, r.f.     | 1 | 0 | 0  | 1  | 2 |
| McCullum, c.f.   | 0 | 0 | 1  | 0  | 0 |
| Ely, 1b          | 0 | 0 | 3  | 0  | 0 |

Struck out by Shortell, 12, by Ahorn,
4, passed ball, Seydell; bases on balls off Shortell, 3, off Ahorn, 3; 3rd base hit, McQuistian; 2nd base hits, G.
Grimm, 1, Jenkinson, 2, Mulkie, Catterall.

Dr. Perrine will deliver a lecture before the Theta Alpha literary society on Friday evening.

Second Shakespearean Recital.

Regardless of the unattractive evening, a large number of students and town people assembled to hear Mr. Abbott's recital. The amount of interest excited at the first recital was manifest in the gain in the audience. For some unaccountable reason the people of this place do not appreciate this kind of literary work. Nevertheless those who attended the Hamlet recital Friday evening were well pleased. The personality of the reciter not only fixed but held the attention of his audience.
His history of the play and description of the Elizabethan theatre and stage were of great value in understanding the play. In the introduction he called it the "Tragedy of the Soul."
Action is the chief aim of life, also the standard of judgment yet mental action has precedence over physical action. The comparison of the personae was carefully drawn in the introduction and faithfully illustrated in the recital. From the explanatory remarks on the soliloquy, together with the examples taken from Addison's Cato and Byron's Manfred, the theology of the reciter could easily be deduced.
The mental picture of Hamlet was permanently fixed upon all.
His characteristic tendency to look in not out, backward not forward, down not up, explains many of the difficult quotations in this character. On Sunday Mr. Abbott officiated in the Christian church.

Vice Consul Hyatt's Double Affliction.

On Sunday evening, April 4th,
the only child of Vice Consul
John T. Hyatt, '91, died at the consul's country home, in Cuba.
She was the only child born to native-born Americans since
the outbreak of the insurrection.
The wife and mother, Margaret McLaughlin Hyatt, died, complicated
intestinal troubles, superinduced
by climatic conditions, caused the death in both cases. By kindness of a Pennsylvanian the remains of each were taken by special trains to Firmaza, where they were interred in a private cemetery. The Vice Consul's
many friends mourn with him in this his double bereavement.

Commencement Program.

Oration before the Literary Societies—President Whitman, of Columbia University.

Address, Institute Commencement—Miss Myra Reynolds, Ph.
D., Chicago.

Oration before the Society of Alumni—Albert Foster, D. D.; Poem—George Whitman, D. D.

Address to the Graduating Class, college—Hon. William N.
Ashman, LL. D.

THE DECLAMATION CONTEST.

The Young Gentlemen of the Freshman Class Declaimed.

The contest in declamation of the Freshman class was held last Saturday evening, in Bucknell Hall. Every available seat in the building was occupied. The stage was tastefully decorated with ferns and palms and handsome bouquets adorned the button-holes of the speakers, which were presented by the ladies of the class. The attention of the audience was held from the beginning to the end of the program.
Great praise is due every contestant for the choice of his production and manner in which he acquitted himself. The program follows:

Tennis Outlook.

The interest in tennis has especially revived this year. The courts are all being put in first class order. The Tennis Association, mention of which was made in our last week's issue, is making an effort to bring the game into popular favor. Several tournaments have been planned.
The first probably is a handicap tournament. In this tournament an effort will be made to give all players a fair show.

The best ones being handicapped so that the poorer ones may have a fair chance of winning.
In this tournament it is especially desired that all will enter. The entrance fee will be small, merely enough to pay expenses.

The regular college tournament will be started earlier than usual so that no player will have to play two tournament series in succession as has previously happened.
The doubles will be conducted on a different principle, it is expected that any couple can enter the tournament without regard to classes, etc. This will bring out more particularly the relative standing in each couple and probably will enlarge the list of entries making the doubles more interesting.

A German band composed of seven players gave several selections
on the hill last Wednesday.

Hypnotism.

Sevengala, the hypnotist, who has been exhibiting in town, came up to the college Saturday morning, and gave a talk to a large audience of students. Sevengala related a short account of his life, which has been a very eventful one, and then placed himself and his subject at the disposal of the students, to answer any question on the subject or to try any hypnotic test. Queries of all kinds were plied in quick succession, but all were answered cheerfully and in a satisfactory manner.

The only reason Sevengala had in bringing one of his own subjects, was to have some one whom he knew was responsive, in order that he might perform the more difficult experiments with the certainty of success. If any one ever suspected that the subject was not in the true hypnosis the illusion was completely dispelled when Sevengala put his subject in the cataleptic state, between two chairs, head on one and heels on the other, and then sat his 192 pounds of avoirdupois upon the young man's chest. The most pathetic hypnotic feat performed before the students, was what is known as the "sensational test." It consisted of placing his subject under a hypnotic state and making him rave as furiously as one suffering from a severe attack of delirium tremens. Sevengala came up to the hill for no glory to himself, but simply for the good of the students, so he was willing to try any one who came forward. He worked on many and quite a number responded;
those who did not were candid enough to say that they had not complied with the necessary condition of concentrated attention, either because they could not or would not. During the talk a collection was taken up for Sevengala's subject and after the performance, a written testimonial was sent to Sevengala himself. Everybody concerned was perfectly frank and candid, and an hour or more was pleasantly spent with this most interesting branch of science.

Messrs. A. G. Spalding & Bro. have donated to the base ball team: one-half dozen bats, one-half dozen balls, a mask and a mit.
This is very magnanimous on the part of the Spaldings, when one considers that the association is heavily in their debt. Every student should show his gratitude and purchase a season ticket to the association's lecture course, the entire proceeds of which will be applied to the aforesaid debt.

A German band composed of
seven players gave several selections
on the hill last Wednesday.

Bucknell University,

John Howard Harris, President.

THE COLLEGE.

Four courses leading to degrees in Arts, Philosophy and Science; over one hundred subjects of study; separate Laboratory, Gymnasium and Observatory buildings, large library; ample endowment; modern facilities.

THE ACADEMY.

A preparatory school for young men and boys. Fits for college and the best technical schools.

THE INSTITUTE.

A boarding school for young women;
three courses of study leading to diplomas.
Art studio.

THE SCHOOL OF MUSIC.

For both sexes. Offers graduating courses in music; courses in piano, pipe, organ, violin, harmony, etc., leading to diploma. The school is under the direction of a French artist, assisted by a corps of excellent teachers.

For catalogue and further information concerning any department of the University, address,

William C. Gretzinger, Registrar,

Lewisburg, Pennsylvania.

THE ORANGE AND BLUE.

LEWISBURG, - - - PENN'A.

PUBLISHED ONCE A WEEK DURING THE COLLEGE YEAR BY STUDENTS OF BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY.

Entered at Post Office at Lewisburg as second-class mail matter.

SUBSCRIPTION $1.00 PER YEAR.

EDITORS:

M. R. Collins, W. F. Eichholtz, O. R. LeVan.

BUSINESS MANAGER:

S. W. Gilpin.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS:

John V. Leisher, Pres. John M. Gundy, Vice Pres.

L. R. Smette, Sec. L. T. Butler, Treas.

A. Kate Goddard, Geo. T. Ritter,

S. W. Gilpin, W. L. Hill,

R. E. Mulkie, O. R. LeVan,

R. H. Kraus, W. S. Holland.

Printed by the Journal, Lewisburg, Pa.

TUESDAY, APRIL 20, 1917.

Bucknell has never had a base ball team that could take its place with the other competing features of the University. We have never before been able to get good material, while the players, such as they were, would not practice. An institution cannot be expected to support a poor team; but a good team can demand the help of the students. This year we have men who are competent to compete with any institution in the State. The men practiced faithfully during the winter term, and are now subjecting themselves to hard training. The two first games were easily won by our team. The expenses of Saturday's game were $12.00, and there were less than fifteen students who paid to support the team, and not double that number took enough interest to come down to cheer the team. If our team is not successful this year, it will be the fault of the student body. If class "scraps" is college spirit carried to the extreme on one side; thirty students cheering the team on their own campus, must certainly be the other extreme. The result of our base ball record for this year, is with the student body.

Rev. Wyant to be Married.

The engagement of Rev. A. R. E. Wyant, B. U. '92, to Miss Louise Hulbert, daughter of E. B. Hulbert, Dean of the Divinity School of the University of Chicago, is announced. Rev. Wyant is making a great success as pastor of the Morgan Park Baptist Church. Among his congregation is the Faculty of the University of Chicago. Under his charge the membership has steadily increased, and during the past year he superintended the erection of a new church building. He still takes an interest in athletics, and frequently advises and coaches the boys of Morgan Park Academy in their games.

Rhetorical.

At a meeting of the College Faculty held on Monday it was resolved that in any public exhibition of Oratory under the auspices of the college authorities (1) Only those topics shall be chosen, which, on consultation, are acceptable to the Professor of Rhetoric. (2) The extreme limit of words shall be eight hundred (800) for the Junior exhibition and one thousand (1000) for the Commencement oration. (3) A correct copy of each oration to be spoken on these occasions shall previously be delivered to the Instructor of Eloquence, and any material departure from this copy either in thought or number of words shall exclude the speaker from consideration by the judges.

Gen. David McMurtre Gregg, well known in Lewisburg, and a former student of the University, will be placed on the retired list with the rank of captain. He was captain of the Sixth United States Cavalry, and brevet major-general of volunteers. He is the only man living in Pennsylvania who held the rank of corps commander of the late war. Chronicle.

Many questions have been asked about the verse that headed the column of the last issue. "Nothing But—" was rescued from a scrap of newspaper, and as nothing showed either authorship or the name of the paper, no credit could be given when it was printed in THE ORANGE AND BLUE. Question marks were omitted through carelessness and the editor who made the mistake would like to hear from anyone who knows where "Nothing But—" originated.

Dr. Aviragnet's Second Lecture.

The second lecture in the course delivered by Dr. Aviragnet on "The Theory of Music" was listened to by a fair number of the lovers of music, in Bucknell Hall, Saturday morning. The Professor opened with a brief review of the previous lecture for the benefit of those who were absent when it was delivered. Considerable emphasis was placed upon the importance of knowing all the clefs used in music.

In vocal music the alto part was originally written for male voices sung an octave higher. This custom is still adhered to in most Episcopal Churches and in the great Cathedrals. The Professor emphasized the importance of knowing the intervals in music, also of training the ear to detect the least imperfection in the production of an interval. It is impossible to produce a perfect tone in reading music without a perfect knowledge of the intervals.

The next lecture will treat the Augmented and Diminished intervals and the scales. Such lectures are worthy of a larger attendance. It is hoped that all interested in music will endeavor to attend the remaining lectures.

School of Music Notes.

J. Brown Martin assisted with the Easter music in the Presbyterian church at Milton.

Last Friday afternoon the vocal and piano pupils of Miss Crawford gave a recital in room B. The following took part: Bells of the Monastery, Miss Dunkelberger; Oh would I were a moonbeam bright, Miss Case; polka, Miss Donachy; The Land of Nod, Miss Goddard; Hilland Gaddie, Miss Oldt; The Brook, Miss Bartol; Hedge Rose, Miss Potter; The Nightingale and the Rose, Miss Chellson; The Butterfly, Miss Prutzman.

The piano pupils of Miss Aikin gave their first recital last Tuesday afternoon in room B. The program consisted of the following selections: Waltz in E minor, Miss Merriman; Mazurka, Miss Bloome; Valse Chromatic, Miss Rolly; Cavallerie, Miss Burke; First Waltz, Miss Taggart; Allegro of First Sonata, Miss Merriman; Duet, Misses Merriman and Steiner.

Great preparations are being made in Phila. for the reception of the various track teams.

J. W. BICKLE, THE BARBER,
Third St., Lewisburg, Pa.
Students' Work a Specialty.

R. J. Weidensaul,
Livery and Boarding Stables,
Near Baker House.
Prices to suit the times.

Central Livery and Boarding Stables,
J. Horan Prop'r., Lewisburg, Pa.
TELEPHONE CONNECTION.

New Store Just Opened.

A new and complete line of Up-to-date Goods. Call and see me, Market Street, between 2nd and 3d Street.

Geo. H. Fisher,
Lewisburg, Pa.

Beautiful

Photographs.

In order to introduce my work I make the following offer for one month to the pupils of the Institute and Seminary:

My $2 Cabinets Artist Finish at $1.50 per dozen.

My $3 Carbonets at $2.00 per dozen.

Having had 24 years of experience in large cities I am enabled to guarantee satisfaction in every particular. I earnestly solicit a share of your patronage.

Very Respectfully,

HUNTER, Photographer,
326 Market St., Lewisburg, Pa.

HEADACHE CURED By My Special Glasses.

H. J. NOGEL, Eye Specialist.

Eyes Examined Free.

Spectacles & Eye Glasses a Specialty.

Adjusting Eye Glasses and Spectacles a Specialty. Repairing with Neatness and Dispatch.

H. J. NOGEL & BRO.,
JEWELERS AND ENGRAVERS.

Private Optical Parlors.

Buy your groceries of FOLLMER,
The largest line and freshest stock in the town.
Students' Trade Solicited.

Danville Steam Laundry

Always up to date. Best work. Lowest prices.

O. R. Harris, Prop. Danville, Pa.

ATTORNEYS.

D. H. GETZ,
Attorney-at-Law,
Lewisburg, Pa.

Law Offices of ANDREW ALBRIGHT LEISER,
Lewisburg, Union Co., Pa.

J. C. BUCHER,
Attorney-at-Law,
Lewisburg, Pa.

J. THOMPSON BAKER,
Attorney-at-Law,
Lewisburg, Pa.

J. F. DUNCAN,
Attorney-at-Law,
Lewisburg, Pa.

J. W. VANVALZAIL,
Attorney-at-Law,
Lewisburg, Pa.

WILLIAM R. FOLLMER,
Attorney-at-Law,
NOTARY PUBLIC. Lewisburg, Pa.

W. J. WILKINSON,
Attorney-at-Law,
Office in Music Hall,
Lewisburg, Pa.

ALFRED HAYES,
Attorney-at-Law,
Office opposite Presbyterian Church,
Lewisburg, Pa.

J. M. & P. B. LINN,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW,
Successors to J. F. & J. M. Linn.
One Continence Office. LEWISBURG, PA.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Short Stops and Kick Offs for Hasty Reading.

L. McQuiston spent Sunday in Sunbury.

Roy Mulkie is visiting his sister at Hazleton.

Miss Nello W. Conrad, '93, of Philadelphia, sails for Europe on June 30.

Two bears and four men furnished considerable amusement on Saturday afternoon in front of the Academy.

Last Sunday Charles Berger, '96, and Miss Mae Sanders, of Lewisburg, were married at Elmira, N. Y.

M. J. Sherwood, Esq., of Marquette, Wis., a former student at Bucknell, was a visitor at the college a few days last week.

A directory of the Penna. R. R. from Sunbury to Williamsport has been placed in the Registrar's office. Students are free to use it.

The Bucknell Mirror now devotes more of its pages to literary work which is a stride forward in its career. This step is a worthy example for several more of our contemporaries. The Muhlenberg.

THE ORANGE AND BLUE acknowledges the receipt of the following exchanges: Lewisburg Journal, Lewisburg Chronicle, The Susquehanna Journal, Division Collegian, Western University Courier and The Student.

Rev. John C. Stock, ex-'97, pastor of First Baptist Church, York Pa., was married to Miss Mary Celema Woodington, of Philadelphia, on Monday evening, April 12th. THE ORANGE AND BLUE extends congratulations.

Mr. Roy B. Mulkie, captain of our base ball team, has been chosen captain of the Conneaut Lake Assembly nine for next summer. As previously announced, E. W. Colver, one of the directors of Tustin Gymnasium, will have charge of general athletics.

Dr. Hulley has been invited to deliver the oration at the quarterly banquet of the Maryland Baptist Social Union in May. The orators on the two last occasions were Rev. Dr. Robert S. MacArthur of New York City and Rev. Dr. Wayland Hoyt, of Phila.

The opening lecture of the Athletic Association course will be delivered next Thursday evening, at 8 o'clock, by Dr. Lincoln Hulley on the subject "James Whitcomb Riley." Every student should take a ticket, and thus help to reduce the association's debt.

The following officers were elected for the present term at the last meeting of Zeta Literary Society: president, Miss Hanna; vice president, Miss Bolenius; secretary, Miss Seiler; treasurer, Miss Faust; critics, Misses Owens and Taylor; program committee, Misses Hartley, Rodgers, Gertrude Stephens and Pooley.

J. H. Cooke spent Easter at Moorsburg with friends.

John Sherman preached at the Marsh Mission on Sunday.

Messrs. Comrey and Evans, '99, spent Easter at their homes in Mahanoy City.

On Friday evening President Harris will tender the College Senior Class a reception.

Miss Deborah Lewis, of the Bloomsburg Normal School, visited Bertha Watkins over Easter.

Due to an accident while riding on a wheel in New York, Miss Hartley was late in returning this term.

Rev. D. M. Jones, a graduate of Bucknell, preached in Milton on Sunday. The University will be helped by his being in charge of the Baptist church at that place.

There will be a joint meeting of the directors and editors of THE ORANGE AND BLUE this evening at 6.45 in the Eupelia Hall. Everyone should be present. Important business is to be transacted.

Dr. W. D. Hollopeter, a prominent Philadelphia physician and a graduate of Bucknell, was in Lewisburg this week on professional business. Before returning to the Quaker City, he visited Muncy, his old home.

Mr. E. H. Heim, B. U. '93, has completed his resident work at the University of Chicago for the degree of Ph. D. and is now completing his thesis. He has made a special study of Administrative Law, and in his thesis will discuss some special features of Federal administration, taking the Post Office Department as the basis of his work.

R. O. Koons who was called to New York City, last Tuesday to attend to some personal business, returned Saturday evening. He reports a very pleasant time. Among the many interesting things he secured while in the city, is a severe case of La Grippe. He is very careful of his new acquisition and says that he will remain in his room as long as it will stay with him.

The Finance Committee of the Athletic Association contemplate holding a social in the Tustin Gymnasium, May 28th and 29th, for the purpose of reducing the debt of the association. A Ladies' Aid Committee will shortly be appointed to aid in making the necessary arrangements. Booths will be erected which will be presided over by ladies.

There are many beautiful bits of scenery about Lewisburg. With some of these the most pleasant of memories are associated in the minds of the students. We have often wished for an accurate photograph of this or that spot. The camera comes to meet the demand, and Mr. Fisk is displaying some clean-cut views in a case at the West Wing bulletin board, near the college book store. The pictures themselves are large (4x5) mounted on wide-margined cards. New views will be placed in the case every few days.

Daglish, The Tailor.

Our Merchant Tailoring Department has the latest Foreign and Domestic Suits and Trousers.

Ready-made Clothing nearly equal to the made to order articles at prices that will astonish you.

The Mens' Furnishing Department has just what you want.

Daglish, The Tailor.

J. E. K. SCHWENK,
Groceries and General Merchandise
Lewisburg, Pa.
Special attention given to Student's Clubs.

GEO. STEIN & BRO.,
Fresh Meats,
Orders Cordially Solicited.
236 Market Street - - - Lewisburg, Pa.

You can always depend upon JOHN REED to deliver your trunk at the proper place at the proper time. Special attention to students.

Flour, Grain, Feed, Etc.
Baled Hay and Straw.
G. D. Bertolette,
No. 21 North Third Street.

Dr. Barber's Dentoline
Cleanses the Teeth,
Purifies the Breath. Sample Free.
Baker's Drug Store.
Fresh Crushed Strawberries at BAKER'S Soda Fountain.

DENTISTS.
DR. R. H. SPEARE,
P. O. Building. Lewisburg, Pa.
Office Hours: 8 a. m. to 12 m.
12:30 p. m. to 6 p. m.

W. R. ROLAND, D. D. S.,
Cor. Market and 3d St.,
Lewisburg, Pa.
GAS ADMINISTERED.

J. G. STROHECKER,
Guarantees his milk
To be pure
Student's Trade Solicited.

HOWER & SON,
Furniture Dealers.

W. A. LEIBY,
Dealer in
Fresh Meats, Groceries,
LEWISBURG, PENN.
Special attention given to clubs.

H. R. MILLER, TAILOR.
Fine Styles, Work Guaranteed.
Prices the Lowest.

Harry Stahl
Dealer in
Foreign and Domestic GROCERIES

All the News all the time
at the
Newest News Stand
In the town; also a full line of Every Day Stationery at PEGLEY'S.

HYATT'S SHOE STORE,
Wolfe Block,
For Spring Shoes.

Academy Items.

J. E. Parker visited his home at Mahanoy City over Easter.

Pierson has gone into the house cleaning business. Any one having work of such a nature will do well to consult him.

The Hoffa brothers spent Sunday at their home in Washingtonville, and were confirmed in the Lutheran church at that place.

Pitts has returned to school again, having gone home to recover from the effects of La Grippe. On his return he stopped over at Lancaster to represent the Academy in the conference of Y. M. C. A. presidents.

The Fourth Form, at their last meeting, decided upon graduating invitations, which will be furnished by a Philadelphia house. Pierson and Dewitt were selected to act as ushers at the Third Form contest in accordance with the request.

Before another issue of our paper the Third Form Declamation Contest will have taken place. As the contestants are working hard for the prize we can insure an interesting entertainment for all. Anthony will be in the contest this year. On account of leaving school last year just before the contest he was unable to participate.

Inasmuch as the Academy Athletic Association holds the pennant won at last year's meet, invitations have been sent to Dickinson Seminary and the High School of Williamsport, also Harrisburg High School, who, including Bucknell Academy, comprise the Inter Scholastic League of Central Penna., to send their managers here to arrange for a similar meet this year.

Institute Items.

Miss Jessie Birkbeck has returned home.

Miss Catherine Dill took tea at the Institute on Saturday evening.

Miss Pensyl has been at her home in Sunbury during the last week fighting a heavy cold.

Miss Bell entertained the pledged Phi Si's and some of their friends in the parlors on Friday evening.

The Y. W. C. A. prayer meeting on Tuesday was led by Principal Edwards. The many girls who were present enjoyed his earnest talk.

We extend our sincere sympathy to Miss Margaret Montgomery who has recently been bereaved of her brother, and also to Miss Bessie Freas, '95, who has had a great sorrow in the death of her father, Dr. Henry L. Freas.

There were several visitors at the Institute over last Sunday. Miss Nellie Nice visited Miss Grace DeWitt. Miss Deborah Lewis spent the day with her cousin Miss Watkins. Miss Nettie Morgan was with her sister Miss Mabel Morgan.

The First Lecture.

The series of popular lectures will be opened on April 22, when Dr. Hulley will give his interesting reading lecture "James Whitcomb Riley." This lecture has been given at Chicago, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Williamsport and many other distant points, while Milton, Millinburg and Muncy have been favoured in this vicinity.

A few of the many clippings from some of the leading newspapers will show how the Dr. and his lecture are received through the country.

Nashville American, Tennessee: "Dr. Hulley is a genius," "clear," "bright," "eloquent" speaker.

Baltimore American: "Dr. Hulley is a forceful speaker and he brought out the simple but kindly character of Riley in a strong light."

Philadelphia Daily: "The lecture reading on James Whitcomb Riley, by Dr. Lincoln Hulley, of Bucknell University, was one of the most enjoyable literary feasts that our people have had for many a day."

Tunkhannock: "House crowded to hear Dr. Hulley's Riley. He recited in an invincible manner."

Wilkes-Barre Times: "Dr. Hulley's lecture on Riley was highly appreciated."

Lake Side, Ohio: "One of our most popular and successful lecturers."

Millinburg Telegraph: "Dr. Hulley has a wonderful memory," "entertaining," and "instructive."

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

There will be special music at the Y. M. C. A. prayer meeting this evening.

The music committee is arranging to have an orchestra in the future.

The meetings for the term are as follows:

April 20: Dead, yet Alive—Rom. VI: 11. Chas. Meeker.

April 27: Does it Pay to Cheat?—Gal. VI: 7. E. Flint.

May 4: Miniature Round Top—C. F. Kulp.

May 11: Jesus No Phantom!—Matt. XIV: 26. J. C. Hazen.

May 18: Northfield, Special Program.

May 25: Travelling for Souls—Is. LXVI: 8. H. M. Olmstead.

June 1: Missionary Meeting.

June 8: Awake! Eph. V: 14. H. C. Fithian.

June 15: The Course Ended—Then What? II Tim. IV: 7-8. R. H. Rivenburg.

The '97 Shoes

are in
at Marsh's.

Lunch, Billiards,

Opera House Restaurant.

Go to WARD,

The Barber.

Finest Tonsorial Parlors in Town.

A. W. STEPHENS,
Clothing to Order
or Ready-made.

Sales Agent for Wanamaker & Brown

FRESH
Whitman's Candies.

—AT—
Wolfe's Drug Store, 2nd and Market Street

CHARLES A. HESS,

THE
Gentleman's Tailor;

Market Street.
Lewisburg, Penna.

WE MAKE SUITS THAT FIT.

Go to T. G. EVANS'

UNIVERSITY BOOK STORE,
For your Text Books
and Stationary

For a good

Livery Turnout

Go to
W. W. BROWN,

North 3d Street. Lewisburg, Pa.

P. W. Himmelmreich,

Dealer in
DRY GOODS,
GROCERIES, ETC.
Trunks, Satchels and Traveling Bags

CAMERON HOUSE,
T. F. Meyer, Prop.

Lately Renovated and Remodeled.
Commercial Sample Room.
Located in Business Centre.

Free 'Bus and Telephone.
Electric Lights—Steam Heat.

Lewisburg, Pa.

Ginter & Cook

The Face Takers

Have been selected

Official Photographers

For Class of '97

419 Market Street, CALL OFTEN.

For an EASY SHAVE go to

MILLER, The Barber,

North 2d St., Lewisburg, Pa.

Bucknell University,

John Howard Harris, President.

THE COLLEGE.

Four courses leading to degrees in Arts, Philosophy and Science; over one hundred subjects of study; separate Laboratory, Gymnasium and Observatory buildings; large library; ample endowment; modern facilities.

For catalogue and further information concerning any department of the University, address,

William C. Gretzinger, Registrar,
Lewisburg, Pennsylvania.

THE ACADEMY.

A preparatory school for young men and boys. Fits for college and the best technical schools.

THE INSTITUTE.

A boarding school for young women; three courses of study leading to diplomas. Art studio.

THE SCHOOL OF MUSIC.

For both sexes. Offers graduating courses in music; courses in piano, pipe-organ, violin, harmony, etc., leading to diploma. The school is under the direction of a French artist, assisted by a corps of excellent teachers.

The Orange and Blue.

BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY.

VOL. I.

LEWISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, APRIL 27, 1897.

No. 7.

THE RELAY RACES.

Bucknell Defeats F. & M., Dickinson and Gettysburg.

Bucknell's Relay Team won a splendid victory in the one mile relay race, at Franklin Field, Philadelphia, last Saturday afternoon. Although interest in track athletics drags somewhat at Bucknell from the fact that we as a class of students do not know enough about them, yet from the deafening cheers of the audience of 8000 people who witnessed the events last Saturday at Phila. it seemed as if they enjoyed it fully as much as a foot ball game.

The Relay in which B. U. was placed ran at 3.37. F. & M. had the pole, Gettysburg 2nd, Dickinson 3rd and B. U. 4th. Meeker, B. U.'s 1st man started beautifully and at once took 2nd place. Dickinson had a very fast man on the 1st relay and they held 1st place until the last relay. Capt. Meeker ran a very hard race from start to finish, and finished as strong as a lion. Riener took 2nd place and started out at a strong pace and kept it up until the finish. He gave Conover 3rd place. Dickinson and Gettysburg were ahead. Conover ran a very hard race and passed his big opponent (Gettysburg) in front of the grand stand. But before he crossed the tape he had 3rd place again. A smile ran over the audience as Conover took 2 steps to Gettysburg's one. Next came Pearce on whom B. U. depended very largely.

Many said B. U. would not take more than 3rd place. But as soon as Pearce started, although he had 3rd place, in an instant people were convinced that he could run. He passed the Dickinson man easily and when about half way around he passed the Gettysburg man. He finished about 12 yds. ahead of the Gettysburg man and the race was B. U.'s. To say that Pearce was the only fast man and deserves the most credit would be doing an injustice to the others. Each man ran his best and B. U.'s men were the best trained in more respects than one. Each man finished in good condition and none of them fell exhausted as he finished his relay as many did during the races. Our team had trained hard and faithfully and the pennant and gold watches are the rewards. But far more, B. U. made a good record, time 3.42 1-5. This beats State College's record, that being 3.44.

Our team certainly labored under disadvantages, and it was only through the persistent efforts of the team that we were able to do anything. Capt. Meeker certainly deserves the highest commendation for the way in which he worked and handled the men.

RECEPTION TO THE '97 CLASSES.

College, Institute and School of Music Entertained by President Harris.

Last Friday evening the senior classes of the College, Institute and School of Music were the recipients of a reception tendered them by President Harris at his home. This reception is one of the social functions of the year to which the members of these classes look forward with a great deal of delight and pleasure, and it is no exaggeration to say that the delight last Friday evening was greater than they had expected.

The president received them in right royal style and by his agreeable manner of making every one in his presence feel at ease, every participant seemed to consider himself or herself a committee of the complimentary remarks that have since been heard concerning the genuine hospitality of Doctor and Mrs. Harris and the enjoyable time spent at their home, the committees accomplished their purpose.

The gentlemen wore their caps and gowns, which lent a charm of dignity to the affair and at the same time elicited several good-natured, although humorous, remarks concerning the fits and general appearance of those wearing the garments.

At eleven o'clock the 60 young gentlemen and ladies were invited into another apartment where refreshments were served, which consisted of cakes, ice cream and various other things calculated to tickle the palate.

They disbanded at a late hour, feeling that justice had been done to the occasion and regretting that the time had passed so rapidly.

Dr. Perrine Talks in Theta Alpha.

Those who attended Theta Alpha on Friday evening were well satisfied with the time spent. Dr. Perrine's Shakespearean talk had been posted during the week, but on account of the President's reception and it being the eve of the Athletic sports, many who had planned to attend the session were deprived of the opportunity at the last moment. The talk as announced was on the speech of Anthony in Julius Caesar. The principles of oratory displayed by Shakespeare and the character of Anthony were depicted as the leading points. The "breadth" of Shakespeare was shown by means of quotations from various plays. He was not only an orator, as shown in the criticised speech, but also a physician, lawyer, scientist and philosopher. Without a doubt the Doctor has spoken before a larger, but never before a more appreciative audience.

DR. HULLEY ON RILEY.

Bucknell's Noted Lecturer Addresses a Large Audience.

The first of the series of popular lectures, under the auspices of the Athletic Association, was delivered by Dr. Hulley on Thursday evening in Bucknell Hall, before a large and appreciative audience.

The Doctor's address showed that he had a broad knowledge of the poet's character and succeeded in endearing the personality of the "Barns of America" to all present. After giving a brief outline of Riley's life, he stated that his purpose was not to give a critical review of the poet's works, but to interpret his character as a poet through his writings, consequently the lecture assumed the nature of a recital. Poems in various dialects were read to show the versatility of the writer, who sees poetry in the common things of life and writes in the language of the common people, incorporating the slang of the farmer and of the street, yet with no impure thought in any of his works. Dr. Hulley delighted the audience by his manner of bringing out the gentle grace, the deep pathos and the rich humor which characterize the Hoosier poet. From the beginning to the end of the recital, the interest never flagged. The hour spent with the poet, while it was rich in entertainment, was also profitable from an educational point of view.

Those who were not present missed an intellectual treat and should not fail to attend the remaining lectures of the series.

Among the Alumni.

The Board of Managers of the Alumni Association held a meeting in the office of W. O. Shaffer, Prothonotary, last Wednesday evening. The following committees were appointed: Necrology, Hon. Alfred Hayes; Music, W. O. Shaffer, Dr. Hulley, Judge McClure; Library and Apparatus, Prof. Phillips, Instructor Davis and E. M. Heim.

A capitation tax of one dollar was levied upon each member of the association in order to defray the expenses incurred by celebrating the various events.

The class of '72 will hold a reunion on Tuesday evening of Commencement week. Rev. Albert Foster, of New Jersey, will be the orator of the evening. During the same week the class will also hold a banquet, the date of which has not yet been definitely fixed.

Pres. Harris will preach in the Beaver Memorial church next Sunday morning.

BASE BALL ON SATURDAY.

Y. M. C. A. vs. Bucknell at Williamsport.

The contest in base ball on Saturday, April 24, between Y. M. C. A. and Bucknell, at Athletic Park, Williamsport, was of an intensely interesting character. Bucknell went to the bat promptly at 3.30 p. m. when D. Grim was sent to base on balls but was soon retired by Applegate. Shortell, by a nice hit, reached first, and was brought home by Mulkie's two-bagger. Y. M. C. A. drew a blank. In the second inning Bucknell did not score, but in the third turned a search light on Willig and hit him at will. Shortell and Gentry reached first when Mulkie made a corking two-bagger and sent the pair home. Grim and Garner, by two nice hits and two errors, scored two more runs, making a total of 5 in the third inning. Y. M. C. A. scored two runs in the third and both sides drew blanks in the fifth and sixth innings. Shortell made a double in the seventh and was sacrificed home by G. Grim and Mulkie. Willig made a three-bagger, sent in Clayton and scored himself on an error. Jenkins scored a corking eighth by a nice hit and two errors. Shortell retired the Y. M. C. A. in the eighth in one, two, three order. In the ninth inning Bucknell did not score and, with a manifest determination to vouchsafe the victory apparently within their grasp, played with appreciable skill and judgment. The crucial test was at hand and umpire Collins, who had hitherto been moderately fair, although visibly partial to Y. M. C. A., in calling balls on Shortell, saw that the game was lost providing he did not play, and seemed to prefer disgraceful victory to honest defeat, and please those who had given him employment. A man running from second to third was caught out by Garner while standing on base and was then fielded to first. The umpire called the man on third safe when, by a hit, Clayton and McMunn were brought in and the score stood Bucknell 8, Y. M. C. A. 9.

For Bucknell Shortell played a star game in the box, giving Y. M. C. A. but 4 hits, while his batting was extremely fine. Mulkie, Jenkins and G. Grimm also batted well. Catterall threw well to second, catching every man that attempted to steal.

Anyone who witnessed the game cannot but attest to the excellence of Bucknell's team this year, which, in the writer's opinion, exceeds anything which Bucknell has seen for many a year. The score:

(Continued on Second Page)

THE ORANGE AND BLUE.

LEWISBURG. - PENN'A.

PUBLISHED ONCE A WEEK DURING THE COLLEGE YEAR BY STUDENTS OF BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY.

Entered at Post Office at Lewisburg as second-class mail matter.

SUBSCRIPTION $1.00 PER YEAR.

STAFF
M. R. COLLINS, Editor-in-Chief.
W. L. HILL, Editorials.
O. R. LEVAN, Editorials.
W. F. EICHHOLTZ, Editorials.

BUSINESS MANAGER:
S. W. GILPIN.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS:
John V. Leisher, Pres. John M. Gandy, Vice Pres.
L. B. Sinsheimer, Sec. L. T. Butler, Treas.

A. Kate Goddard, Geo. T. Ritter,
S. W. Gilpin, W. L. Hill,
R. B. Mulkin, O. R. LeVan,
R. H. Kress, W. S. Holland.

Printed by the Journal, Lewisburg, Pa.

TUESDAY, APRIL 27, 1997.

The victory of the relay team is a great event in the life of athletics at Bucknell. Above all else it shows the result of faithful training. Strength of limb and fleetness of foot are not the result of subtle local climatic conditions, nor does providence in some mysterious way apportion good athletes to certain colleges. Aside from the fact that the large institutions are likely to attract the mercenary or ambitious athletes, the distribution of athletes is according to the law of chance; so athletic ability is in proportion to the number of men available. Then success must depend upon the extent to which that ability is developed. Development is the result of activity and activity is the indication or expression of spirit. It is very plain, spirit is the basis of success. Then let us have it. With a first-place pennant already in our possession, and with the best of prospects for a good base ball team, there is no reason why we should not be just bubbling over with spirit. The men who have brought home the pennant deserve the plaudits of the entire university. THE ORANGE AND BLUE takes this opportunity to extend a formal congratulation to the members of the relay team; and not to them only, but to the men who so faithfully trained in the preliminary work and thus showed their spirit. Long live such men at Bucknell.

Considerable interest is being manifested in the Commencement program.

The faculty having recently looked over the books discovered that some of the seniors are back in their work, the result is that the annual letters were issued yesterday.

The ORANGE AND BLUE last week received its first anonymous letter. It is a necessary and universal rule not to pay any attention to such communications. It is however advisable in this case to explain that advisory letters can have no weight if unsigned, and that any thing intended for publication should be written on one side only of the paper and must be signed as an evidence of responsibility, though by request the name will be printed.

The editor addressed in his first letter wishes to say that he is interested in the subject discussed and would be pleased if the author would send a signed letter of a less vague and general nature, citing specific instances and stating facts.

Meeting of the Board of Directors. At a meeting of the Board of Directors of THE ORANGE AND BLUE, last Tuesday evening, each editor was given entire control in his department. This change will make a material difference in the publication. It will give personality to the departments and at the same time lessen the work of the Editor-in-chief.

Necessity of a Cinder Track.

Since the return of our relay team, the necessity of a good, substantial cinder track has become more and more apparent. It has been demonstrated that Bucknell possesses good material for such contests and if we had a good track to practice on, there is no telling how far we might excel in this line the very colleges that have heretofore been our superiors.

The College Song Book.

Last week the college song book, issued by the Senior class, made its appearance. The book contains many new and original songs as well as several old and familiar tunes. Many of the songs are the compositions of present and past students and are the windows through which the attainments of their authors are reflected.

The Mirror's Commendable Move.

The Mirror Board is being congratulated on all sides by the alumni for paying more attention to matters concerning the alumni. An alumnus cares very little for the local news but judges the value of the periodical by the amount of personal and alumni matter it contains.

The College Annual.

The students are anxiously awaiting the L'Agenda which will probably make its appearance on the 7th of May. It is said that the book will agreeably surprise the subscribers, as it will be quite different from those of former years.

Manager. Lesher has about completed arrangements for a game of base ball with Lafayette, to-morrow, at Easton.

Y. M. C. A. vs. BUCKNELL.

(Continued from First Page)

| BUCKNELL.      | R | H | O  | A  | E |
|----------------|---|---|----|----|---|
| D. Grimm, 2b   | 1 | 0 | 6  | 3  | 1 |
| Geary, 1b      | 1 | 0 | 4  | 3  | 1 |
| Shortell, p    | 3 | 2 | 1  | 2  | 0 |
| Mulkie, s s    | 1 | 2 | 1  | 2  | 1 |
| G. Grimm, 1 f  | 1 | 2 | 1  | 0  | 0 |
| Catterall, c   | 1 | 1 | 0  | 3  | 0 |
| Garner, 3b     | 0 | 1 | 0  | 0  | 0 |
| Jenkinson, c f | 0 | 1 | 2  | 0  | 0 |
| Glehnist, r f  | 0 | 0 | 1  | 0  | 1 |
| Total          | 8 | 9 | 25 | 13 | 4 |

| Y. M. C. A.     | R | H | O  | A  | E |
|-----------------|---|---|----|----|---|
| Kreiss, c f     | 0 | 0 | 1  | 1  | 2 |
| Plankenhorn, 3b | 0 | 0 | 0  | 0  | 1 |
| Gass, 1 f       | 0 | 1 | 0  | 0  | 0 |
| Applegate, 1b   | 0 | 1 | 0  | 12 | 2 |
| Santers, s s    | 1 | 1 | 2  | 1  | 0 |
| Clayton, 2b     | 4 | 1 | 3  | 8  | 1 |
| Willig, p       | 1 | 0 | 1  | 2  | 0 |
| McMunn, r f     | 1 | 1 | 0  | 0  | 0 |
| Bevier, c       | 1 | 0 | 4  | 2  | 1 |
| Total           | 9 | 4 | 23 | 16 | 6 |

Earned runs, Bucknell 2, Y. M. C. A. 2. Two base-hits—Shortell, Mulkie. Stolen bases—Mulkie, Shortell, Santers. Clayton. Passed balls—Catterall 1, Bevier 2. Base on balls of Shortell 3, Willig 7. Struck out by Shortell 4, Willig 2. Umpire Collins. Time 2 hours.

The boys are investing heavily in screening material for protection against June bugs.

J. W. BICKLE, THE BARBER, Third St., Lewisburg, Pa. Students' Work a Specialty.

R. J. Weidensaul, Livery and Boarding Stables, Near Baker House. Prices to suit the times....

Central Livery and Boarding Stables, J. Horam Pro'r., Lewisburg, Pa. TELEPHONE CONNECTION.

New Store Just Opened.

A new and Complete Line of Up-to-date Goods. Call and see me, Market Street, between 2nd and 3d Street.

Geo. H. Fisher, Lewisburg, Pa.

Beautiful

Photographs.

In order to introduce my work I make the following offer for one month to the pupils of the Institute and Seminary:

My $2 Cabinets Artistic Finish at $1.50 per dozen.

My $3 Carbonets at $2.00 per dozen.

Having had 24 years of experience in large cities I am enabled to guarantee satisfaction in every particular. I earnestly solicit a share of your patronage.

HUNTER Photographer, 326 Market St., Lewisburg, Pa.

HEADACHE CURED

By My Special Glasses.

H. J. NOGEL, Eye Specialist.

Eyes Examined Free.

Spectacles & Eye Glasses a Specialty.

Adjusting Eye Glasses and Spectacles a Specialty. Repairing with Neatness and Dispatch.

H. J. NOGEL & BRO., JEWELERS AND ENGRAVERS.

Private Optical Parlors.

Buy your groceries of

FOLLMER,

The largest line and freshest stock in the town.

Students' Trade Solicited.

Danville Steam Laundry

Always up to date

Best work

Lowest prices

O. R. Harris, Prop. Danville, Pa.

ATTORNEYS.

D. H. GETZ,

Attorney-at-Law,

Lewisburg, Pa.

Law Offices of

ANDREW ALBRIGHT LEISER,

Lewisburg, Union Co., Pa.

J. C. BUCHER,

Attorney-at-Law,

Lewisburg, Pa.

J. THOMPSON BAKER,

Attorney-at-Law,

Lewisburg, Pa.

J. F. DUNCAN,

Attorney-at-Law,

Lewisburg, Pa.

J. W. VANVALZAH,

Attorney-at-Law,

Lewisburg, Pa.

WILLIAM R. FOLLMER,

Attorney-at-Law,

NOTARY PUBLIC. Lewisburg, Pa.

W. J. WILKINSON,

Attorney-at-Law,

Office in Music Hall, Lewisburg, Pa.

ALFRED HAYES,

Attorney-at-Law,

Office opposite Presbyterian Church, Lewisburg, Pa.

James F. Linn, J. Merrill Linn, Phillip A. Linn.

J. M. & P. B. LINN,

ATTORNEYS AT LAW,

Successors to J. F. & J. M. Linn.

One Centinone Office. LEWISBURG, PA.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Short Stops and Kick Offs for

Hasty Reading.

W. R. Morris, '99, is confined to his bed.

R. G. Slifer, '98, was out Sunday for the first time after an illness of a month.

The Phila. Press recently awarded a prize to W. C. Purdy,

'99, for a want ad. cartoon.

J. C. Fetzer, '97, took the West

Point examinations at Shamokin

last Saturday.

J. H. Deppen, 1900, purchased a handsome new bicycle last Saturday and has now joined the

"Knights of the Pedal."

Prof. Owens, on Friday evening in a dark room, gave the class in electricity several demonstrations in electricity by means of the dynamo and the other electrical appliances in the laboratory.

The marriage of R. J. Holmes,

'92, to Miss Bessie Phillips, daughter of Geo. D. Phillips, who attended Bucknell in the early 60's, will take place at Atglen on April 29. Mr. Holmes is pastor of the Glen Run Baptist church

at that place.

On Friday evening, April 16,

Miss Bell entertained several of her many friends in the Institute parlor. Those present were Misses

Kremer, Wolf, O'Donnell, Raikes,

White, Grant, Rossiter; Messrs.

Christy, Clement, Mulkie, Packer,

Green, Bell, Elliott and Walls.

On Thursday evening the members of the Volunteer Band attended a meeting of the "Farther Lights" mission circle in the Baptist church. An interesting program was rendered by the ladies of the circle, after which a delicious lunch was served.

C. A. Lindemann has been confined to his bed for a few days with malaria. We are pleased to announce that he is now convalescing, under the treatment of

Dr. Leiser. This is the first time

Lindemann has absented himself from either chapel or class during his College course.

The Sophomore class last Tuesday afternoon elected the following as their L'Agenda Board:

Editor-in-chief, A. K. Deibler;

Business Manager, E. L. Nesbitt;

Artist, W. C. Purdy; Staff, O. J.

Decker, I. H. Buckminster, C.

W. Harvey, B. W. Griffith, O. R.

Le Van, and Misses Mary Sharpless and Bertha Watkins. The business manager was given the privilege of choosing any member of the entire class as his assistant.

Mr. W. C. Carey, '95, and Miss

Grace Wagner were married on Tuesday, April 20, at the Eighteenth and Montgomery Avenue Presbyterian church, Phila., in the presence of one hundred and fifty friends and invited guests.

Mr. J. C. Carey, '95, brother of the groom, was "best man." Mr.

B. K. Brick, Mr. Ezra Allen, Mr.

W. A. Kauffman, all of the class of '95, and Mr. Stewart were ushers. Mr. and Mrs. Carey will make their future home in Elmhurst,

N. Y.

Bucknell's cyclists contemplate organizing a bicycle club.

Rev. J. W. Ashton is prosecuting

a successful pastorate at Chester, Vermont.

J. W. Hile, who played 3rd base on the Bucknell nine last year, is playing in the same position on the Lock Haven team.

After spending a week at his home in Phila., G. Livingston

Bayard, '99, returned to college yesterday morning. He witnessed the relay races at Phila. on Saturday.

T. L. Joseph, '96, who returned to his home in England, but is now residing at Ashland, visited friends at the institution last week. He was accompanied by his wife.

Yesterday the analytic class received the first of the 50 "unknowns." The material, which is unknown to them, is given to the class and they are then to determine the name.

A. S. Barner, E. H. Flint, B. F.

Thomas and H. C. Meserve held revival meetings at Chillisquaque during last week. Great interest was manifested and the work of the mission much advanced.

Messrs. Shoemaker and Campbell attended the reception given

President McKinley by the Chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, at Columbia College, N. Y. City,

during the President's sojourn in that place at the dedication of the Grant monument.

Dr. Hulley has obtained leave of absence from the school of

Hebrew and English Bible at Lakeside, Ohio, and with Mrs.

Hulley will spend the summer in Europe in the interest of history.

They will sail Commencement week and will remain in Europe

thirteen weeks, spending three

Daglish, The Tailor.

Our Merchant Tailoring Department has the latest Foreign and Domestic Suitings and Trouserings. Ready-made Clothing nearly equal to the made to order articles at prices that will astonish you. The Mens' Furnishing Department has just what you want.

Daglish, The Tailor.

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| J. E. K. SCHWENK,Dealer inGroceries andGeneral MerchandiseLewisburg, Pa.Special attention given to Student's Choice. GEO. STEIN &amp; BRO.,Fresh Meats,Orders Cordially Solicited.226 Market Street - Lewisburg, Pa. You can always depend uponJOHN REEDto deliver your trunk at the proper placeat the proper time. Special attention tostudents. Flour, Grain, Feed, Etc.B |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

School of Music Notes.
Another piano recital will be given during the week by some of the pupils of Miss Aikin.

Mr. J. Brown Martin has lately purchased a very beautiful violin. This is one of the famous "Bay State" instruments. Those who have heard it pronounce it to be of fine tone and unusual volume.

The music at the Third Form declamation contest consisted of an overture, "William Tell" by Misses S. Merriman and C. Kelly. A violin solo, "Cavatina" by Mr. Martin and a vocal solo by Mr. Hague, but owing to a bad cold he was unable to sing, the number being replaced by a violin solo by Mr. Martin.

The music at all the contests and entertainments has been furnished gratis by the teachers and pupils of the music school. It is extremely annoying to the performers to have people in the back of the hall talking or making more or less noise. Those who do this might at least have a little consideration for the performers of this very trying part in the program.

Academy Items.
Sherbondy is out again, he having been confined to his room several days.

Fisk is going to demonstrate how "Burpee's Seeds" grow, in his little garden.

Rambo has been elected manager of the base ball team and has the boys out practicing each evening.

We are inclined to think that the "Last of the Mohicans," are in our midst when a man is found nearly nude, bound hand and foot, tied to the Proctor's door knob.

The Academy Athletic Association has received an invitation from the Harrisburg High School to compete in a Field Day exhibition during May. Nothing final has been done with the invitation, as it is yet unknown what action the Inter-Scholastic League, of which the Academy is a member, will take.

One of the most entertaining Declamation Contests of the term thus far was given in Bucknell Hall, Saturday evening, by the young men of the Third Form class. Each contestant wore a bunch of violets, which is the class flower, and to their instructor, in appreciation of her untiring efforts, they presented a beautiful bouquet. The program rendered was as follows:

March, Misses S. Merriman and C. Kelly.
Payer.
Overture, Misses S. Merriman and C. Kelly.
The Siege of the St. Albas' Mansion.
Richard Tell.
The Legend of the Grand Falls.
William Shifer.
A Tragedy of Solon, Calvin Elliott.
Violin Solo, J. Brown Martin.
Jeani Valjean, The Convict.
Milton Davis.
Macaulay on the Reform Bill.
William Goff.
Selection from Ivanhoe.
Alma Cunningham.
Violin Solo, J. Brown Martin.
The First Banjo, Mark Anthony.
Mary's Night Ride, David Pitts.

Institute Items.
Miss Bastress and Miss Morgan visited Sunbury last Saturday.

Excursions after flowers were the order of the day, last Saturday.

Miss Ada Pennypacker spent Saturday and Sunday in Sunbury.

After a week's visit Miss Nettie Morgan returned home on Saturday.

Miss Birdie Taggart was in Northumberland over Saturday and Sunday.

The Annual Soiree of the Fourth Year Class of the Institute takes place next Saturday evening. All are cordially invited to attend.

Many of the girls took advantage of Dr. Hulley's lecture, last Thursday evening, to become better acquainted with James Whitcomb Riley.

Student Volunteer Band.
The first meeting of the band for this term was held on Wednesday evening in the Y. M. C. A. hall. Tilley, '98, and Pitts, '98, Acad., were accepted as active members. Two committees were appointed for the ensuing year, Missionary Extension, Kulp, Fisk and Hazen. Open Meeting, Davis, Kunkle and Pitts. After the business meeting the band took up the first study in "Organization and Methods of Mission Work." All students of the University are invited to attend the class in mission study.

Rev. T. C. Hanna's Accident.
Rev. Thomas C. Hanna, '95, pastor of the Baptist church at Plantsville, Conn., and a student at the Yale Divinity School, met with a serious accident on Thursday, April 15th. While driving from Meriden to Plantsville, with his brother, he sprang from the carriage to adjust the harness; his feet became entangled in the robes and he fell headlong to the ground. He lay unconscious for thirty-six hours, and was scarcely expected to live. He is now recovering slowly, and hopes are entertained of his complete restoration. The two evil effects now noticeable are his lack of memory and a slight difficulty in speaking. The past is a blank to him, but the physicians are hopeful that sooner or later his memory will be fully restored.

The Field Day this year will probably be May 29. Athletic director Cober wants to make it the red-letter day in Bucknell athletics.

The '97 Shoes
are in
at Marsh's.

Lunch,
Billiards,
Opera House Restaurant.

Go to WARD,
The Barber.

Finest Tonsorial Parlors in Town.

A. W. STEPHENS,
Clothing to Order
or Ready-made.

Sales Agent for Wanamaker & Brown

FRESH
Whitman's Candies.
—AT—
Wolfe's Drug Store, 2nd and Market Street

CHARLES A. HESS,
THE Gentleman's Tailor;
Market Street.
Lewisburg; Penna.

WE MAKE SUITS THAT FIT

Go to T. G. EVANS'
UNIVERSITY BOOK STORE.
For your Text Books
and Stationary.

For a good
Livery Turnout
Go to
W. W. BROWN,
North 3d Street, Lewisburg, Pa.

P. W. Himmelreich,
Dealer in
DRY GOODS,
GROCERIES, ETC.
Trunks, Satchels and Traveling Bags

CAMERON HOUSE,
T. F. Meyer, Propr.

Lately Renovated and Remodeled.
Commercial Sample Room.
Located in Business Centre.

Free "Bus and Telephone.
Electric Lights, Steam Heat.

Lewisburg, Pa.

Ginter & Cook

The Face Takers

Have been selected

Offical Photographers

For Class of '97

418 Market Street, CALL OFTEN.

For an EASY SHAVE go to

MILLER, The Barber.

North 2d St., Lewisburg, Pa.

Karynne Green The Orange and Blue.

BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY.

VOL. I. LEWISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, MAY 4, 1897. No. 8.

LAFAYETTE AND BUCKNELL.
Game at Easton Last Wednesday Won by Lafayette.

Our base ball team left here on Tuesday afternoon, at 4:35, for Easton, where they played Lafayette the following afternoon. During their stay at the above place, they were hospitably entertained by the Lafayette students, who seemed to vie with each other in showing the Bucknellites a good time, and when our boys started for home on Thursday morning, the best of feelings existed between the two teams. The following is the report of the game by our special correspondent who was at the "scene of action."

The game was promptly called at 3:30. Lafayette batted first. The first man was retired, the second and third men up reached the base assisted by the short stops and second baseman's errors, the fourth batter filled the bases; only one of the men was allowed to score. Bucknell succeeded in getting a man on the base during their half but was unable to make the circuit. In the second inning Lafayette was retired in 1, 2, 3 order. Bucknell fared only a little better in their half, but were again unable to score. The third inning was not without its errors, after two men had been retired, one of Lafayette's men was allowed to score on an unearned run. During our half of the inning we were not successful in reaching the initial bag. The fourth inning was a short one and neither side scored. Walbridge opened the fifth with a three base hit but Barclay sacrificed to center field, and Walbridge scored the third run; one more run was scored during their half. Griffith opened our half with a nice hit over short stop, but was unable to score. Lafayette scored two more runs in the sixth; our chances of scoring in our half were good and we succeeded in getting a man to second and one on first, but none of the succeeding batters were equal to the occasion. Walbridge opened the seventh with another three base hit, Barclay again sacrificed allowing him to score, two errors allowed them to score two more runs, neither side scored after the seventh inning.

Jones, the Lafayette twirler, is a Freshman; but our boys say that he will do. Our battery deserves special mention. Catterall did not have a passed ball, while the delivery end of the machine dealt out the ammunition in a manner that would have made the score look much better, if he had been supported. Lafayette fielded everything that our boys tried them on, while their run

LECTURE ON "VENEZUELA."
Col. McCain, of the Phila. "Press" Entertains a Large Audience.

Bucknell hall was taxed beyond its seating capacity last Thursday evening when Col. George Nox McCain, of the Phila. Press, and member of the Governor's military staff, entertained the audience for over an hour and a half with a lecture on "Venezuela."

His remarks were illustrated with stereoscopic views—50 in number—showing the principal buildings, natural scenery and different phases of life in that country and also scenes along the Orinoco river.

By his wonderful descriptive powers, the speaker was able to delineate the illustrations thrown upon the canvas in becoming language, whether it was the luxuriant growth of a Southern wilderness or a barren, rugged promontory lifting its head above the waters; hence, the audience was intensely interested both by the romantic scenes and picturesque portrayal by the lecturer.

In introducing the speaker Registrar Gretzinger stated that Mr. McCain has always been interested in Bucknell, especially in her athletics and that he also desired the proceeds to go to the Athletic Association, charging nothing for his services.

The stereopticon was manipulated by Prof. Owens, assisted by L. H. Burge. The former attending to the lights and the latter gracefully performing the "sliding acts."

Meeting of the Tennis Association.
Last Saturday forenoon the Bucknell tennis association held a meeting which ended in the adoption of the constitution and by-laws and the appointment of the following committees: Membership, Messrs. Koen, Elliott and Ballentine; tournament, treasurer, ex-officio, W. H. Rodgers and Frank Hollinshead.

The admission fee has been fixed at 35 cents and the eligibility to membership extended to members of the Alumni, members of the faculty and to the students.

Within two weeks the handicap tournaments will begin and only members of the association will be allowed to take part.

Dr. Hulley delivered an address at the Twenty-fifth Anniversary of Hon. Joshua Levering's Sunday School, last Sunday, May 2. Yesterday he addressed the Baltimore Conference of Ministers and last night the Maryland Baptist's Social Union Banquet. May 7th, he will deliver a Commencement address before Hallifax High School.

Continued on second page.

FIELD DAY.

An Appeal to the Students—Prizes will Probably be Awarded.

Field Day will be held May 29. Work began on Monday, May 2. Let all those who have any inclination to enter any of the field events meet at the gymnasium after 4 o'clock each evening and work from now until Field Day. There are plenty of men in school who do not play base ball and who would make excellent men in one event or another. The Field and Track events are so many and varied that almost any one can excel in one or more events. There is material in school to break every record; all that is necessary is to get down to work. An effort will be made to award prizes for the winners of each event. Besides each class should make an effort to win the Mirror Cup. Come out and decide on two events and resolve you will be the winner or some one else will work for it.

The Result of 13 Years.

On Sunday last the Rev. H. A. Griesmire, '80, of Haddenfield, N. J., began the 14th year of his pastorate. In a sermon he said that "During this period the present beautiful meeting-house have been built and paid for. Four chapels have been built for our mission schools, and one at the cemetery for mortuary purposes. Two of our missions have developed into churches, and are healthy, vigorous churches. During this present year a new mission has been organized at Haddon Heights, and a movement is already started to build a chapel costing $2500. During my pastorate I have preached 1351 sermons, attended 3929 meetings, made 1036 addresses, attended 276 funerals, married 132 couples, baptized 314 converts, received by restoration 158 persons, making the total of members received 472 or more than 36 persons per annum. I have made 3180 official visits and attended many ecclesiastical councils. The church has raised more than $125,000, and of this sum more than $15,000 has gone for benevolent work."

A Card.

Let me take a line to express the thanks of my household for the kindness shown us by the entire Bucknell community in the sorrow through which we have just passed. Such words and deeds take the sting from the many deprivations incident to the life of a teacher. They cause one to forget that he has lost a Paradise, and they allure him into the belief that he has regained one.

ENOCH PERRINE.

The new base ball suits will arrive in a day or two.

META BAKER FERRINE.

Another Little Child Taken from the Home of Doctor and Mrs. Perrine.

Last Thursday evening at half past seven o'clock death again came to the home of Doctor and Mrs. Perrine and took from them the little daughter who for four teen months has lighted their household with her presence. Like a flash the sad news spread through the town and up to the Hill, and in every heart was struck a vibrant chord of sympathy. For the frail little life had hung so often in the balance that those who merely knew the circumstances took a personal interest in the welfare of the little girl; and when at last the final blow had fallen each felt as though he himself had sustained a loss.

The services were held on Saturday at the house. After the reading of selected portions of scripture, Dr. Harris offered prayer, then there was singing by the College Quartette, Messrs. Bunwell, Keen, Mulford and Catterall.

A short sermon was preached by Rev. Mr. Judd whose message of comfort was that in the eternal purpose of the Almighty, little children are taken before the dawn of earth has fastened itself upon them, and are kept with Him in purity and innocence to await the coming of the sad hearts left behind. The quartette having sung another selection, the little white casket was borne out by J. T. Baker, Esq., Prof. F. E. Rockwood, Mr. W. L. Kurtz and Mr. T. G. Evans.

In the morning the four classes of the college had taken official action with the intention of turning out in full numbers as a mark of honor and sympathy for Doctor and Mrs. Perrine, but on account of the stormy afternoon only a representation of the students was present at the house and followed the carriages to the cemetery.

The interment was in the beautiful lot of J. T. Baker, Esq., and is intended to be only temporary. A removal will be made to Hightstown, N. J., Dr. Perrine's old home, where now lie the bodies of his father and mother, and two little children.

Meta Baker Ferrine was born March 5, 1890. "Sunshine" she was called in the home to which she came bringing light and gladness. And as the rain driven from a leaden sky beat upon the little group around her open grave, it seemed as though all sunshine had been shut out from us forever. But the common, life-giving sunshine comes back to lighten our lives, and the merciful Father will withhold the light of that other "Sunshine" but for a little while.

Miss Foust, 1900, has been initiated into Pi Beta Phi.

Bucknell University,

John Howard Harris, President.

THE COLLEGE.

Four courses leading to degrees in Arts, Philosophy and Science; over one hundred subjects of study; separate Laboratory, Gymnasium and Observatory buildings; large library; ample endowment; modern facilities.

For catalogue and further information concerning any department of the University, address,

William C. Gretzinger, Registrar,
Lewisburg, Pennsylvania.

THE ACADEMY.

A preparatory school for young men and boys. Fits for college and the best technical schools.

THE INSTITUTE.

A boarding school for young women; three courses of study leading to diplomas. Art studio.

THE SCHOOL OF MUSIC.

For both sexes. Offers graduating courses in music: courses in piano, pipe-organ, violin, harmony, etc., leading to diploma. The school is under the direction of a French artist, assisted by a corps of excellent teachers.

THE ORANGE AND BLUE.

LEWISBURG, PENN.

PUBLISHED ONCE A WEEK DURING THE COLLEGE YEAR BY STUDENTS OF BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY.

Entered at Post Office at Lewisburg as second-class mail matter.

SUBSCRIPTION $1.00 PER YEAR.

STAFF

M. R. COLLINS, Editor-in-Chief.
W. L. HILL, Editor.
O. R. LEVY, Editor.
W. F. EICHENHOLTZ, Editor.

BUSINESS MANAGER:
S. W. Gilpin.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS:
John V. Leisher, Pres.
L. B. Sinslette, Sec.

Geo. T. Ritter, Editor.
W. L. Hill, Editor.
O. R. Levy, Editor.
W. S. Holland, Editor.

Printed by the Journal, Lewisburg, Pa.

TUESDAY, MAY 4, 1907.

Someone has said that the old saw about fools' names in public places had its teeth rasped off when it struck modern advertising. For the practice of keeping one's name and business before the public is recognized as arising from profound commercial wisdom. But the old saw holds its own in the case of a certain kind of advertising indulged in by many students of Bucknell. Scratching or scribbling one's name, or class, or fraternity, or sentiments—poetic or political—on all available surfaces, indicates something little short of idiocy, depravity, or, at best, a lack of regard for one's own name and the property of others. And yet that old and perpetual nuisance of schools has developed here to almost a mania. Of course the Academy is especially cursed, but it is surprising to see the display of artistic and poetic talent exhibited on the desks of the college and in otherwise unsuitable places. Some no doubt imagine that they are popularizing themselves or organizations of which they are members. For that we have but one word, idiocy. Others take pleasure in defacing a certain amount of University property, with the excuse that they are taking out their incidentals. Still others carve from an unchecked love of destroying, and inscribe their vulgar attempts at wit where everyone must read. Depravity, that is—out and out; and the wonder is that men can have the advantage of higher education and remain in that state of mind. The hope of reaching these advertisers of their imbecility and depravity is indeed small. The majority however who scratch and scribble on the desks, do so in moments of abstraction. The knife or pencil twitches unnoticed in the fingers as thoughts of home or the next topic occupy the mind, and before he knows it there on the desk stand the dreamer's initials. In this case the old saw cuts very well. We are all fools of one kind or another, and the one who allows his fingers to get into unwillful mischief is at least one kind of a fool. The man who amounts to anything exercises vigilance over himself, and knows at all times what he is about. Alertness is a necessity of success in the rush of to-day. So let us all be on the lookout, and with regard to the rights of property, avoid at least advertising ourselves as scribbling, desk-scratching fools.

A Trial Trip to Milton.
E. L. Peck last week purchased a row boat and fitted it out with a complete sailing equipment. On Saturday he and R. J. Powell made a trial trip with it to Milton. The young "navigators" had several narrow escapes from capsizing but suffered no serious mishaps from the hands of old Neptune.

Teaching at McEwensville.
D. S. Grim has been chosen to take W. S. Sheddan's '95, place at McEwensville. He will finish the term there and at the same time keep up his classes here by working Saturdays. He began teaching on April 20th, the term closes on June 11. The position he left on the base ball team is difficult to fill; but as he reports a very good situation and a nice assistant THE ORANGE AND BLUE extends to him its best wishes.

Music in Euepia.
Those who were present at the Euepia Literary Society last Friday evening enjoyed a musical treat. The feature of the evening was the singing of the Bucknell college songs. They were rendered by an efficient quartette composed of Messrs. Hagne, Dutton, Fisk and Peacock. Several crisp speeches were made and an interesting debate took place. A goodly number were present and were well satisfied with the evening's entertainment.

Commencement Music.
A joint meeting of committees on music from the Alumni, College, Academy and Institute, was held, at the residence of Dr. Hulley, last Monday evening, for the purpose of considering commencement music. It was decided to recommend to their constituents a very high grade of music, to procure bids from several famous bands; and later to call a mass meeting of all concerned in Bucknell Hall to consider it.

Rev. Collins on Tuesday evening gave a dinner to six college students and their lady friends, in honor of Miss Tichenor, of Newark, N. J., who is the guest of the family.

Lafayette and Bucknell.

Continued from first page.

ning bases showed that they knew what they were doing. Walbridge's batting was of a professional order. Our batting seemed to be rather weak-kneed, during critical periods. The umpire was close yet fair. Our boys showed up in good style, and had the game been played on our campus, where they could have been encouraged by the "Yah! Yah! Yoo!" of their fellow students the score would without a doubt have been reduced one-half. We must not become discouraged over this, for while Lafayette always has a very good team, their team this season, is by far the best they have ever had.

The score:

|                | R | H | O | A | E |
|----------------|---|---|---|---|---|
| BUCKNELL       | 0 | 0 | 0 | 2 | 1 |
| Grillih, 2b    | 0 | 0 | 0 | 2 | 1 |
| Geary, 1b      | 0 | 0 | 0 | 2 | 1 |
| Shortell, p    | 0 | 0 | 0 | 2 | 1 |
| Mulke, c       | 0 | 0 | 0 | 2 | 1 |
| G. Grimm, 1f   | 0 | 0 | 0 | 2 | 1 |
| Catterall, c   | 0 | 0 | 0 | 2 | 1 |
| Gurner, 3b     | 0 | 0 | 0 | 2 | 1 |
| Conover, c f   | 0 | 0 | 0 | 2 | 1 |
| Jenkinson, r f | 0 | 0 | 0 | 2 | 1 |
| Total          | 0 | 0 | 0 | 2 | 1 |

|                | R | H | O  | A | E |
|----------------|---|---|----|---|---|
| LAFAYETTE      | 4 | 6 | 0  | 0 | 0 |
| Reese, c f     | 0 | 1 | 0  | 0 | 0 |
| Hulley, 3b     | 0 | 1 | 0  | 0 | 0 |
| Bay, 1f        | 0 | 1 | 0  | 0 | 0 |
| Leiser, 1b     | 0 | 1 | 0  | 0 | 0 |
| Walbridge, s s | 2 | 4 | 5  | 2 | 1 |
| Saxton, 2b     | 0 | 1 | 0  | 0 | 0 |
| Jones, p       | 1 | 1 | 1  | 1 | 0 |
| March, r f     | 1 | 1 | 0  | 0 | 1 |
| Barelay, c     | 0 | 0 | 11 | 1 | 0 |
| Total          | 9 | 6 | 27 | 9 | 2 |

Two-base hits, Jones, Saxton. Three-base hits, Walbridge 2. Struck out, by Shortell 8, by Jones 10, First base on called balls off Shortell 4, off Jones 2. Umpire, Dietrick.

Central Livary and Boarding Stables,
J. Horam Pro'r. Lewisburg, Pa.
TELEPHONE CONNECTION.

New Store Just Opened.

A new and complete line of Up-to-date Goods. Call and see me, Market Street, between 2nd and 3d Street.

Geo. H. Fisher,
Lewisburg, Pa.

Beautiful Photographs.

In order to introduce my work I make the following offer for one month to the pupils of the Institute and Seminary:

My $2 Cabinets Artistic Finish at $1.50 per dozen.
My $3 Carbonets at $2.00 per dozen.

Having had 24 years of experience in large cities I am enabled to guarantee satisfaction in every particular. I earnestly solicit a share of your patronage.

Very Respectfully,
HUNTER, Photographer,
326 Market St. Lewisburg, Pa.

HEADACHE CURED By My Special Glasses.

H. J. NOGEL, Eye Specialist.

Eyes Examined Free.

Spectacles & Eye Glasses a Specialty.

Adjusting Eye Glasses and Spectacles a Specialty. Repairing with Neatness and Dispatch.

H. J. NOGEL & BRO.,
JEWELERS AND ENGRAVERS.

Private Optical Parlors.

Buy your groceries of FOLLMER,
The largest line and freshest stock in the town.
Students' Trade Solicited.

Danville Steam Laundry

Always up to date
Best work
Lowest prices
O. R. Harris, Prop.
Danville, Pa.

ATTORNEYS.

D. H. GETZ,
Attorney-at-Law,
Lewisburg, Pa.

Law Offices of
ANDREW ALBRIGHT LEISER,
Lewisburg, Union Co., Pa.

J. C. BUCHER,
Attorney-at-Law,
Lewisburg, Pa.

J. THOMPSON BAKER,
Attorney-at-Law,
Lewisburg, Pa.

J. F. DUNCAN,
Attorney-at-Law,
Lewisburg, Pa.

J. W. VANVALZAH,
Attorney-at-Law,
Lewisburg, Pa.

WILLIAM R. FOLLMER,
Attorney-at-Law,
NOTARY PUBLIC. Lewisburg, Pa.

W. J. WILKINSON,
Attorney-at-Law,
Office in Music Hall,
Lewisburg, Pa.

ALFRED HAYES,
Attorney-at-Law,
Office opposite Presbyterian Church,
Lewisburg, Pa.

James F. Linn, J. Merrill Linn, Philip S. Linn.
1894 1894 1892
J. M. & P. B. LINN,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW,
Successors to J. F. & J. M. Linn.
One Centinella Office. LEWISBURG, PA.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Short Stops and Kick Offs for Hasty Reading.

At "The Cabinet" to-day—"Veterans," "The Old Home Farm," "The Captive" and "Slifer's Mansion."

J. Wilson and H. Stanton report a very pleasant time at State College dance.

Prof. Martin will deliver a lecture before the Euepia Literary Society next Friday evening.

J. R. L. Diggs, who was called home to attend the funeral of his father, returned to Bucknell on Saturday.

The senior commencement invitations have arrived and are now being sent to the dear ones "Down on the Farm."

A. S. Barner, '97, has been at Harrisburg since last Friday on important business. He will probably return to-day.

M'r. Leshar is trying to arrange a game of base ball with Demorest, to be played next Saturday p. m., on the campus.

J. E. Miller, 1900, spent last week in canvassing Union county. Quick sales and large profits crowned his efforts.

Robert B. McCay, '96, has been appointed assistant in the Chemical department in the Jefferson Medical College, of Philadelphia.

R. Slifer resumed his studies on Friday. He has not been able to attend classes since the Junior—Sophomore game of basket ball.

The third lecture, of the Popular Lecture Course, which was billed for next Thursday evening, has been postponed indefinitely.

Frank Hollinshead, '97, last week received a call from the First Baptist church at Ashland and will preach there every two weeks.

The track team goes into training at once. Light practice began last night and an earnest endeavor will be made to place a record breaking team in the field.

The business manager of THE ORANGE AND BLUE would like to have all subscribers, who have not paid their subscription, to settle their accounts before May 15.

Dr. J. A. Coles, of Newark, who presented the bust of Caesar to Bucknell, has given a bust of Homer to the University of Chicago and one of Socrates to Harvard University.

A new tennis court is being built in the rear of the east wing of the college building. Ten students have undertaken the job and consequently they will have sole control of it after its completion.

Prof. Conser, Principal of the public schools of Sunbury, was a guest at the Laboratory last Friday evening, where several successful and interesting experiments in the construction of lantern slides were made. The experiments were carried on in the basement of the Laboratory.

G. F. Baker, '97, and Miss McCarthy, 1900, were seen entering the Court House yesterday afternoon. Any information concerning this will be of great interest to the local editor.

W. Williams, student at State College, spent last Wednesday evening with S. A. E. Bucknellites in this place.

Yesterday Messrs. Guie, Trimmer and Hyde, returned from a several days' fishing trip to Brush Valley Narrows.

The senior class recited in Theism yesterday morning and will have their usual Monday morning lecture tomorrow morning.

S. F. Reed and B. F. Thomas on Saturday morning painted the row boat used in crossing the river to reach the Chillisquaque mission.

The members of the Liberty boarding club have organized a base ball team and will shortly challenge the other boarding clubs to meet them on the diamond.

Dr. Aviragnet and J. Brown Martin will attend the Oratorical Musical Festival which will take place at Williamsport, Wednesday, May 10.

Last Friday evening Miss Bell entertained Pi Beta Phi ladies. It was the celebration of Founder's Day. Refreshments were served and a general good time was enjoyed by the 14 ladies present.

It is reported that J. H. Cook, '98 is practicing at running for the purpose of challenging Mr. Bogart. The boys are already discussing the probability of the outcome and extolling the salient features of their favorites.

It is probable that the 3rd brigade band of Pottsville will be hired for commencement week. The band is considered the best musical organization of the state and will be the means of attracting large crowds of people.

Friday evening Phi Kappa Psi, together with pledged members and several Alumni, enjoyed a banquet given them by their Freshmen brothers. A good time was enjoyed eating, singing, and listening to toasts.

Instructor Davis has a trio of little rabbits which he intends to use for experimental purposes in the Organic Science department. He has one preserved in alcohol as a specimen in the animal histology class.

The civil engineering class is laying out a survey for an imaginary railroad around the base of college hill. It is stated that the boys could work with greater energy if they were to locate the line of a real race track.

L. B. Sinslette, '97, Secretary of THE ORANGE AND BLUE Board of Directors, has been chosen editor of the Commencement News by the Mirror M'g'r. The Mirror board is to be commended for its selection as Mr. Sinslette will fill the editorial chair to the credit of that paper and will also wield the blue pencil to the chagrin of the reporters. His assistants have not yet been selected.

Daglish, The Tailor.

Our Merchant Tailoring Department has the latest Foreign and Domestic Suitings and Trouserings.

Ready-made Clothing nearly equal to the made to order articles at prices that will astonish you.

The Mens' Furnishing Department has just what you want.

Daglish, The Tailor.

J. E. K. SCHWENK,
Dealer in
Groceries and
General Merchandise
Lewisburg, Pa.
Special attention given to Student's Clubs.

GEO. STEIN & BRO.,
Fresh Meats,
Orders Cordially Solicited.
239 Market Street - - - Lewisburg, Pa.

You can always depend upon
JOHN REED
to deliver your trunk at the proper place at the proper time. Special attention to students.

Flour, Grain, Feed, Etc.
Baled Hay and Straw.
G. D. Bertollette,
No. 21 North Third Street.

FRESH CRUSHED
STRAWBERRIES
BAKER'S
SODA FOUNTAIN.

DENTISTS.
DR. R. H. SPEARE,
P. O. Building, Lewisburg, Pa.
Office Hours: 9 a. m. to 12 m.
12:30 p. m. to 6 p. m.

W. R. ROLAND, D. D. S.,
Cor. Market and 3d St.,
Lewisburg, Pa.
GAS ADMINISTERED.

J. G. STROHECKER,
Guarantees his milk
To be pure
Student's Trade Solicited.

HOWER & SON,
Furniture
Dealers.

W. A. LEIBY,
Dealer in
Fresh Meats, Groceries,
LEWISBURG, PENNA.
Special attention given to clubs.

H. R. MILLER,
TAILOR.
Fine Styles, Work Guaranteed.
Prices the Lowest.

Harry Stahl
Dealer in Foreign and Domestic
GROCERIES

All the News all the time
at the
Newest News Stand
In the town; also a full line of Every Day Stationery at FEIGLEY'S.

HYATT'S SHOE STORE,
Wolfe Block,
For Spring Shoes.

School of Music Notes.

Dr. Aviragnet will spend the summer of '98 in France. He will be accompanied by Messrs. Weymouth and Martin who will study music in Paris.

The teachers and a number of the pupils of the Music School will attend the great musical festival given by the Williamsport Oratorio Society, assisted by the Boston Festival Orchestra, on May 10.

Miss Aikin gave a recital last Friday afternoon; the program consisted of piano solos by Misses Christ, Callender, and Merriman. Piano duet—Misses Merriman and Kelly. Vocal solo—Miss Taggart. Violin solos—Master Will Bartol and J. B. Martin.

The music Saturday evening for the exercises of the Fourth year class was a prominent feature of the program. The first number consisted of a "Classic March" by Hermann, imitating the old-fashioned or antique style. This was followed by Mascagni's famous "Cavalleria Rusticana" which seemed to delight the audience. Miss Burke played "Kermesse de Faust" by Saint Saens. This was played with taste and feeling, truly in an artistic manner. The fourth number, a very sweet and dainty "Reverie" by Ponciter, was rendered by the orchestra in a way which appealed to all those who love true music. Mr. Martin played a Violoncello solo, the famous "Nocturne" by Lachner.

One of the most pleasing numbers of the program was the flute solo—"Landliche Hochzeit" by Popp, played by Weymouth. Bucknell can feel proud of having so fine a flutist as the above mentioned gentleman. Much praise is due Dr. Aviragnet for his untiring efforts to provide such fine music.

Institute Items.

Miss Mary Kline, of Winfield, visited Miss Grace DeWitt on Saturday and Sunday.

The banner of roses of the class of '98 was the work of Miss Grace DeWitt.

Miss Marion Cray, of Sheffield, a former student, is visiting Miss Emma Probasco.

Mr. S. Colin Vaughan is spending a few days with his sister, Miss Harriet Vaughan.

The Fourth Year class have at last revealed their class colors. They are pink and silver.

The first picnic of the season took place on Saturday, May 1st. Those who went report a good time in spite of the fact that they had to eat their lunch under umbrellas.

Academy Items.

Mrs. Edwards has returned home.

J. M. Thomas preached at Shenadoah on Sunday.

The members of the Third Form, who participated in the Declamation Contest, had a group picture taken by Hunter, the photographer.

Messrs. Devitt, Pierson, Pitts, Seun, Elliott, Simons, Dickinson, Kierner, Alexander and Burpee accompanied the picnic up the river on Saturday. They report having had a delightful time.

The prospects for a winning "track team" are very encouraging, the men are training faithfully and trying to repair the loss of Pearce and Brady who did such good work last year.

The managers of the Inter Scholastic League met at the Academy on Saturday, 1st inst. All the business relative to this year's "meet" was transacted and the following are the events decided upon:

100 yd. dash; 12 pound shot put; 1 mile bicycle race; 220 yard dash; 1 mile bicycle race; 1 mile run; 12 pound hammer throw; running high jump; 1 mile run; running high step and jump; 440 yard dash; pole vault; running broad jump; 1 mile relay race.

The meet will be held June 12, at Athletic Park, Williamsport. W. W. Mearbale represented Dickinson Seminary, W. F. Paley, Williamsport High School and J. C. Rowe the Academy. It was also decided to invite Lock Haven Normal to join the league.

Messrs. Hall, Hazen, Christy, Simons, Misses Allen, Watkins, White and Wheeler, of the college, accompanied the picnic to Miller's farm, last Saturday. The affair was given by several academy students and the boat ride up the river was as heartily enjoyed as their drenching of rain was disagreeable.

A Confused Recollection.

"Yes," said Mr. Cumrox, "my youngest daughter will be through school in a short time. She is already making preparations for commencement day." "What are they?" "I don't know that I followed her description very intelligently, but my impression is that they have something to do with the immortality of Genius in plain white and the neck filled in with chiffon."—Washington Star.

CHARLES A. HESS,

THE
Gentleman's Tailor;
Market Street.
Lewisburg; Penna.

WE MAKE SUITS THAT FIT.

Go to T. G. EVANS'
UNIVERSITY BOOK STORE.
For your Text Books
and Stationary.

For a good
Livery Turnout
Go to
W. W. BROWN,
North 2d Street. Lewisburg, Pa.

P. W. Himmelreich,
Dealer in
DRY GOODS,
GROCERIES, ETC.
Trunks, Satchels and Traveling Bags

CAMERON HOUSE,
T. F. Moyer, Propr.
Lately Renovated and Remodeled.
Commercial Sample Room.
Located in Business Centre.
Free Bus and Telephone.
Electric Lights. Steam Heat.
Lewisburg, Pa.

Ginter & Cook
The Face Takers
Have been selected
Official Photographers
For Class of '97
418 Market Street. CALL OFTEN.

For an EASY SHAVE go to
MILLER, The Barber.
North 2d St., Lewisburg, Pa.

J. W. BICKLE,

THE BARBER,
Third St., Lewisburg, Pa.
Students' Work a Specialty.

R. J. Weidensaul,
Livery and Boarding Stables,
Near Baker House.
Prices to suit the times....

The '97 Shoes
are in
at Marsh's.

Lunch,
Billiards,
Opera House Restaurant.

Go to WARD,
The Barber.
Finest Tonsorial Parlors in Town.

A. W. STEPHENS,
Clothing to Order
or Ready-made.
Sales Agent for Wanamaker & Brown

FRESH
Whitman's Candies..
—AT—
Wolfe's Drug Store, 2nd and Market Street

Bucknell University, John Howard Harris, President.

THE COLLEGE.

Four courses leading to degrees in Arts, Philosophy and Science; over one hundred subjects of study; separate Laboratory, Gymnasium and Observatory buildings; large library; ample endowment; modern facilities.

THE ACADEMY.

A preparatory school for young men and boys. Fits for college and the best technical schools.

THE INSTITUTE.

A boarding school for young women; three courses of study leading to diplomas. Art studio.

THE SCHOOL OF MUSIC.

For both sexes. Offers graduating courses in music; courses in piano, guitar, organ, violin, harmony, etc., leading to diploma. The school is under the direction of a French artist, assisted by a corps of excellent teachers.

For catalogue and further information concerning any department of the University, address,

William C. Gretzinger, Registrar,
Lewisburg, Pennsylvania.

The Orange and Blue. BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY.

VOL. I. LEWISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, MAY 11, 1897. No. 9.

DANVILLE vs. BUCKNELL.

Bucknell Gains an Easy Victory on Saturday.

Saturday was a beautiful day for indulging in the national game, and as Bucknell had been advertised to play the Danville Y. M. C. A. on the college campus, a fair sized crowd of college boys and town people turned out to see the game. The leading track was lined, as usual, with "beats," who want more for nothing than the gentlemen on the "natural grand stand" want for their quarter. The team that came from Danville, advertised as the Y. M. C. A., is a fair representation of the average class of Y. M. C. A. teams throughout the State. They make far better representatives of the "White Chapel" district than they do of christian institutions. In fact, the team that played Bucknell Saturday spent most of their time, when not engaged in trying to play base ball, in punishing "boozers" and standing upon street corners. The ladies and children who came out to see the game on Saturday were forced to listen to disgraceful speeches and actions from players on the Danville Y. M. C. A. team. But what a sorry specimen of ball they put up against Bucknell. It took just one inning for our delightful visitors to find out that their days of usefulness on the diamond are over, and that they no longer know the game as played to-day. Danville made their three runs in the first and third innings. They opened the game with two long drives to deep field for three bases, followed by another hit, which scored two runs. Shortell then retired the side by striking out the next two batters. Danville made her third and last run in the third inning, on a base on balls, an error on the part of Bucknell, and a base hit. The Bucknell batters were ripe, and they pounded the Danville twirlers all over the lot; Bucknell never failing to score except in the third inning. Shortell did excellent work in the box, striking out twelve men. Cattenail supported him in his usual fine style behind the bat. Geary covered first base for Bucknell in a careful manner, and made a pretty catch of a long foul fly. Conover, in centre, did good work. Griffith was very prominent with the stick, making several long drives. Grimm also batted hard, but he had bad luck, losing a home run during the fourth inning by the sensational one hand catch of Danville's left fielder. Jenkinson did the heavy hitting of the game, making four hits out of six times at bat. The score:

THE HIGHWAYMEN'S MISTAKE.

The Thrilling Experience of Two Students.

Last Saturday night at about 9:30, Mr. Barner and Mr. Meserve were held up by two highwaymen, at Gundy's Siding, while they were returning from Winfield, where Mr. Barner had been holding services. Neither of the gentlemen were relieved of anything, but both were badly scared, and not without cause, as may be seen from the following story, which Mr. Barner told when interviewed by an ORANGE AND BLUE reporter:

"It is my custom to return from Winfield every Saturday evening after holding the regular weekly meeting of the church, at about 9 or 9:30 o'clock, and the route I generally chose is along the Reading R. R. If you remember, there is a very dreary spot at Gundy's Siding where a man might be waylaid and his body thrown into the river without any trace being left whatsoever. It has always been with a certain amount of nervous timidity that I approached this place, fearing lest I might be waylaid. Well, last Saturday night it occurred, and I shall never forget the experience. Mr. Meserve, who had gone down with me, and I were walking back to Lewisburg, and, strange enough, were talking about the peculiar fitness of Gundy's Siding, which we were approaching, for any foul deed of darkness. There were quite a number of passenger cars on the side track, and as I passed the end of one of these, Mr. Meserve had fallen back for the moment to tie his shoe-string. I heard a low whistle at my side, and almost immediately an answering whistle came from the other end of the car, then the man who had first whistled was heard running along on the other side of the car with the evident intention of joining the man who had answered the call. I, not knowing their number or location, thought best to walk straight on. As I neared the other end of the car, there was suddenly flashed into my eyes with the dazzling and blinding glare of an electric arc, the light from a bull's eye lantern. My eyes soon became accustomed to the light and I managed to see, by the aid of the faint moonlight, that the man who had the lantern, and also a revolver in the other hand, was a massive, big, burly fellow with heavy whiskers, and behind this giant was a smaller fellow with a most villainous countenance. I was compelled to halt, and then this wiry little fellow came out from behind the big fellow and creeping up to me like a cat suddenly grasped my arms from behind.

THE MISSIONS.

A Description of Them by a Clergyman in Embury.

There are no doubt some in our university who are not acquainted with the interesting and practical line of work connected with the student missions. And yet one's information concerning student life at Bucknell would not be complete without at least some notice of it.

Mission work by the students was approximate with the early history of our institution. As early as 1884 one of the missions "The Marsh," was in existence and had as one of its supporters Dr. Robert Lowry. At present there are five missions, namely: "The Marsh," "Pine Grove," "Fairfield," "Chillicothe" and "The Tollgate." The first two are in possession of commodious buildings, the one at Pine Grove having just been recently built.

With the exception of the one at Pine Grove (which has become a mission of the First Baptist Church of Lewisburg) the missions have an independent existence not being connected with or under the control of any outside organization. The one at "The Marsh" was some time ago incorporated under Pennsylvania State laws, under the name of "The Marsh Union Sunday School Association."

The number of students attending the several missions varies, sometimes four or five attending one mission.

There are generally two services held on Sunday. The Sunday school is held in the afternoon, and the method pursued in the conduct of the service is similar to that of our Sunday Schools. The different classes are taught by the students and sometimes by local teachers. At least two of the missions have Sunday School libraries.

The evening service is conducted by the students. Those who remain for it being kindly entertained by friends living in the community, who take turns in bestowing their hospitality. The pulpit is occupied by one of the boys themselves or someone whom they have procured for the purpose.

Artimes special evangelistic services are held, which are sometimes productive of much good, if we may judge by the number of "results." The Pine Grove and Chillicothe missions have been very successful in that direction during the present school year, a number of persons from the former have been baptized in the church at Lewisburg.

The mission work not only affords religious advantages to those living in the country districts, but also offers opportunity to those looking about to the ministerial profession as their life work, for the development of executive, pastoral and homiletical ability.

It is to be hoped that the students will continue to sustain this line of work, and develop it to the best of their ability.

Official Commencement Program.

FRIDAY, June 18th.
7:30 P. M.—Exhibition of the School of Music, (Bucknell Hall), under direction of E. Aviragnet, Mus. Doc.
SATURDAY, June 19th.
8:00 P. M.—Annual Debate, Junior Class, (Commencement Hall).
SUNDAY, June 20th.
10:30 A. M.—Baccalaureate Sermon, (Baptist Church), by President Harris.
7:30 P. M.—Annual Sermon before the Pennsylvania Baptist Education Society, (Baptist Church), by Rev. Geo. W. Folwell, of Philadelphia.
MONDAY, June 21st.
A. P. Exhibition begins and continues three days, (Studio, Institute).
8:00 A. M.—Examination for admission to College.
10:00 A. M.—Commencement Exercises of the School of Music, (Bucknell Hall).
2:00 P. M.—Business Meeting, Institute Alumni, (Institute Building).
3:00 P. M.—Public Meeting, Institute Alumni, (Bucknell Hall).
7:45 P. M.—Anniversary of the Literary Societies, (Quar., President H. L. Whitman, LL. D., Washington, D. C.).
9:00 P. M.—President's Reception, (President's House).
6:00 P. M.—Twilight Concert, (College Campus).
TUESDAY, June 22nd.
8:30 A. M.—Business Meeting, College Alumni, (Bucknell Hall).
8:30 A. M.—Annual Meeting, Board of Trustees, (College Library).
11:00 A. M.—Exhibition, Fourth Form of the Academy, (Commencement Hall).
2:30 P. M.—Commencement of Bucknell Institute, (Commencement Hall). Address, Miss Myra Reynolds, Ph. D., of Chicago.
4:00-5:30 P. M.—Reception by Physical and Chemical Society, assisted by Natural History Society, (Laboratory).
6:40 P. M.—Twilight Concert, (College Campus).
7:45 P. M.—Anniversary of the College Alumni, (Commencement Hall). Orator, Albert Foster, D. D., 72, Newark, N. J. Poet, George Whitman, D. D., 72, of Buffalo, N. Y. Reunions, Classes of '57, '67, '77, and '87. Twenty-fifth Anniversary, class of '72.
WEDNESDAY, June 23rd.
8:00 A. M.—Announcement of Promotions, (Bucknell Hall).
9:00 A. M.—Commencement of the College. Orations by the Class. Address to the Class by Judge William N. Ashman, LL. D., of Philadelphia.
12:00—Corporation Dinner, (Bucknell Hall).
"The House of Martha."

Gettysburg vs. Bucknell, Friday, 3:30 p. m., we hope to see every student of the University out on the campus cheering our team on to victory. Show by your presence that you are interested in the team and wish to see it win laurels for the college. Besides we need financial support. The question is asked every day, "Why do you not get Lafayette here?" If you give us support we will be able to have many college games here on the campus. We have a winning team this year. Give us a little financial encouragement.

Continued on second page.

Continued on fourth page.

THE ORANGE AND BLUE.

LEWISBURG, PENN'A.

PUBLISHED ONCE A WEEK DURING THE COLLEGE YEAR BY STUDENTS OF BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY.

Entered at Post Office at Lewisburg as second-class mail matter.

SUBSCRIPTION $1.00 PER YEAR.

STAFF
M. R. COLLINS, Editor-in-Chief.
W. L. HILL, Editor.
O. R. LEYAN, Editor.
W. F. EICHOLTZ, Editor.

BUSINESS MANAGER:
S. W. GILPIN.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS:
John V. Leiser, Pres. John N. Gandy, Vice Pres.
L. B. Simpson, Sec. L. T. Butler, Treas.

A. R. Goddard, Geo. T. Ritter,
S. W. Gilpin, W. L. Hill,
R. B. McKee, O. R. LeVan,
R. H. Kress, W. F. Eicholtz.

Printed by the Journal, Lewisburg, Pa.

TUESDAY, MAY 11, 1897.

The College Editorial.

The college editorial is an expression of opinion—the opinion of the entire editorial staff, as far as such a composite opinion may be formulated. The editorial, however, has more weight than that. In matters of general importance it expresses the student sentiment. The editorial page is the mirror in which are reflected the beliefs and convictions of the student body. A paper would certainly not deserve the trust imposed upon it if it became the mouthpiece of any society, clique or faction. The only society it must serve is the society of students, and the only clique the clique of those who think.

It is evident that the columns of a college paper cannot contain words of praise alone, for the world is not entirely praiseworthy, nor are its criticisms to be always adverse, for pessimism never makes converts. Nor should any one class in the college community be exempt from criticism. The faculty and the students alike must listen to their critics. If the faculty pursues a policy which is considered contrary to the general welfare the editorial column is the agency to point out the mistake. The criticisms should be received in the perfect spirit of candor with which they are written. He who does not receive it has in him the essence of a tyrant.

It is occasionally urged that this free criticism of the faculty's action creates a bad impression abroad; that a frank expression of opinion on the action of those in authority is an indication of lawlessness, or hostility to all restraint.

Such an opinion is ill-founded. A free discussion of measures of general interest, dressed in suitable language to avoid disrespect, is rather an indication that the students are thinking, instead of being blindly led by the halter-strap of authority. A wide-awake paper will criticize all alike if all deserve it, and commend all alike if the case justifies it.—Oberlin Review.

Tale of a Fool.

Only another heart broken.
Only another soul saved.
Only another poor taster
Of memory's bitter store.

Give him some sarsaparilla.
Fetch him some liver pills.
He'll take his quinine bitters,
He'll get shot of the chills.

This world is a merry old planet.
This world is a blasted old sphere.
Here's to that rascal, young Cupid,
Here's a wan smile and a tear.

They took him up and brought him down
And laid him in the campus ground.
This is the epitaph they wrote
Night over the place where sleeps the bloke:

"With fools he lived; with fools he died;
With fools he laughed; with fools he cried;
With Psyche dallied; by Cupid shot;
Thank Heaven, at least, one fool's forgot!"

S. C.

Milton's Estimate of Bucknell.

Bucknell has many staunch friends in Milton. There is no person, however, in the enterprising up river town who entertains a stronger friendship for the University than genial "Joe" Logan, of the Miltonian. The following is an extract from an article in the last edition of his paper:

Everybody in Milton was glad to hear that Bucknell athletes were victorious in the inter-collegiate relay race. The warm feeling for our nearest college grows with the passing days and anything that causes rejoicings within its walls is good news to Miltonians. But it was not always thus. There was a time when little jealousies existed and not much friendship. But then the school was in its knee pants, now it is a broad-gauge educational institution, forging to the front ranks with giant strides. Then it was narrow-gauge, run by water, and honors were only conferred upon those who could dive deep and come up dry. Now the aquarium is dispensed with and merit and worth recognized. Now it is liberal, progressive, richly endowed, ably officered, popular, and has an extended reputation as among the best. It started a private and is now a captain with brevet promotions tendered it on every hand. And why? Because it has at the head broad, liberal, grand educators and practical business men, and the sincere wish of all our people is that in every contest, literary and athletic, its students may carry the laurel until its fame spreads over our entire land, and the broad and beautiful campus upland still stately buildings more densely thronged with young men fitting themselves for the higher duties of life.

The Indians will be unable to play here on the 22nd as scheduled.

On Wednesday our base ball team will cross bats with Milton League.

The Freshman and Sophomore classes are making preparations for the Field Day prize struggle.

Prof. Spangler, of Ursinus College, in company with Pres. Harris, spent Monday morning in looking over the Institution.

Prof. Milton G. Evans, D. D., of Crozer Theological Seminary, is booked to sail for England, June 23, on the Britannia, in company with Pres. Henry G. Weston. Pres. Weston is on terms of intimate friendship with Dr. MacLarin, Dr. Spurgeon and many other eminent clergymen. This will bring Prof. Evans into close intimacy with the most illustrious Biblical lights of the old world.

Danville vs. Bucknell.

Continued from first page.

| BUCKNELL.      | R  | H  | O  | A | E |
|----------------|----|----|----|---|---|
| Geary, 1b      | 4  | 2  | 8  | 1 | 0 |
| Conover, c f   | 4  | 3  | 3  | 0 | 0 |
| Griffith 3b    | 2  | 2  | 0  | 1 | 0 |
| Mulkie, s s    | 0  | 1  | 1  | 1 | 1 |
| Shortell, p    | 3  | 2  | 1  | 3 | 0 |
| G. Grimm, 1 f  | 2  | 2  | 1  | 0 | 0 |
| Catterall, c   | 2  | 1  | 11 | 0 | 0 |
| Garner, 3b     | 1  | 0  | 2  | 1 | 0 |
| Jenkinson, r f | 2  | 1  | 0  | 0 | 0 |
| Total          | 20 | 17 | 27 | 7 | 1 |

| DANVILLE.    | R | H | O  | A | E  |
|--------------|---|---|----|---|----|
| Hummert, c   | 1 | 2 | 2  | 4 | 0  |
| Lee, 2b      | 1 | 1 | 4  | 0 | 2  |
| Hoffman, 1b  | 1 | 1 | 4  | 0 | 2  |
| Lloyd, 3b    | 0 | 0 | 2  | 0 | 1  |
| Shannon, c f | 0 | 1 | 3  | 0 | 0  |
| Martin, 1 f  | 0 | 0 | 3  | 0 | 1  |
| Owens, c f   | 0 | 0 | 2  | 0 | 1  |
| Gaskins, s s | 0 | 0 | 1  | 0 | 4  |
| Class, p     | 0 | 0 | 0  | 3 | 1  |
| Total        | 3 | 5 | 21 | 8 | 12 |

Score by innings:

|          |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |    |
|----------|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|----|
| Bucknell | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 |    |
| Danville | 2 | 4 | 0 | 5 | 1 | 1 | 4 | 3 | 4 | 20 |

Two-base hits, Conover. Three-base hits, Griffith, Hummert, Lee, Shannon. Struck out, by Class 5, by Shortell 11. Bases on balls, off Class 5, off Shortell 5. Wild pitch, Shortell. Passed ball, Catterall. Bases stolen, Bucknell 5. Hit by pitcher, Hoffman. Time of game, 1 hour and 55 minutes. Umpire, W. F. Eicholtz.

Score by innings:

|          |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |    |
|----------|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|----|
| Bucknell | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 |    |
| Danville | 2 | 4 | 0 | 5 | 1 | 1 | 4 | 3 | 4 | 20 |

Two-base hits, Conover. Three-base hits, Griffith, Hummert, Lee, Shannon. Struck out, by Class 5, by Shortell 11. Bases on balls, off Class 5, off Shortell 5. Wild pitch, Shortell. Passed ball, Catterall. Bases stolen, Bucknell 5. Hit by pitcher, Hoffman. Time of game, 1 hour and 55 minutes. Umpire, W. F. Eicholtz.

Score by innings:

|          |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |    |
|----------|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|----|
| Bucknell | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 |    |
| Danville | 2 | 4 | 0 | 5 | 1 | 1 | 4 | 3 | 4 | 20 |

Two-base hits, Conover. Three-base hits, Griffith, Hummert, Lee, Shannon. Struck out, by Class 5, by Shortell 11. Bases on balls, off Class 5, off Shortell 5. Wild pitch, Shortell. Passed ball, Catterall. Bases stolen, Bucknell 5. Hit by pitcher, Hoffman. Time of game, 1 hour and 55 minutes. Umpire, W. F. Eicholtz.

Score by innings:

|          |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |    |
|----------|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|----|
| Bucknell | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 |    |
| Danville | 2 | 4 | 0 | 5 | 1 | 1 | 4 | 3 | 4 | 20 |

Two-base hits, Conover. Three-base hits, Griffith, Hummert, Lee, Shannon. Struck out, by Class 5, by Shortell 11. Bases on balls, off Class 5, off Shortell 5. Wild pitch, Shortell. Passed ball, Catterall. Bases stolen, Bucknell 5. Hit by pitcher, Hoffman. Time of game, 1 hour and 55 minutes. Umpire, W. F. Eicholtz.

Score by innings:

|          |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |    |
|----------|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|----|
| Bucknell | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 |    |
| Danville | 2 | 4 | 0 | 5 | 1 | 1 | 4 | 3 | 4 | 20 |

Two-base hits, Conover. Three-base hits, Griffith, Hummert, Lee, Shannon. Struck out, by Class 5, by Shortell 11. Bases on balls, off Class 5, off Shortell 5. Wild pitch, Shortell. Passed ball, Catterall. Bases stolen, Bucknell 5. Hit by pitcher, Hoffman. Time of game, 1 hour and 55 minutes. Umpire, W. F. Eicholtz.

Score by innings:

|          |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |    |
|----------|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|----|
| Bucknell | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 |    |
| Danville | 2 | 4 | 0 | 5 | 1 | 1 | 4 | 3 | 4 | 20 |

Two-base hits, Conover. Three-base hits, Griffith, Hummert, Lee, Shannon. Struck out, by Class 5, by Shortell 11. Bases on balls, off Class 5, off Shortell 5. Wild pitch, Shortell. Passed ball, Catterall. Bases stolen, Bucknell 5. Hit by pitcher, Hoffman. Time of game, 1 hour and 55 minutes. Umpire, W. F. Eicholtz.

Score by innings:

|          |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |    |
|----------|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|----|
| Bucknell | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 |    |
| Danville | 2 | 4 | 0 | 5 | 1 | 1 | 4 | 3 | 4 | 20 |

Two-base hits, Conover. Three-base hits, Griffith, Hummert, Lee, Shannon. Struck out, by Class 5, by Shortell 11. Bases on balls, off Class 5, off Shortell 5. Wild pitch, Shortell. Passed ball, Catterall. Bases stolen, Bucknell 5. Hit by pitcher, Hoffman. Time of game, 1 hour and 55 minutes. Umpire, W. F. Eicholtz.

Score by innings:

|          |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |    |
|----------|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|----|
| Bucknell | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 |    |
| Danville | 2 | 4 | 0 | 5 | 1 | 1 | 4 | 3 | 4 | 20 |

Two-base hits, Conover. Three-base hits, Griffith, Hummert, Lee, Shannon. Struck out, by Class 5, by Shortell 11. Bases on balls, off Class 5, off Shortell 5. Wild pitch, Shortell. Passed ball, Catterall. Bases stolen, Bucknell 5. Hit by pitcher, Hoffman. Time of game, 1 hour and 55 minutes. Umpire, W. F. Eicholtz.

Score by innings:

|          |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |    |
|----------|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|----|
| Bucknell | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 |    |
| Danville | 2 | 4 | 0 | 5 | 1 | 1 | 4 | 3 | 4 | 20 |

Two-base hits, Conover. Three-base hits, Griffith, Hummert, Lee, Shannon. Struck out, by Class 5, by Shortell 11. Bases on balls, off Class 5, off Shortell 5. Wild pitch, Shortell. Passed ball, Catterall. Bases stolen, Bucknell 5. Hit by pitcher, Hoffman. Time of game, 1 hour and 55 minutes. Umpire, W. F. Eicholtz.

Score by innings:

|          |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |    |
|----------|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|----|
| Bucknell | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 |    |
| Danville | 2 | 4 | 0 | 5 | 1 | 1 | 4 | 3 | 4 | 20 |

Two-base hits, Conover. Three-base hits, Griffith, Hummert, Lee, Shannon. Struck out, by Class 5, by Shortell 11. Bases on balls, off Class 5, off Shortell 5. Wild pitch, Shortell. Passed ball, Catterall. Bases stolen, Bucknell 5. Hit by pitcher, Hoffman. Time of game, 1 hour and 55 minutes. Umpire, W. F. Eicholtz.

Score by innings:

|          |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |    |
|----------|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|----|
| Bucknell | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 |    |
| Danville | 2 | 4 | 0 | 5 | 1 | 1 | 4 | 3 | 4 | 20 |

Two-base hits, Conover. Three-base hits, Griffith, Hummert, Lee, Shannon. Struck out, by Class 5, by Shortell 11. Bases on balls, off Class 5, off Shortell 5. Wild pitch, Shortell. Passed ball, Catterall. Bases stolen, Bucknell 5. Hit by pitcher, Hoffman. Time of game, 1 hour and 55 minutes. Umpire, W. F. Eicholtz.

Score by innings:

|          |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |    |
|----------|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|----|
| Bucknell | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 |    |
| Danville | 2 | 4 | 0 | 5 | 1 | 1 | 4 | 3 | 4 | 20 |

Two-base hits, Conover. Three-base hits, Griffith, Hummert, Lee, Shannon. Struck out, by Class 5, by Shortell 11. Bases on balls, off Class 5, off Shortell 5. Wild pitch, Shortell. Passed ball, Catterall. Bases stolen, Bucknell 5. Hit by pitcher, Hoffman. Time of game, 1 hour and 55 minutes. Umpire, W. F. Eicholtz.

Score by innings:

|          |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |    |
|----------|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|----|
| Bucknell | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 |    |
| Danville | 2 | 4 | 0 | 5 | 1 | 1 | 4 | 3 | 4 | 20 |

Two-base hits, Conover. Three-base hits, Griffith, Hummert, Lee, Shannon. Struck out, by Class 5, by Shortell 11. Bases on balls, off Class 5, off Shortell 5. Wild pitch, Shortell. Passed ball, Catterall. Bases stolen, Bucknell 5. Hit by pitcher, Hoffman. Time of game, 1 hour and 55 minutes. Umpire, W. F. Eicholtz.

Score by innings:

|          |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |    |
|----------|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|----|
| Bucknell | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 |    |
| Danville | 2 | 4 | 0 | 5 | 1 | 1 | 4 | 3 | 4 | 20 |

Two-base hits, Conover. Three-base hits, Griffith, Hummert, Lee, Shannon. Struck out, by Class 5, by Shortell 11. Bases on balls, off Class 5, off Shortell 5. Wild pitch, Shortell. Passed ball, Catterall. Bases stolen, Bucknell 5. Hit by pitcher, Hoffman. Time of game, 1 hour and 55 minutes. Umpire, W. F. Eicholtz.

Score by innings:

|          |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |    |
|----------|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|----|
| Bucknell | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 |    |
| Danville | 2 | 4 | 0 | 5 | 1 | 1 | 4 | 3 | 4 | 20 |

Two-base hits, Conover. Three-base hits, Griffith, Hummert, Lee, Shannon. Struck out, by Class 5, by Shortell 11. Bases on balls, off Class 5, off Shortell 5. Wild pitch, Shortell. Passed ball, Catterall. Bases stolen, Bucknell 5. Hit by pitcher, Hoffman. Time of game, 1 hour and 55 minutes. Umpire, W. F. Eicholtz.

Score by innings:

|          |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |    |
|----------|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|----|
| Bucknell | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 |    |
| Danville | 2 | 4 | 0 | 5 | 1 | 1 | 4 | 3 | 4 | 20 |

Two-base hits, Conover. Three-base hits, Griffith, Hummert, Lee, Shannon. Struck out, by Class 5, by Shortell 11. Bases on balls, off Class 5, off Shortell 5. Wild pitch, Shortell. Passed ball, Catterall. Bases stolen, Bucknell 5. Hit by pitcher, Hoffman. Time of game, 1 hour and 55 minutes. Umpire, W. F. Eicholtz.

Score by innings:

|          |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |    |
|----------|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|----|
| Bucknell | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 |    |
| Danville | 2 | 4 | 0 | 5 | 1 | 1 | 4 | 3 | 4 | 20 |

Two-base hits, Conover. Three-base hits, Griffith, Hummert, Lee, Shannon. Struck out, by Class 5, by Shortell 11. Bases on balls, off Class 5, off Shortell 5. Wild pitch, Shortell. Passed ball, Catterall. Bases stolen, Bucknell 5. Hit by pitcher, Hoffman. Time of game, 1 hour and 55 minutes. Umpire, W. F. Eicholtz.

Score by innings:

|          |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |    |
|----------|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|----|
| Bucknell | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 |    |
| Danville | 2 | 4 | 0 | 5 | 1 | 1 | 4 | 3 | 4 | 20 |

Two-base hits, Conover. Three-base hits, Griffith, Hummert, Lee, Shannon. Struck out, by Class 5, by Shortell 11. Bases on balls, off Class 5, off Shortell 5. Wild pitch, Shortell. Passed ball, Catterall. Bases stolen, Bucknell 5. Hit by pitcher, Hoffman. Time of game, 1 hour and 55 minutes. Umpire, W. F. Eicholtz.

Score by innings:

|          |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |    |
|----------|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|----|
| Bucknell | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 |    |
| Danville | 2 | 4 | 0 | 5 | 1 | 1 | 4 | 3 | 4 | 20 |

HEADACHE CURED By My Special Glasses.

H. J. NOGEL, Eye Specialist.

Eyes Examined Free.

Spectacles & Eye Glasses a Specialty.

Adjusting Eye Glasses and Spectacles a Specialty. Repairing with Neatness and Dispatch.

H. J. NOGEL & BRO., JEWELERS AND ENGRAVERS.

Private Optical Parlors.

Buy your groceries of FOLLMER.

The largest line and freshest stock in the town.

Students' Trade Solicited.

Danville Steam Laundry

Always up to date. Best work. Lowest prices.

O. R. Harris, Prop. Danville, Pa.

ATTORNEYS.

D. H. GETZ, Attorney-at-Law, Lewisburg, Pa.

Law Offices of ANDREW ALBRIGHT LEISER, Lewisburg, Union Co., Pa.

J. C. BUCHER, Attorney-at-Law, Lewisburg, Pa.

J. THOMPSON BAKER, Attorney-at-Law, Lewisburg, Pa.

J. F. DUNCAN, Attorney-at-Law, Lewisburg, Pa.

J. W. VANVALZAH, Attorney-at-Law, Lewisburg, Pa.

WILLIAM R. FOLLMER, Attorney-at-Law, Lewisburg, Pa.

NOTARY PUBLIC. Lewisburg, Pa.

W. J. WILKINSON, Attorney-at-Law, Office in Music Hall, Lewisburg, Pa.

ALFRED HAYES, Attorney-at-Law, Office opposite Presbyterian Church, Lewisburg, Pa.

James F. Linn, J. Merrill Linn, Philip A. Linn, 1856 1854 1862

J. M. & P. B. LINN, ATTORNEYS AT LAW, Successors to J. F. & J. M. Linn: One Continuous Office. LEWISBURG, PA.

HUNTER, Photographer, 286 Market St., Lewisburg, Pa.

Central Livery and Boarding Stables, J. Horan Prop'r, Lewisburg, Pa. TELEPHONE CONNECTION.

New Store Just Opened.

A new and complete line of up-to-date goods. Call and see me, Market Street, between 2nd and 3d Street.

Geo. H. Fisher, Lewisburg, Pa.

Beautiful Photographs.

In order to introduce my work I make the following offer for one month to the pupils of the Institute and Seminary:

My $2 Cabinets Artists Finish at $1.50 per dozen.

My $3 Carbonets at $2.00 per dozen.

Having had 24 years of experience in large cities I am enabled to guarantee satisfaction in every particular. I earnestly solicit a share of your patronage.

Very Respectfully, HUNTER, Photographer, 286 Market St., Lewisburg, Pa.

Events of the Week.

Academy Items.
J. Sidney Hoffa spent Sunday with his parents at Washingtonville.

Messrs. Dickinson and Crawl are recovering from an attack of tonsillitis.

Members of the Geology class were out en-masse on Saturday scouring the country for specimens.

The invitation to the Annual Reception given by Dr. Harris to the Fourth Form has been received, and as the boys are not ignorant of the Doctor's hospitality, an enjoyable evening is anticipated.

A special class for the study of the Bible has been organized. The first meeting was held last week which in interest and enjoyment surpassed the expectation of all present. The committee certainly made a wise choice when they selected Capt. Owens to conduct the class, which he gladly consented to do. All Academy students are cordially invited to join the class.

Institute Items.

Miss Margaret Montgomery recently spent several days at her home in McLeansville.

Miss Edna Shires spent Saturday and Sunday, May eight and ninth, at her home in Limestoneville.

Miss Rebecca Leibensperger, of Allentown, has been spending several days with Miss Margaret Miller.

Miss Candace Wood, who was for some time at the head of the Art Department, is visiting Miss Annie Evans.

Mrs. Morgan and Miss Elizabeth Jones have been visiting Miss Mable Morgan and Miss Grace Callender.

Great credit is due to the young ladies who gave us such an interesting contest in Elocution last Saturday evening and also to their teacher Miss Armitage. The contestants were Misses Clara Slifer, N. May Lochman, Elizabeth Rossiter, Elsie Vaughan, Mable E. Batten, Isabel Schwoier, Gertrude Roos and Charlotte Shields.

Don't forget the base ball game Friday afternoon.

The Highwayman's Mistake.

Continued from first page.

and held them in a vise-like grip. I tell you if I live to be a thousand years old, I shall remember until my dying day the villainous look on that little fellow's face, it was the typical mug of a desperado and a bad one at that. While I was thus held, the big fellow advanced, still throwing the light of his lantern in my eyes and still pointing the revolver at my head, he was evidently about to relieve me of my valuables when, fortunately for me, Mr. Meserve came running up and inquired what was the matter. The big fellow turned from me and grasped Mr. Meserve by the throat, a short scuffle ensued in which the big fellow slipped and fell. I cautioned Mr. Meserve not to resist for I thought there might be more in the gang and they would come and "do us." When the big fellow got up, the little fellow let go of me and jumped under the eaves and ran off on the other side, and the big fellow started to run away at the same time. I think it probable that they had counted on meeting me alone, as I generally am, but when Mr. Meserve came up they were frightened off. No, they did not get any thing but it was only because they did not ask for it for I shall be frank and say that they might have had anything I owned, simply by making a request for it." On Sunday evening Craig with 38 calibres "pistol" accompanied Barner as his body-guard.

This is not the first time that a student has been held up, and it would be well for those who have to travel lonely places at night to go in companies or to be fully armed.

Disturbers of the Peace.

By buzzing around the evening lamp, the June bugs are already interfering with the student's peaceful pursuit of getting out his lessons and by their unwelcome intrusions make the boys exercise no little self-restraint to refrain from using the dramatic language which printers express with dashes.

The Senior banquet will be held at the Cameron House during the latter part of May.

Events for Month of May.
Thursday, 13th—Reception by Mrs. Harris, President's house.
Friday, 14th—Stag Party, Tustin Gymnasium.
Monday and Tuesday, 17th and 18th—"House of Martha," Institute School Room.
Thursday, 20th—Reception by Mrs. Edwards, Academy.
Friday, 21st—Junior Exhibition in Oratory for Registrar's prize.
Monday, 24th—Lecture by Dr. Perrine, Bucknell Hall.
Tuesday, 25th—Exhibition by Desarte class, Bucknell Hall.
Friday and Saturday, 28th and 29th—Festival, Tustin Gymnasium.
All engagements for Bucknell Hall are recorded in the Registrar's office, so as to avoid conflicts.

The Seniors had a week off in Thoisim, owing to Dr. Harris' absence from town.

The '97 Shoes
are in
at Marsh's.

Lunch,
Billiards,
Opera House Restaurant.

Go to WARD,
The Barber.
Finest Tonsorial Parlors in Town.

A. W. STEPHENS,
Clothing to Order
or Ready-made.
Sales Agent for Wanamaker & Brown

FRESH
Whitman's Candies.
—AT—
Wolfe's Drug Store, 2nd and Market Street

CHARLES A. HESS,
THE
Gentleman's Tailor;
Market Street.
Lewisburg; Penna.

WE MAKE SUITS THAT FIT.

Go to T. G. EVANS'
UNIVERSITY BOOK STORE.
For your Text Books
and Stationary.

For a good
Livery Turnout
Go to
W. W. BROWN,
North 3d Street, Lewisburg, Pa.

P. W. Himmelreich,
Dealer in
DRY GOODS,
GROCERIES, ETC.
Trunks, Satchels and Traveling Bags

CAMERON HOUSE.
T. F. Meyer, Propr.
Lately Renovated and Remodeled.
Commercial Sample Room.
Located in Business Centre.
Free "Bus and Telephone."
Electric Lights, Steam Heat.

Ginter & Cook
The Face Takers
Have been selected

Official Photographers
For Class of '97
418 Market Street, CALL OFTEN.

For an EASY SHAVE go to
MILLER, The Barber,
North 2d St., Lewisburg, Pa.

Bucknell University,

John Howard Harris, President.

THE COLLEGE.

Four courses leading to degrees in Arts, Philosophy and Science; over one hundred subjects of study; separate Laboratory, Gymnasium and Observatory buildings, large library; ample endowment; modern facilities.

THE ACADEMY.

A preparatory school for young men and boys. Fits for college and the best technical schools.

THE INSTITUTE.

A boarding school for young women; three courses of study leading to diplomas. Art studio.

THE SCHOOL OF MUSIC.

For both sexes. Offers graduating courses in music; courses in piano, pipe-organ, violin, harmony, etc., leading to diploma. The school is under the direction of a French artist, assisted by a corps of excellent teachers.

For catalogue and further information concerning any department of the University, address,

William C. Gretzinger, Registrar,
Lewisburg, Pennsylvania

The Orange and Blue.

BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY.

VOL. I.

LEWISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, MAY 18, 1897.

No. 10.

GETTYSBURG vs. BUCKNELL.

Bucknell Wins After an Exciting Game.

A fair sized crowd attended the game on the campus yesterday. Gettysburg was scheduled to play Bucknell here on Friday but rain prevented the game. They went to Bellefonte on Saturday and defeated the State College team in a close game, returning to Bucknell yesterday expecting to have an easy thing. How well they were favored is shown in the score of Bucknell 9, Gettysburg 6. Yesterday was an ideal day for playing the national game and line all around playing was a feature on both sides. Several hundred students were on the ground making things lively, with yells and cheers for our boys. Bucknell made her score in the first, fifth and seventh innings, while Gettysburg made hers in the fourth and sixth innings. The whole game was a lively batting matinee on both sides; the ball was hit far and often. Jenkins distinguished himself in the eighth inning by making a long running and diving catch of a hard hit ball. Mulkie was very much in evidence when he was at the bat—making two doubles, but he had an off day in his position at short. Catterall caught a good game and did good work with the stick, hitting the ball over the railroad for three bases scoring a much needed run. For Gettysburg, Burns put up a fine game, doing good work in the field and making three long drives from his bat, one of which he hit out for three bases scoring two runs. The game was well played on both sides and was full of ginger from start to finish. The score:

| BUCKNELL.       | R | H | O  | A | E |
|-----------------|---|---|----|---|---|
| Geary, lb       | 1 | 1 | 1  | 0 | 0 |
| Conover, c f    | 1 | 2 | 1  | 0 | 0 |
| Griffith, 2b    | 2 | 0 | 2  | 1 | 1 |
| Grimm, 1 f      | 1 | 0 | 2  | 0 | 0 |
| Mulkie, ss      | 2 | 2 | 2  | 0 | 2 |
| Catterall, c    | 1 | 1 | 10 | 1 | 0 |
| Jenkinson, rf   | 0 | 1 | 2  | 1 | 0 |
| Garner, 3b      | 0 | 1 | 1  | 2 | 1 |
| Shortell, p     | 1 | 1 | 0  | 4 | 1 |
| Total.          | 9 | 9 | 27 | 9 | 5 |
| GETTYSBURG.     | R | H | O  | A | E |
| White, 3b       | 0 | 0 | 1  | 0 | 0 |
| Dale, 2b        | 0 | 0 | 3  | 2 | 0 |
| Tate, c         | 1 | 1 | 9  | 1 | 1 |
| Leisenring, lb  | 1 | 0 | 1  | 2 | 1 |
| Burns, lb and p | 1 | 3 | 1  | 0 | 1 |
| Gladfelter, ss  | 1 | 1 | 0  | 1 | 1 |
| Roelmer, c f    | 1 | 1 | 2  | 1 | 0 |
| Herman, 1 f     | 1 | 1 | 2  | 1 | 0 |
| Brown, rf       | 0 | 1 | 0  | 0 | 0 |
| Total.          | 6 | 9 | 24 | 8 | 5 |

Score by innings:
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
Bucknell, 2 0 0 0 0 2 0 0 0
Gettysburg, 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0
Struck out by Shortell 6; by Burns 4; by Leisenring 1. Two-base hits, Mulkie 2, Gladfelter. Three-base hits, Tate, Catterall, Burns. Double play, Brown to Leisenring. Bases stolen, Leisenring, Herman. Hit by pitcher, Geary, Shortell. Bases on balls off Shortell 3; off Leisenring 2. Time of game 2 hours 10 minutes. Umpire, W. J. Wilkinson.

GAME WITH MILTON LEAGUE.

Milton Wins a Game from Bucknell by the Score of 5 to 3.

The Milton Base Ball aggregation won its first victory on Wednesday last, when it defeated the Bucknell college team in a score of five to three. There never was a better game played on the Milton diamond than was witnessed on that day—and the small hole that enabled Milton to climb out of defeat were the two home runs made by Calhoun and Palmer. A more orderly, decent, free from wrangle game has never yet taken place—and if Bucknell puts up the stiff argument daily she did here she will close the season very near the top. Errors—Bucknell a solitary, Milton four.—Miltonian.

Notwithstanding the trip to Milton was between rain drops, one of the best games of the season followed. The grounds were damp, but passable, as the sun was very warm. Milton gave Bucknell out.

Bird's eye view of game in condensed form as follows:
1st. Geary retired first two, assisted by Shortell and Mulkie. Eddy retired next man by three strikes. For Bucknell, Geary out, Conover struck good connection; he cracked the first one up and it didn't stop till it was in a garden back of center field fence; Griffith was hit; Grim singled; Mulkie was sacrificed, and Catterall was out.

At beginning of second inning first man got out; following two made singles, and next lined to Griffith, who made one of Hallman's doubles, thus shutting Milton out for two innings. Then Jenkinson got out; Garner base on balls, as did Shortell, Conover and Geary.

3rd. Milton, 1, 2, 3 order. Conover taking care of the third by a lively catch. Griffith singled the centre; Grim sacrificed; Mulkie got out; Catterall made a lively two-base hit, and Jenkinson got out.

4th. First base on balls; next struck out; Calhoun slugged a three-bagger; next sacrificed, and fifth got out. Garner first on error; Shortell the same; Geary sacrificed; Conover and Griffith out.

5th. First out; next two base on balls; next two out. Griffith out; Mulkie first on error; Catterall first on balls; Jenkinson's little foul, umpire called fair; catcher tapped Jenkinson and third baseman tapped Mulkie, as they didn't run on account of a foul.

6th. First two fled out; next knocked to short stop, who finished him at first. Garner singled over third; Shortell out at first, and Garner at third. Geary was hit; Conover hit to short stop, forcing Geary out at second. Milton again went out in 1, 2, 3 order.

7th. Griffith and Grim out;

TENNIS TOURNAMENT.

The First Handicap Tournament at Bucknell.

The handicap Tennis Tournament began Saturday morning. This is the first handicap tournament that ever took place at Bucknell and great care was taken by the committee to place each man in his proper class, but as the talent of some of the men was unknown they were evidently placed in a lower class than they belonged.

Explanations: O Scratch man.
I Class one.
II Class two.
III Class three.
IV Class fourth.
Phillips 0 won by Weymouth, 6-2, 6-2.
Weymouth 2 won by Kauffman, 6-3, 6-3.
Kauffman 0 won by Bunnell, 6-3, 6-2.
Bunnell 0 won by Ballentine, 6-1, 6-1.
Ballentine 0 won by Ballentine, Alexander 3.

The College championship tournament will begin as soon as the handicap tournament is finished. On account of finances no intercollegiate meet has been arranged as yet.

Meeting of Institute Alumnae Club.

On Tuesday evening last, the members of the Lewisburg Institute Alumnae Club, and a few invited guests were very pleasantly entertained by an evening with Dickens as rendered by some of the young ladies of the club and their friends. In a series of picturesque and realistic tableaux, Dickens' most prominent characters appeared before the spectators. "Savrey Gams," as of yore, revealed her proclivities for nursing and keeping up her spirits meanwhile by frequent resorts to the bottle; bashful "David Copperfield" quailed before the eyes of "Dora's" austere aunts; "Dick Swiveller" and "the Marchioness" indulged in a social game of cards; "Joe" recognized the apparition of "the lady in the wale" and again "moved on;" "Tom Pinch's" sisters concocted a meat pie, looking distractingly pretty all the while; and "Oliver Twist" brought down the house when he asked for "more!"

There are only a few of the many scenes enacted before the gratified audience who would fain have recalled again and again the blushing actors. Suffice it to say, however, that the club is to be congratulated upon the possession of so much talent and beauty, and that such an excellent entertainment deserved a more extended audience.

The senior banquet will be held next Friday evening at the Cameron House.

"THE HOUSE OF MARTHA."

An Elegant Production by the Institute Senior Class.

"The House of Martha," written by Frank R. Stockton, arranged by Miss Armitage, and presented on Monday evening by members of the Senior Class of the Institute ably assisted by Messrs. Clements, Geary, Hall and N. F. Davis was a signal success. That much care and interest had been expended in its preparation was evident in the rendition of the entire play.

The stage arrangement in the three acts was especially artistic and appropriate. That of the first representing the study of Mr. Horace Vanderlay, of the second a rustic island, of the third a room in "The House of Martha." The leading feminine role, Sister Hagar of Sylvia Raynor, was played by Miss Rositer, who successively as the silent "sister," the energetic secretary, the loved maiden and the bride, sustained her part with grace and vigor.

Miss Wagner as Mother Anastasia, reserved and dignified, well deserves mention for her calm, clear manner of speaking, so distinctive of the character she impersonated.

Mrs. Vanderlay, the Grandmother, was most sweetly represented by Miss Shires, while Miss Focht, as the informal Miss Lanston, and Miss Raikes the "Landlady," and Miss Bender the maid, afforded much interest by the realistic manner of their acting.

Special mention should be made of Messrs. Clement and Geary, who represented two of the most important characters in the play, the former the leading man, Mr. Horace Vanderlay, the latter his "Under Study," Mr. Chester Walkirk. Throughout the entire evening Mr. Clement sustained his role, and that a difficult one, in admirable manner, while Mr. Geary proved a most worthy friend and confederate. Mr. Hall, the rustic outfit, while Mr. N. F. Davis afforded much interest as the "Middle Aged Man of the Sea."

Space forbids an extended account of the plot, but perhaps no part of the entire play was more appreciated than the denouement as revealed in the wedding scene. The fair young faces, the tasteful and even elaborate costumes of the bridal party and guests, the graceful arrangement together with the crimson glow cast upon the picture, combined to make one of the most artistic and effective scenes the Institute school room has ever had the privilege of witnessing. Truly Miss Armitage and her friends are to be most sincerely congratulated on the success of the first night.

THE ORANGE AND BLUE.

LEWISBURG, PENN'A.

PUBLISHED ONCE A WEEK DURING THE COLLEGE YEAR BY STUDENTS OF BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY.

Entered at Post Office at Lewisburg, as second-class mail matter.

SUBSCRIPTION $1.00 PER YEAR.

STAFF
M. E. COLLINS, Editor-in-Chief.
W. L. HILL, Editor.
O. R. LE VAN, Editor.
W. F. EICHHOLTZ, Editor.

BUSINESS MANAGER:
S. W. GILPIN.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS:
John V. Leshar, Pres. John M. Gandy, Vice Pres.
L. B. Simeone, Sec. L. T. Butler, Treas.
A. Kate Goldsard, Geo. T. Ritter,
S. W. Gilpin, W. L. Hill,
R. B. Munkie, O. R. Le Van,
R. H. Kress, W. S. Holland.

Printed by the Journal, Lewisburg, Pa.

TUESDAY, MAY 18, 1897.

Preparations are being made for the Field Day meet. This should receive special attention. On account of the peculiar arrangement, or wording, of our athletic association constitution in many of our colleges records are very low. No record is allowed to be put down as a record unless it is made on a regular inter-class contest for the cup, therefore some of our best records, being made in inter-collegiate meets, are not credited. With the exception of two events, every record should be and can be broken.

The following are the events for which the contest will be judged; the records are those made at previous meets:

|                |                  |
|----------------|------------------|
| Hammer throw   | 90 ft.           |
| Mile run       | 4:47 1/2 sec.    |
| 220 yd. dash   | 25 1/2 sec.      |
| High jump      | 5 ft. 4 in.      |
| 100 yd. dash   | 10 1/2 sec.      |
| Broad jump     | 19 ft.           |
| Shot put       | 36 ft. 7 1/2 in. |
| 120 yd. hurdle | 20 sec.          |
| Pole vault     | 9 ft.            |
| 440 yd. dash   | 60 sec.          |
| 1/2 mile run   | 2:15 1/2         |

Coming Events.

Tuesday, May 18th—Second night "House of Martha," Institute School Room.

Thursday, May 20th—Reception by Mrs. Edwards, Academy. Rehearsal of songs from new song book, Bucknell Hall.

Friday, May 21st—Junior Exhibition in Oratory for Registrar's prize.

Monday, May 24th, Lecture by Dr. Perrine, Bucknell Hall.

Tuesday, May 25th—Reception by Mrs. Larson, Institute.

Thursday, May 27th—Northfield meeting, Bucknell Hall.

Friday, May 28th—Base Ball, State vs. Bucknell. Festival, Tustin Gymnasium.

Saturday, May 29th—Field Sports, Festival, Tustin Gymnasium.

Tuesday, June 1st—Cantata, Dr. Avignat, Bucknell Hall.

All engagements for Bucknell Hall are recorded in the Registrar's office to avoid confusions.

The L'Agenda is expected to be out the latter part of the week.

Instructor Davis and Robt. Koons ran down a ground hog on Montour.

A. S. Barner, '97, will address the P. O. S. of A., of Winfield, next Sunday.

Rev. Raymond West '89, was called to Lewisburg, to officiate at the funeral of Mrs. Howard Miller.

On Saturday morning Dr. Avignat explained how all the scales were developed from the scales of a fish.

The good people of Mt. Carmel tendered a lucrative surprise party to their pastor T. L. Josephs, '96.

Jesse Evans, Ed. Comrey, Jim Parker and H. Leppner attended the dedication of the Washington monument in Phila., Saturday.

Misses Taylor, Goddard, Purdy, Harvey and Meserve spent Sunday in Montgomery, assisting John Anderson in missionary work.

THE ORANGE AND BLUE editorial staff will please meet in Theta Alpha Hall next Saturday morning at 9:15 to discuss some important matters.

The last lecture of "The Popular Lecture Course" will be delivered next Monday evening. Neither Dr. Perrine nor "Some Proverbs, not Solomon's" need advertising.

Mr. Crawford, '95, of Crozer Theological Seminary, has resumed his work after a five month's sickness of typhoid fever. He returns to his home in New York this week.

If the students, who are interested in base ball, will keep each number of THE ORANGE AND BLUE and compare the accounts of the various games, they will be able to decide on the merits of the individual players.

Last Thursday Miss Hayes and Maurice Mulford were returning from Milton their horse became unmanageable at the corner of the Halpenny factory. The carriage was upset and the two occupants thrown out into a mud puddle.

Dr. Halley has been engaged to deliver the commencement oration in June at Franklin Venango county, the home of our trustee Hon. Charles Miller, and of many students, Wilson, Snow and others. He will also deliver the oration at the commencement of the Baltimore City Girls' School, in Ford's Opera House, next month.

J. W. BICKLE,

THE BARBER,

Third St., Lewisburg, Pa.

Students' Work a Specialty.

R. J. Weiden-saul,

Livery and Boarding Stables,

Near Baker House.

Prices to suit the times....

Game with Milton League.

Continued from first page.

Mulkie first on error; Catterall out.

Stb. Milton made a mistake and the ball tried to find the one Conover put over the fence; Folmer started it; next man first on error, out at second; another out at second; this followed by a home run by Calhoun. For Bucknell, 1, 2, 3 order.

9th. First two out; third got first on error; fourth out. Last chance, Geary out at centre; Conover at short stop, and Griffith out at second.

The following is the score:

SHILTON.

Milton, c 0 1 4 1 0

Cook, 2b 0 0 3 1 0

Hoffman, cf 0 0 1 0 0

Calhoun, 3b 2 2 1 3 1

Hutchinson, lf 0 1 0 0 0

Carpenter, 1b 0 1 15 1 2

Crawford, rf 0 0 1 0 0

Conroy, ss 1 0 1 5 1

Folmer, p 1 1 0 10 0

Total 3 5 27 21 4

BUCKNELL.

Geary, 1b 0 0 12 0 0

Conover, cf 1 1 1 0 0

Griffith, 2b 1 1 6 1 1

Mulkie, ss 0 0 0 0 0

Shortell, p 0 0 1 10 0

G. Ginn, lf 0 1 2 0 0

Catterall, c 0 1 5 1 0

Garner, 3b 1 1 0 0 1

Jenkinson, rf 0 0 0 0 0

Total 3 5 27 21 2

Score by innings:

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9

Milton 0 0 0 2 0 0 0 3 0

Bucknell 1 0 1 1 0 0 0 0 3

Errors—Bucknell 3, Milton 3.

Two-base hits, Catterall 3, Folmer 3.

Calhoun, Home runs, Calhoun, Folmer and Conover. Double plays, Griffith and Conover.

Base on balls off Shortell 3, off Folmer 3. Hit by pitched balls off Geary 1, off Folmer 1, struck out by Shortell 3, by Geary 1, by Folmer 3.

Passed balls, Catterall 1.

Central Livery and Boarding Stables,

J. Horan Prop'r, Lewisburg, Pa.

TELEPHONE CONNECTION.

New Store Just Opened.

A new and complete line of Up-to-date Goods. Call and see me, Market Street, between 2nd and 3d Street.

Geo. H. Fisher,

Lewisburg, Pa.

Beautiful Photographs.

In order to introduce my work I make the following offer for one month to the pupils of the Institute and Seminary:

My $2 Cabinets Artistic Finish at $1.50 per dozen.

My $3 Carbonets at $2.00 per dozen.

Having had 24 years of experience in large cities I am enabled to guarantee satisfaction in every particular. I earnestly solicit a share of your patronage.

Very Respectfully,

HUNTER, Photographer,

326 Market St., Lewisburg, Pa.

HEADACHE CURED

By My Special Glasses.

H. J. NOGEL, Eye Specialist.

Eyes Examined Free.

Spectacles & Eye Glasses a Specialty.

Adjusting Eye Glasses and Spectacles a Specialty. Repairing with Neatness and Dispatch.

H. J. NOGEL & BRO.,

JEWELERS AND ENGRAVERS.

Private Optical Parlors.

Buy your groceries of

FOLLMER,

The largest line and freshest stock in the town.

Students' Trade Solicited.

Danville Steam Laundry

Always up to date

Best work

Lowest prices

O. R. Harris, Prop.

Danville, Pa.

ATTORNEYS.

D. H. GETZ,

Attorney-at-Law,

Lewisburg, Pa.

Law Offices of

ANDREW ALBRIGHT LEISER,

Lewisburg, Union Co. Pa.

J. C. BUCHER,

Attorney-at-Law,

Lewisburg, Pa.

J. THOMPSON BAKER,

Attorney-at-Law,

Lewisburg, Pa.

J. F. DUNCAN,

Attorney-at-Law,

Lewisburg, Pa.

J. W. VANVALZAH,

Attorney-at-Law,

Lewisburg, Pa.

WILLIAM R. FOLLMER,

Attorney-at-Law,

Lewisburg, Pa.

NOTARY PUBLIC. Lewisburg, Pa.

W. J. WILKINSON,

Attorney-at-Law,

Office in Music Hall,

Lewisburg, Pa.

ALFRED HAYES,

Attorney-at-Law,

Office opposite Presbyterian Church,

Lewisburg, Pa.

James F. Linn, J. Merrill Linn, Phillip B. Linn, 1850 1854 1892

J. M. & P. B. LINN

ATTORNEYS AT LAW,

Successors to J. F. & J. M. Linn.

One Continuous Office. LEWISBURG, PA.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Short Stops and Kick Offs for Hasty Reading.

Is that "Stag Dance Coming?"

Walter H. Reun spent Sunday at home.

J. V. Leshar sojourned at home over Sunday.

John Bogert preached at the March on Sunday.

J. A. Guie spent Sunday at home in Catawissa.

The Seniors are now preparing their Theistic argument.

William Warren preached at Nesquehoning on Sunday.

The President met the Senior class on Friday and Saturday mornings for the two remaining lessons in Theism.

The Senior class of the Institute will hold their commencement exercises on Monday morning of commencement week.

The Baptist conference held a special meeting in honor of the Rev. J. Wesley Sullivan, '78, on the twentieth anniversary of his ordination to the ministry.

J. A. Guie, Bruce Trimmer, R. H. Kress, Ed. Shoemaker, G. Freudenberger and M. Christy saw the boys play base ball at Milton on Wednesday afternoon.

Rev. J. G. Walker, D. D., '92, will celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Mantua Baptist church, by a series of special services, commencing Sunday, May 30.

E. H. Dutton and T. J. Morris with friends enjoyed a short boat ride on the river, last Saturday night; as did also S. T. Reed and F. J. Rawlinson and their friends.

The several acts of vandalism and attempted larceny perpetrated on Saturday night are to be deplored. College spirit does not require that one student should be made to suffer for the sport of many.

Since the organization of the Student's Loan Fund, of the Institute, in June, 1887, just ten years ago, the sum of $1,539.00 has been loaned to worthy young ladies seeking an education. Of that sum $578.00 has been paid back which has also been loaned out. Refunding payments are being made continually. The Student's Loan has done a good work at the Institute, and it owes its life and development to Mrs. Larson, the retiring Principal.

An Iowa girl, in delivering a commencement oration, indulged in the following description of herself: "I am a human being placed in the midst of a great world. Far and wide it extends on every side. Majestic in its vastness, bewildering in its ever-changing forms, it overwhelms by its immensity. Over it bend the eternal heavens, and far away in the infinite realms of space gleam the lights of other worlds, and I, what am I? A drop in the sea of life. An atom in the universe of nature."

Millen, '90, who has been sick for the last week, is out again.

Miss Bertha Watkins, '99, is spending a few days at her home in Scranton.

Miss Grace Wood, 1900, spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Mary Kline of Winfield.

Mr. Suiter, '96, has been removed to his home. He has been suffering with lung trouble since last January.

Howard L. Calder, '86, of Harrisburg, was elected Grand Commander of the Knights of Malta for the ensuing year.

Alex. Douglas, '96, of Rochester Theological Seminary is now enjoying his summer vacation and will soon leave for Nebraska to engage in missionary work.

Rev. H. T. Colestock, '96, who has been attending the Colgate Theological Seminary this year, received a scholarship in the Divinity School of Chicago University.

Rev. W. W. Case, of Rutherford, who was reported to be dying from the effects of a cat bite, is said to be slowly recovering. Mr. Case is a member of the Peddie Institute Board of Corporators.

We are delighted to see Dr. Loomis able to take a short walk, and hope that he will have a complete recovery. This is the second time that Dr. Loomis has had a dangerous hemorrhage.

The Trunk Line Association has granted the following rate for commencement on the Pennsylvania and Reading rail roads: two cents per mile from points in Pennsylvania (exclusive of Pittsburgh and Erie), on card order; tickets to be sold and to be good going, June 15 to 23, returning to June 25, inclusive. Card orders for tickets on the above roads will be ready at the Registrar's office after June 1st.

There will be a public rehearsal of the songs in the new song book in Bucknell Hall on Thursday evening. Admission tickets can be secured at the book stores in town free of charge. Song books, for sale at the door—50 cents a copy. Here is a chance for every student and lovers of music to become familiar with our new songs. If you do not attend or take part, do not complain that you are unacquainted with the selections.

The long expected race between J. H. Cooke and J. H. Bogart was run on Saturday evening; but on account of the inability of the judges together with great speed of the competitors, each runner claims a close victory. The supporters of each side are more enthusiastic than ever, since a visible manifestation of the merits of their champions has been displayed. There seems to be no way for a final settlement of the discussion except by another race. While the pennant hanging outside of W. Wing is one of the results of the race; yet it has no connection with the controversy which worked themselves to a wild frenzy cheering for their favorite, Mr. Cooke.

Daglish, The Tailor.

Our Merchant Tailoring Department has the latest Foreign and Domestic Suits and Trouserings.

Ready-made Clothing nearly equal to the made to order articles at prices that will astonish you.

The Mens' Furnishing Department has just what you want.

Daglish, The Tailor.

J. E. K. SCHWENK,

Groceries and General Merchandise

Lewisburg, Pa.

Special attention given to Student's Clubs.

GEO. STEIN & BRO.,

Fresh Meats,

Orders Cordially Solicited.

226 Market Street - - - Lewisburg, Pa.

You can always depend upon

JOHN REED

to deliver your trunk at the proper place at the proper time. Special attention to students.

Flour, Grain, Feed, Etc.

Baled Hay and Straw.

G. D. Bertolette,

No. 21 North Third Street.

FRESH CRUSHED

STRAWBERRIES

BAKER'S

SODA FOUNTAIN.

DENTISTS.

DR. R. H. SPEARE,

P. O. Building, Lewisburg, Pa.

Office Hours: 9 a.m. to 12 m., 2 p.m. to 5 p.m.

W. R. ROLAND, D. D. S.,

Cor. Market and 3d St.,

Lewisburg, Pa.

GAS ADMINISTERED.

J. G. STROHECKER,

Guarantees his milk

To be pure

Student's Trade Solicited.

HOWER & SON,

Furniture

Dealers.

W. A. LEIBY,

Dealer in

Fresh Meats, Groceries.

LEWISBURG, PENNA.

Special attention given to clubs.

H. R. MILLER

Bachelor Club Outing.
The club had suspended rules for twenty-four hours, when last Saturday morning ten bachelor lads with as many bachelor maids mounted the tally-ho for Blue Hill. Hall wound the horn with such consummate skill "that hill and valley" rang, and ever and anon the clatter of sixteen prancing hoofs mingled with the merry laughter and happy shouts of the party. The horny handed farmer or perchance his rustic dame was startled up from toil, and stood agape to hear—
"B. O. B. U.
B. O. B. U.
We're the Bachelors,
Who are you?"

Blue Hill reached, the maids soon set forth delicious viands upon an immaculate cloth, and with mighty blast of horn all were summoned to the feast. Long lingered the party about the board and in jocund vein many a tale of adventure was told.

The feast ended, the sports began. Base ball and batting, bingo and bachelors, balmy air and the bank from which a magnificent view was to be had—such was the program.

The party returned along the East side of the river. The day had been such a happy one, and every one felt so contented, that singing was most natural. So all along the way, under the light of the moon, waves of song were floated upon the responsive air.

Bucknell Boys in Line.
Baker, Bower, Cober, Collins, J. C. Fetzer, L. T. Fetzer, Gilpin, Katherman, Ritter and Shorkley went with Co. A. to participate in the unveiling of Washington's monument in Philadelphia. They report a very pleasant time, as they were the recipients of the freedom of the city, excellent weather, and pleasant greetings of many Bucknell friends. Art. D. Anstok met the boys soon after their arrival in the city, and lost no opportunity to show his good will, by conducting them to the many places of interest. Colonel Coryell was highly complimented, by the brigade officers, for the excellent behavior of his regiment. Co. A. received many applauses for their perfect line and step.

School of Music Notes.
The School of Music orchestra furnished the music for the play given by the Senior class, "The House of Martha," on the evenings of the 17th and 18th.

The following teachers and pupils attended the Music Festival at Williamsport last Monday: Dr. Aviragnet, Misses Aikin, Crawford, Pretzman, Steiner, Burke, Keley, Chellson, Taggart, Pennypacker, Lawshe, Messrs. Weymouth and Martin.

As stated, Dr. Aviragnet offers a prize for the best mixed quartette composed by one of the graduating class. The competition for this prize will close on Thursday, May 20th. All manuscript should be in his hands by this date.

Academy Notes.
Grant spent Sunday at his home.

One of the most enjoyable affairs given for some time was the moon-light boat ride on Friday evening; it was a grand success.

Principal Edwards occupied the pulpit in the Presbyterian church, and preached very interesting sermons both morning and evening, to which many of the students listened attentively.

Messrs. I. Rambo and son of Reading have been given the contract to furnish the pennant to be contested for by the Inter-Scholastic League. The work of this firm is of a high order.

Principal Edwards will receive the members of the Fourth Form on Thursday evening, and an enjoyable time is anticipated by all who have experienced the Principal's ability to entertain.

The reception given to the Fourth Form by Dr. Harris last Thursday evening was an enjoyable affair indeed, for host and hostess made every one feel at home. Following the sociable time, seasonable refreshments were served.

New views at the "Cabinet" today. These are particularly fine in choice of subject and in artistic execution: "Faculty Avenue Looking South," "Third Street Looking East," "Third Street Looking North-east," "Sermons in Stones," "A Rustic Spot."

Institute Notes.
Mrs. E. Tustin is making a visit at the Institute.

The Seniors were the guests of the Alumnae at the Dickens' evening on May eleventh.

Quite a number of the girls enjoyed the hospitality of Dr. and Mrs. Harris at the reception to the Fourth Form last Thursday evening.

On account of the graduation exercises of the Lewisburg High School on June 3, the cantata "The Galilean" will be changed to June 5.

Although wind and current were against them, the party who went on the moonlight picnic on Friday evening, May 14, report a very pleasant time.

The young ladies of the Hebrew Class were much surprised and delighted a few days ago to receive each from Dr. Hulley a large bunch of beautiful lilacs.

The '97 Shoes
are in
at Marsh's.

Lunch,
Billiards,
Opera House Restaurant.

Go to WARD,
The Barber.
Finest Tonsorial Parlors in Town.

A. W. STEPHENS,
Clothing to Order
or Ready-made.
Sales Agent for Wanamaker & Brown

FRESH
Whitman's Candies..
—AT—
Wolfe's Drug Store, 2nd and Market Street

CHARLES A. HESS,
THE
Gentleman's Tailor;
Market Street,
Lewisburg, Penna.

WE MAKE SUITS THAT FIT.
Go to T. G. EVANS—
UNIVERSITY BOOK STORE.
For your Text Books
and Stationary.

For a good
Livery Turnout
Go to
W. W. BROWN,
North 3d Street, Lewisburg, Pa.

P. W. Himmelmreich,
Dealer in
DRY GOODS,
GROCERIES, ETC.
Trunks, Satchels and Traveling Bags

CAMERON HOUSE.
T. F. Moyer, Propr.
Lately Renovated and Remodeled.
Commercial Sample Room.
Located in Business Centre.
Free "Bus and Telephone."
Electric Lights. Steam Heat.

Ginter & Cook
The Face Takers
Have been selected
Official Photographers
For Class of '97
418 Market Street, CALL OPTEN.

For an EASY SHAVE go to
MILLER, The Barber.
North 2d St., Lewisburg, Pa.

Bucknell University,

John Howard Harris, President.

THE COLLEGE.

Four courses leading to degrees in Arts, Philosophy and Science; over one hundred subjects of study; separate Laboratory, Gymnasium and Observatory buildings; large library; ample endowment; modern facilities.

THE ACADEMY.

A preparatory school for young men and boys. Fits for college and the best technical schools.

THE INSTITUTE.

A boarding school for young women; three courses of study leading to diplomas. Art studio.

THE SCHOOL OF MUSIC.

For both sexes. Offers graduating courses in music; courses in piano, pipe-organ, violin, harmony, etc., leading to diploma. The school is under the direction of a French artist, assisted by a corps of excellent teachers.

For catalogue and further information concerning any department of the University, address,

William C. Gretzinger, Registrar,
Lewisburg, Pennsylvania.

The Orange and Blue.

BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY.

VOL. I.

LEWISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, MAY 25, 1897.

No. 11.

MILTON VS. BUCKNELL.

Bucknell Wins in the First by Hard Hitting.

Mr. Ruhl, who pitched for the Milton team in last Wednesday's game, has been released. He has our sympathy, for it is not his fault that Bucknell has a team of sluggers.

Wednesday's game was the best exhibition of base ball ever witnessed on the campus; so we are told by the old-timers. At all events, it was a snappy game, characterized by clean fielding and hard hitting.

Milton scored one run in the first inning on three hits. Bucknell in their half of the same inning touched up the Milton pitcher for five hits, netting 4 runs. Geary led off with a single. Conover and Griffith were both hit by pitcher. Grim singled, scoring Geary and Conover. He was put out on account of a previous mistake. Mulkie drew a two bagger, sending in Griffith. Catterall made a nice single, scoring Mulkie, but was caught at second while trying to stretch his single into a double. Jenkinson singled but was left on first.

Hoffman did good work for Milton both in the field and at the bat. For Bucknell the honors were well distributed. Conover's running catch of a line ball was the sensational play of the game. Griffith and Mulkie both played a speedy fielding game, while at the bat, Mulkie, Grim and Geary did fine work.

We understand that some of the boys at the Academy lost heavily on the game. We do not approve of betting, but if a Bucknell man is going to put up his money at all, let him at least be loyal enough to back his own team.

The score:
MILTON: R H O A E
Milton, 1f 0 1 1 0 1
Rutger 2b 0 1 2 2 0
Hoffman, cf 0 2 3 1 0
Calhoun, 3b 0 0 2 1 0
Hutchinson, c 0 0 3 1 0
Carpenter, 1b 1 2 6 0 0
Folmer, rf 0 0 3 0 0
Conroy, ss 1 1 2 2 0
Ruhl, p 1 0 1 4 0
Total 3 7 24 11 2

BUCKNELL: R H O A E
Geary, 1b 1 2 10 0 0
Conover, cf 1 1 2 0 0
Griffith 2b 2 0 4 2 0
Mulkie, ss 2 3 6 1 0
Shortell, p 0 0 0 1 0
G. Grim, 1f 1 3 1 0 0
Catterall, c 0 1 7 0 0
Garner, 3b 0 1 0 2 1
Jenkinson, rf 0 1 1 0 0
Total 7 12 27 11 3

Score by innings:
Milton 1 0 0 0 1 1 0 0 0—3
Bucknell 4 0 1 2 0 0 0 0—7
Struck out by Shortell, 7; by Ruhl, 3
Two base hits, Mulkie 2, Garner. Three base hits, Conroy, Mulkie. Bases stolen, Mulkie. Hit by pitcher, Conover. Griffith. Bases on balls off Shortell, 2; off Ruhl, 2. Time of game 1 hour and 40 minutes. Umpire, W. F. Eichholz.

BUCKNELL VS. SELINGSGROVE.

Bucknell Defeats Seling Grove Team on Saturday Afternoon.

On last Saturday, May 22, Bucknell concluded her victorious week, in base ball, by defeating the Seling Grove team to the tune of 6 to 1. The game began promptly at 2:15 p. m., and from the beginning Bucknell demonstrated her superiority to the down river team, in both batting and fielding. Shortell pitched his usual good game, but had to contend with a wilfully near-sighted umpire who, to the disgust of everybody, attempted to be the most important figure on the diamond, calling strikes on Bucknell which to the remotest spectator, were visible balls. He also vied with league and professional umpires in calling Shortell's delivery to first a "balk" which heretofore has been unquestioned. Bucknell's outfield accepted every opportunity offered while the infield put up an elegant game. Bucknell was well represented among the spectators, there being no less than 40 students present. The following is the score:

BUCKNELL: R H O A E
Geary 1b 0 1 8 0 0
Conover cf 2 2 4 0 0
Griffith 2b 1 1 3 1 1
Grim 1f 0 0 2 0 1
Mulkie ss 1 2 1 0 1
Catterall c 0 0 6 2 0
Jenkinson rf 1 2 2 0 0
Garner 3b 0 0 1 0 0
Shortell p 1 1 0 1 0
Total 6 9 27 4 3

SELINGSGROVE: R H O A E
Woodley ss 0 1 0 0 2
Fair 3b 0 0 2 1 1
Heider rf 0 0 3 0 0
Yon 1b 0 0 3 0 0
Boling 2b 1 0 2 1 0
Smith 1f 0 1 1 0 0
Devier c 0 1 9 0 1
Weist cf 0 0 1 0 0
Taylor p 0 0 1 2 0
Total 1 3 24 4 6

Struck out, by Shortell 9; by Taylor 7. Two base hits, Jenkinson, Shortell. Home run, Bolig. Stolen bases, Mulkie, Heider. Bases on called balls, off Shortell 1. Bases on hit by pitched balls off Taylor 1. Time 3 hours. Umpire, T. N. Heicher.

The game of base ball on Wednesday was the most interesting of any this year. Of its many interesting and exciting features no one deserves so high commendation as the complete absence of quarrelling. Base ball men should know by this time, that nothing can be gained by fighting the umpire. The contrast between the Milton team and the Y. M. C. A. aggregation from Danville is very striking in this respect. Our boys whether at home or visiting would do well to follow the example of the Milton players. Our management must learn the same lesson in base ball that we learned in foot ball and basket ball, viz: College teams should not play Y. M. C. A. teams.

"AN EVENT."

The Senior Class Banquets at the Cameron House.

The Senior class enjoyed one of the most pleasant banquets of the course at the Cameron House last Friday evening. "Mine host" Moyer certainly pleased all present by the elegant menu.

After the Junior exhibition in oratory, at about ten o'clock, p. m., the class wended their way to the "hotel de Cameron." Until 10:45, when the doors were opened leading from the parlor into the spacious dining room, the time spent in relating class experiences, contrasting the present time to three years ago when as freshmen an escape was affected from the ever vigilant yet sleepy Sophs, telling tales, listening to music rendered by members of the class, added to the pleasure of the occasion.

The class was not slow in reaching the dining hall where a tastily arranged and most generous supplied table was awaiting the guests of the evening. Twenty-four members of '97 were seated and during four hours enjoyed the dainty and delicious spread, while many witty sayings, ripples of laughter and parts of songs furnished excellent relish.

The banquet proper over, Pres. Kunkle, after introductory remarks befitting the occasion, announced the toasts amid rounds of applause. The toasters were in the best of spirits and their deliverances were in keeping with the dignity of the class they represented. Those present were led to think for the moment that "The Ideal in College Life" was to be found in "97 to-night" in which surely "Something is." As a retrospective glance revealed the "Posies from the Mossy Banks" gathered during the course, the class almost envied "The Remaining Rabble" who still have some time to spend at "Old Bucknell." After learning that "Something always has been" the future was judged by the past and the position of '97 "Twenty Years After" was considered and found to belong to "The Inscrutable Transcendental."

The toast list exhausted, the class decided to hold a reunion and banquet in 1902. As a parting salute to the '97 undergraduate banquet hall, the class joined hands round the table and sang that song oft repeated yet ever abounding in tender sentiment, "Auld Lang Syne." Then it was that each realized that the class ties were soon to be broken, that the class will disperse to the four corners of the earth whence they came, and the "class of '97" will be a memory. After singing college songs the homeward way was trod.

DR. FERRINE'S LECTURE.

The Popular Lecture Course Reaches a Grand Finale.

The last lecture of "The Popular Lecture Course" was given in Bucknell Hall last evening. The success of this lecture course has surpassed all previous attempts in this line at Bucknell. The finance committee is to be complimented on the success of the course.

The idea that the people of this vicinity will not attend lectures has been overthrown, for a "Popular" lecture has proved to be a great success at Bucknell. The high standard was ably maintained in every respect in "Some Proverbs, not Solomon's." Dr. Perrine spoke of the power in proverbs and the way in which they grow, and declared that they must have shortness, sound and sense. Many have an historic basis, while others appear all over the world in different forms. They are often unsound and should be discarded—those not Solomon's. They are no wiser than the people who make and accept them. Unwise proverbs are in every realm; e. g., in the social, "children should be seen not heard," "people in glass houses should not throw stones," "when you are in Rome, do as the Romans do," "never put off till tomorrow what you can do to-day," in the political realm, "the voice of the people is the voice of God," "where there is so much smoke, there must be some fire," in the economic realm, "a penny saved is a penny earned," "who goes a borrowing, goes a sorrowing," "slow but sure," "still waters run deep." Many instances were given of silly, deceptive and harmful proverbs and cautious given by following which one will not be misled. People accept them because they either do not know how to think or else refuse to think. Examples of proverbs good for all time were given and the humbug was shown of a thousand superstitions that annoy and worry the lives of good people, from which they should free themselves. Especially was that superstition about Friday destroyed, by showing the absurdity of it from a logical point of view and very many cases in which most beneficial events had occurred on Friday. There was an exhortation to free the mind from all baseless notions put there by the "proverbs that are not Solomon's."

Messrs. R. B. Davidson, class of '94, Ralph Snow, class of '94, and A. R. E. Wyant, class of '92 and pastor of Morgan Park Baptist church, have been accepted for the degree of B. D. in the Divinity school of the University of Chicago.

THE ORANGE AND BLUE.

LEWISBURG. - - - PENN'A

PUBLISHED ONCE A WEEK DURING THE COLLEGE YEAR BY STUDENTS OF BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY.

Entered at Post Office at Lewisburg as second-class mail matter.

SUBSCRIPTION $1.00 PER YEAR.

STAFF
M. R. COLLINS, Editor-in-Chief.
W. L. HILL, Editorials.
O. R. LE VAN, Locals.
W. F. EICHOLTZ, Athletics.

BUSINESS MANAGER:
S. W. Gilpin.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS:
John V. Leiber, Pres. John M. Gandy, Vice Pres.
L. B. Simmette, Sec. L. T. Butler, Treas.

A. Kate Goldard, Geo. T. Ritter,
S. W. Gilpin, W. L. Hill,
R. B. Munkie, O. R. Le Van,
R. H. Kress, W. S. Holland.

Printed by the Journal, Lewisburg, Pa.

TUESDAY, MAY 25, 1907.

L'Agenda is out. The editors certainly speak the truth in their prologue when they say the book is not perfect. He is indeed unsophisticated who looks for more in a college publication than the editors claim, so no one need look for perfection. But the one who merely looks for something good will not be disappointed in the present edition of L'Agenda. It is the best yet issued, and the ORANGE AND BLUE will take great pleasure in giving a review of it next week.

It is hardly necessary to call attention to the coming game with State, nor is it necessary to call attention to the fact that Bucknell is going to score a victory. But it is hardly amiss to say that there are three duties imperative upon every student of the University. Everyone should be on hand with a ticket of admission in plain sight. That will make the absentee or the dead-head conspicuous. Everyone should come prepared to cheer till the hillside re-echoes with loyal and unabating encouragement of the team, no matter what turn the game may take. That will inspire the players, and they will win the game. The third duty is the greatest. Everyone should refrain from hissing and cheering errors made by the State team, and should treat the visitors with the courtesy due to guests of the institution. That will show that we are not forgetful of the kindness shown our basket ball team last winter, and will prove the character of Bucknell. Those who fail in these three particulars cannot be called friends of self-supporting, successful, wholesome athletics, nor are they loyal sons of their alma mater.

Zeta's Flower Festival.

Thursday evening, May 20th, Zeta Literary Society migrated from its usual "hall" to Institute Grove. Orange and blue bunting draped over an arch-way and the neighboring trees, served as a rostrum, about which were grouped the thirty or more members. In their light gowns, decked in Spring's prettiest blossoms, they made an interesting scene. It has been indelibly impressed—not on the memory only—but on negative films, for Mr. Fisk officiated at the Kodak, being Zeta's honored guest.

Meanwhile, as if by magic, inviting dainties appeared in the back ground. With little difficulty Zeta abandoned her lofty dignity to consider the cleverly arranged menus, on one side of which a dedicatory ode was written in Latin:

Zeta, floresque, quoque, puellas,
caso, facilius,
Convivium cibus, et cibum,
Dignissimum delis.

With much laughter, the following menu was deciphered:

Harena quae est.
Olivae Rumpite sua Salsurae
Aurum Secretum Jus Gelatum
Ego Clamo Pinnas Salsae
Kidoletae Baa (capellae)

Does this not testify to the ingenuity of the class '00. The Freshman committee (on Refreshments) deserve great credit for the able manner in which they handled their pens, as well as their dishes.

A delightful literary program was rendered after which all joined in the Grand Promenade, and in the fading twilight completed one of the happiest hours of Zeta's literary life.

A Picnic at Shikellimy.
On Saturday morning a party of six couples and chaperones left the Seminary in Horam's new hack and a double seated carriage headed for Shikellimy, where they arrived safely after an enjoyable drive. The day was perfect and the scenery, looking up the North branch of the Susquehanna, was grand. Northumberland lying across the river reminded one of the "good old times." After an excellent lunch served by the ladies, it was decided to see our team beat Selinsgrove; all along the road the hack and occupants attracted great attention and when the Base Ball Park was entered great cheers arose from the many Bucknellites and sympathizers present. When the game was over, they departed with glad and cheerful hearts for Clement's Park, where a short sojourn was taken and all ate the viands set forth to their hearts content. Then the homeward journey was begun, and the Seminary reached too soon, all having enjoyed the day's trip. Those who composed the party were: Mrs. Gretzinger and daughter Margaret, Mrs. Edwards and Misses O'Donnell, Raikes, Montgomery, Morgan, Rossiter and Callendar; and Messrs. Rambo, Rodgers, Grant, Kress, Hackenberg and Wittenmeyer.

"The House of Martha."

The old saying "practice makes perfect" was verified at the second presentation of the "House of Martha" on last Tuesday evening. Not only were any "breaks" and errors made upon the first evening corrected, and the various parts more smoothly rendered, but the characters were impersonated with more life and reality, and the entire play evidenced greater finish in style. All the participants were clearly more at their ease, having gained added self-possession from the experience of the first night, thus quite avoiding slips of memory or delays in the continuity of action. That the critic could find ground for the exercise of his prerogative is of course not to be denied, but considering the fact that the impersonations were entirely the work of amateurs, the greatest credit is due all connected with the play for the success they attained in this, to many, their first dramatic effort. An especial feature of the entertainment on both evenings consisted in the delightful selections rendered by the orchestra of the School of Music.

J. W. BICKLE,
THE BARBER,
Third St., Lewisburg, Pa.
Students' Work a Specialty.

R. J. Weidensaul,
Livery and Boarding Stables,
Near Baker House.
Prices to suit the times....

Central Livery and Boarding Stables,
J. Horam Pro'r., Lewisburg, Pa.
TELEPHONE CONNECTION.

New Store Just Opened.

A new and Complete Line of Up-to-date Goods. Call and see me, Market Street, between 2nd and 3d Street.

Geo. H. Fisher,
Lewisburg, Pa.

Beautiful Photographs.

In order to introduce my work I make the following offer for one month to the pupils of the Institute and Seminary:
My $2 Cabinets Artist's Finish at $1.50 per dozen.
My $3 Carbonets at $2.00 per dozen.
Having had 24 years of experience in large cities I am enabled to guarantee satisfaction in every particular. I earnestly solicit a share of your patronage.
Very Respectfully,
HUNTER, Photographer,
326 Market St., Lewisburg, Pa.

HEADACHE CURED By My Special Glasses.

H. J. NOGEL, Eye Specialist.

Eyes Examined Free.

Spectacles & Eye Glasses a Specialty.

Adjusting Eye Glasses and Spectacles a Specialty. Repairing with Neatness and Dispatch.

H. J. NOGEL & BRO.,
JEWELERS AND ENGRAVERS.

Private Optical Parlors.

Buy your groceries of
FOLLMER,
The largest line and freshest stock in the town.
Students' Trade Solicited.

Danville Steam Laundry
Always up to date
Best work
Lowest prices
O. R. Harris, Prop.
Danville, Pa.

ATTORNEYS.
D. H. GETZ,
Attorney-at-Law,
Lewisburg, Pa.

Law Offices of
ANDREW ALBRIGHT LEISER,
Lewisburg, Union Co., Pa.

J. C. BUCHER,
Attorney-at-Law,
Lewisburg, Pa.

J. THOMPSON BAKER,
Attorney-at-Law,
Lewisburg, Pa.

J. F. DUNCAN,
Attorney-at-Law,
Lewisburg, Pa.

J. W. VAN VALZAH,
Attorney-at-Law,
Lewisburg, Pa.

WILLIAM R. FOLLMER,
Attorney-at-Law,
NOTARY PUBLIC. Lewisburg, Pa.

W. J. WILKINSON,
Attorney-at-Law,
Office in Music Hall,
Lewisburg, Pa.

ALFRED HAYES,
Attorney-at-Law,
Office opposite Presbyterian Church,
Lewisburg, Pa.

J. M. & P. B. LINN
ATTORNEYS AT LAW.
Successors to J. F. & J. M. Linn.
One Continuous Office. LEWISBURG, PA.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Short Stops and Kick Offs for Hasty Reading.

Hurrah! for the State game next Friday.

Clarence Rodgers spent Sunday at home in Muncy.

Messrs. Hague and Flint dined at the Institute on Sunday.

Deibler, '99, spent Saturday and Sunday at his home near Snyder-town.

J. C. Hazen was unable to attend classes last week owing to illness.

The University band had an open air practice on Wednesday evening.

Miss Grace DeWitt spent Sunday with Miss Mary Kline at Winfield.

Miss Sara Lillibridge, of Olyphant, a former student, is visiting Miss Dell.

Misses Frances Scott and Belle Weigel were at home in Spring Garden, Sunday.

Lorraine Shumaker and Edgar Shumaker spent Sunday with the former's parents at Muncy.

Miss Weymouth, of Lock Haven, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Walls, on Market St.

A number of the Institute girls greatly enjoyed the picnic to Montour and Blue Hill on Saturday.

After spending several days at her home in Scranton, Miss Watkins, '99, returned to college last Wednesday.

Messrs. Weymouth, Clement and Christy with their lady friends, spent Saturday in picnic style near Montour.

Two of Bucknell's boys have recently become fathers, Rev. J. M. Ashton, at Chester, Vt., and Rev. Raymond Davis, at Angora.

A young lady of the school of music wishes to know if one of the boys, who was "knocked out by a batted ball" in a game last week, was seriously injured?

The success of Rev. Raymond West, at the Lehigh Ave. church, Philadelphia, has been so great as to require the building of a new church on the site of the present edifice.

Those who were so fortunate as to be invited to the reception given by Mrs. Edwards to the Fourth Form report a delightful time, as evenings spent with such a hostess always are.

Some time in June Dr. Halley will address the public school teachers of Susquehanna county on "History in the Schools," and also the minister's conference of the Bradford association on "Systematic Benevolence."

Alumnus C. J. Wolfe, of Lewisburg, is a candidate for the "Poet Laureateship" of the Philadelphia Press. His verses appear in the Press each Sunday.

To vote it is necessary to cut out the poem and mail it to the Press. Let all Bucknellians cast their ballots for Mr. Wolfe.

JUNIOR EXHIBITION.

A Contest in Oratory in Bucknell Hall, Friday Evening, May 21.

The annual contest for the Registrar's Prize was held last Friday night in Bucknell Hall.

The program opened with music by the orchestra, after prayer by Prof. Martin, Mr. Weymouth gave a flute solo. The following orations were then delivered:

Party Affiliation, Joseph H. Cooke
The Summertime Necessary Check upon Popular Government, Harry C. Pithian

A College Man's Duty to His Class, C. Arthur Luehmann

Music—Orchestra.

Why Armenia Must Suffer, James P. Stober

Politics vs. the Pulpit, G. Morgan Davis

The Dangers of Higher Education for Women, Anna M. Rodgers

Music—Prof. J. Brown Martin

A Plea for a National University, Grace Siffer

The Influence of Samuel Adams upon American Independence, Rutledge T. Whitbank, Jr.

All the contestants spoke in a clear and forcible manner. The orations were interesting as well as instructive. With such productions as several of the speakers delivered, Bucknell is able to compete with any other college in the State in this department.

Such competition certainly would be of great benefit to the students who would strive to represent their college. The Junior Exhibition is the only contest in oratory in which the students can participate, and then only a few members of one class are selected.

Why not have an inter-collegiate contest? Is not the time ripe?

The Fair and Festival.

The plans for the big fair and festival to be held Friday and Saturday of this week have been about completed and it looks as though the affair will be a pronounced success.

The finance committee of the athletic association planned wisely when it determined to introduce the fair and festival at Bucknell. At other colleges it is not only a source of revenue, but a great social feature as well.

The ladies' auxiliary committee, under the direction of Mrs. Wm. Leiser, has accomplished much toward the success of the affair.

The purchaser of each ticket will be entitled to one dish of ice cream. Other features have been planned which will be among the surprises when the festival opens on the first night. There will be music each evening.

The entire proceeds will be devoted to athletics. Every student and friend of the institution should buy a ticket and thus encourage the finance committee in its laudable efforts to reduce the indebtedness of the athletic association and to close the present base ball season without adding anything to the debt.

Every student of the University should be on the campus next Friday, p. m., promptly at 3:30.

Our base ball team won three games last week. A short time ago three games were more than we won during an entire season.

Daglish, The Tailor.

Our Merchant Tailoring Department has the latest Foreign and Domestic Suits and Trouserings.

Ready-made Clothing nearly equal to the made to order articles at prices that will astonish you.

The Mens' Furnishing Department has just what you want.

Daglish, The Tailor.

J. E. K. SCHWENK,
Dealer in
Groceries and
General Merchandise
Lewisburg, Pa.
Special attention given to Student's Clubs.

GEO. STEIN & BRO.,
Fresh Meats.
Orders Cordially Solicited.
226 Market Street - - - Lewisburg, Pa.

You can always depend upon
JOHN REED
to deliver your trunk at the proper place at the proper time. Special attention to students.

Flour, Grain, Feed, Etc.
Baled Hay and Straw.

G. D. Bertolette,
No. 21 North Third Street.

FRESH CRUSHED STRAWBERRIES & BAKER'S SODA FOUNTAIN.

DENTISTS.
DR. R. H. SPEARE,
P. O. Building, Lewisburg, Pa.
Office Hours: 8 a. m. to 12 m.
12:30 p. m. to 6 p. m.

W. R. ROLAND, D. D. S.,
Cor. Market and 3d St.,
Lewisburg, Pa.
GAS ADMINISTERED.

J. G. STROHECKER,
Guarantees his milk
To be pure
Student's Trade Solicited.

HOWER & SON,
Furniture Dealers.

W. A. LEIBY,
Dealer in
Fresh Meats, Groceries.
LEWISBURG, PENNA.
Special attention given to clubs.

H. R. MILLER, TAILOR.
Fine Styles, Work Guaranteed.
Prices the Lowest.

Harry Stahl
—Dealer in—
Foreign and Domestic GROCERIES

All the News all the time
at the
Newest News Stand
In the town; also a full line of Every Day Stationery at FEGLY'S.

HYATT'S SHOE STORE,
Wolfe Block,
For Spring Shoes.

Academy Notes.

Hoffa brothers spent Sunday with their parents at Washingtonville.

The invitations of the Fourth Form have arrived and present a very neat appearance.

Principal Edwards and Prof. Phillips attended the Welch Baptist Convention held at Tamaqua Saturday and Sunday.

The reception given by Principal and Mrs. Edwards to the Fourth Form on Thursday was an exceedingly enjoyable affair. The early part of the evening was spent in interesting amusement, after which refreshments of a high order were indulged in. All who were present extend their profound appreciations to host and hostess.

School of Music Notes.

Mr. J. Brown Martin will assist in a concert at Perkiomen Seminary on June 1st.

On Thursday the manuscripts for the prize given by Dr. Aviragnet were handed in. The judges awarded this prize to Mr. J. Brown Martin.

The music for the Junior contest in Oratory consisted of a march "La Marseillaise." Cornet solo by Mr. Weymouth. Duett for violin and flute, by Doucha, played by Messrs. Weymouth and Martin. Mr. Martin also played the Second Mazurka by Wieniawski.

The music at the "House of Martha" which was furnished by the School of Music orchestra, consisted of the following selections:

Overture—"Marionettes" by Gurlitt. Duett for violins—Doucha, played by Dr. Aviragnet and Mr. Martin. Duett for violin and flute—Doucha, Messrs. Weymouth and Martin, and solos for flute and violin played by the same gentlemen. The quartet played two selections from Rossini's "Stabat Mater." The music for this occasion was specially prepared and seemed to be enjoyed by everyone.

Registrar Gretzinger and Bunell '97, acting in behalf of the Alumnae, spent one day last week in Reading and Pottsville, making arrangement for commencement music.

Coming Events.

Tuesday, May 25th—Reception by Mrs. Larison, Institute.

Wednesday, May 26—Stag Party, Tustin Gymnasium.

Thursday, May 27th—Northfield meeting, Bucknell Hall.

Friday, May 28th—Base Ball, State vs. Bucknell. Festival, Tustin Gymnasium.

Saturday, May 29th—Field Sports. Festival, Tustin Gymnasium.

Saturday, June 5—Cantata—"Galilean," Bucknell Hall.

Tuesday, June 8th—Exhibition by Delsarte Class, Bucknell Hall.

All engagements for Bucknell Hall are recorded in the Registrar's office to avoid conflictions.

College Song Book Rehearsal. On Thursday evening, Bucknell Hall was more than comfortably filled with an impatient audience composed of townspeople and students, to hear the first public rehearsal of the new College Song Book.

The song book fills an important place in Bucknell. The first great rush, followed by the steady demand for books, shows that Bucknell students are not different from the students of other colleges in their desire for college songs. Several quartettes and choruses were rendered in a satisfactory manner. The evening was spent in a very enjoyable way. The song book is all that could be expected, and both class and committee should feel proud of this the first attempt. The book could be improved—many places, in various phases; so any other class desiring to do something for the school will find ample room in a new song book. Song books were for sale at the door and many students realizing that their libraries would be incomplete without a one availed themselves of the opportunity.

E. H. Ruppert, '77, of Uniontown, Fayette Co., after a hard and exciting campaign, defeated his opponent, Mr. Ewing for the Republican nomination for Judge.

The finance committee and the ladies auxiliary committee will hold a meeting this p. m. at 4 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Nellie Marsh, to make some final arrangement concerning the "Fair and Festival."

The finance committee and the ladies auxiliary committee will hold a meeting this p. m. at 4 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Nellie Marsh, to make some final arrangement concerning the "Fair and Festival."

The finance committee and the ladies auxiliary committee will hold a meeting this p. m. at 4 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Nellie Marsh, to make some final arrangement concerning the "Fair and Festival."

Chemical and Physical Society.

The Chemical and Physical Society met at the usual hour Thursday afternoon, and after disposing of the routine business, were addressed by Prof. Kaufman on Darwin. A portion of Darwin's Autobiography was read, showing how he early developed the habit of close systematic observation. He was not considered brilliant by any means, and met with numerous discouragements. He was the author of seventeen scientific works. Burge followed Prof. Kaufman with an article on observation, in which many truths were expressed as to the value of such power. The society will meet next Thursday and will be addressed by Instructor Davis on "Photography with the Projecting Lantern." The lecture will be illustrated. All are invited.

The '98 Agenda made its appearance yesterday.

The '97 Shoes

are in
at Marsh's.

Lunch,

Billiards,

Opera House Restaurant.

Go to WARD,

The Barber.

Finest Tonsorial Parlors in Town.

A. W. STEPHENS,

Clothing to Order

or Ready-made.

Sales Agent for Wanamaker & Brown

FRESH

Whitman's Candies.

—AT—
Wolfe's Drug Store, 2nd and Market Street

CHARLES A. HESS,

THE

Gentleman's Tailor;

Market Street.

Lewishurg; Penna.

WE MAKE SUITS THAT FIT.

Go to T. G. EVANS'

UNIVERSITY BOOK STORE.

For your Text Books

and Stationary.

For a good

Livery Turnout

Go to

W. W. BROWN,

North 24 Street, Lewishurg, Pa.

P. W. Himmelreich,

Dealer in

DRY GOODS,

GROCERIES, ETC.

Trunks, Satchels and Traveling Bags

CAMERON HOUSE,

T. F. Moyer, Prop.

Lately Renovated and Remodeled.

Commercial Sample Room.

Located in Business Centre.

Free 'Bus and Telephone.

Electric Lights. Steam Heat.

Lewishurg, Pa.

Ginter & Cook

The Face Takers

Have been selected

Offical Photographers

For Class of '97

418 Market Street, CALL OFFEN.

For an EASY SHAVE go to

MILLER, The Barber.

North 2d St., Lewishurg, Pa.

Bucknell University,

John Howard Harris, President.

THE COLLEGE.

Four courses leading to degrees in Arts, Philosophy and Science; over one hundred subjects of study; separate Laboratory, Gymnasium and Observatory buildings, large library; ample endowment; modern facilities.

THE ACADEMY.

A preparatory school for young men and boys. Fits for college and the best technical schools.

THE INSTITUTE.

A boarding school for young women; three courses of study leading to diplomas. Art studio.

THE SCHOOL OF MUSIC.

For both sexes. Offers graduation courses in music; courses in piano, pipe-organ, violin, harmony, etc., leading to diploma. The school is under the direction of a French artist, assisted by a corps of excellent teachers.

For catalogue and further information concerning any department of the University, address,

William C. Gretzinger, Registrar,

Lewishurg, Pennsylvania.

The Orange and Blue.

BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY.

VOL. I.

LEWISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, JUNE 1, 1897.

No. 12.

STATE vs. BUCKNELL.

A Great Game of Ball Played on Friday Afternoon.

The State College base ball nine arrived in Lewishurg, Friday, with the fond hope that they would be able to redeem their record on the diamond this spring, and add glory to their college, by defeating Bucknell. It took but one hour and a half to dash this fond delusion to the ground, and leave our friends from Centre county in a dejected state of mind. Although the weather was threatening, the College hill was lined with scores of pretty Seminary and town girls and students. The track of the Reading Railroad was also well filled as usual. A fair estimation on the number of people who witnessed the game from different parts of the grounds is, perhaps, five hundred.

The game was called at 3:30 o'clock with State at the bat; they immediately filled the bases on scratch hits and an error by Bucknell. Shortell, with the bases filled and only one man out, stiffened up and struck the next two batters out. Bucknell made one run in the first on Conover's hit and error on the part of State. The last scoring of the game was done in the third inning, when Bucknell made five runs—none of them earned. In the latter part of this inning State's team went to pieces and allowed the errors to accumulate rapidly. Shortell was the man of the hour and to his excellent control of the ball, Bucknell's victory is mostly due. The three double plays were the interesting features of the game. It is impossible to single out any of the Bucknell players as playing a star game. Each man played his part in a manner that deserves special commendation. Nesbit did effective work for State in the box, holding Bucknell down to six singles. His support was very weak, however. Hayes, right-fielder for the visitors made a sensational running catch, of a high-hit fly ball in the sixth inning.

(For score see page two.)

THE FAIR AND FESTIVAL

Brings in Over One Hundred Dollars for Athletics.

The festival took place last Friday and Saturday evenings in the Armory. On both nights good crowds were present to help their part in removing the burdensome debt of the Athletic Association. As a result of the affair, the Association's indebtedness will be reduced one hundred dollars. The festival was a success in every way, and there is talk already of repeating it next fall for the benefit of foot ball. The exact net proceeds are $102.15.

The ORANGE AND BLUE would like to print a list of all who had a part in making the festival a success, especially a list of the ladies' auxiliary committee and a list of the ladies who baked cakes and made candy, and a list of those merchants who contributed various things for use and for sale, but space forbids.

In order to popularize the affair, tickets were sold at 15 cents, which included a dish of ice cream. The cream was declared by experts to have been the finest ever made in town. It was made under the direction of Mrs. Harry Wolfe and Messrs. Reed and Bogert, and only the purest ingredients were used.

It would be a long story to tell all about the lemonade, cake and candy stands, the gypsy booth and other attractions, suffice it to say that they were all well planned and well managed. The candy stand was sold out early the first night and a new stock had to be secured for Saturday night.

The State College cushion was secured by Mr. J. M. Wilson, and the Bucknell cushion by Mr. J. V. Leshner, the foot ball picture by Mr. G. H. Hyde.

Registrar Gretzinger will attend the Pittsburg Baptist Association next week.

The appointment of M. Nelson F. Davis, '95, as bacteriologist has been confirmed.

E. W. Cober, '99, has taken charge of the Academy track and field team which will take part in the Inter Scholastic meet, to be held at Williamsport, June 12. The team will have two men for each event in the contest.

Manager Leshner has been negotiating with the railroad company for special rates and a special train to take the team and people to State College next Saturday to see the game. But the railroad company demand a guarantee of 100 persons with fare $2.25 for the round trip. The manager is not hunting work of this nature. He has enough to do to take care of the financial management of his team.

COMMENCEMENT MUSIC.

The Ringgold Band will be Here June 21, 22 and 23.

Fine music is assured for Commencement week by the engagement of the celebrated First Brigade Band, of Reading, more familiarly known as the "Ringgold." This band is now stronger and better than ever. The band and orchestra of this organization will be here on June 21, 22 and 23, forty strong, under the direction of Lieut. Joseph Winter, the famous band-master.

Two twilight concerts have been arranged. The first will take place at 6 o'clock on Monday evening, June 21, and the second at the same hour on the following evening. It is also expected that the band will play at the corporation dinner, and base ball game. Besides playing for the above exercises, the band and orchestra will furnish music for the following events: Oration before the literary societies; College Seniors' Class Day; Exhibition Fourth Form, of the Academy; Commencement of the Institute; Alumni Exercises, and at the Graduating Exercises of the College.

If good music, large graduating classes, fine public speakers and a large body of Alumni mean anything toward having a big commencement, then Bucknell's 47th commencement should eclipse all.

Dr. Aviragnet has prepared a fine program of music to be furnished by the School of Music for the Junior debate, graduating exercises of the School of Music and the Alumnae exercises of the Institute. The University band will play at Third and Market streets on the Saturday evening before commencement.

Rev. Frank M. Goodchild, '84, is attracting considerable attention in the Central Baptist church of New York City, by a series of sermons on various forms of social diversion, such as dancing, novel reading, fashion and the like.

The resignation of O. M. Spratt, who has been connected with the American Baptist Publication Society for twenty-seven years, takes place to-day. He will now act as financial agent for the Society for providing Evangelical Religious Literature for the Blind.

A large number of Lewishurg people were in town last Saturday to see the Bucknell team play against the Williamsport-Harrisburg-Hughesville-Holidaysburg-Freshburg-Selinsgrove team. The combination club almost got a shut-out. The score was six to one, in favor of Bucknell.—Selinsgrove Times.

MRS. LARISON'S RECEPTION.

A Social Event at the Institute on Last Tuesday Evening.

One of the most successful social events of the college year was the reception tendered by Mrs. Larison at the Institute on Tuesday evening, May 25. The simple fact that the reception was given by Mrs. Larison is a sufficient warrant for the assertion of its success.

The parlors and the school room, which had been thrown open for the occasion, were tastefully arranged in a manner suitable for the comfort of the guests. Here and there flowers added beauty to the attractiveness of the room.

About eight o'clock the parlor commenced to assume a more lively appearance through the arrival of invited guests. A number of the leading residents of the town were present with their wives, who added to the social elegance of the occasion.

The University was well represented in the presence of the members of the faculty and senior maidens of the Institute, while beauty to the participation in the event of members of Bucknell's famous class of '97.

After some time had been spent in conversation, the guests pursued their way to the spacious dining room, which had been tastefully decorated for the occasion. Here, truly, heed was given to the appetizing viands which were served by the courteous maids from the Institute. Certainly deference was paid to the injunction "Thou art a scholar, let us, therefore, eat and drink."

Returning to the upper rooms, the pleasures of acquaintance-ship were continued and it was not until the hands of the clock were pointing to a late hour that the company had dispersed to their several homes.

Commencement News.

The following persons have accepted positions on the Commencement News staff: Editor, L. B. Sinnette; Assistant editors, M. R. Collins, present editor of The Orange and Blue; E. C. Kunkle, present editor of The Mirror; J. V. Leshner, V. B. Fisk, L. T. Butler, Ed. Flint, O. J. Decker, Miss Watkins, E. P. Gilchrist and Mr. Bows.

No attempt has been made to have all classes in the school represented but every person has been chosen, as we would choose a team in athletics, from its own merit and ability to fill some particular place on the staff.

The staff will hold its first meeting this evening at 7 o'clock in Eupelia Hall.

THE ORANGE AND BLUE.

LEWISBURG. - PENN'A.

PUBLISHED ONCE A WEEK DURING THE COLLEGE YEAR BY STUDENTS OF BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY.

Entered at Post Office at Lewisburg as second-class mail matter.

SUBSCRIPTION $1.00 PER YEAR.

STAFF

M. R. COLLINS, Editor-in-Chief.

W. L. HILL, Editor.

O. R. LEVAN, Local.

W. F. RICHMOND, Athletics.

BUSINESS MANAGER:

S. W. GORDON.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS:

John V. Lisher, Pres. John M. Gandy, Vice Pres.

L. B. Sennette, Sec. L. T. Butler, Treas.

A. Kate Goodard, Geo. T. Ritter,

S. W. Gordin, W. L. Hill,

R. B. Mulke, O. R. Le Van,

R. H. Kross, W. S. Holland.

Printed by the Journal, Lewisburg, Pa.

TUESDAY, JUNE 1, 1897.

In its last edition the Mirror takes official recognition of THE ORANGE AND BLUE. This paper can show its appreciation of the courtesy in no better way than by formally extending its thanks to the older paper, and by striving to maintain and increase the favor it has found in the eyes of all whose hearts are with Bucknell.

There is a statement in the local column that a game of base ball will be played between the Sophomores and Freshmen. It may be remembered that in Vol. 1, No. 3, a protest was made in this column against the practice of allowing Varsity team men to play in class games. That protest is here repeated. An important game is to be played next Saturday. Is it anything but madness to risk the players in a class game three days before? Suppose no one is hurt, one day of practice as a team is lost, and more than that, team unity is destroyed. By all means let us focus our energies at the point where they will be needed. Let us save our strength, perfect our skill and go to State with the team fresh from its former victory, and we shall win.

The first festival under the auspices of the finance committee of the Athletic Association has passed into history. It was one of the most successful enterprises, socially and financially, ever attempted at Bucknell. The marvelous success of this undertaking was due to the untiring energy thrown into it by the committee of ladies from town, headed by Mrs. William Leiser. She was ably assisted by Mrs. Harry Wolfe, Mrs. Nellie C. Marsh, Mrs.

Philip B. Wolfe and a whole host of other good ladies from the town and the Institute, whose names, if mentioned, would fill more than a column of THE ORANGE AND BLUE. The intense interest taken by the ladies of the town in the festival demonstrates the cordial relation that exists between town and gown, a condition of things of which Bucknell is proud. It is not every college that has the support, sympathy and interest of the town in which it is located, and Bucknell is to be congratulated upon having the entire friendship and co-operation of the people of Lewisburg, proud of her sons and daughters (especially the latter) and she is glad that she can do her part in aiding in the development of the town, glad to be a part and parcel of the material side of the borough. On the other hand, the people of Lewisburg, we are glad to note, take great pride in the institution to the extent that they not only patronize it by educating their children within its halls, but that they support everything connected with it. This is especially true of athletics. They have done their part in helping to make Bucknell an athletic college, and it is hoped that every student will appreciate the interest of the citizens of Lewisburg in athletics, and in behalf of the undergraduate body THE ORANGE AND BLUE bids the citizens of Lewisburg, and takes off its hat to all the fair ladies who helped promulgate the plans for the festival, by whose assistance only it was made a success.

Chemical and Physical Society.
The meeting of the Chemical and Physical Society last week was one of the most interesting in the history of the society. The subject for discussion was the "Preparation of Projecting Lantern Slides." Instructor Davis explained how slides might be prepared (1) by coating ordinary glass with gelatine and drawing the desired picture upon it, (2) by coating glass with Canada Balsam and obtaining a print directly from the picture desired, (3) by taking a "positive" from a "negative," by means of a light and sensitive plate. To reduce large pictures a negative is first taken with a camera, then a positive is taken from it. A number of slides prepared by Mr. Davis were then shown, they were quite clear and compared favorably with more pretentious exhibitors. By this process pictures, drawings, etc., from periodicals and elsewhere may be thrown upon the screen and be put before a greater number and thus serve their purpose much better.

As there was an excess of material for this issue the review of L'Agenda has been left over for the next issue.

State vs. Bucknell.

Continued from first page.

The score:

|              | R | H | O | A | E |
|--------------|---|---|---|---|---|
| STATE.       | 0 | 1 | 0 | 0 | 0 |
| Findley, c f | 0 | 1 | 1 | 0 | 0 |
| Miller, 1 f  | 0 | 0 | 5 | 2 | 2 |
| Reichel, 2 b | 0 | 1 | 3 | 1 | 1 |
| Hays, r f    | 0 | 1 | 7 | 1 | 2 |
| Spiesman, c  | 0 | 0 | 1 | 0 | 0 |
| Curtin, 3 b  | 0 | 0 | 1 | 0 | 0 |
| Albert, 1 b  | 0 | 1 | 7 | 1 | 0 |
| Nesbit, p    | 0 | 0 | 0 | 1 | 1 |
| Stewart, s s | 0 | 0 | 0 | 1 | 1 |

Total 0 5 24 7 7

BUCKNELL.

Geary, 1 b

Conover, c f

Griffith, 2 b

Mulke, s s

Shortell, p

G. Grim, 1 f

Catterall, c

Garner, 3 b

Jenkinson, r f

Total 6 6 27 9 3

Score by innings:

State 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9

Bucknell 1 0 5 0 0 0 0 0 0

Struck out, by Shortell 8; by Nesbit 6.

Double plays, Bechtel to Albert, Mulke to Geary, Griffith to Geary.

Solen bases, Bucknell 3. Passed balls, Spiesman 2.

Time of game, 1 hour and 15 minutes. Umpires, C. B. Griffin and W. J. Wilkinson.

J. W. BICKLE,

THE BARBER,

Third St., Lewisburg, Pa.

Students' Work a Specialty.

R. J. Weidensaul,

Livery and Boarding Stables,

Near Baker House.

Prices to suit the times.

Central Livery and Boarding Stables,

J. Horan Prop'r. Lewisburg, Pa.

TELEPHONE CONNECTION.

New Store Just Opened.

A new and complete line of up-to-date goods. Call and see me, Market Street, between 2nd and 3d Street.

Geo. H. Fisher,

Lewisburg, Pa.

Beautiful Photographs.

In order to introduce my work I make the following offer for one month to the pupils of the Institute and Seminary:

My $2 Cabinets Artist Finish at $1.50 per dozen.

My $3 Carbonets at $2.00 per dozen.

Having had 24 years of experience in large cities I am enabled to guarantee satisfaction in every particular. I earnestly solicit a share of your patronage.

Very Respectfully,

HUNTER, Photographer,

326 Market St., Lewisburg, Pa.

HEADACHE CURED By My Special Glasses.

H. J. NOGEL, Eye Specialist.

Eyes Examined Free.

Spectacles & Eye Glasses a Specialty.

Adjusting Eye Glasses and Spectacles a Specialty. Repairing with Neatness and Dispatch.

H. J. NOGEL & BRO.,

JEWELERS AND ENGRAVERS

Private Optical Parlor.

Buy your groceries of

FOLLMER,

The largest line and freshest stock in the town.

Students' Trade Solicited.

Danville Steam Laundry

Always up to date

Best work

Lowest prices

O. R. Harris, Prop.

Danville, Pa.

ATTORNEYS.

D. H. GETZ,

Attorney-at-Law,

Lewisburg, Pa.

Law Offices of

ANDREW ALBRIGHT LEISER,

Lewisburgh, Union Co., Pa.

J. C. BUCHER,

Attorney-at-Law,

Lewisburg, Pa.

J. THOMPSON BAKER,

Attorney-at-Law,

Lewisburg, Pa.

J. F. DUNCAN,

Attorney-at-Law,

Lewisburg, Pa.

J. W. VANVALZAH,

Attorney-at-Law,

Lewisburg, Pa.

WILLIAM R. FOLLMER,

Attorney-at-Law,

NOTARY PUBLIC. Lewisburg, Pa.

W. J. WILKINSON,

Attorney-at-Law,

Office in Music Hall, Lewisburg, Pa.

ALFRED HAYES,

Attorney-at-Law,

Office opposite Presbyterian Church, Lewisburg, Pa.

James F. Linn, J. Merrill Linn, Philip B. Linn.

156 164 162

J. M. & P. B. LINN

ATTORNEYS AT LAW.

Successors to J. F. & J. M. Linn.

One Continuous Office. LEWISBURG, PA.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Short Stops and Kick Offs for Hasty Reading.

Janitor William Bell is confined to his bed, owing to an attack of rheumatism.

H. T. Sprague, '97, preached to the Baptists at Spring Garden on Sunday the 23rd.

E. C. Kunkle, '97, on Sunday, May 23rd, occupied the pulpit of the Reformed church at Alvir.

Between the band and the military company B. U. was well represented in the Memorial Day parade.

Dr. Perrine is contributing a series of interesting and instructive articles on "Quotation," to the Mirror.

Misses White, Woodard, Mabel Wheeler and Zierden, were the guests of Miss Lillian Foust, of Milton, over Sunday.

The Sophomores have accepted the Freshman challenge to a game of base ball, which will be played on Wednesday afternoon.

On Thursday T. L. Josephs, '96, will be ordained as pastor of the Mt. Carmel Baptist church. President Harris will attend the ceremonies.

Joseph Catterall, brother of Geo. H. Catterall, '99, and Mr. Harris, of Berwick, came down to Lewisburg on their wheels Friday morning to witness the State Bucknell game.

The editorial staff of Commencement News will hold a meeting on Tuesday evening in the Eneipia Hall. The presence of every member is desired as business of importance will be transacted.

On Saturday a merry party took boats for Sugar Camp, to spend the afternoon. A most pleasant time is reported by all, especially by those who partook of the grand refreshments, which could not be surpassed.

On Sunday Prof. Martin delivered an address before the Sunday School conference, held at Pine Grove on Sunday afternoon and evening. His theme was "The influence of Sunday School over the community." W. C. Purdy, '99, gave a chalk talk at the same session.

The sacred cantata, "The Galilee" which was so well received last year will be repeated in Bucknell Hall, Saturday evening, June 5th at eight o'clock. Proceeds to go toward the Northfield fund of the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A., of the University. Admission 15c. Tickets on sale at Heiser's Drug Store.

On May 22, a party of students, accompanied by ladies from town, drove to Brown's Woods, near White Deer, and held a picnic. The boys say the refreshments "could not be beat," and the universal opinion on returning was that it was the most pleasant time they had ever had. The natural scenery, most beautiful in itself, and the great hospitality of the owner made it one of the most charming places around Lewisburg for a picnic.

Evans, Garner and Shoemaker spent Decoration Day in Sunbury.

Yesterday forenoon Dr. Perrine delivered a lecture on "Webster's College Life," before the English Oration Class.

James Fielding, '78, of Factoryville, accompanied by Mr. Trembar, of Danville, visited Prof. Stewart yesterday.

Frank Bevan, '99, member of the Mt. Carmel High School Alumni, last Friday evening delivered an address of welcome to the graduating class.

Jas. P. Stober preached one of his characteristic sermons before a large and appreciative audience at the Marsh Mission (near Milton) on Sunday night.

If parties who expect to receive boarders during commencement week will kindly send their names, rate, etc., to the Registrar's office, an effort will be made to supply them with as many visitors as they can accommodate.

"They are beauties," so every one exclaims who examines the new views at the "Cabinet" today. Some views have been left with Mr. Fithian at the College Book Store for the convenience of those who cannot well call on Mr. Fisk.

Academy Notes.

Calvin Elliott spent Sunday at his home.

Fred. Campbell has returned to finish his Academic work.

Mainerd L. Baker, a former student at the Academy, saw the game on Friday.

Walter Senn, of Williamsport, spent Saturday and Sunday with his brother C. H. Senn.

A number of our boys expect to accompany the team to State College and help cheer Bucknell to victory.

We are glad to note that the "Dark Horse" in the tennis tournament has been vanquished by one of our heroes.

The members of the Fourth Form have been excused from reciting their specials excepting the class in elocution which will recite in Commencement Hall until the end of the term.

Pierson is at his home, West Phila., attending the Silver Anniversary of the Mantau church, of which he is a member. While in the city he will deliver the L'Agenda ordered there.

Prof. Martin is desirous of knowing the whereabouts of a copy of "American Orations," which he thinks is in the possession of a Fourth Former. Let each member examine his collection for this missing volume.

A training table has been started for the men in training for the Inter Scholastic Meet, and they are grateful to the Registrar for establishing the table which will greatly assist in thorough training. All applicants for positions on the team are working hard, and judging from appearances some records will be broken.

Daglish, The Tailor.

Our Merchant Tailoring Department has the latest Foreign and Domestic Suitings and Trouserings.

Ready-made Clothing nearly equal to the made to order articles at prices that will astonish you.

The Mens' Furnishing Department has just what you want.

Daglish, The Tailor.

J. E. K. SCHWENK,

Dealer in

Groceries and

General Merchandise

Lewisburg, Pa.

Special attention given to Student's Clubs.

GEO. STEIN & BRO.,

Fresh Meats.

Orders Cordially Solicited.

226 Market Street - - - Lewisburg, Pa.

You can always depend upon

JOHN REED

to deliver your trunk at the proper place at the proper time. Special attention to students.

Flour, Grain, Feed, Etc.

Baled Hay and Straw.

G. D. Bertolette,

No. 21 North Third Street.

FRESH CRUSHED

STRAWBERRIES

BAKER'S

SODA FOUNTAIN.

DENTISTS.

DR. R. H. SPEARE,

P. O. Building, Lewisburg, Pa.

Office Hours: 8 a. m. to 12 m.

12:30 p. m. to 6 p. m.

W. R. ROLAND, D. D. S.,

Cor. Market and 3d St.,

Lewisburg, Pa.

GAS ADMINISTERED.

J. G. STROHECKER,

Guarantees his milk

To be pure

Student's Trade Solicited.

HOWER & SON,

Furniture

Dealers.

W. A. LEIBY,

Dealer in

Fresh Meats, Groceries.

LEWISBURG, PENNA.

Special attention given to clubs.

H. R. MILLER,

TAILOR.

Fine Styles, Work Guaranteed.

Prices the Lowest.

Harry Stahl

Dealer in Foreign

AND

Domestic

GROCERIES

All the News all the time

at the

Newest News Stand

In the town; also a full line of Every Day

Stationery at

FEIGLEY'S.

HYATT'S SHOE STORE,

Wolfe Block,

For Spring Shoes.

Institute Notes.
Mrs. Eva Deane Shires, class of '69, spent a few days with Mrs. Larison.
Miss Grace Wales, class of '69, who spent last year in the Studio, is visiting Mrs. Larison.
The Y. W. C. A. Program Meeting for the spring term was held last Sunday afternoon.
Miss Helen Brooke, College Secretary of the Y. W. C. A., recently spent a short time with our association.
A merry party of picnics, consisting of Phi Kappa Psi's and their friends, enjoyed a trip to Blue Hill last Saturday.
The reception given by Mrs. Larison on Tuesday evening, May 25th for the Senior class was an occasion long to be remembered. Many expressed the regret that it was perhaps the last time that they would enjoy Mrs. Larison's hospitality. The parlors and schoolroom were tastefully decorated and the dining room where the refreshments were served looked so beautiful that the palatable dainties were all the more enjoyed.

Commencement Announcement.
Upon application the Registrar will furnish Card Orders for Excursion Rates, good for nine days, on the following roads:
The Pennsylvania Railroad Division, Philadelphia and Erie, Northern Central, Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore, United Railroads of New Jersey, in state of Pennsylvania, excepting Pittsburgh and Erie. The Philadelphia and Reading Railway, including the Main line and Williamsport Division and the Breckinridge Railroad, Central Railroad of New Jersey.
By special arrangement, good board can be had at private boarding houses from $1.00 to $1.50 per day. Hotel rates, $2.00 per day.
Special information concerning accommodations will be furnished on application to the Registrar.
All Commencement visitors are cordially invited to register in Room No. 2 College Building, where writing, mailing and messenger facilities can be found. Polite attendants will be furnished, free of charge, to escort visitors over the grounds and through the various buildings.
Mail sent in care of the Registrar, will be promptly delivered.
J. Brown Martin will assist in a concert at Perkins Seminary this week.
Prof. Hulley will deliver his J. Whitcomb Riley lecture in the Presbyterian church Thursday evening.

Letter to the Alumni.
Today Prof. Stewart will send to each member of the Alumni club the following self-explanatory letter:
Lewisburg, Pa., June 1, 1897.
My Dear Sir:
Our institution is growing in numbers, in friends and in influence, and a large part of its growth is due to its Alumni. The Board of Managers of the Alumni Association desires the co-operation of each Alumnus. There are many ways in which we can be of service to our ALMA MATER. Prominent speakers and good music have been secured, and the Commencement week is filled with good things. The class of 1872 will hold its twenty-fifth reunion. Rev. Albert Foster, D. D., has been elected orator by the Association and Rev. George Whitman, D. D., has been chosen poet by his class.
The annual business meeting of the association will be held on Tuesday morning, June 22, in Bucknell Hall, and the public exercises of the Alumni in the evening of the same day in Commencement Hall. We would be pleased to see a large representation of the Alumni present.
By a vote of the Alumni Association, the Board of Managers was authorized to make the annual assessment, and the Treasurer was ordered to send a bill to each Alumnus. The capitation tax for 1897 is $1.00. Enclosed find bill for same.
Yours in behalf of the Board of Managers, ALBERT B. STEWART, Sec. and Treas.

Messrs. Moyer and Martin will attend the wedding of the former's brother this week.
Grim and Koons had an explosion in the Laboratory Saturday. No serious results.
As usual, J. E. Saul, '98, will be on hand during commencement, fully prepared to transfer baggage. He will give careful attention to your orders, and will appreciate your patronage. He will transfer baggage at any time during the college year.
The sermon to the graduating class of Crozer Theological Seminary was delivered on May 30. Among the graduating class are the names of A. E. Finn, '94; Geo. H. Waid, '94; C. W. Williams, '94; A. H. Wynkoop, '94; and Geo. H. Hatch, '88.

School of Music Notes.
A change has been made in regard to the Recitals at the close of the term. The undergraduates' recital will take place Thursday evening, June 17th. The following evening a recital will be given by the graduating class.
The final examinations in harmony of the graduating class were held on Friday and Saturday. The questions given were prepared by the Rev. H. G. Ganss, of Carlisle. Dr. Aviragnet says the class passed a very good examination and their work was better than in previous years.

Coming Events.
Saturday, June 5—Cantata—"Galilean," Bucknell Hall.
Tuesday, June 8th—Exhibition by Delsarte Class, Bucknell Hall.
All engagements for Bucknell Hall are recorded in the Registrar's office to avoid confusions.

The '97 Shoes
are in
at Marsh's.

Lunch,
Billiards,
Opera House Restaurant.

Go to WARD,
The Barber.
Finest Tonsorial Parlors in Town.

A. W. STEPHENS,
Clothing to Order
or Ready-made.
Sales Agent for Wanamaker & Brown

FRESH
Whitman's Candies.
—AT—
Wolfe's Drug Store, 2nd and Market Street

CHARLES A. HESS,
THE
Gentleman's Tailor;
Market Street,
Lewisburg; Penna.

WE MAKE SUITS THAT FIT.
Go to T. G. EVANS'
UNIVERSITY BOOK STORE.
For your Text Books
and Stationary.

For a good
Livery Turnout
Go to
W. W. BROWN,
North 3d Street, Lewisburg, Pa.

P. W. Himmelreich,
Dealer in
DRY GOODS,
GROCERIES, ETC.
Trunks, Satchels and Traveling Bags

CAMERON HOUSE,
T. F. Moyer, Propr.
Lately Renovated and Remodeled.
Commercial Sample Room.
Located in Business Centre.
Free Bus and Telephone.
Electric Lights, Steam Heat.
Lewisburg, Pa.

Ginter & Cook
The Face Takers
Have been selected
Official Photographers
For Class of '97
418 Market Street, CALL OFTEN.

For an EASY SHAVE go to
MILLER, The Barber.
North 2d St., Lewisburg, Pa.

The Orange and Blue.

BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY.

VOL. I. LEWISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, JUNE 8, 1897. No. 13.

3-4

STATE vs. BUCKNELL.

A Close Game 4-3.
The Bucknell base ball nine left early on Saturday morning, June 5, for State College. They arrived at State about ten o'clock and stopped at the University Inn. We were received nicely by the State people and everybody seemed pleased to welcome us. The boys are all well pleased by the treatment which State gave us and are only waiting for the year to pass in order to have a chance to retaliate. At two o'clock the boys left for the Athletic field and after taking their usual preliminary practice the game was called at 3 p. m.
Bucknell was sent to the bat and after receiving a few balls pitched by Nesbit, we knew that we had troubles of our own, that day. State's team played a fine game from start to finish, having three errors, none of which were costly, while the errors made by Bucknell were all at critical times and costly.
It looked like a shut out for Bucknell up to the eighth inning, when the boys took a brace and filled the bases. Griffith scored two runs on a hit, a long fly to centre field. This ended the scoring of the game. Bucknell was retired in their half of the ninth in order. State made their scores in four different innings, in the second, third, fourth and seventh. Bucknell played good ball in the field but could not hit Nesbit when hits meant runs. Miller made the sensational play of the game in the eighth inning by retiring the Bucknell hitter by a phenomenal running catch of a long hit from Mulkie's bat.
Following is the score which will speak for itself:

| STATE.       | R | H | O  | A  | E |
|--------------|---|---|----|----|---|
| Brent, cf    | 0 | 0 | 0  | 0  | 0 |
| Miller, lf   | 0 | 0 | 1  | 0  | 0 |
| Bechtel, 2b  | 1 | 1 | 5  | 3  | 0 |
| Hayes, c     | 1 | 1 | 8  | 1  | 0 |
| Findley, rf  | 0 | 1 | 0  | 0  | 1 |
| Spielman, ss | 1 | 0 | 1  | 3  | 0 |
| Curtin, 3b   | 0 | 0 | 1  | 1  | 1 |
| Albert, lb   | 0 | 0 | 11 | 1  | 1 |
| Nesbit, p    | 1 | 1 | 0  | 1  | 0 |
| Total        | 4 | 4 | 27 | 10 | 3 |

Continued on second page.

THE GALILEAN.
Performed in Bucknell Hall on Saturday Evening.
The sacred cantata, "The Galilean," given for the benefit of the Christian Associations, was rendered in Bucknell Hall, last Saturday evening. It presents the life of Jesus as it must have appeared to those among whom he walked and talked familiarly from day to day, and especially pictures that brighter portion of his life.
The chorus was composed of twenty-five ladies and gentlemen, members of the associations, assisted by Miss Irene Walls and Miss Potter. Costumes of Jewish description added much to the appearance and aided in giving the production a realistic effect.
When the cantata was given last year, it was thought necessary to lengthen the production by a short concert. This year sacred solos were introduced between the different parts of the composition.
"Adore And Be Still," by Gounod, was sung by Miss Potter. Two sacred solos by Dudley Buck were rendered by Miss Irene Walls. A sacred solo by Prof. Aviragnet was sung by Mr. Hague. Mr. Meeker had intended to sing "Jerusalem" by Parker, having been ill, was unable to do so. He however took part in the chorus.
Owing to the crowded work of the term it was difficult for those taking part to meet often for practice. The cantata was a success, and much credit is due to those who participated in it. But how much better it would have been with more frequent and better attended rehearsals.

All the solos were rendered well, but special mention must be made of the solos of Miss Irene Walls and Miss Potter. The former is so well known to the people of Lewisburg, she needs no other commendation from us. But we heartily appreciate her willingness to assist on this, as well as on all other musical occasions.
Miss Potter has a pure, clear voice and sang with much expression, she is not only a singer, but a good musician.
Many thanks are due Dr. Aviragnet for his untiring efforts in drilling the chorus and furthering all the interests of music in the Institution and in the community. Under his intelligent and enthusiastic direction, there is no reason why we should not hear every year several of the great Oratorios. All that is necessary is for those interested to combine in faithful and persistent rehearsals in the assurance that the result will abundantly

TENNIS.
Bunnell Wins the Handicap Tournament for '97.
For some years past tennis seemed to be on the decline at Bucknell, but this year, with the revival of base ball, tennis seems also to have taken a stronger hold and to command more interest than ever before.
The idea of handicap tennis has attracted much attention and almost every tournament had a number of spectators.
The one fact to be noted in this tournament is that of the seven scratch men five were in the game until the last. This may probably show that the scratch men were not handicapped sufficiently or it may show that they did extra good playing. The last game for the handicap championship was played Monday afternoon, between Bunnell and Elliott, Bunnell winning in good style.
Arrangements have been made for three more tournaments. The championship of the college, both in doubles and singles, will begin Wednesday. In doubles it is desired that there be as many teams entered as possible, because doubles are far more interesting and attractive to the spectator than singles. The feature in doubles this year is that any two persons, members of the association, or by paying the required 35 cents, may constitute a team. In other words, teams are not restricted to classes as formerly.
During commencement week there will be a "Free for All" tournament. This tournament will be especially attractive, as a number of the tennis playing alumni are expected to enter. Reynolds and Williams, former champions in doubles, will no doubt take an interesting part in this tournament.
It is quite aggravating to the members of the association to be compelled to re-line, sweep and prepare courts nearly every day for a tournament, due to the boldness of numerous would-be tennis players who are not connected in any way with the tournament. We refer particularly to a few town players and Preps, who do not take the trouble to remove heavy shoes for the requisite tennis slippers.

Williamsport vs. Bucknell.
On Wednesday, June 9, the Williamsport Y. M. C. A. will meet Bucknell on the College Campus at 3:30 p. m. This promises to be the most interesting game of the season, as the Y. M. C. A. defeated the varsity nine at Williamsport, April 24, by the score of 9-8. Everybody should read the editorial, pay their twenty cents and cheer the team on to victory.

Continued on fourth page.

'98's L'AGENDA.
The Book as it Appears After two Week's Discussion.
Externally the book is very good, it is neat, simple and taking. The style of binding and the quality of paper equal if not excel any previous issue. The talent displayed by the business manager deserves especial commendation. On the inside so far as typography goes it is all right. The professional work done on the book is to be commended; but the amateur work is the part which proves more interesting.
In a hastily written article mistakes are excusable; but in the Prologue we find one sentence with "or" following a negative expression, and a split infinitive. Nothing can be said of the histories because each historian claims that the article written was so cut up that it was unrecognizable.
The proof-reading, especially in regard to names, copied from the catalogue, is poor. In the picture of the "Board" the name of one of the editors is spelled in one way while on the opposite page it is spelled in another way, and the name of one member was omitted entirely.
The book is to be commended for not "roasting the faculty." The idea that great wisdom is shown, by some unknown writer, in casting gibes and slander upon those who have earned our respect, is coming to a deserved end. With one exception the '98 L'Agenda shows good judgment in this particular.
Great care should be used in giving any one man supreme charge of anything pertaining to the fraternities. Everyone around Bucknell knows the intense rivalry existing between the various fraternities represented here. With this spirit existing any member is liable to take advantage of his position and write many witty and untrue things that he could not prove, nor would he care to say them on the campus.
To say anything on the "Cuts and Grinds" would be unfair, for this sort of work has been the characteristic feature of all the previous issues of L'Agenda and the Spectator column of "Commencement News." To single out this "board" in particular would not be right, for they are following precedents. The first noticeable feature of this department is that it has no head, thus giving any pessimistic individual an opportunity to air himself. The personal manner in which some practical blackmaling has been perpetrated should be cried down by every member of the institution. Some people seem to have

THE COLLEGE.
Four courses leading to degrees in Arts, Philosophy and Science; over one hundred subjects of study; separate Laboratory, Gymnasium and Observatory buildings; large library; ample endowment; modern facilities.

THE ACADEMY.
A preparatory school for young men and boys. Fits for college and the best technical schools.

THE INSTITUTE.
A boarding school for young women; three courses of study leading to diplomas. Art studio.

THE SCHOOL OF MUSIC.
For both sexes. Offers graduation courses in music; courses in piano, pipe-organ, violin, harmony, etc., leading to diploma. The school is under the direction of a French artist, assisted by a corps of excellent teachers.

Bucknell University,

John Howard Harris, President.

For catalogue and further information concerning any department of the University, address,
William C. Gretzinger, Registrar,
Lewisburg, Pennsylvania.

THE ORANGE AND BLUE.

LEWISBURG, - - - PENN'A

PUBLISHED ONCE A WEEK DURING THE COLLEGE YEAR BY STUDENTS OF BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY.

Entered at Post Office at Lewisburg as second-class mail matter.

SUBSCRIPTION $1.00 PER YEAR.

STAFF
W. L. HILL, Editor-in-Chief.
O. R. LE VAX, Editor.
W. F. EICHENHOLTZ, Editor.

BUSINESS MANAGER:
S. W. Gilpin.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS:
John V. Leisher, Pres.
L. B. Sizemore, Sec.
John M. Gundy, Vice Pres.
L. T. Butler, Treas.
A. Kate Goddard, Geo. T. Ritter,
S. W. Gilpin, W. L. Hill,
R. B. Moline, O. R. Le Vax,
R. H. Kress, W. S. Holland.

Printed by the Journal, Lewisburg, Pa.

TUESDAY, JUNE 9, 1897.

An incident of the base ball game last Saturday shows where the spirit at State is different in one respect from that at Bucknell. A student refused to pay for the privilege of watching the game. Soon a number of students surrounded him, he was given five minutes to leave the campus. After four minutes of hesitation his discretion prevailed, and he left. At the game here on the preceding Saturday nearly a score of students did not pay admission. While this paper does not want to counsel lawlessness, it has no hesitancy about commending the example of State as a good one to be followed by Bucknell. It is had enough to have buzzards on the railway, but when we have vultures from the hill preying on others, certainly it is time to oust the unclean birds.

A review of L'Agenda appears on the first page. While the criticisms will not meet the approval of everybody, they are in the main well taken, and reference to the book itself will sustain them.

Two features of the book deserve special commendation. The one reflects little credit upon Bucknell as a school of learning, the other does not speak well for it as a co-educational institution. That the prologue, in which the guiding spirit of the work finds expression, should transgress the simple rules of elementary grammar, is deplorable. That young ladies should be insulted, is a disgrace. The one is annoying, but the other is more — no spark of chivalry glows in him who does not cry out against it.

Volunteers Have an Outing.

Saturday morning at 5.30 the Volunteer students of the University, including some invited guests, gathered at the "Anderson Club" and, after partaking of a bountiful breakfast, the thirteen couple mounted their carriages en route for "White Deer Valley." After a pleasant drive up the Susquehanna Valley their destination was reached at 9 o'clock, and the rest of the forenoon was spent in scouts up and down the rippling stream and viewing the many sights of the Valley. After having supplied the inner craving at the laden tables, the party adjourned to the ball park for a game of base ball and other sports. When all were satisfied with their drives, scouts, choice of wild flowers and sights from the mountain side they gathered for a farewell concert for the benefit of those who gathered from the immediate community, and started for old Bucknell, wishing that some pleasant times in their "foreign fields" with those whom they may be permitted to lead to Christ.

Among the Colleges.

No college in England publishes a college journal.

The University of Chicago offers 1,050 courses for this year.

At Harvard there are 250 candidates for the Mott Haven team. Hamilton college has received $25,000 toward a new science building.

A woman's gymnasium, to cost $50,000, will soon be built at the University of Michigan.

Japan supports about 40,000 public schools. The buildings are comfortable, and education is compulsory.

The University of California has added, by donation, a thousand volumes to its large collection of Hebrew works.

Princeton gives a prize of $1,500 to the person entering the Sophomore class who passes the best examination in Latin and Greek.

The dramatic club of the University of Georgia will devote the proceeds of its spring performance to the improvement of the athletic field.

In all the universities of France there exist no college periodicals, no glee clubs, no classes, no fraternities, no athletics, and they have no commencements.

John D. Rockefeller has given $7,000,000 to the cause of education—more than any other living man; but Stephen Girard, the infidel, exceeds him in his beneficence by about $1,000,000.

Spain has 22,960 elementary schools, but only 41 per cent. of the children receive the rudiments of an education. The teachers receive only $25 to $400 per year, and most of them are unable to collect that. In 1893 there was owing the Spanish teachers $1,600,000.

The Sophomore-Freshman base ball game will be played on Thursday, at 3.30.

State vs. Bucknell.

Continued from first page

| BUCKNELL      | R | H | O  | A | E |
|---------------|---|---|----|---|---|
| Geary, 1b     | 1 | 4 | 7  | 0 | 0 |
| Conover, cf   | 1 | 1 | 1  | 0 | 1 |
| Griffith, 2b  | 1 | 1 | 5  | 1 | 1 |
| G. Grim, lf   | 0 | 1 | 2  | 0 | 0 |
| Mulkie, ss    | 0 | 1 | 3  | 1 | 1 |
| Catterall, c  | 0 | 0 | 3  | 0 | 0 |
| Jenkinson, rf | 0 | 0 | 1  | 0 | 0 |
| Garner, 3b    | 0 | 0 | 2  | 1 | 0 |
| Shortell, p   | 0 | 1 | 0  | 6 | 1 |
| Total         | 3 | 6 | 24 | 9 | 4 |

Score by innings:
Bucknell 5 0 6 6 0 0 0 3 0 — 3
State 0 1 1 1 0 0 1 0 — 4
Struck out by Nesbitt 6, by Shortell 2. Double plays Spiesman to Bechtel. Bases on balls by Shortell 5, by Nesbitt 1. Passed balls Catterall 1, Hayes 2. Bases stolen, Albert, Conover, Umpire, Leste (Colgate).

J. R. L. Diggs ably filled the pulpit of the Baptist church, at Montandon, Sunday evening.

Theodore Heysham, formerly Bucknell, will be ordained to the ministry. The call of the council includes as invited guests the Crozer Faculty, Pres. Harris, Prof. Martin and Dr. Lincoln Hulley.

J. W. BICKLE, THE BARBER,
Third St., Lewisburg, Pa.
Students' Work a Specialty.

R. J. Weidensaul, Livery and Boarding Stables,
Near Baker House.
Prices to suit the times.

Central Livery and Boarding Stables,
J. Horan Prop'r, Lewisburg, Pa.
TELEPHONE CONNECTION.

New Store Just Opened.

A new and Complete Line of Up-to-date Goods. Call and see me, Market Street, between 2nd and 3d Street.

Geo. H. Fisher,
Lewisburg, Pa.

Beautiful Photographs.

In order to introduce my work I make the following offer for one month to the pupils of the Institute and Seminary:

My $2 Cabinet Artistic Finish at $1.50 per dozen.
My $3 Carbonets at $2.00 per dozen.

Having had 24 years of experience in large cities I am enabled to guarantee satisfaction in every particular. I earnestly solicit a share of your patronage. Very Respectfully,

HUNTER, Photographer,
328 Market St., Lewisburg, Pa.

HEADACHE CURED By My Special Glasses.

H. J. NOGEL, Eye Specialist.
Eyes Examined Free.

Spectacles & Eye Glasses a Specialty. Adjusting Eye Glasses and Spectacles a Specialty. Repairing with Neatness and Dispatch.

H. J. NOGEL & BRO., JEWELERS AND ENGRAVERS.
Private Optical Parlors.

Buy your groceries of FOLLMER, The largest line and freshest stock in the town. Students' Trade Solicited.

Danville Steam Laundry
Always up to date. Best work. Lowest prices. O. R. Harris Prop. Danville, Pa.

ATTORNEYS.
D. H. GETZ,
Attorney-at-Law,
Lewisburg, Pa.

Law Offices of ANDREW ALBRIGHT LEISER,
Lewisburg, Union Co., Pa.

J. C. BUCHER,
Attorney-at-Law,
Lewisburg, Pa.

J. THOMPSON BAKER,
Attorney-at-Law,
Lewisburg, Pa.

J. F. DUNCAN,
Attorney-at-Law,
Lewisburg, Pa.

J. W. VANVALZAH,
Attorney-at-Law,
Lewisburg, Pa.

WILLIAM R. FOLLMER,
Attorney-at-Law,
NOTARY PUBLIC. Lewisburg, Pa.

W. J. WILKINSON,
Attorney-at-Law,
Office in Music Hall,
Lewisburg, Pa.

ALFRED HAYES,
Attorney-at-Law,
Office opposite Presbyterian Church,
Lewisburg, Pa.

J. M. & P. B. LINN
ATTORNEYS AT LAW,
Successors to J. F. & J. M. Linn.
One Centinella Office. LEWISBURG, PA.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Short Stops and Kick Offs for Hasty Reading.

Next week we will publish an unofficial program of commencement week.

Mrs. Hulley is spending the few weeks before she sails for Europe, at the home of her mother.

Dr. Perrine, assisted by Miss Katherine Baker and Mr. Kurtz, will present the prizes at Peddie Institute.

The voices of the Pi Beta Phi's were recently heard in serenade, near the home of several of their patronizers.

E. L. Tustin, '94, has been elected president of the Baptist Social Union, of Philadelphia. He is now in California for his health.

Last Wednesday F. M. Schaeffer, 1900, returned after spending several days at his home, where he attended the funeral of a relative.

E. C. Kunkle, V. B. Fisk, Ed. Flint, G. M. Davis and C. F. Kulp conducted services in the Elmsport Baptist church on Sunday, May 29.

At the meeting of the American Academy of Medicine, held recently at Phila., Dr. Groff delivered an address on "Further Advances Needed in Medical Education."

The West church, of Vineland, N. J., has called C. W. Williams to the pastorate. Mr. Williams graduates June 2, and expects to be ordained on June 7, at the Gettysburg church, Philadelphia.

The following University boys attended a dance at Sunbury's summer resort, Clement's Park, on Friday evening: Geo. Hyde, Bob Grant, Geo. Howell, Clarence Rodgers, Sam Wittenmeyer and R. B. McCay.

The following members of the class of '97 have been chosen by the faculty, for commencement speakers, Messrs. Goddard, Hanna and Hartley, Messrs. Kunkle, Rivenburg, Wilson, Collins, Sennette, Grim and Fisk.

Mr. M. A. Cowden, a resident of Philadelphia, and an occasional visitor in Lewisburg, recently gave $5.00 to the Athletic Association. Such gifts from our friends are very helpful and very welcome.

Rev. Albert H. Wynkoop, '94, pastor of the Newfold Baptist Church has tendered his resignation to accept a call to another field of labor. He will be ordained in the new Tabernacle Baptist church, at Philadelphia, on Wednesday next.

Miss Mary Bartol, '94, has been appointed Fellow in Greek at the University of Pennsylvania. It was said by one in authority, "the selection was made solely on the basis of Miss Bartol's brilliant record as an undergraduate and graduate student at Bucknell, and as a graduate student at the University of Michigan."

Dr. Perrine will preach to the students of Perkiomen Seminary on Sunday evening, June 13.

Dr. Hulley addressed the Baltimore City Y. M. C. A., Sunday, June 6, on the subject "Temptation."

Wilson, Shoemaker, Parker, Morris and Forster accompanied the base ball team to State College on Saturday.

T. L. Joseph, '96, was ordained last Thursday. Pres. Harris and Dr. Hulley were invited each to preach a sermon.

Rev. William C. Leinbach, '89, was married to Miss Clara Clark, at Reading, April 15, by the Rev. J. S. Bromley.

Sam Wittenmeyer entertained Kappa Chapter of Sigma Chi at his home in Middleburg over Sunday.

Two cushions were found in the Armory after the fair and festival. The owners can get them from Mr. Gilpin.

Yesterday afternoon the '99 L'Agenda board held a meeting and discussed matters appertaining to their college annual.

The prize winners at Keystone Academy will be decided by Dr. Perrine assisted by Professors Edwards and Phillips.

President Harris delivered the Memorial Day address at Scranton, and to-night he will address the Baptist Training School in Philadelphia.

The manager of the L'Agenda has a large bill to pay this week, and desires all the students to assist him by prompt settlement of all accounts.

Messrs. H. T. Price and J. S. Saully, Jr., of the U. of P., while on their way to P. S. C., called upon the Kappa Sigma boys, on Wednesday.

Rev. Dr. C. C. Bitting, '93, a well known trustee of Bucknell, while driving on the Wissahickon Drive, Saturday afternoon, in company with his wife and other members of the family, received serious injuries by the breaking of the axle of the carriage. Mrs. Bitting's right arm was fractured near the elbow. Both Mr. and Mrs. Bitting were taken to St. Timothy's Hospital. Their injuries while serious are not fatal.

Academy Track Team.

The Advisory Board of the Academy selected the following men for the Inter-Scholastic League meet:

100 yd. dash—Pierson, Riemer. 220 yd. dash—Pierson, Anthony. 440 yd. dash—Rierner, Young. Relay race—Young, Anthony, Pierson, Rierner; sub, Douglas. Half mile run—Slifer, Green. Mile run—Slifer, Green. Pole vault—Earle, Elliott. High jump—Earle. Hammer throw—Rowe, Senn. Shot put—Rowe, Senn. Broad jump—W. Hoffa. Hop, step and jump—Earle, Elliott. Half mile bicycle—Barnes, J. S. Hoffa. Mile bicycle—Barnes, Case.

Daglish, The Tailor.

Our Merchant Tailoring Department has the latest Foreign and Domestic Suitings and Trouserings.

Ready-made Clothing nearly equal to the made to order articles at prices that will astonish you.

The Mens' Furnishing Department has just what you want.

Daglish, The Tailor.

J. E. K. SCHWENK,
Dealer in Groceries and General Merchandise
Lewisburg, Pa.
Special attention given to Student's Clubs.

GEO. STEIN & BRO., Fresh Meats.
Orders Cordially Solicited.
226 Market Street - - - Lewisburg, Pa.

You can always depend upon JOHN REED to deliver your trunk at the proper place at the proper time. Special attention to students.

Flour, Grain, Feed, Etc.
Baled Hay and Straw.

G. D. Bertolette,
No. 21 North Third Street.

FRESH CRUSHED STRAWBERRIES BAKER'S SODA FOUNTAIN.

DENTISTS.
DR. R. H. SPEARE,
P. O. Building, Lewisburg, Pa.

Office Hours: 8 a. m. to 12 m. 12:30 p. m. to 6 p. m.

W. R. ROLAND, D. D. S.,
Cor. Market and 3d St.,
Lewisburg, Pa.
GAS ADMINISTERED.

J. G. STROHECKER,
Guarantees his milk To be pure
Student's Trade Solicited.

HOWER & SON, Furniture Dealers.

W. A. LEIBY,
Dealer in Fresh Meats, Groceries.
LEWISBURG, PENNA.
Special attention given to clubs.

H. R. MILLER, TAILOR.
Fine Styles, Work Guaranteed.
Prices the Lowest.

Harry Stahl
—Dealer in— Foreign and Domestic GROCERIES

All the News all the time at the

Newest News Stand
In the town also a full line of Every Day Stationery at FEELY'S.

HYATT'S SHOE STORE,
Wolfe Block,
For Spring Shoes.

calls with several essays, it is

THE ORANGE AND BLUE.

LEWISBURG. - - - PENN'A

PUBLISHED ONCE A WEEK DURING THE COLLEGE YEAR BY STUDENTS OF BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY.

Entered at Post Office at Lewisburg as second-class mail matter.

SUBSCRIPTION $1.00 PER YEAR.

STAFF
M. R. COLLINS, Editor-in-Chief.
W. L. HILL, Editor.
O. R. LE VAN, Local Editor.
W. F. EICHOLTZ, Athletics.
BUSINESS MANAGER:
S. W. GILPIN.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS:
John V. Leisher, Pres.
L. B. Sinner, Sec.
L. T. Butler, Treas.

A. Kate Goddard, Geo. T. Ritter,
S. W. Gilpin, W. L. Hill,
R. H. Munk, O. R. Le Van,
R. H. Kress, W. S. Holland.

Printed by the Journal, Lewisburg, Pa.

TUESDAY, JUNE 15, 1897.

Considerable interest is being manifested in the Senior Class Day Exercises.

Messrs. Moyer and Martin assisted in the musical part of the graduating exercises of the McEvensville High School.

At a meeting of the Board of Editors of the Commencement News, on Monday evening, the various departments were assigned to the individual editors.

This afternoon at 4 o'clock the editorial staff of the Commencement News will hold a business meeting in Eupelia Hall.

G. M. Davis, business manager of the Commencement News, has already received a large number of subscribers for that paper.

The cinder paths on the college campus have been filled up and graded, which greatly adds to the general appearance of the "hill."

The much-discussed and often postponed, Sophomore-Freshman base ball game was played yesterday. The score resulted 23 to 17 in favor of the Sophs.

J. H. Bogart expects to get up a mammoth boarding club next fall. The club will be composed of 25 students and will be known as the "Aristocratic Club."

H. H. Harris, who has been teaching at Muncy for the several months past, is visiting his parents. He will resume his pedagogical duties on July 5th.

Persons desiring to have a news item appear in the Commencement News are requested to either drop it in the Mirror box or hand it to one of the members of the editorial staff.

During commencement week the Ringgold band will render three open air concerts on the campus. A stand will be erected for that purpose and the concerts will be held at 6 o'clock on Monday and Tuesday evenings, three o'clock on Wednesday afternoon.

Commencement Events.

THURSDAY, June 17.

7:30 p. m.—Exhibition by under graduates of School of Music, Bucknell Hall.

FRIDAY, June 18.

7:30 p. m.—Exhibition by graduates of School of Music, Bucknell Hall.

SATURDAY, June 19.

2:30 p. m.—Base ball game, Bucknell vs Bloomsburg.

6:00 p. m.—Street concert, Bucknell Hall.

8:00 p. m.—Annual Debate, Junior Class, Commencement Hall.

SUNDAY, June 20.

10:30 a. m.—Baccalaureate Sermon, Baptist Church, by President Harris.

7:30 p. m.—Annual Sermon before the Pennsylvania Baptist Education Society, Baptist Church, by Rev. Geo. W. Folwell, of Philadelphia.

MONDAY, June 21.

Art Exhibition begins and continues three days, Studio Institute.

8:00 a. m.—Examinations for Admission to College.

8:15 a. m.—Class Day Exercises, Institute Senior Class, Bucknell Hall.

10:00—Commencement Exercises of the School of Music, Bucknell Hall.

2:00 p. m.—Business Meeting, Institute Alumni Association, Institute Parlors.

Tennis Tournament.

3:00 p. m.—Public Meeting, Institute Alumni Association, Bucknell Hall.

7:45 p. m.—Anniversary of the Literary Society, Orator, President B. L. Whitman, LL. D., Washington, D. C.

6:00 p. m.—Twilight Concert, College Campus, Ringgold Band.

9:00 p. m.—President's Reception, President's House.

TUESDAY, June 22.

8:30—Business Meeting, College Laboratory—Class Day Exercises, Commencement Hall—Annual Meeting Board of Trustees, College Library.

11:00 a. m.—Exhibition, Fourth Form of the Academy, Commencement Hall.

2:00 p. m.—Commencement of Bucknell Institute, Commencement Hall. Address, Miss Myra Heynolds, Ph. D., Chicago.

4:00 p. m.—25th Anniversary Class of 1872, Bucknell Hall.

4:00-5:30 p. m.—Reception by Physical and Chemical Society, assisted by Natural History Society, Laboratory.

6:00 p. m.—Twilight Concert, College Campus, Ringgold Band.

7:55 p. m.—Anniversary of the College, Orator, President B. L. Whitman, LL. D., of Philadelphia.

8:00 p. m.—Announcement of Promotions, Bucknell Hall.

9:00 a. m.—Commencement of the College. Orations by the Class. Address to the Class by Judge William N. Ashman, LL. D., of Philadelphia.

12:00 p. m.—Corporation Dinner, Bucknell Hall.

3:00 p. m.—Base ball, College Campus. Concert by Ringgold Band.

SCHEDULE FOR EXAMINATIONS.

WEDNESDAY, June 16, 2 p. m.—All 2 p. m. classes, except Analytical Geometry.

THURSDAY, June 17, 8:15 a. m.—All 8:15 a. m. classes. 2 p. m.—All 2 p. m. classes and the 2 p. m. Analytical Geometry.

FRIDAY, June 18, 8:15 a. m.—All 8:15 a. m. classes. 2 p. m.—All 2 p. m. classes.

SATURDAY, June 20, 8 a. m.—All 8 a. m. classes.

On Sunday evening Dr. Perrine preached before the Christian Association of Perkiomen Seminary at Pottsville, and on Monday morning he delivered a lecture before the students of the above school, on Daniel Webster and his college days.

A party of Seniors visited Montour last Thursday afternoon.

Prof. and Mrs. Hamblin entertained the girls of '97 for tea on Saturday evening.

Miss Ruth Sprague and Mr. Harry Sprague gave a reception to the Pi Beta Phi fraternity on Saturday evening.

On account of the Commencement News, the next issue of THE ORANGE AND BLUE will be on Saturday, June 19, instead of Tuesday, June 22.

Engraved Calling Cards.

Engraved Plate and 50 Cards $1.00

A postal card request for samples, insures prompt response by return mail.

L. E. Whitman & Co., Williamsport, Pa. Blotter, Printers and Engravers.

J. W. BICKLE, THE BARBER, Third St., Lewisburg, Pa. Students' Work a Specialty.

R. J. Weidensaul, Livery and Boarding Stables, Near Baker House. Prices to suit the times.

Central Livery and Boarding Stables, J. Horan Prop'r., Lewisburg, Pa. TELEPHONE CONNECTION.

New Store Just Opened.

A new and complete line of Up-to-date Goods. Call and see me, Market Street, between 2nd and 3d Street.

Geo. H. Fisher, Lewisburg, Pa.

Beautiful Photographs.

In order to introduce my work I make the following offer for one month to the pupils of the Institute and Seminary:

My $2 Cabinets Artistic Finish at $1.50 per dozen.

My $3 Carbonets at $2.00 per dozen.

Having had 24 years of experience in large cities I am enabled to guarantee satisfaction in every particular. I earnestly solicit a share of your patronage. Very Respectfully,

HUNTER, Photographer,

326 Market St., Lewisburg, Pa.

HEADACHE CURED

By My Special Glasses.

H. J. NOGEL, Eye Specialist.

Eyes Examined Free.

Spectacles & Eye Glasses a Specialty. Adjusting Eye Glasses and Spectacles a Specialty. Repairing with Neatness and Dispatch.

H. J. NOGEL & BRO., JEWELERS AND ENGRAVERS. Private Optical Parlors.

Buy your groceries of

FOLLMER, The largest line and freshest stock in the town.

Students' Trade Solicited.

Danville Steam Laundry

Always up to date. Best work. Lowest prices. O. R. Harris, Prop. Danville, Pa.

ATTORNEYS.

D. H. GETZ, Attorney-at-Law, Lewisburg, Pa.

Law Offices of

ANDREW ALBRIGHT LEISER, Lewisburg, Union Co., Pa.

J. C. BUCHER, Attorney-at-Law, Lewisburg, Pa.

J. THOMPSON BAKER, Attorney-at-Law, Lewisburg, Pa.

J. F. DUNCAN, Attorney-at-Law, Lewisburg, Pa.

J. W. VAN VALZAH, Attorney-at-Law, Lewisburg, Pa.

WILLIAM R. FOLLMER, Attorney-at-Law, NOTARY PUBLIC, Lewisburg, Pa.

W. J. WILKINSON, Attorney-at-Law, Office in Music Hall, Lewisburg, Pa.

ALFRED HAYES, Attorney-at-Law, Office opposite Presbyterian Church, Lewisburg, Pa.

James V. Linn, J. Merrill Linn, Philip A. Linn, 1894

J. M. & P. B. LINN, ATTORNEYS AT LAW, Successors to J. F. & J. M. Linn.

THE LEWISBURG OFFICE, 1894

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Short Stops and Kick Offs for Hasty Reading.

Robert G. Grant spent Sunday with Bourne Hackenberg in Milton.

Messrs. Bell and Collins spent Friday and Saturday in Danville.

Bevan, '99, was visited on Friday by a number of Mt. Carmel friends.

Miss Mary Sharpless, '99, spent a few days in Williamsport with Miss Emmy Kunkle.

Registrar Gretzinger spent several days last week in the Western part of the state.

L. G. C. Riener and E. R. Myers spent Sunday, with J. V. Leshar at his home.

James P. Stober, '98, preached an eloquent sermon at Brook Park last Sunday evening.

Miss Genevieve White, 1900, visited Miss Mary Kline, of Winfield, on Saturday and Sunday.

All delinquent subscribers are requested to pay their subscriptions before Saturday, June 19.

Children's Day was observed yesterday at most of the missions with which students are connected.

The Senior members of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity enjoyed a banquet at Mrs. Huth's on Wednesday evening.

Messrs. Sherman, Cook, Holland and Wolfe, officiated at the Children's Day exercises held at the Marsh on Sunday evening.

Levi L. Riggan, '94, received honorable mention, for proficiency in bandaging, by the demonstrator of surgery in the U. of P.

The Children's Day services at Chillisquaque were a complete success, under the direction of Messrs. Meserve, Reed and Thomas.

The Bucknell band will furnish the music for the debate. Before the exercises the band will give a concert at 3rd and Market st.

Rev. Carl Summerbell, '97, who was ordained two weeks ago at the N. J. Conference, has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Christian church at Dayton, O.

The annual meeting of the College Alumni will be held at 8:30 o'clock Tuesday morning in the Laboratory instead of Bucknell Hall, as announced in the program.

Students ought to patronize the Firemen's festival, which is being held in the basement of the Opera House. The fire company has always been prompt when there has been a fire at the "hill."

Prof. and Mrs. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Gretzinger, Prof. Phillips, Physical Director, Coker, Mintzer, Steininger, Campbell, Leipsner and Gilpin accompanied the track team, last Saturday, to Williamsport on their victorious trip.

Full Meeting of the Board of Directors.

One of the best attended meetings of THE ORANGE AND BLUE Board of Directors, was held last Wednesday evening when Editor Kurtz, of the Lewisburg Journal tendered them a banquet at his residence.

At 6:15 on the above evening, the directors sat down to the unpretentious, although elegant supper which was the more enjoyed for its simplicity. Editor Kurtz seated at head of the large table, passed around the viands with the same skill that characterizes his literary pen, and was convinced, no doubt, that if the directors have been slow in supplying copy for publication, they are exceedingly speedy in accepting material for digestion.

During the progress of feast, experiences incident to the publication of a paper, were related, and if there is any truth in the theory that laughter and good cheer aid digestion, no director suffered from that source.

The directors feel so grateful to Mr. Kurtz for his hospitality that they will repay it by handling the type in his office and making a "pie" on his publication day.

Reception to the Mirror Board. On Tuesday evening, June 8, Mr. W. L. Kurtz, tendered an informal reception to the editorial staff and the business manager of the Mirror. The occasion was a very pleasant one. Twelve guests availed themselves of the generous and delightful hospitality of Mr. Kurtz and his amiable wife.

About 6:30 all sat down to the festal board loaded down with choicest viands, with their genial host at the head. It was a rare feast for lean and hungry editors, and all did themselves justice. The time of feasting was taken up in part by ready flow of wit and humor. Indeed the time went by all too soon. After the repast a short time was spent by pleasant chats between the guests and their host. After a unanimous vote of thanks was expressed by the fortunate recipients of Mr. and Mrs. Kurtz's favor, all separated for their various quarters. The Mirror Board can well feel proud of this bit of honor bestowed upon them by Mr. Kurtz. He is not only a friend of the students but also a loyal alumnus of Bucknell. The quality of his work done upon the Mirror testifies to his business ability as a printer. Long may he continue to print it. Our best wishes are yours, Mr. Kurtz.

Carl Summerbell, '97, preached a very interesting and scholarly sermon last Sunday morning to a large and appreciative audience in the Christian church.

Last Thursday evening Dr. Hulley made an address, on the Puritan influence in the American Revolution. The address was delivered at the home of Hon. Alfred Hayes before the Daughters of the American Revolution there assembled.

Daglish, The Tailor.

Our Merchant Tailoring Department has the latest Foreign and Domestic Suitings and Trouserings.

Ready-made Clothing nearly equal to the made to order articles at prices that will astonish you.

The Mens' Furnishing Department has just what you want.

Daglish, The Tailor.

J. E. K. SCHWENK, Dealer in Groceries and General Merchandise, Lewisburg, Pa. Special attention given to Student's Clubs.

GEO. STEIN & BRO., Fresh Meats, Orders Cordially Solicited. 226 Market Street - - - Lewisburg, Pa.

You can always depend upon JOHN REED to deliver your trunk at the proper place at the proper time. Special attention to students.

Flour, Grain, Feed, Etc. Baled Hay and Straw.

G. D. Bertolette, No. 21 North Third Street.

FRESH CRUSHED STRAWBERRIES at BAKER'S SODA FOUNTAIN.

DENTISTS. DR. R. H. SPEARE, P. O. Building, Lewisburg, Pa. Office Hours: 8 a. m. to 12 m. 12:30 p. m. to 5 p. m.

W. R. ROLAND, D. D. S., Cor. Market and 3d St., Lewisburg, Pa. GAS ADMINISTERED.

J. G. STROHECKER, Guarantees his milk To be pure Student's Trade Solicited.

HOWER & SON, Furniture Dealers.

W. A. LEIBY, Dealer in Fresh Meats, Groceries. LEWISBURG, PENNA. Special attention given to clubs.

H. R. MILLER, TAILOR. Fine Styles, Work Guaranteed. Prices the Lowest.

Harry Stahl Dealer in Foreign and Domestic GROCERIES

All the News all the time at the Newest News Stand In the town; also a full line of Every Day Stationery at FOLEY'S.

HYATT'S SHOE STORE, Wolfe Block, For Spring Shoes.

Institute Notes.

Miss Mary Bell, class of '04, is visiting her sister, Miss Bell.

Miss Olevia Silvers, School of Music, '06, is visiting Miss Jessie Steiner.

A small party of picnics from the Institute visited Blue Hill last Saturday.

Miss Dunham, Grant and O'Donnell accompanied Miss Montgomery home to spend Sunday.

Miss Edna Shires is spending the week previous to Commencement at her home in Limestoneville.

The exhibition by the Delsarte class on the evening of June 8th, was enjoyed by all. Both the class and their teachers are to be congratulated upon their success.

The last meeting of the Alumnae Association for this year was held on Tuesday evening, June 8th. As it was the last one at which Mrs. Larison would be present, the Daughters of the American Revolution postponed their meeting and came out in a body to pay their farewell honors to Mrs. Larison, who has been the mainstay of the Alumnae club since its organization.

School of Music Notes.

The L'Allegro Mandolin and Guitar Club furnished music for the commencement of the McEwenville Academy.

The graduating class will give a recital Friday evening. The class numbers ten this year and is the largest one ever graduating from the School of Music.

On Thursday evening of this week, a recital will be given in Bucknell Hall by the undergraduate pupils. The program promises to be exceptionally good this year and will include piano duets and quartets.

Miss Laura Fague is visiting Miss Owens.

Eupia Literary Society has elected the following officers for the next term: President, F. J. Rawlinson; Vice President, J. E. Calvin; Secretary, Stabler; Treasurer, O. J. Decker; Critic, A. A. Smith; Sergeant at Arms, Switzer; Reception Committee, Bell.

Physical and Chemical Society.

Those present at the meeting of the Physical and Chemical Society last week were given a very interesting talk on the Spectrum and Spectroscopy by Prof. Owens.

A short historical sketch of the study of the Spectrum was given, followed by an explanation of the modes of spectrum analysis. This included descriptions of the different prisms used to refract the light, of the characteristic of different substances indicated in the lines in the spectrum, and of the steel plate used as a prism. The many uses of the spectroscopy were also indicated.

After the description a practical exhibition was given by means of the projecting lantern.

The continuous spectrum was first shown, then the effect of sheets of colored gelatin when placed before the prism. Here all rays except those of the one color were intercepted. The sodium, strontium and other lines were shown by heating the substances to incandescence between the light and prism.

The lecture was one of the most interesting this term and again served to show to what good use the new electrical apparatus may be put.

A Worthy Tribute.

As mentioned recently in THE ORANGE AND BLUE the examination in Harmony of the graduating class of the Music School was given by Rev. H. G. Gausso, of Carlisle. The class has been taught by Miss Aikin. Dr. Aviragnet received a very kind letter from Rev. Gausso, of which we publish an extract:

MY DEAR PROFESSOR— I return the musical examination papers. I wish to congratulate you upon the grade and creditable exhibit throughout. The harmonization in many cases shows talent and originality, and in almost all the papers conception of writing correctly and grammatically. In the examination in Harmony is found the same intelligent understanding, at times expressed in a manner that already indicates thoroughness. All the papers are exceptionally good and are an honor to the class and yourself.

Bucknell Won.

Continued from first page.

interesting events were the half mile bicycle race, half mile and pole vault and the relay race.

Dickinson Seminary deserves special mention in her improvement over last year. She made it so interesting for the Academy that before the relay race was decided the points were 41½ to 39½ in favor of the Academy.

During the evening the team and their friends attended the reception given by the Senior class of the Seminary. They were received in a delightful manner. The reception room was handsomely decorated. From all reports the ladies of the Seminary cannot be too highly commended on the manner in which they helped to entertain the Bucknell boys.

The '97 Shoes

are in
at Marsh's.

Lunch, Billiards,

Opera House Restaurant.

Go to WARD,

The Barber.

Finest Tonsorial Parlors in Town.

A. W. STEPHENS, Clothing to Order or Ready-made.

Sales Agent for Wanamaker & Brown

FRESH Whitman's Candies.

Wolfe's Drug Store, 2nd and Market Streets

CHARLES A. HESS, THE Gentleman's Tailor; Market Street. Lewisburg, Penna.

WE MAKE SUITS THAT FIT.

Go to T. G. EVANS' UNIVERSITY BOOK STORE, For your Text Books and Stationery.

For a good Livery Turnout Go to W. W. BROWN, North 3d Street. Lewisburg, Pa.

P. W. Himmelmreich, Dealer in DRY GOODS, GROCERIES, ETC. Trunks, Satchels and Traveling Bags

CAMERON HOUSE, T. F. Moyer, Prop.

Lately Renovated and Remodeled.
Commercial Sample Room.
Located in Business Centre.

Free Bus and Telephone.
Electric Lights, Steam Heat.

Lewisburg, Pa.

Ginter & Cook

The Face Takers

Have been selected

Official Photographers

For Class of '07

418 Market Street, CALL OFFER.

For an EASY SHAVE go to

MILLER, The Barber.
North 2d St., Lewisburg, Pa.

Bucknell University,

John Howard Harris, President.

THE COLLEGE.

Four courses leading to degrees in Arts, Philosophy and Science; over one hundred subjects of study; separate Laboratory, Gymnasium and Observatory buildings; large library; ample endowment; modern facilities.

THE ACADEMY.

A preparatory school for young men and boys. Fits for college and the best technical schools.

THE INSTITUTE.

A boarding school for young women; three courses of study leading to diplomas. Art studio.

THE SCHOOL OF MUSIC.

For both sexes. Offers graduation courses in music; courses in piano, organ, violin, harmony, etc., leading to diploma. The school is under the direction of a French artist, assisted by a corps of excellent teachers.

For catalogue and further information concerning any department of the University, address,

William C. Gretzinger, Registrar,
Lewisburg, Pennsylvania

The Orange and Blue.

BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY.

VOL. I.

LEWISBURG, PA., SATURDAY, JUNE 19, 1907.

No. 15.

| REVIEW IN ATHLETICS.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | THE FACULTY'S VACATION.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | SCHOOL OF MUSIC.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | COMMENCEMENT MUSIC.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| What our Athletes Accomplished Last Season. FOOT BALL. B. U.'s team of '96 was undoubtedly the best team she has ever had. There have been teams before that of last season's which scored more points. But the success of a team is not necessarily measured by the number of points scored. The success of last season's team is measured and marked by 'careful and industrious practice, conscientious training, and perfect subordination. When a team carries out these points there is no question but that the work will be a success. A new feature was introduced, that of graduate coaching. We hope that at least part of each season hereafter will be made up of this kind of coaching. Again the faculty and students should be commended for their interest and loyalty to the team. This above every thing else encourages a team and especially so in time of defeat. The team next season will have hard work to exceed last season's record. But this can be done if each student makes himself responsible and sees to it that we have a winning team. Now be loyal to your institution and if you see fit offer any suggestion and friendly criticism to those in authority, but do not find fault nor lose interest. FIELD AND TRACK. This department of athletics, though not so popular at B. U., is one of the most important forms of exercise. Some of the features in foot ball and base ball, which are objectionable to many, are done away with here. Each man must depend on himself and therefore plays his own game. In this line of work we have won distinction in the Relay Races at Philadelphia, and the Academy Track Team won the pennant from the Williamsport High School and Dickinson Seminary for the second time. Beyond a doubt we have some of the best material in this line, of any school in the state. But we are sadly handicapped because we do not have the facilities to train properly. The student body is hoping a cinder track will be put down during the summer. This done, we will have no cause for fear of competing with any college in the state in this department of athletics. BASE BALL. Base ball can be said to be the best this year at Bucknell that it has been any previous year. The team has had all positions filled with men of comparative ability, which cannot be said of former teams. It has met with victory Continued on second page. | Where Our Professors Will Spend the Summer Months. Yesterday an ORANGE AND BLUE reporter interviewed the members of the faculty in order to let the students know where our professors and instructors will spend the summer vacation. The following information is the result of his interview. Dr. Harris—Lecturing, attending conventions and looking up the general interests of the institution. Dr. Loomis—Will leave this evening for Atlantic City where he will spend the entire season. Dr. Groff—Making investigations in agriculture and also for the State Board of Health of which he is the special agent. Dr. Bartol—At home, experimenting in the laboratory. Prof. Rockwood—Visiting relatives in the vicinity of Boston. Prof. Owens—Working upon a book of chemical experiments. The book will be used in the chemical course. Dr. Perrine—Visiting at Wood, N. J. and filling the pulpit of the Livingstone Ave. Baptist church at New Brunswick, N. J. Prof. Hamblin—Visiting Asbury Park and New York. Dr. Huiley—Traveling through Europe, especially Germany and France where he will pursue investigations in history. Prof. Martin—At home, cataloging and arranging the books of the library. Instructor Phillips—At home, studying in the library. Dr. Aviragnet—Teaching the French and Spanish languages at the Penna. Chautauqua. Instructor Stewart—Camping, part of the summer. Instructor Riener—Pursuing French studies at Paris. Instructor Davis—Pursuing Biological studies at Cold Spring Harbor, Long Island. At this place he will also teach Bacteriology. Principal Edwards—At home the greater part of the summer. Another Gift to the Library. Mr. W. Laird Harris has presented the Library of Bucknell University with an album containing the original autographs of the delegates to the Pennsylvania convention which met at the state capitol, Harrisburg, May 3, 1837, and later at Musical Fund Hall, Philadelphia, Nov. 28, 1837, to alter and amend the constitution of the state of Pennsylvania. Raymond Patchin, of the Academy, was called home by the death of his father. THE ORANGE AND BLUE extend their sympathies to a college student in such bereavement. | Recital by Undergraduates in Bucknell Hall on Thursday Evening. The recital given in Bucknell Hall, Thursday evening, June 17th, by the undergraduates of Bucknell School of Music, was a musical treat. The vocal and instrumental music, as a whole, exhibited marks of careful training on the part of the teachers and considerable practice on the part of the pupils. The piano work was very good, the technique being clear and distinct. In Nos. 1 and 8 the phrasing and expression was very good. The violin solo by Master Bartol was remarkably good considering the age of the young violinist. The vocal solo rendered by Miss Chillon deserves special mention. The execution in the echo part of the solo was well done. The young lady possesses a fine flexible voice and sings with perfect ease and expression. The female chorus, which is an unusual feature in the recitals and entertainments at Bucknell, was good, the selection was well rendered, the singing on a whole showed considerable finish. Judging by the work of the pupils, Thursday evening, the next graduating class promises to be a good representation of the Bucknell School of Music. PROGRAM. Geburtsstags Marche, quartette for two pianos, Schumann—Miss Dunkleberger, Donachy, Case and Reifsnayler. Andante and Marche for violin, Bohm—Master Will Bartol. O Promise Me, song, de Koven—Mr. Olmsted. Violet, piano solo, Klein—Miss M. Leslie. In June, song, de Koven—Miss G. Callendar. Waltz in G for piano, Durand—Mr. DeVore. Air from Opera Favorita, Donizetti—Mr. Flint. Marche Militaire, piano duett, Schubert—Misses Bartol and Grant. The Warden, transcription, for violinello, Puccini—Mr. R. Wendell. Romance from La figlia del Regimento, Donizetti—Miss Merriman. Grand Duett for two pianos from Verdi's Sirovatore, Alberti—Misses Callender and Christ. Adelaide, song, Beethoven—Mr. Hague. Romance, violin solo, Vieuxtemps—Miss L. Lawrie. Swiss Echo Song, Eckert—Miss Chillon. The Reapers, ladies chorus, Clifton—Misses Taggart, Merriman, Chillon, Montgomery, Case, Reifsnayler, O'Donnell, Dunkleberger, Potter, Callender, Hartley, White. The graduating class of the School of Music gave a recital in Bucknell Hall last evening. On account of lack of space, we are unable to enlarge upon it, but the Commencement Notes will contain a complete account of it. | The Ringgold Band will Play in Town Next Week. One of the principal features of this commencement will be the music. The full Ringgold Band, forty men in all, under the leadership of Lieut. Joseph Winter, will arrive on a special car from Reading at 4:18 on Monday afternoon. After lunch at the Cameron House, the band will repair to the college campus and give their first open air concert on the new stand erected especially for the occasion. The band will play at all the exercises on Tuesday and Wednesday, and will give three out-door concerts in all. The enterprise of getting such an excellent grade of music for this commencement was a very commendable one and the idea should be carried out at each succeeding commencement. Great credit is due to John F. Duncan, Esq., W. O. Shaffer, Esq., and Hon. H. M. McClure for the interest they manifested in securing the above band. These gentlemen raised about $200.00 in the town. This sum in addition to the one hundred dollars contributed by the College Alumni Association and by the various graduating classes amounts to $500.00, the cost of getting the Ringgold band here. Surely this money will be well expended, for nothing adds to the attractiveness of a commencement like good music. BUCKNELL TALENT IN DEMAND. How and Where the Influence of the University Will be Exerted. The party that will represent Bucknell at the Connecticut Lake Assembly, will leave on Wednesday. The party will consist of E. W. Cober, who will have general charge of athletics at the lake; Roy B. Mulkie, captain of the Lake base ball nine; G. H. Catterall, catcher, and A. R. Garner, third base, on the same nine. President Harris will lecture at the above Assembly. The following Bucknellites will take part at the Penna. Chautauqua, at Mt. Gretna, which will open the 1st of July, and close the 30th of the same month: Prof. E. Aviragnet, French and Spanish; Miss Juliet Aiken, official pianist; J. B. Martin will give instruction on the string instruments, and will play in the orchestra, Prof. W. L. Kauffman, geology and zoology. Rev. G. W. Folwell, who will preach the sermon to the Baptist Educational Society of Pennsylvania, accompanied by his wife, arrived in town yesterday. They were entertained during the afternoon by J. H. Cook and R. T. Wiltbank, Jr. |

THE ORANGE AND BLUE.

LEWISBURG. - PENN'A.

PUBLISHED ONCE A WEEK DURING THE COLLEGE YEAR BY STUDENTS OF BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY.

Entered at Post Office at Lewisburg as second-class mail matter.

SUBSCRIPTION $1.00 PER YEAR.

STAFF
M. R. COLLINS, Editor-in-Chief.
W. L. HILL, Editor.
O. R. LEVY, Editor.
W. F. EICHOLTZ, Editor.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS
John V. Leisher, Pres.
L. B. Simpson, Sec.
A. K. Goddard, Sec.
S. W. Gilpin, Sec.
R. H. Kress, Sec.

Printed by the Journal, Lewisburg, Pa.

SATURDAY, JUNE 19, 1897.

Contrary to the predictions of many and in fulfillment of the hope of its originators, THE ORANGE AND BLUE is now an established institution at Bucknell. Its first half-year has been one of conquest, not by subjecting, but by winning. It did not come into life weak and faltering, nor did it spring full-armed from the ground; it appeared modestly upon the scene of action, and in a mature, serious way went about the performance of the duties it had laid out for itself. Already it has made firm friends of those who at first opposed it, and it has made great advances toward the goal of its ambition: to furnish its readers with fresh, trustworthy news of collegiate events; to keep the student body alive to the diversifying activities of our institution; to keep the Alumni constantly in touch with their Alma Mater; to keep the people of Lewisburg informed of what is transpiring in the University of their town; to promote all recognized or laudable organizations in the University, e. g. Athletic Association, Literary Societies, Y. M. C. A. etc.; to provide a fair field for the discussion of any topics of interest or importance to the student body; to awaken and develop journalistic talent and ability among the students of Bucknell; to express without fear or favor editorial opinions on any subject concerning the University.

In addition to this the business department has been conducted with such ability that the year closes with a small amount in the hands of the treasurer of the Board of Directors. The future of the paper is now in the hands of the students and friends of Bucknell. It remains steadfast in its efforts to attain its goal: it is worthy of support, and, more than that, it is of real value to those who are in any way interested in the happenings of our University.

The present board of editors do not wish to make a retiring bow, nor to lay any mantle on the shoulders of their successors. Editorial connection with this paper is but an incident in its life. Editors may come and editors may go, but this paper goes on forever.

Review in Athletics.

Continued from first page.

in the majority of games, and no defeat can be said to have been a "walk-over." Next year the team should be still stronger, as all the present team are expected back, and should improve, as we all know there is yet much room, much beyond their present standing. But let us urge again, as often has been done, that the student body as a whole take more interest in this athletic sport, and show it in their presence and cheering at the games, and further by the interest shown on all nights of practice. This lack of interest has always been one of the main draw-backs to base ball at Bucknell; let us all see that it is not next season.

BASKET BALL.
Basket ball is the youngest of the games introduced at Bucknell, the first team having been formed in the spring of '95. In regard to the first year's work, all that can be said is, we did not know the game; but, experience was a good teacher, and after many and severe defeats, we came out on top in '97. The team of '97 lost but one game, and competed with some of the best teams turned out, such as Williamsport Y. M. C. A. and University of Penna. It cannot be said that the success was from any individual playing, for all the men had but one year of experience, but from persistent practice, resulting in the most essential thing—team work. A still better season is looked forward to in this line of athletics for next year.

TENNIS.
Tennis has been very popular this season. Early in the term a tennis association was formed and it has had the desired effect of stimulating the interest in the department.

Two tournaments, the handicap completed June 9th and the championship, to be completed June 21st, have been the outcome of this organization.

Thirty-two men were entered in handicap singles and twenty-eight and twenty respectively, in the championship, single and doubles. A "free for all" will be held commencement week open to all. Two teams of doubles from our Alumni have already signified their intention of entering this. Three courts are under the special care of the Tournament Committee and never before have the courts been in as good shape as now. The interest in tennis has manifestly increased and there are developing a number of good players which speaks well for inter-collegiate tennis.

FINANCE.
From a financial standpoint the season of '97 has been a success. We had a strong, well equipped Basket Ball Team, and played strong teams with heavy guarantees, yet the season was closed with no debt, practically speaking. The school and town desired a strong team, and by faithful practice a good nine was put on the diamond. This department has been exceedingly well managed; however, it has fallen behind quite an amount, which deficiency was immediately met by the Finance Com. as they had successfully managed the Popular Lecture Course and fair and festival. In addition to these two departments, all old debts have been removed except A. G. Spalding's, which been reduced to one-fourth its former size.

Engraved Calling Cards.

Engraved Plate and 50 Cards $1.00

A postal card request for samples, insures prompt response by return mail.

L. E. Whitman & Co.,
Williamsport, Pa.
Blind, Printers and Engravers.

J. W. BICKLE,
THE BARBER,
Third St., Lewisburg, Pa.
Students' Work a Specialty.

R. J. Weidensaul,
Livery and Boarding Stables,
Near Baker House.
Prices to suit the times.

Central Livery and
Boarding Stables,
J. Horan Prop'r, Lewisburg, Pa.
TELEPHONE CONNECTION.

New Store
Just Opened.
A new and complete line of Up-to-date Goods. Call and see me, Market Street, between 2nd and 3d Street.

Geo. H. Fisher,
Lewisburg, Pa.

Beautiful
Photographs.

In order to introduce my work I make the following offer for one month to the pupils of the Institute and Seminary:
My $2 Cabinets Artist Finish at $1.50 per dozen.
My $3 Carbonets at $2.00 per dozen.

Having had 24 years of experience in large cities I am enabled to guarantee satisfaction in every particular. I earnestly solicit a share of your patronage.
Very Respectfully,
HUNTER, Photographer,
328 Market St., Lewisburg, Pa.

HEADACHE CURED

By My Special Glasses.

H. J. NOGEL, Eye Specialist.

Eyes Examined Free.

Spectacles & Eye Glasses a Specialty.
Adjusting Eye Glasses and Spectacles a Specialty. Repairing with Neatness and Dispatch.

H. J. NOGEL & BRO.,
JEWELERS AND ENGRAVERS.
Private Optical Parlors.

Buy your groceries of
FOLLMER,
The largest line and freshest stock in the town.
Students' Trade Solicited.

Danville Steam Laundry
Always up to date
Best work
Lowest prices
O. R. Harris, Prop.
Danville, Pa.

ATTORNEYS.
D. H. GETZ,
Attorney-at-Law,
Lewisburg, Pa.

Law Offices of
ANDREW ALBRIGHT LEISER,
Lewisburg, Union Co., Pa.

J. C. BUCHER,
Attorney-at-Law,
Lewisburg, Pa.

J. THOMPSON BAKER,
Attorney-at-Law,
Lewisburg, Pa.

J. F. DUNCAN,
Attorney-at-Law,
Lewisburg, Pa.

J. W. VANVALZAH,
Attorney-at-Law,
Lewisburg, Pa.

WILLIAM R. FOLLMER,
Attorney-at-Law,
NOTARY PUBLIC, Lewisburg, Pa.

W. J. WILKINSON,
Attorney-at-Law,
Office in Music Hall,
Lewisburg, Pa.

ALFRED HAYES,
Attorney-at-Law,
Office opposite Presbyterian Church,
Lewisburg, Pa.

J. M. & P. B. LINN
ATTORNEYS AT LAW,
Successors to J. F. & J. M. Linn.
Use Continuous Office. LEWISBURG, PA.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Short Stops and Kick Offs for Hasty Reading.

On Wednesday Instructor Reimer will sail for Paris.

Yesterday I. A. DeWitt made a trip to Danville a wheel.

E. R. Powell, '96, has recently been ordained to the ministry.

Miss Bertha Shirley is the guest of her sister Mrs. Albert Stewart.

Mrs. Gilchrist, of Florida, is the guest of her son, E. P. Gilchrist, '97.

F. F. Nelson, '97, will enter the law department of Harvard College next fall.

Miss Kate McLaughlin, '95, has been elected assistant principal of the Lewisburg High School.

Rev. A. F. Anderson, '94, pastor of the Grace church, Washington, D. C., is the guest of his mother.

Miss Laura Allen, '99, spent several days this week at State College, where she was the guest of several friends.

The main walk of the college campus will be illuminated at night during Commencement week with the two arc lights now in the gymnasium.

A stand has been erected in the south-west corner of the college campus from which the Ringgold band will render open air concerts next Monday and Tuesday evenings at 6 o'clock, and on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of THE ORANGE AND BLUE on Thursday afternoon, the following officers were elected for the unexpired term: President, S. W. Gilpin; Vice President, R. B. Mulkin; Secretary, W. S. Holland; Treasurer, G. T. Ritter; Business Manager, R. H. Kress.

The Bucknell band will give an open air concert on the band stand on the campus tonight, instead of at the corner of 3d and Market sts., as was announced in a previous issue. On Monday evening at 8 o'clock, they will also render several selections on the corner of 3d and Market sts.

When you come to Bucknell next September, you will find Saul, '98, at the station ready to greet you, and to transfer your baggage to the Hill. Both new and old students will do well to make a note of this, for by giving him your patronage you will place it where it will be highly appreciated.

Dr. J. Ackerman Coles, whose several art gifts to the city of Newark, and the state of New Jersey, and to colleges, including Bucknell University, have been numerous of late, is about to present to the city of Newark a bronze bust of his father, the late Abraham Coles. A. M. M. D., Ph. D., L. L. D. The bust is by the eminent sculptor, Ward. The pedestal, on which the bronze will be mounted, will be unique.

The pipe organ pupils of Miss Aikin gave a recital in the Baptist church this forenoon.

Miss Ida Hammond, Institute '87, and sister, of Dover, Del., are the guests of Mrs. Larison.

F. W. "Rex" Wagner Ex-'97, came to town Friday morning to spend next week with college friends.

Miss Elizabeth Spettigue, of Wilcox, Pa., and Miss Dolly Stoner, of Sunbury, are visiting Mrs. W. C. Gretzinger.

Miss Emma Probasco was compelled to leave College before Commencement on account of the illness of her mother.

D. S. and G. A. Grimm are enjoying a visit by their brother J. D. Grimm, of Kutztown.

President B. L. Whitman, of Columbian University, will be the guest of Mr. W. C. Walls during his stay here at Commencement.

The annual meeting of the College Alumni will be held at 8.30 o'clock Tuesday morning in the Laboratory, instead of Bucknell Hall, as announced in the program.

The local fraternity, Theta Delta Psi, gave a reception, June 11, to its patronesses, Mrs. A. A. Leiser, Mrs. Christian VanGundy, Mrs. William C. Walls, Mrs. John A. Owens, Mrs. Thomas A. Edwards and Mrs. Dr. Bolton of Philadelphia.

Sophomores vs. Freshmen.

Promptly at 4 o'clock, on last Monday evening, Umpire Mulkin tossed the coin which gave the Freshmen the choice of innings in the long postponed game between the Sophomores and Freshmen. Capt. Grimm chose the outs. McQuistian, the heavy (weight) batter of the Sophomore team, eased his conscience by fanning the wind three times in succession and repeated the performance five times during the game. The game was long drawn out and full of excitement. Catterall and McQuistian constituted the battery for the Sophomores. After the fifth inning, Catterall took Mac's place, and Garner did the twirling for the Sophs. Schaffer pitched a great game for the Freshmen. During the game, thirteen Sophs threw down their bats in despair, acknowledging that there was one man in the University whose delivery they were unable to solve.

The base lines were crowded with members of the contesting classes and cheer after cheer rent the air as one side or the other gained advantage. It looked like a victory for the Freshmen up to the ninth inning when the Sophs scored seven runs on their opponents' errors. The Freshmen were unable to overcome this lead in their half of the inning and at the end of the game the score stood 21 to 17 in favor of the Sophs.

Daglish, The Tailor.

Our Merchant Tailoring Department has the latest Foreign and Domestic Suitings and Trouserings. Ready-made Clothing nearly equal to the made to order articles at prices that will astonish you. The Mens' Furnishing Department has just what you want.

Ready-made Clothing nearly equal to the made to order articles at prices that will astonish you. The Mens' Furnishing Department has just what you want.

Daglish, The Tailor.

J. E. K. SCHWENK,
Dealer in
Groceries and
General Merchandise
Lewisburg, Pa.
Special attention given to Student's Clubs.

GEO. STEIN & BRO.,
Fresh Meats,
Orders Cordially Solicited.
226 Market Street - Lewisburg, Pa.

You can always depend upon
JOHN REED
to deliver your trunk at the proper place at the proper time. Special attention to students.

Flour, Grain, Feed, Etc.
Baled Hay and Straw.

G. D. Bertolette,
No. 21 North Third Street.

FRESH CRUSHED
STRAWBERRIES
BAKER'S
SODA FOUNTAIN.

DENTISTS.
DR. R. H. SPEARE,
P. O. Building, Lewisburg, Pa.

Office Hours: 8 A. M. to 12 M.
12:30 P. M. to 6 P. M.

W. R. ROLAND, D. D. S.,
Cor. Market and 3d St.,
Lewisburg, Pa.

GAS ADMINISTERED.

J. G. STROHECKER,
Guarantees his milk
To be pure
Student's Trade Solicited.

HOWER & SON,
Furniture
Dealers.

W. A. LEIBY,
Dealer in
Fresh Meats, Groceries,
LEWISBURG, PENNA.
Special attention given to clubs.

H. R. MILLER,
TAILOR.
Fine Styles, Work Guaranteed.
Prices the Lowest.

Harry Stahl
Dealer in
Foreign and Domestic GROCERIES

All the News all the time
at the
Newest News Stand
In the town; also a full line of Every Day Stationery at FEGLEY'S.

HYATT'S SHOE STORE,
Wolfe Block,
For Spring Shoes.

Commencement Events.

SUNDAY, June 20.
10.30 a. m.—Baccalaureate Sermon, Baptist Church, by President Harris.
7.30 p. m.—Annual Sermon before the Pennsylvania Baptist Education Society, Baptist Church, by Rev. Geo. W. Folwell, of Phila.
MONDAY, June 21.
Art Exhibition begins and continues three days, Studio Institute.
8.00 a. m.—Examinations for Admission to College.
8.15 a. m.—Class Day Exercises, Institute Senior Class, Bucknell Hall.
10.00—Commencement Exercises of the School of Music, Bucknell Hall.
2.00 p. m.—Business Meeting, Institute Alumni, Institute Parlor.
3.00 p. m.—Public Meeting, Institute Alumni, Bucknell Hall.
7.45 p. m.—Anniversary of the Literary Societies, Orator, President B. L. Whitman, L. L. D., Washington, D. C.
6.00 p. m.—Twilight Concert, College Campus, Ringgold Band.
9.00 p. m.—President's Reception, President's House.
TUESDAY, June 22.
8.30—Business Meeting, College Laboratory.—Class Day Exercises, Commencement Hall.—Annual Meeting Board of Trustees, College Library.
11.00 a. m.—Exhibition, Fourth Form of the Academy, Commencement Hall.
2.00 p. m.—Commencement of Bucknell Institute, Commencement Hall. Address, Miss Myra Reynolds, Ph. D., Chicago.
4.00 p. m.—25th Anniversary Class of 1872, Bucknell Hall.
4.00-5.30 p. m.—Reception by Physical and Chemical Society, assisted by Natural History Society, Laboratory.
6.00 p. m.—Twilight Concert, College Campus, Ringgold Band.
7.55 p. m.—Anniversary of College Alumni, Commencement Hall. Orator, Albert Foster, D. D., Newark, N. J. Post, George Whitman, D. D., Buffalo, N. Y. Reunions, Classes of '77, '78, '79, '80, Anniversary Class of '72.
ANNUAL SYMPOSIUMS:—Phi Kappa Psi, Baker House; Sigma Chi, Chapter Hall; Phi Gamma Delta, Cameron House; Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Hotel Hager; Pi Beta Phi, Baker House, Monday evening; Kappa Sigma, Chapter Hall.
WEDNESDAY, June 23.
8.00 a. m.—Announcement of Promotions, Bucknell Hall.
9.00 a. m.—Commencement of the College. Orations by the Class. Address to the Class by Judge William X. Ashman, L. L. D., of Phila.
12.00 m.—Corporation Dinner, Bucknell Hall.
3.00 p. m.—Base ball, College Campus. Concert by Ringgold Band.

It was with great pleasure that we read in the Philadelphia papers that our own Prof. Croff, who is at the head of Bucknell's department of organic science, was granted the degree of B. S. by the Faculty of State College.

Institute Notes.

Mrs. J. M. Batten and Miss Jennie Davis came on Friday to visit Miss Mabel Batten, Inst., '97.
The Class Day exercises of the Senior class will be held in Bucknell Hall on Monday morning at 8.15.
Miss Flossie Taggart, of Emporium, is spending Commencement week with her sister, Miss Birdie Taggart.
Last Monday evening Mrs. Larison was given a surprise party by the teachers and girls who live in the Institute. After the refreshments of strawberries and cake, toasts were given by Miss Bell on "Auld Lang Syne," Miss Hanna on "Mrs. Larison as I have known her," Miss Vaughn on "The Two Years Past," Miss Wells, "The Literature Class," Miss O'Donnell, "The Class of '97." Dr. Aviragnet also made some appropriate remarks, and then on behalf of the teachers and girls who board at the Institute, Miss Wheeler presented Mrs. Larison with a souvenir of the occasion as a token of their love for her.
H. H. Bower was recently initiated into Phi Gamma Delta.
Rev. Samuel S. Merrimen, S. S., is visiting at the home of his parents.
Edward Moyes, of Norristown, is the guest of his friend J. Brown Martin.
I. A. DeWitt, 1900, expects to teach near Bloomsburg during the summer.
Miss Serrill, of Phila., is spending a few days with her friend Miss Kelly.
Dr. Samuel Bolton, S. S., wife and child, Phila., are the guests of Prof. Owens.
Dr. Ballentine, '72, Principal of the Clarion State Normal school, is the guest of Dr. Bartol.
Dr. Spratt, of Phila., arrived this afternoon. He will be the guest of Prof. Martin during commencement.
Instructor Davis gave his class in Bacteriology a pleasant surprise. Some time ago he took a picture of the class and yesterday morning he presented each member of the class with a photograph of the class.

Academy Notes.

Forster has been pledged to Kappa Sigma.
Harold Barnes and John Davis have left for home.
Pitts will represent the Academy at Northfield this year.
We extend our heartfelt sympathy to our companion, Ray Patchen, who was called home, owing to the sudden death of his father.
After the Track Team had its picture taken at Ginter & Cook's, an election for captain for next year was held, which resulted in the selection of Elliott, '98. As most of the material which won the '96 and '97 pennant goes out this year, hard work will be required to turn out a winning team for '98.

CHARLES A. HESS,

THE
Gentleman's Tailor;
Market Street.
Lewisburg; Penna.
WE MAKE SUITS THAT FIT.
Go to T. G. EVANS'
UNIVERSITY BOOK STORE.
For your Text Books
and Stationery.
For a good
Livery Turnout
Go to
W. W. BROWN.
North 3d Street, Lewisburg, Pa.
P. W. Himmereich,
Dealer in
DRY GOODS,
GROCERIES, ETC.
Trunks, Satchels and Traveling Bags
CAMERON HOUSE.
T. F. Moyer, Prop.
Lately Renovated and Remodeled.
Commercial Sample Room.
Located in Business Centre.
Free Bus and Telephone.
Electric Lights, Steam Heat.
Lewisburg, Pa.
Ginter & Cook
The Face Takers
Have been selected
Official Photographers
For Class of '97
416 Market Street, CALL OFTEN.
For an EASY SHAVE go to
MILLER, The Barber.
North 2d St., Lewisburg, Pa.

Bucknell University,

John Howard Harris, President.

THE COLLEGE.

Four courses leading to degrees in Arts, Philosophy and Science; over one hundred subjects of study; separate Laboratory, Gymnasium and Observatory buildings; large library; ample endowment; modern facilities.

THE ACADEMY.

A preparatory school for young men and boys. Fits for college and the best technical schools.

THE INSTITUTE.

A boarding school for young women; three courses of study leading to diplomas. Art studio.

THE SCHOOL OF MUSIC.

For both sexes. Offers graduating courses in music; courses in piano, pipe-organ, violin, harmony, etc., leading to diploma. The school is under the direction of a French artist, assisted by a corps of excellent teachers.

For catalogue and further information concerning any department of the University, address,

William C. Gretzinger, Registrar,
Lewisburg, Pennsylvania